Yesterday's Results. Marshalltown 2, Fort Dodge 1. Burlington 3, Keokuk 4. Boone 4, Waterloo 2. Ottumwa 3, Oskaloosa 2.

A perfect day, a crowd of over a thousand, and a victory for the Grays, made of the opening of the Iowa State League in this city a grand success, and furnished one of the best exhibitions of ball ever seen on a local diamond.

The Grays broke away with one on the get-off. Wilson drew a pass and took second on Williams' bunt. Warner hit safe and the big right fielder drove over the plate on the throw in.

That tally's mate, which had come near cropping out once or twice before, came to light in the seventh. Snooks hit to Jones, and before he could separate the sphere from among his feet Snooks was there. Swaim's bunt put him on second, and he scored on Williams' drive to the outfield.

While the visitors were guilty of three misplays, all were excusable, and were compensated by fast work at times when most needed. Williams, Taylor, and Mackey were the bright performers. Taylor's catch of Slear's long drive was a thriller. The details of the score were as follows:

Burlington Trims Keokuk. Keokuk was all fixed up to have an easy time with Burlington yesterday in the opening game of the series at home, but instead the Burlington club battled Letherby out of the lot and won by 8 to 4. The score by innings:

Keokuk 1 0 0 0 3 0 0 0-13 Burlington 3 0 1 0 0 3 0 1-8

4 to 3 game. The teams broke about even on the honors, aside from the score getting. A parade with two bands, opened the game. The score by innings:

Standpaters Win From Quakers. By outbidding and outfielding the home team yesterday, Ottumwa won the first of its series at Oskaloosa. The score was 9 to 2. Wilkinson, for the Quakers, was all but knocked out of the game. Hobbs succeeded him, fared but little better. The score by innings:

R.H.E. Oskaloosa 1 1 0 0 0 0 1 0-2 4 5 Ottumwa 0 0 4 3 0 0 0 0-9 13

Superintendent Collins' idea is the most excellent one and he might well be followed by many more Iowa superintendents. There is no getting around the fact that the pupils of the schools today do not receive instruction in some of the more important branches that they should.

FOR MEMORIAL DAY

Plans About Completed For the Annual Observance In Honor of Soldier Dead

EXERCISES AT THE HOME Program at Riverside, in the Forenoon, Will Consist Only of the Decoration of Soldiers' Graves—General Program at the Soldiers' Home in the Afternoon—Post's Appeal to Citizens.

The program for Memorial day, Monday, May 30, has been prepared by the joint committees of Frank M. Thomas Post, No. 94, Frank M. Thomas W. R. C. and Phil Sheridan Post, No. 452, G. A. R., the latter of the Soldiers' Home. The general observance of the day will be at the Soldiers' Home in the afternoon, and nothing will be done by the posts and corps of the city at Riverside, excepting the decoration of the graves. The school children of the city will be invited to take charge of the decorating.

At the Soldiers' Home in the afternoon the following program has been arranged: Assembly call at 1:45. March to the Home gate, to meet delegations and citizens. March to the cemetery, the Home members acting as an escort of honor. Prayer—William Goemans, chaplain Phil Sheridan Post, No. 452. Reading of Lincoln's address. Gettysburg speech—Comrade John L. Woy. Strewing of flowers on the graves by pupils of Hartwell school. Sons of Veterans and veterans of Spanish-American war have been invited to escort children and carry the flags. During the service the band will play a dirge. Services in honor of the unknown dead—Frank M. Thomas W. R. C., No. 94. Salute by firing squad and taps by bugles. March to Cottage Grove park, led by the band. Prayer—Rev. Nathaniel Pye. Music—Soldiers' Home band. Song—Home Glee Club. Memorial Address—Rev. O. H. L. Mason, Boone, formerly chaplain Forty-ninth Iowa volunteer infantry. Song—Home Glee Club. Music—Soldiers' Home band. Benediction. Col. G. C. Horton, commandant of the Iowa Soldiers' Home, will act as officer of the day, and Capt. A. W. Martin will be chief marshal.

An Appeal by the Post. Frank M. Thomas Post, No. 94, G. A. R., at a recent meeting, unanimously adopted a committee's draft of an appeal to the citizens of Marshalltown. The appeal is for a proper observance of Memorial day, and the post sends a copy to each pastor of the city, with the request that it be read and emphasized before the congregation tomorrow, and also requests the publication in each of the city papers. Copies have also been placed in the hands of Mayor L. B. Jones, with Superintendent William I. Crane, of the city schools, and Principal E. U. Graff, of the high school, together with the earnest request that they aid, as far as is in their power, in the sacred observance of the day. The appeal, as prepared by the post, is as follows:

"Dear Friends: From 1861 to 1865 the life of this nation hung tremblingly in the balance. To rescue it from death large armies and a gigantic navy, reaching into the millions, were organized out of the loyal men of the country. For four long years war flamed on thousands of battlefields; the heavens were darkened with the smoke of battle, and the earth reeled and staggered like a drunken man beneath the thundering peals of maddened artillery. Imagination was paralyzed by the extent of its carnage. Five hundred thousand lives and billions of treasures were poured out to appease the greedy maw of the vulture war, and atone for the nation's life.

"On May 5, 1868, Gen. John A. Logan, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, issued an order fixing May 30 that year for strewing the graves of those who had fallen in defense of their country with flowers. Iowa and many other states have, by legislative enactment, made May 30 a legal holiday for the purpose of keeping fresh in the memories of the people of this country the patriotic service of those who counted not their own lives dearer than their country. The recalling of the valorous deeds of the past, the precious memories of fallen comrades, who touched elbows with us as we faced the leaden hail, and the bestrewal of the flowers over their dust makes May 30 to us a sacred day. The perversion or desecration of it fills our hearts with sorrow and anguish. You will not censure us for regarding the indulgence in hilarious sports, such as horse racing, dancing, base ball playing and kindred amusements, as a serious desecration of the spirit, object and use of the day and an insult to the memory of our patriotic dead."

"And now permit us, who went thru the bloody struggle, giving the best years of our early life to our country's cause, to implore you by the severed ties of sacred affection; by the erasped clasp of brotherhood that was present in all assemblies; by the fatherless childhood that sat in groups at the fireside; by the tears of sorrow that sought the far-away graves of our noble dead; by the love that you bear for your country and its flag, and the bloodshed of the nation's patriots, that you refrain from the desecration of Memorial day. "GEORGE NEIL, "Commander. "JOHN E. WILDMAN, "Adjutant."
