

RICH MEN ARE NOT ALL HAPPY.

Crossus, King of Lydia, Had Troubles of His Own, and There Are Others. Crossus, the John D. Rockefeller of the kingdom of Lydia, was very well-to-do in worldly goods and chattels.

Many of the rich man's troubles today come from high living and could be avoided. They are brought on by eating all kinds of rich, heavy foods at irregular times, lack of proper exercise, undue mental strain, unwholesome stimulants, etc., and are commonly known as indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the certain relief of dyspepsia, rich and poor alike. There is no such thing as stopping their onward progress now.

The story of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can be told in a word. They actually do the work that the weak and wasted stomach is unable to do and allow it to recuperate and regain its strength.

HIS LIFE THREATENED

Liquor Men at Davenport Alleged to Be Seeking Death of Rev. Gieglinger

REWARD OFFERED FOR HIS LIFE

It is Said $10,000 Has Been Offered to the Person Who Will Kill the Leader of the Crusade at Davenport—Sensational Turr in the Reform Movement.

Davenport, Dec. 18.—A new and sensational turn has been taken in the reform movement inaugurated by Rev. Gieglinger. A report has reached the city that after a person has been arrested for the sale of liquor, the saloonkeepers against whom injunction proceedings have been brought are threatening his life and had stated that he would give $10,000 to any one who would shoot the priest down.

Rev. Gieglinger stated yesterday afternoon that no complaints had reached him as yet, in regard to saloons remaining open after midnight, and he believes that they are all now complying with this requirement. In regard to gambling, Rev. Gieglinger stated that nothing would be done until the next term of court, which will be in January, but that all who operate gambling houses in this city will be liable to indictment by the grand jury.

In regard to the Turner Hall and the dances held at that place, Rev. Gieglinger stated that an agreement would be reached whereby there will be no prosecution as long as no liquor is sold to outsiders after midnight and that only those in actual attendance at the dancing parties will be allowed this privilege. Also that after a person leaves the dance, that they will not be allowed to return. The saloon and bar room on the ground floor, is already observing the 12 o'clock closing movement and will continue to do so.

They leave for the Philippines December 24. Both men are graduates of the civil engineering department at the Iowa State College, Ames, Iowa, and recently their appointments as results of civil service examinations taken recently. Mr. T. T. Fitch, of Sac City, another graduate of this department, has received an appointment in the United States coast and geodetic survey.

"FENCE" AT COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Saloon in That City Received Stolen Goods From Clinton Gang. Clinton, Dec. 18.—A Council Bluffs saloon, kept by Fred Bunting, was yesterday declared to be one of the most notorious "fences" in the west, by a witness in a Conroy trial. This testimony was given by George B. Burrier, a former member of the Conroy gang, who was convicted for one of its crimes at Clinton and is now in the penitentiary.

Miss of the Clinton swag, Burrier said, was sent to Bunting's place in Council Bluffs, where it was disposed of. Thieves, he said, congregated at Bunting's place, and he ran gambling devices at fairs.

"Do you think a gambler a thief?" asked the cross-examiner. "I never knew one that wasn't," was the significant reply.

Burrier described the series of burglaries at Clinton, and declared that Conroy supposed to be a respectable resident of the place, planned them and helped dispose of the goods. Cross-examination failed to shake his testimony.

Burrier admitted having been a burglar in five states and having entered a total of thirty-six years in penitentiary sentences.

GAMBLING WIFE'S MONEY.

Des Moines Man Drops $1,900 in a Gambling Den. Des Moines, Dec. 18.—George Cox, 1485 Locust street, who formerly conducted a drug store on Fourth street, pleaded guilty to being found in a gambling house at 212 and 214 West Fourth street, before Justice Duncan, in police court, and was sentenced to thirty days in jail.

Cox pleaded for leniency on account of his dire straits, and that he and four children, begging for permission to pay a fine, but was refused, the judge sternly ordering him sent to jail, with the statement that he could consult his attorney on the matter later.

Cox was arrested Monday evening and on being searched was found to have ten cents of the $1,900 said to have been given him by his wife with which to purchase a store.

would only go to your wife and borrow the money. As for the disgrace of your children, you have already disgraced them enough. "I had no intention of doing any harm there, judge. I only dropped in for a moment. Why do you permit such things to run?" "You never asked a more sensible question in your life. Why are they permitted to run? You will have to ask the administration that question. I cannot answer it. Officer, take him below."

ICE HARVEST BEGUN.

Clear Lake, Dec. 18.—The ice harvest began in trim earnest Thursday when Dan Howe, of Mason City, put a force of forty men to work cutting ice for his Mason City ice houses. There is a heavy and it is as clear as crystal. The electric road has put on special ice trains to handle the business.

The Grinnell News.

Special to Times-Republican. Grinnell, Dec. 18.—All across save yesterday from a trip thru the Second district, friends of Judge C. M. Waterman, of Davenport, will urge him for the republican nomination to oppose Judge Martin J. Wade for re-election next fall. The gentleman stated that there was no secrecy among the party leaders about the matter, and they are already laying plans for the campaign on the basis of Judge Waterman's candidacy.

CREDIT DUE TO SOMEBODY.

Where Did We Get the Right to Borrow in Mathematics? "Where did we get the right to borrow in mathematics?" asked a man who takes an interest in curious things.

"We always pay back a thing we sometimes fail to do in other relationships in life—but where did we get the right to borrow in the first instance? Take a simple illustration in subtraction. The teacher will tell the pupil to subtract 4,822 from 6,421. We put the problem down after this fashion:

-4,822

Here we have the problem and the result. We know that we cannot say "two from one." So we borrow one and say "two from eleven," and we get the result "nine." We pay back promptly for instead of saying "two from two leaves nothing," we say "three from two leaves nine." But by what authority do we say this? When did we discover that this method would give us correct mathematical results? That's what I would like to know. Here we have one of the problems which the doctrine of evolution may deal with. I suppose some old fellow in the long ago found that it was necessary to devise a method of meeting this mathematical emergency, so he hit upon the idea of borrowing from one row of figures and paying back to the next, and so met and conquered a very serious difficulty. The idea originated with some one, and to that some one we owe something. Mathematics would be a meaningless science without this convenient plan, just as other things would be useless but for the clever inventions of men who have gone before. There is the bug, for instance, which stands for nothing, the eighth, that round symbol 0. It has a history. We know how they calculated before it came into existence. But I will not tell you about it now. I was speaking about the borrowing habit in mathematics, and that is enough to think about at one time. Do you know how and when it originated?—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

OPPONENT FOR WADE

Judge C. M. Waterman, of Davenport, Is Urged For Republican Nomination

DEMOCRATIC POLITICIAN'S VIEW

With a Davenport Man Running on the Republican Ticket, Scott County Hangs in the Balance and Muscatine County's Invariable Big Republican Majority Makes Them Tremble.

Special to Times-Republican.

Des Moines, Dec. 18.—According to the statements of a leading democratic politician, who returned to Des Moines yesterday from a trip thru the Second district, friends of Judge C. M. Waterman, of Davenport, will urge him for the republican nomination to oppose Judge Martin J. Wade for re-election next fall. The gentleman stated that there was no secrecy among the party leaders about the matter, and they are already laying plans for the campaign on the basis of Judge Waterman's candidacy.

Two years ago Mr. William Huffman, of Muscatine county, was the nominee, and it is said by the democrats that according to pledges made then Scott county was conceded the next candidate.

Although Judge Wade has a plurality of about 1,100 in the district, his vote was more than 2,000 less than the vote for Henry Volmer, the democratic candidate in 1899. Thus, with a full vote cast, as there will be in the contest promises to be a spirited one. The democrats claim that they feel certain of Iowa, Johnson, Jackson, and Clinton counties, "but," said the democratic candidate, "with a Davenport man running on the republican ticket, Scott county hangs in the balance, and the big republican plurality which Muscatine county always gives, makes us tremble."

Journal Clerk Fight.

The fight for journal clerk in the house seems to have developed into a fight between Harry E. Griffin, of Maquoketa, and Benjamin Harriman, of Ringgold county.

There are two journal clerks, and with three candidates in the field, one of them is bound to be disappointed. The third candidate is Ralph W. Clock, of Hampton, who seems to have things in his own favor.

Mr. Griffin held the position of journal clerk once before, and filled it satisfactorily. He is urging the good taste of giving him another term.

In the absence of large conflicts in the convening of the legislature, house members are permitting themselves to take more than usual interest in the fight, and the contest is likely to be entertaining.

All three of the candidates are spending a good deal of time in Des Moines, and are losing no opportunity to enlist influential support in their behalf.

SAYS BARRETT IS WRONG.

Dubuque School Superintendent Takes Exceptions to Claims Made.

Dubuque, Dec. 18.—County Superintendent Schroeder takes issue with State Superintendent Barrett in regard to the latter's statement that state teacher wages are lower in this county than in most of the counties in the state. While discussing the question of teachers' wages thru the columns of a Des Moines paper Mr. Barrett is quoted as saying: "Scarcely another county in the state needs to have the subject of teachers' wages given greater publicity than does Dubuque. Last year the report submitted by the county superintendent showed that the lowest monthly compensation paid any teacher in the state was in that county. The compensation is reported as $13.33 per month, while in this year's report fifty-three schools are reported as paying a monthly compensation of $25 or less."

Superintendent Schroeder declares that there are only three or four teachers in the county that receive less than $25 per month. He says 160 certificates have been issued to teachers outside the city and of this number 136 are employed at the present time. There is not a school in the county that is not a teacher. Mr. Schroeder says that it doesn't look as if wages were low in Dubuque county when 123 teachers from Polk county have come here to teach. One of this number receives $70 and the other $45 per month.

So it will be seen that while teachers' wages are low in Iowa, Dubuque county does not pay the lowest wages by any means, as there are only three or four schools in the county where the teacher receives less than $25 a month.

HENDERSON FOR CONGRESS.

Some Talk of Again Making Him a Leader in Third District.

Dubuque, Dec. 18.—It is understood that a new effort will be made by the republican leaders of the Third district to have Colonel Henderson, who is spending the holidays in this city, run for congress two years hence. The colonel says it is his purpose to come to Dubuque to reside permanently in the near future, and his intimate friends here interpret this to mean that he can be induced to represent the district in congress again.

He denies the gossip relative to his United States senatorial aspirations to succeed William B. Allison when the latter steps out, altho the fact that he intends to take up his residence in Dubuque again lends color to these rumors.

There is not the least doubt of the nomination and election of Colonel Henderson should he again aspire to congressional honors, as the feeling that was engendered against him has subsided.

New Corporations.

Des Moines, Dec. 18.—Articles filed with the secretary of state: Salt Lake and Bristol Telephone Company of Work county, Lake Mills, capital, $5,000, President, O. T. Groe; vice president, C. K. Paulson; secretary, A. T. Groe; treasurer, Octavius T. Groe.

Flaves Mercantile company, Plover; capital, $10,000, Incorporated, A. O. Garlock, Guy and Corn Barker.

Despair exists in the ranks of the pill mixers. The examinations given by the pharmacy commissioners to the candidates for the position of pharmacist, which would stand behind the prescription case with authority to mix doses are proving extremely strenuous. Out of those who took the recent examination only fifteen passed out of a class of sixty-three. They were: R. B. Tubor, Independence; Edward Swartz, Silver City; Fred Holland, Des Moines; Edward R. Poschke, Nashua; W. Schuyler, Sergeant Bluff; Elmer Fisher, Delta; Edgar Shinn, West Bend; Benhart L. Neary, Lake Mills; C. H. Ostrop, Cedar Rapids; Albert P. Greiser, Des Moines; George S. Haveland, Des Moines; John W. Zwanitzer, Frederick; L. H. Rueszign, Webster City; James M. Garlick, Harlan; N. J. Godfrey, Livermore.

FARMERS' SOCIETY HAS A FIGHT.

Co-operative Institution at Rockwell City Confronts Serious Questions.

Mason City, Dec. 18.—A great deal of interest is already being centered in the coming annual meeting of the Rockwell Farmers' Co-operative Society. The board was unable to handle the question of extending their business so as to include clothing, boots and shoes etc., and have relegated the entire matter to the annual meeting. President Brown is against the innovation, and so are a great many of the members, but the strength is very evenly divided, and this will make the annual meeting one of exceeding interest. Joseph Frigg, the prominent agricultural writer, has advised the society to confine their efforts to their present successful channels and not to interfere with the business of the merchants of the city. The founder of the society, Hon. N. Denmore, has given the same advice. The fight to extend the business is led by Agent Frank Campbell and Vice President Daniel Cahalan.
