JAPS OCCUPY MUKDEN; FUSHUN ALSO TAKEN; RUSSIANS IN A ROUT

Kuropatkin's Forces, Fighting With the Energy of Despair, Unable to Hold Japs in Check

ONE CORPS ALMOST ANNIHILATED

Heroic Efforts of the Russians to Protect the Retreat Results In the Bloodiest Fighting of the Terrible Battle—Fleeing Army Is In Demoralized Condition and Is Attempting to Reach the Hills Northeast of Mukden—Believed Russians Will Attempt to Reach Kirin—Many Prisoners Taken.

BULLETIN.

Tokio, March 10.—The Japanese troops occupied Mukden at 10 o'clock Friday morning. The Russians are panic stricken. Thousands of prisoners, enormous quantities of stores and guns, have been captured.

Tokio, March 10.—Fushun was occupied by the Japs last night. Fighting continues on the heights north of Fushun.

New Chwang, March 10.—According to reliable information the Russians having been driven out of Mukden and Fushun and with the railroad cut, are retreating in a demoralized condition to the hill country towards the northeast. It is believed the Russians may attempt to reach Kirin, 225 miles northeast of Mukden, but a special Japanese corps (Probably Kawamura's force) threatens to cut them off. Kuraki, advancing northwest, is forcing the Russians against Nogi's army.

BULLETIN.

Paris, March 10.—The Russian embassy officials explain Kuropatkin's retreat as being part of the settled plan and they say the real struggle will occur at Harbin, where the Russians will concentrate large reinforcements.

BULLETIN.

Washington, March 10.—The following cablegram was received by the Japanese legation from Tokio: "Our detachments occupied Fushun Thursday night and are now attacking the enemy, who is posted at Angle Heights, north of Fushun."

BULLETIN.

Tokio, March 10.—Reports from Manchurian army headquarters say the Japs have captured Tietia and are pursuing the enemy. The Russians are vigorously holding and defending their fortifications north of Hun river. A dust storm is interfering with the battle.

St. Petersburg, March 10.—The extent of the disaster to Kuropatkin's army is as yet unknown here, but the most sinister reports receive credence. The public believes Oyama has succeeded in closing the iron ring around at least a large portion of the army. Communication with Mukden apparently is cut off as no word has arrived dated later than 5 yesterday afternoon, when the situation of General Bliedring, who commands the rear guard, and the thousands who were fighting off the Japs' assaults almost at the walls of the city west and north of Mukden, was desperate. Even from the east Kuraki pushed thru until Fu pass, less than eight miles east, where the Hun river bends sharply to the northward, was under the Jap guns. The opening in the net was then only twelve miles wide and nothing but a miracle, in the opinion of many experts, could then have saved the situation. To make matters worse Nogi's left, west of the railroad and Kawamura's army on the east, were reported by forced marching northward to be ready to throw themselves across the Russian line of retreat. All accounts agree that the battle yesterday must have been fought under dreadful conditions. A dust storm of hurricane violence was blowing, concealing friend and foe, while thru the opaque yellow veil streams of wounded and camp followers plodded northward. The war office this morning had little consolation to offer to the pitiful inquiries for news. The papers are filled with long lists of those killed in the earlier days of the fighting and churches are crowded with wives, mothers and sisters praying that their loved ones be spared. At last all classes seem to have joined in a common grief.

Telegram from Tokio: "Our troops occupied Mukden at 10 Friday morning. Our enveloping movements have for some days proved successful. The bloodiest battle is now proceeding in various places near Mukden."

The state department has received thru official sources confirmation of the occupation of Mukden by the Japs this morning.

COUNCIL OF WAR.

Czar and Advisers Meet to Discuss the War Situation. St. Petersburg, March 10.—All official reports from the far east are being held at Tsarskoe Selo, where a council of war is in progress.

The Associated Press was officially assured today that the dispatch of Russian troops and guns to the Afghan border constituted absolutely no threat against India. They have been sent largely to replace the units withdrawn for service in the far east.

COPENHAGEN, MARCH 10.

Russian Minister to Denmark M. Iswolsky starts tonight for St. Petersburg. The authorities here expect to have the benefit of his knowledge of Japan, gained while he was minister at Tokio.

OYAMA PROMISES RESPITE.

Tells Soldiers Today Will End the Battle for Present. Mukden, March 10.—Midnight closed the tenth day of the struggle for the possession of Mukden and the mastery of a vast empire, the tenth day of unrelenting conflict under exploding shrapnel, the roar of cannon and the whistling of bullets; the tenth day without sleep and without food. The combat is fast reaching a point where it is a question not so much of turning columns, of tactics and of strategy as of whose strength, energy and cartridges will hold out the longer.

NATURE RAISES A PROTEST.

Blinding Dust Storm Prevented Slaughter Part of Thursday. Mukden, March 9.—Thursday midnight—Nature today raised a hand against the frightful slaughter west and northwest of Mukden, a hurricane of wind having raised a blinding dust storm upon the Liao river valley, in which it was impossible at times to see a distance of 100 paces. Unable to distinguish objectives both armies necessarily ceased to a large extent their artillery and rifle fire. There is strong reason to believe the Japanese columns spent the day in an intermittent movement northward to occupy positions for a still more vigorous attack on the railroad the minute the storm clears. The situation is too extremely serious to discuss and owing to the censorship cannot be given. Columns of artillery were moving north one after another and evacuation of Mukden became imperative. All day long military trains were departing northward and the railroad line was closed to passenger traffic. Both the railroad and telegraph lines were several times damaged by Japanese who shells reached the railroad.

REDS CROSS NURSES AND SURGEONS DISTINGUISHED THEMSELVES BY WORKING UNDER FIRE AND A REGIMENT OF IMPERIAL RIFLES FOUGHT WITH INDISCRIMINABLE VIOLENCE.

COMMISSARY ARRANGEMENTS ARE WORKING BETTER THAN EXPECTED IN THE FACE OF SUCH A BATTLE, THE TROOPS RECEIVING HOT VICTUALS.

DIUSHANTUN, SCENE OF ONE OF THE MOST DESPERATE STRUGGLES.

Mukden, March 10 (Thursday).—The Japs last night pushed up from the south across the abandoned plain between Shakhe and Hun rivers and are this morning five miles south of the latter and from the Hun opposite Machiapu and northward the Japs' batteries are pouring in a ceaseless fire. The Japs succeeded in emplacing siege guns and mortars at Diushantun, about six miles west of the city, whence they opened fire before dawn. Diushantun was the scene yesterday of the bloodiest and most desperate fighting of all this terrible battle. Its possession was vital to the Japs, who stormed it again and again. The Russians dislodged them, but the Japs finally recaptured the village, after a most hard hand to hand fighting. Eye witnesses say the dead scattered in the streets, court yards and houses, have been unburied four days. Hand grenades were thrown by the Japs and the garrison was subjected to the concentrated fire of a hundred guns. Once Diushantun is in their hands the Japs can train guns on Mukden railroad station and it has been held at frightful cost. The Japs are concentrating their efforts about seven miles north of Mukden and five miles west of the railroad, with the object of breaking thru and cutting off and surrounding the troops below.

Subway Stations Taxed to Their Capacity Today For the First Time Since the Strike Began—Little Interference With the Service Today—Threats are Made.

New York, March 10.—Scores of strikers appeared at the offices of the Interborough Company during the forenoon to apply for their old positions on the road, they were told offices had been opened up to receive such applications and that all of them must be made in the regular way. General Manager Hedley said it was quite probable that for a few days there might be temporary interferences, but now every place on the system had been essentially filled. A large number of letters containing warnings of alleged proposed attempts to destroy the company's property by the use of dynamite were received by Hedley today.

THE BIGGEST CROWDS SINCE THE STRIKE

At 96th street station while the platform were jammed to their fullest capacity two persons were seen to be injured in the crush. Many others were roughly handled. These conditions were repeated at many other places along the line, but no more serious accidents are reported.

THE BIGGEST CROWDS SINCE THE STRIKE

Accidents on both Eighth avenue and Columbus avenue lines during the height of the morning rush blocked the tracks and resulted in decreased congestion for a time. Other surface lines in the uptown district were operated without difficulty, except for greatly increased crowds.

CONNECTIONS IN WILL FIGHT.

Connecticut Supreme Court Rules He Has No Claim to $50,000 Bequest. Hartford, Conn., March 10.—In a decision handed down by the supreme court yesterday that in case the late Mr. Bryant's will is upheld, the sole beneficiary in the Philo S. Bennett will contesting a bequest of $50,000 in favor of Mr. Bryant is not a part of the Bennett will. The case went up on Mr. Bryant's appeal from the superior court decision.

NEBRASKA ADMITS THAT DECISION ENDS THE CONTEST.

Milwaukee, March 10.—The dispatch from New Haven, Conn., announcing the decision in the Philo S. Bennett case was read to Mr. Bryant over the telephone late last night at the conclusion of his lecture. Mr. Bryant said he had not received any direct notice of the court's decision and had no comment to make further than that that decision ended the contest.

DEER RACE WITH A TRAIN.

Engine Overtakes Animals and Tosses Them Off the Railway. Fond Du Lac, Wis., March 10.—Passengers on the Green Bay and Western Railway who came in on the Wisconsin Central Wednesday from Amherst Junction, report an exciting race with a herd of deer, which after running ahead of the engine for more than two miles were caught and tossed from the track by the pilot, one at a time. The animals were encountered east of Dexter, Wis., where they were racing the train. They were about half a mile in advance of the train which was running at a high rate of speed. Taking flight, they ran straight ahead in single file. Game warden Brown, who found four of the deer. They were alive, but all their legs were broken. The animals were killed, and the meat divided among the residents of Dexter.

WILL ACCEPT THE TREATY.

President to Acquiesce in Changes Made by the Senate. Washington, March 10.—It became known yesterday that in case the senate ratifies the Dominican treaty President Roosevelt will accept it in its amended form and urge exchange of ratifications upon San Domingo. The statement is made authoritatively by the press, that as it is finally ratified the treaty presents no features not now known to the president in principle. In other words, though the president is not enthusiastic about the changes which the senate has made in the document, he is not disposed to be narrow or hypercritical about them and will take the emasculated and modified treaty and do the best he can with it, provided it be made no worse from his view point than it now is.

THE TREATY.

Washington, March 10.—The only legislative business transacted in the senate today was the appointment of a committee to accompany the remains of the late Senator Tate to his home in Tennessee and the passage of a resolution providing for payment of the funeral expenses.

THE SENATE.

Mrs. Chadwick's Hearing Will Not Be Closed Before That Time—Government Attorney Garry Makes Opening Argument Today. Cleveland, O., March 10.—Probably the Chadwick case will not go to the jury before Monday, as it was agreed by the counsel of both sides, that the arguments be practically unlimited. Assistant District Attorney Garry made the opening argument for the government. He was followed by Mr. Dawley, for the defense.

GOES TO JURY MONDAY

Garry's argument was at times decidedly disconcerting to Mrs. Chadwick, with a pale face, and with a handkerchief pressed tightly against her mouth, she listened anxiously to every word he uttered. When the list of her loans was given, showing she had received from the Obedin bank a total of $187,000 and $104,000 in one day, when she learned that the bank could legally loan to one person was $6,000, she sank back in her chair in a weary fashion, only to sit upright with a jerk when a fresh attack upon her financial methods was made by the prosecutor. When Garry finished his argument, Mrs. Chadwick appeared much worried.

GOES TO JURY MONDAY

The case will come up before Justice Joseph Calvert next Monday morning. Professor Schroeder, John C. Knoblock and Mrs. Baer Knoblock are all past the prime of life and have resided in South Bend for more than fifty years. This fact has given the case unusual prominence and the result will be watched with great interest.

GOES TO JURY MONDAY

Rivals for Many Years. The marriage of Knoblock and Mrs. Baer took place less than four weeks ago, much to the surprise of their friends. The wedding, however, was the result of many years of courtship in which Knoblock and Schroeder appeared to be rivals with equal chances up to almost the last minute.
