THE CITY IN BRIEF

Bed chambers at Culley's store.
Dr. N. W. Geitz, surgeon, physician.
Dr. Mighell, surgeon and physician.
D. A. Collison, dentist, 10 W. Main.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Landis, 109 1/2 East Church street, are the parents of a son, born today.
Try Richellee coffee if you want good return for the money—20, 25, 30 and 40 cents per pound. Reynolds & Sheldon.

The Ladies' Guild of St. Paul's church will hold a rummage sale at 115 West Main, beginning Wednesday morning, at 8:00 o'clock.
We bought all they had left, at half their value, ladies' hand embroidered linen handkerchiefs, etc. for tomorrow at 10 cents each, worth 25 cents. Archie Parker.

The funeral of the late H. W. Kersten, the young man who suicided Sunday night, was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of the deceased's parents, William Kersten, one mile north of State Center.

The Ladies' Reading Circle was entertained by Mrs. Jennie Waldo, Monday afternoon. German history was the subject taken up, by Mrs. Mary Battis and Mrs. J. R. Bradbury reading from Augusta Hale Gifford's book on "Germany, Her People and Their Story."

Mr. T. C. Meader, clerk of courts of Hamilton county, passed thru the city Monday evening, on his way to Oskaloosa, where this morning he was joined by Mr. and Mrs. George Meader, Lou Stout, Peter Petrick and Jacob Bremner, all of Eldora, and left for St. Louis. The party will do the exposition together, and will remain for a week.

We have just received from an eastern manufacturer another shipment of fine suits of all the latest fashions. Women's runabout suits, director or vest style, tourist suits in black, blue and brown chevrons, runabout or tourist suits in fancy tweeds and manish goods. Come while the selection is large. Hawkeye Store, second floor, cloak department.

Miss Carolyn Anderson was hostess to the members of the Literary Club at their regular meeting Monday evening, and gave an unusually well prepared and interesting talk on Sir Joshua Reynolds, under the subject of "Portrait Painters in English Art." Copies of his picture were shown in illustration of the talk. Light refreshments were served by the hostess. The meeting was cut rather short on account of the rain.

Miss Carrie Matson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Matson, 307 North Third avenue was 14 years old Monday day, and in honor of the event a party was given to a number of her young friends, in the evening. Each one presented her with a birthday gift, and the time was very pleasantly spent with games and music. Mrs. Matson served the party with light refreshments, assisted by Misses Frances Reimer and Anna Matson and Mrs. Cora Russell. The guests were: Margaret Swanson, May and Anna Holm, Bernice Stormes, Lillian and Clarence Peterson, Carrie and May Ramsson, Ida and Anna Jenkins, Hazel and Edna Reimer and Josie Gunzig.

W. S. Porter, of Eldora, who has been at Grand Lake, Col., since the 18th of May, arrived in the city Monday afternoon, and returned to his home in the evening. Mr. Porter has had a most delightful summer in Colorado, and has enjoyed the best of fishing and hunting, which to his mind is the proper way to enjoy an outing. He took home with him by permission of the game warden, seven mountain trout, which he caught near Grand Lake. The fish were taken overland eighty-five miles by horseback, and stage, and 1,100 miles by rail, and were in a fine state of preservation here, having been packed dry, in hay, with plenty of air. In the hunting line Mr. Porter, with his Savage 30-30, got two fine bears. Bears and mountain lions are about the only big game in Colorado that can be shot, as there will be no open season for mountain sheep and elk until next fall. A $500 fine for violation of the law makes it risky business to shoot out of season in Colorado. Mrs. Porter and daughter Hortense, who were also at Grand Lake for the summer, arrived home about a week ago. Mrs. Porter's health was greatly benefited by the climate in the west.

George J. Allen, ophthalmologist.
Wm. Battin, 5 per cent farm loan.
Jelly glasses and fruit jars at Culley's.

Dr. Burkhardt, osteopath 302 West Main.
See Lander for glass of every description.

Remember the millinery opening at Sizer's, 124 West Main, Thursday, September 22.

Dr. C. B. Acker, dentist. Crown and bridge work. Examination free. Office over postoffice.

Don't miss our handkerchief sale tomorrow, the best bargains we have ever offered. Archie Parker.

The W. C. T. U. will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. A. C. Hittsbeck, 412 North Second street.

Hand embroidered unlaundried linen handkerchiefs, actual value 3 cents, tomorrow 10 cents each. Archie Parker.

Robert Dembow, of Albion, left today for Clinton, where he will attend the annual reunion of his old regiment, the Eighteenth Iowa Infantry.

For Sale—Two of the best residence lots in the city; each 60x150 feet, paving and sidewalk in N. W. corner Seventh and Main street. Inquire of Dr. Hynds.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Allen, of Boston, who have been visiting in California, are expected to arrive in the city today or Wednesday for a short visit with their cousin, Mrs. George Kime.

The funeral of Mrs. Michael Reusch will be held at the Methodist church in Albion Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. Goodell officiating. The interment will be in the Albion cemetery.

O. H. Hole left this morning for Wenatchee, Wash., where he will remain for a few weeks looking after property he owns near there. From there he will go to Los Angeles, to join Mrs. Hole, and will remain in California for the winter.

The Trades and Labor Assembly will have an entertainment in connection with their regular meeting Wednesday evening, September 21. A fine program has been arranged, consisting of music, reading, singing, speaking and vignettes. All union men are invited to attend. Admission free.

Ladies see the new line of Worth skirts made of black, blue and brown fancy chevrons; all wool manish mixtures in all fashionable shades and colors. The above are accurately copied from designs of exclusive creations of the best women tailors at home and abroad. Our prices always the lowest. Cloak department, Hawkeye Store, second floor.

The program for the annual convention of the Northeastern Iowa Teachers' Association, to be held at Dubuque, October 20-22, has been issued. Miss Nellie L. Smith, of the Rogers school, appears on the program to lead the discussion of a paper on "Handicraft Work in Primary Grades," which will be given by Miss Elizabeth Dorland, of West Union.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Giles, of Garfield, Wash., who have been in the city for a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Westenhaver, left today for their home, and will visit relatives there and at Eldora, for several days. Mr. and Mrs. Giles were accompanied to the city by their daughter, Mrs. Nina Copeland, of Winthrop, and son, Mr. Jason Giles.

Our guests recently accompanied to Union for interment, the body of the former's brother, the late Daniel Giles, who died in Washington.

George W. McNutt, of Des Moines, formerly chief of detectives of the capital city, and now a member of the city force, arrived in the city Monday evening, accompanied by Mrs. McNutt and daughter, Miss Blanche. Mr. and Mrs. McNutt and Miss McNutt expect to remain in the city for a few days, coming to see Mr. Ernest McNutt and Messrs. Hattie and Hazel McNutt, who are members of the Jack Hoeffler Company, which is filling an engagement at the Odeon. Mr. McNutt appears in light comedy and specialties, and the Misses McNutt in vaudeville with light speaking parts. The Misses McNutt are twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. McNutt, 16 years of age, and very pretty and charming young ladies.

Frank H. Fenner and Carey J. Brown, who are delegates to the ninth biennial convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen of the United States, Canada and Mexico, at Buffalo, N. Y., arrived in the city Monday evening, and were received by friends here. Mr. Fenner says that an immense amount of important business is being disposed of, and that the convention will probably not adjourn until the 29th.

Many pleasure trips out of Buffalo, N. Y., were made Monday evening, the party being enjoyed by the delegates, one of which was highly appreciated being a fast ride to Syracuse over the New York Central, made at the rate of sixty-two miles per hour. The mayor of Syracuse delivered an address of welcome to the visitors upon the arrival of the train, and a free trolley ride was taken to all parts of the city. About 1,500 delegates are in attendance at the convention.

Judging from the condition at the union passenger station Monday evening, when people desiring to go to the biennial convention of the Northeastern found themselves an hour behind the time for the train's departure, there is either a lack of newspaper readers or a great amount of carelessness on the part of travelers. Eight or ten people, who wanted to go to local points west, showed up at the station with the expectation of catching the train that has been leaving at 5:05.

When informed by Traincaller Deuelle that the train left at 4 o'clock they seemed greatly surprised, and began to condemn the railroad for its seeming laxity in carrying out its schedule. One old German woman, from State Center, expressed herself very feelingly, and while not in the best of English, perhaps, gave those about her to understand what she thought of railroads. The T-R announced the changes Saturday, as soon as they were known here, and the careful newspaper reader who went west Monday was at the station in ample time. The time of the local train west, on the new schedule, is 4 o'clock.

Hawkeye Store.
Have you seen the beautiful line of tourist coats at our store? If not, come and see them and get prices. Seeing is believing. The English, perhaps, gave those about her to understand what she thought of railroads. The T-R announced the changes Saturday, as soon as they were known here, and the careful newspaper reader who went west Monday was at the station in ample time. The time of the local train west, on the new schedule, is 4 o'clock.

Miss Mabel Brooks, of Algona, underwent a laparotomy at the St. Thomas hospital Monday. She is doing nicely.

Frank Williams left Monday evening for Ottumwa, where he will remain for a stay of several weeks, having charge of an Elzy & Dunn curb and gutter contract.

At Mrs. Coyle's millinery opening Thursday, Friday and Saturday, each lady will receive a numbered ticket. The lady holding the lucky number will be entitled to $5 in gold. Winning number will be published in Monday's T-R.

H. B. Westenhaver, who until recently has been an engineer on the Iowa Central, with a run out of this city, left here Monday for Moberly, Mo., where he will accept a run on the Washburn. Mrs. Westenhaver will join her husband later. They will make Moberly their home.

J. L. Treat, who has been in the city this summer, employed as a soda dispenser at B. A. Morgan's, left for Charles City today, where he will visit his parents. Mr. Treat will return to Chicago within the next week to take his former position in the Iroquois theater, which he held last winter, at the time of the terrible disaster. The Iroquois was opened Monday night for the first time since the fire.

JENKS WILL RESIST.
Files a Cross Bill to Suit for Divorce Brought by Wife.

Guy P. Jenks, the Des Moines barber, husband of Mrs. Della Jenks, the woman who abandoned her babe in this city a few weeks ago, by leaving it in the women's lavatory at the Great Western station, does not propose to permit his wife to secure a divorce from him on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment if he can help it, and Monday, at Waterloo, filed a cross bill in the Blackhawk county district court, in which he asks the divorce and the custody of his minor son.

The answer by cross-petition has been filed by Guy A. Jenks' attorneys, Murtugh & Merkle, in the case of Della Jenks vs. Guy P. Jenks for divorce. Mr. Jenks denies most of the allegations made in the rather sensational petition filed a few days ago by Mrs. Jenks' attorneys, in which the main reasons for a separation are given as the cruelty and inhuman treatment if he can help it, and Monday, at Waterloo, filed a cross bill in the Blackhawk county district court, in which he asks the divorce and the custody of his minor son.

The volume of the present season's early business far exceeds that of any previous year and affords overwhelming proof that we are correct in style, fit, finish and price. Come and inspect the line now. Hawkeye Store, second floor.

The Only Line With a World's Fair Station.
This refers to the Iowa Central railway and means:

First—The shortest line.
Second—The most comfortable route.
Third—Two fine thru trains direct to the gates of the fair.

Fourth—A saving of about three hours in time.
Fifth—You avoid the crowds at the union depot and on the street cars.

Sixth—You save money, by being landed just where you want to go.
There are many other reasons but "a word to the wise is sufficient."
