

Hires Rootbeer advertisement with image of a bottle and text: 'Straw Hats are here drink Hires Rootbeer'

Advertisement for eye examinations and spectacles, featuring an illustration of a person's face and text: 'Arguments are Unnecessary to convince those who are already receiving the benefits conferred by using our eyeglasses and spectacles.'

Advertisement for Dr. L. B. Phelps, Ophthalmologist, located at 124 East Main Street.

Dentistry advertisement featuring an illustration of a woman's face and text: 'Our Best Display is made by those who have had work done here. They can be seen all over town but it will not be known in every case that they had recourse to Dentistry.'

Advertisement for DRS. HURD & HYNDS, located at Cor. First and Main Street.

Advertisement for Lacqueret, a product for restoring floors, furniture and woodwork.

Advertisement for James Skegg, a wallpaper and paint store located at 116 E. Main Street.

Advertisement for TINKER & ARMSTRONG, Painters and General Blacksmiths.

Advertisement for The Mutual Benefit, featuring low prices and cash dealing.

Advertisement for Roy R. Waterbury, located at 3 & 5 East State Street.

Times-Republican

Published daily by the Times-Republican Printing Co. Terms: One Year by Mail, $7.00; By the Month, $1.00; Delivered by Carrier, by the Month, $1.50.

Announcements of church and social entertainments, secular meetings, cards of thanks, obituary resolutions, and similar notices.

THE CITY IN BRIEF

Dr. Bullard, osteopath, 28 East Main. Dr. Bullard, osteopath, 28 East Main. Coca Cola tickets taken at the soda fountain of George P. Powers.

Assistant General Freight Agent H. P. Marsh, of the Central, was in the city yesterday on business. Tomorrow only, ladies' low-neck, sleeveless union suits, trimmed with lace, at 17 cents, Archie Parker.

The last ten days several have taken the trouble to make appointments with Dr. Wood, the eye and ear specialist, before calling, and have saved much inconvenience to all. Others kindly remember and do likewise.

Work on the new Iowa Central coal chutes is progressing very satisfactorily and in a few more weeks the carpenters will have the work above the foundation completed.

Engineer Ed Davis, of the Central, whose home is in Hampton, arrived in the city Tuesday evening and joined Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith, of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Williams, of Oskaloosa, leaving at night for Clinton to attend the funeral of the late Guy Benjamin, which will be held today.

M. A. Fisher, of Des Moines, the Register and Leader circulator, who was assaulted in this city a few weeks ago by W. L. and Earl Staves, arrived in this city this morning and will remain until after the preliminary hearing of the defendants in the case for assault with intent to commit murder, in which he will be the principal witness for the state.

In the neighborhood of 150 screaming, shouting little penitents of the Methodist Sunday school went on the special train this morning to Marietta, where they spent the day romping un-tilt and then returning to the city. A big picnic dinner was enjoyed at noon, and during the afternoon a program of races and other events was given.

Miss Abbie Bay went to Union on Tuesday evening for a few days' visit with friends. Mrs. A. K. Clark, of Cedar Rapids, spent Tuesday in the city looking after her business interests.

Mr. Fletcher Mead returned Tuesday evening from the Grinnell, where he has been for a few days' visit with friends. Miss Harriet Wind, of Chicago, arrived in the city Tuesday and will spend a week with Miss Nora Miller.

George J. Allen, ophthalmologist. Tomorrow ladies' union suits at 17 cents. Archie Parker. Light weight trousers at clearing sale prices.

The Four Track News for July, best yet. Sold by news dealers. Five cents a copy. Coall! Coall! Best of all grades at lowest prices.

The regular monthly meeting of the executive board of the Marshalltown Women's Club was held this morning at the club's parlors.

The new town of Liddersdale, Carroll county, on the Omaha extension of the Chicago Great Western railway will be opened to the public by an auction sale of lots about the middle of July.

Miss Martha Travis, of Owatonna, Minn., who has been in the city for a brief visit with her aunt, Mrs. Charles Wait, and family, left today for Billings, Mont., where she will make her future home.

The organized Charity Association held its first meeting in its new rooms at 404 May Street Tuesday afternoon with a fair sized attendance.

Frank Gard, who was called to Omaha by the death of his brother, Isaac Gard, Monday, arrived home with the body Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Abbie Bay went to Union on Tuesday evening for a few days' visit with friends. Mrs. A. K. Clark, of Cedar Rapids, spent Tuesday in the city looking after her business interests.

Mr. D. W. Norris, of Grinnell, was in the city Tuesday night as the guest of his son, Mr. D. W. Norris, Jr. Mr. Fletcher Mead returned Tuesday evening from the Grinnell, where he has been for a few days' visit with friends.

Miss Harriet Wind, of Chicago, arrived in the city Tuesday and will spend a week with Miss Nora Miller. Misses Anna and Ida Reker, of Chicago, spent Tuesday in the city, leaving for a few days' visit with friends.

Mr. Herbert Parker went to Ames Tuesday evening, where he will remain for a visit of a few days with his friend, Mr. Archie Nelson. Mr. George A. Bowman left Tuesday evening for points in Texas county, Mo. where he will remain for a few days looking after business matters.

Mrs. Frederick Brueger, of Chicago, arrived in the city this morning and will remain for a visit of ten days with her parents, Colonel and Mrs. J. M. Parker.

Meeks, returned to Webster City Tuesday evening. Mrs. Reulhard will remain in Webster for a short visit before returning to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Sloan and sons Herbert and Houser, who have been spending a few days at Crystal Lake, Minn., and Clear Lake, arrived home this morning.

Mrs. J. W. Howe, of Green Mountain, spent Tuesday in the city as the guest of her daughter, Miss Georgia Howe, manager of the Postal Telegraph Company.

Mrs. George Tingley, of Minneapolis, who has been visiting relatives in this city for a few days, spent Tuesday night in this city with friends and left for her home this morning.

Landlord H. Birdsall, of the Pilgrim, arrived home Tuesday evening from Davenport, where he has been for a few days' visit with relatives.

Mrs. J. E. Cox, of Belle Plaine, who has been spending several weeks in this city with her mother, Mrs. Chloe Bloomfield, returned from Galesburg, Ill., on Tuesday evening after a short visit there.

Mrs. Hannah Patterson, of Little Falls, Minn., who has been spending the past month with her sister, Mrs. A. E. Woodworth, and niece, Mrs. H. G. Brant, in this city, left for her home this morning.

Rev. Daniel McGurk, pastor of the Methodist church at Gladbrook, who has been a guest at the home of W. H. Wilcox, four miles southeast of this city, for a few days, returned to his home this morning.

Miss Edith Hazard, until recently of Hull, a member of this year's class of Grinnell College, was in the city this evening, arriving from Galesburg, Ill., and leaving on a later train for Portland, Ore., where she will make her home.

Mrs. Ida Landis and daughter Emma, of Eldora, were in the city over night, the guests of Deputy Sheriff and Mrs. C. S. Hutson, leaving this morning for Niobrara, Neb., where they will remain for a few weeks' visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yeager, of Grinnell, spent Tuesday afternoon in the city, the guests of Miss Belle McNeel, being on their way home from Boone, where they have been for a few days' visit with Mr. John Yeager.

Mrs. H. E. Simkins and daughter, Leona, left Tuesday night for Denver, where they will remain for a visit of three or four weeks.

Very Remarkable Cure of Diarrhoea. "About six years ago for the first time in my life I had a sudden and severe attack of diarrhoea," says Mrs. Alice Miller, of Morgan, Tex.

Special Reduced Excursion Rates Will be in effect from all points on the Chicago & North-Western Railway for the occasion named below:

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., July 7th to 10th. Nobles of the Mystic Shrine. Denver, July 9th to 13th. United Christian Endeavor Society.

Crushed Stone for Concrete. The Barber Asphalt Paving Company, which has a large contract with the city, closed a contract with the LeGrand Quarry Company on Tuesday for 500 cars of crushed stone for the company's plant at Quarry.

Your Druggist Will Buy It Back. You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Wonderful Treatment That Cures Catarrh or Coughs Nothing. The wonderful germ-killing power and healing effects of eucalyptus oil in the treatment of diseases of the respiratory organs are most fully obtained in Hyomel.

Very Low Rates to Baltimore, Md. Via the Northwestern Line. Excursion tickets will be sold July 17 and 18, with very favorable return limits.

Half Rates to State Firemen's Tournament at Sioux City, Iowa. Via the Northwestern Line. Excursion tickets will be sold at one fare for the round trip July 27 and 28, limited for return until August 1, inclusive.

Notice to Country Club Members. The regular weekly dance will occur at the Country Club Thursday evening, July 9. Hack will run down at 3:30, 5:30 and 7:30.

Very Low Rates to Detroit, Mich. Via the Northwestern Line. Excursion tickets will be sold July 14, 15 and 16, limited to return until July 17, inclusive.

Change of Time. The Chicago Great Western has a new schedule in effect on June 28. For the new figures consult the time card in these columns.

Marshalltown Markets. Quotations on Staple Products Having a Market in Marshalltown. The following prices quoted are as nearly correct as it is possible to obtain from Marshalltown dealers.

GRAIN. W. H. Sloppy quotes the following prices: Oats—30 cents. Corn—40 cents. Barley—40 cents. Rye—45 cents.

LIVE STOCK. Brittain & Co. telephoned the T-R today at 3 o'clock that they were paying the following prices for hogs in wagonload lots.

POULTRY, EGGS AND BUTTER. Armour & Co. are paying the following prices to farmers for different varieties of poultry, eggs and butter:

STREET FAIR AND CARNIVAL. Waterloo, Iowa, July 6th to 11th, 1903. One fare and a third for the round trip via Chicago Great Western railway.

A Million a Month. Few people will have any quick conception of the enormous significance of the word "million."

Excursion to St. Paul and Minneapolis Via Chicago Great Western. Saturday, July 25th, 1903, three dollars for the round trip.

Cholera Infantum. This has long been regarded as one of the most dangerous and fatal diseases to which infants are subject.

Scrofula. Few are entirely free from it. It may develop so slowly as to cause little if any disturbance during the whole period of childhood.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. The best of all medicines for all humors. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes digestion and assimilation perfect.

KNABE PIANOS. Anyone wishing to purchase a high-grade piano should get factory prices on Knabes from our store.

Bad Coughs advertisement: 'Neglected colds always lead to something serious. They run into chronic bronchitis, pneumonia, asthma, or consumption. Don't wait. Take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and stop your cough.'

D. C. Wilbur advertisement: 'Our new stock of Lace curtains, Rugs and linoleum is in, and we want you to call and see them. D. C. Wilbur. Waterloo, Iowa, July 6th to 11th, 1903.'

TO THE PUBLIC advertisement: 'Having recently purchased the stock of goods owned by Melvin, Soliday & Co., and not wishing to continue the business I will place on sale the entire stock of goods at actual wholesale prices.'

F. H. Hessel advertisement: 'Successor to MELVIN, SOLIDAY & CO. M. CRAHAN, Manager. 122-124 E. Main. We have Coal to Sell Fresh mined Hard coal ALL KINDS OF EASTERN SOFT COAL together with BEST GRADES FROM IOWA AND ILLINOIS'

White Transfer Line advertisement: 'The Spirit of "76" should be shown on the Fourth of July against the tyranny of druggery that a coal fire entails, by securing liberty from its enervating effects by setting up a gas range in your kitchen and enjoying cool comfort on sultry days when the kitchen baking, washing, ironing and cooking has to be dispensed with. A touch of the match, it is lighted—a twist of the wrist, it is quenched; surely the gas stove is one of woman's rights that she has obtained. Marshalltown Light, Power & Ry. Co. White Transfer Line. GEO. W. BEASLEY. 202 East Main Street, MARSHALLTOWN. Storage for Household Goods and Merchandise.'

For Sale by C. J. Lander, Druggist