SHAW OPINION IN MAY.

Judge Sherwin Thinks That Case Will Be Decided Next Month.

Judge John C. Sherwin, of Mason City, one of the associate justices of the supreme bench, who spent Wednesday in the city, said Wednesday evening that he thought the opinion in the case of Captain C. H. Shaw vs. the city of Marshalltown would probably be handed down some time during the May session, which begins on May 2.

The opinion has already been assigned, and is in the course of preparation by one of the judges. Judge Sherwin says that he finds a great deal of interest being manifested in the case throughout the state, especially among the old soldiers. This is the case in which Captain Shaw is seeking to compel the city council to appoint him city clerk, under the provisions of the soldiers' preference law. The law has been declared unconstitutional by Judge Caswell, by reason of its class legislation features, and thru the instrumentality of the G. A. R. the case was appealed.

WORKING ON SETTLEMENT.

I. N. Gyger, of Gifford, Seeking Settlement for "Tom" Penn's Death.

I. N. Gyger, of Gifford, who has been in the city for a week looking after business matters, was in conference Wednesday with Claim Agent Marquis Barr, of the Central, who was in the city for the day. Mr. Gyger is administrator of the estate of Thomas Penn, his son-in-law, who was killed last winter near North Skunk, on the Central. Mr. Gyger is trying to effect a settlement with the Central, but so far he and Mr. Barr have not been able to reach a satisfactory agreement. The accident in which Penn lost his life was the result of a rear-end collision. Conductor Bargdell was also killed at the same time. Mrs. Penn, who had been married less than a year, is now making her home with her parents at Gifford.

CRANE'S FAREWELL LECTURE.

Gives Much Discussed Paper, "Changing the Viewpoint," Before Women's Club.

An interested audience filled the Marshalltown Women's Club rooms Wednesday afternoon to enjoy the program arranged by the mothers' child study department, of which Mrs. C. H. E. Boardman is chairman. By request of the latter, the club's retiring president, Mrs. R. E. Sears, gave a brief but most interesting description of the opera, "Parsifal," recently seen in Minneapolis. Mrs. Sears' talk was confined chiefly to the movements entitled The Swan, Holy Grail, Magic Garden and Flower Maidens.

The music program was furnished by Mrs. C. A. Eadie, who gave "A Story for the Piano" (Scharwenka), and the high school glee club, which sang, "Welcome Pretty Primrose Flower," and responded to the encore with "Little Cotton Dolly." The appearance of the glee club was under the direction of Miss Pratt, supervisor of music in the public schools.

The feature of the afternoon was Superintendent W. I. Crane's lecture on "Changing the Viewpoint," which was delivered recently before the superintendent's section of the National Educational Association at Milwaukee, and has evoked such widespread comment, because of a criticism offered by Superintendent Keating of the Colorado Springs schools, who took issue with Mr. Crane on some of the points presented. For the most part, however, Mr. Crane had the support of the superintendents in attendance, who were inclined to favor his view of the questions touched upon.

Mr. Crane's paper created a most favorable impression among his hearers yesterday, who felt grateful for the privilege accorded them. Space not permitting full justice to be done, only a few of the most vital principles can be reviewed. The speaker demonstrated the necessity of a measuring unit to govern everything and gave as the fundamental principle of the things he advocates, that system must exist for the child and not the latter for the system, as is the general rule. The modern educational hamlet, as he meditates on the child and the course of study would say, according to the speaker:

"To convert or not to convert; that is the question; Whether 'tis better for the teacher to give The child the things he can assimilate, Or to stuff in, complete, the course to study, And by so doing, wrong him. Not to complete The course of study?—To save the child, that's all! To save the child—Perchance destroy the system. Ay, there's the rub; for in thus saving him, What danger might befall the course of study, Must give us pause. There's the respect that makes Calamity of the newer point of view."

A purpose is essential to intelligent living, and qualities count much more than book knowledge assimilated to the extent of neglecting all else. In the better viewpoint, the school room will be mastered, the practice ground for processes planned to attain certain qualities necessary to fit the children to live. Mr. Crane closed with the plea, "O, let us break down the wall of tradition of the old view-point. Let us remember that books may not be shut away from life in order to prepare them for it. His address evoked much appreciative applause.

The only out of town guest present was Mrs. W. H. C. Woodward, of Marletta.

GOT NINETY-FIVE DAYS

The sentence is in lieu of a fine of $300 and costs.

WARN TEACHERS OF FRAK.

Fianagan & Co., Chicago Concern, Says Canvasser is an Imposter.

Word from Chicago sounds a warning to teachers, among whom one T. J. Crowley, described as an elderly man, innocent looking, and of Quaker-like appearance, is working a canvassing graft. Fianagan & Co., publishers, is the firm that is seeking to warn the teachers. Fianagan & Co. claim that Crowley has been soliciting orders under the guise of being in their employ and say that he has no authority whatever and is a fraud and a rascal. Fianagan & Co. learned of Crowley's work thru teachers who wrote the firm, inquiring why certain nature study publications, for which they had subscribed and paid, were not sent.

Patrons' day at the Glick school was observed Wednesday afternoon, a large number of parents of the children being in attendance throughout the entire afternoon. The interest in the work done by the pupils was clearly manifested. Hand work was the special feature in most of the rooms, and the development was shown from the kindergarten up. In the kindergarten the work was principally sewing; first grade, rattan basket work; second grade, weaving; third, sewing; fourth, raffia basket work; fifth, rug making and sewing; sixth, pressed leather work; seventh, sewing and monotype

WARNER'S GRAYS GATHER TOMORROW

Players Will Come Together In Sioux City Friday For First Game of Season

CLYDE WILLIAMS HERE TODAY

Warner's Men Will Go Up Against Sioux City's Western League Team Saturday and Sunday—Fans Waiting Impatiently for the Result, to Get a Line on the Players.

The eyes of the local fans are turned Sioux Cityward, for there will be a gathering in that town Friday of a bunch of those players who later in the season will represent this city in the Iowa State League. Warner and "the birds," as he has termed them, will drop into Sioux City Friday, and tomorrow afternoon will work out for the games on Saturday and Sunday with the Sioux City club of the Western League. How Warner's men will show up in their first try-out is the one question of absorbing interest to the enthusiasts here, who are anxious to get some line on the team.

Warner will take with him to Sioux City only those players who come from in and around Sioux Falls, S. D., Sioux City, the western part of Iowa and other points near Sioux City. He will also have with him S. Clyde Williams, who was in the city today, and who will leave for Sioux City Friday morning. Williams has been in Iowa City for the past two weeks working out with the university squad, and incidentally assisting in the coaching of that team. As it is known Warner will have at Sioux City tomorrow Bruggeman and Blanford, catchers; Spoerl, O'Kay and Pomeroy, pitchers; Zink, Williams, Warner and Alberts, batters; and Bennett, outfielder. The pitchers who are not working will probably play the other outfield positions. The players will all report here on Monday, and on that day and Tuesday Cedar Rapids plays at the Finkie Park grounds.

HONORS WERE EVEN.

High School During "Scrap" Takes a Pleasant "Lunch Hour."

A pleasant "lunch hour" between members of the senior and junior classes of the high school, took place, between 12 and 1 o'clock today, and resulted with honors evenly divided. The seniors' colors, maroon and light blue, floated from the flag staff all day Wednesday, and at 12:30 this morning under the cover of darkness, the juniors removed the maroon and light blue and replaced them with their own colors, gold and purple. The seniors' colors were not working well before noon some of the seniors removed the junior colors, and when school dismissed, and the colors were missed, the "scrap" ensued. The fight spread among the clubs, and ended with the honors very evenly divided. As a compromise it has been decided to burn the colors at noon tomorrow, in front of the high school. A committee, composed of Henry Jennings, president of the senior class, Albert Hill, president of the junior class, and Carroll Kirk and Frank Whitney, neutrals, has been appointed to take charge of the ceremonies. The juniors are still in possession of the seniors' colors, and will not surrender them until the end of the school year.

WILL BUILD ENGINE HERE.

Roseland & Jacobson, of Gilman, Will Prepare Working Rotary.

Messrs. T. C. Roseland and P. J. Jacobson, of Gilman, who have invented and perfected a rotary engine, the model for which was built by Williams, of Marshalltown, has decided to perfect a working machine, and have contracted with the A. E. Shorthill Company to build the engine. Work will probably begin on it next week. The patent on the rotary engine is still pending in the patent office at Washington, and an announcement of the granting of the patent is expected soon. Already Mr. Roseland and Mr. Jacobson have refused $25,000 for the patent, providing it is allowed. When completed a thorough test will be made of the new machine.

ATTORNEYS WANT FEES.

Meeker & Meeker Bring Action Against Former Client.

Meeker & Meeker have begun an action for the August term of the district court in which Guy H. Brown, of Tyler, Minn., is the defendant. The plaintiffs claim that on Aug. 10, 1900, they entered into a contract to defend Brown in divorce proceedings county district court. The decree was duly rendered and the amount of all money wanted by the wife was set down. The attorneys now want their money, and ask a judgment in the sum of $68 with interest at 6 per cent.

PROCEDURE OF CONTEST.

Contest Board of Three Members Will Hear the Case.

Now that George Herman, the defeated candidate for councilman from the Fourth ward, has filed his notice of contest in the election of Councilman Robert McMalnes, the steps to be taken in settling the dispute are bound about more or less, with official red tape.

A candidate who wishes to contest an election, the law requires, must file his A TRUE APPETIZER AND TONIC.

Mi-na-ona Will Make You Feel Hungry and Hearty and Give Strength and Vitality.

Ask any friend who looks thin, pale, and out of health, how many meals he or she eats a day and the chances are that the answer will be "Not over two and I don't feel hungry then." The pump, rosy and robust eat three square meals daily, and their perfect health is due to a strong stomach and digestive system as such a system perfects the food into such elements that make pure blood and give nourishment and vitality to the body.

The one appetizer and tonic that should be taken is Mi-na-ona, not only that it will strengthen the stomach and digestive system, and put them in such perfect working order that they will digest easily and naturally all the food that is eaten and send you to the table positively hungry for the next meal.

Without a strong stomach digestion will be poor, the blood impure, and serious liver and kidney troubles result, causing headaches, backaches, spots before the eyes, dizziness, sleeplessness, nervousness, irritability, a furred tongue and bad breath, all of which can be readily overcome by the use of Mi-na-ona, (costing but 50 cents a box) as it goes right to the foundation of perfect health, the stomach.

Scores of leading people in this state, including editors, ministers, bankers, and their families gladly testify to the effect, strengthening and health giving of Mi-na-ona. Furthermore, Mc-Bride & Will, one of the most reliable druggists in this section, sell Mi-na-ona under a guarantee to refund the money if it does not produce satisfactory results.

MARRIED.

Estel-Simkins.

A very quiet pretty home wedding was celebrated Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock, when Miss Edna Simkins was united in marriage to Mr. William F. Estel. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's father, Mr. H. E. Simkins.

The wedding was held at the Methodist church. A large wedding had been planned, and seventy-five invitations were issued, but owing to the recent bereavement in the Estel family, the majority of these had to be recalled and only thirty-five relatives and a few intimate friends were present. The bride wore a pretty wedding gown of white Persian lawn, with trimmings of valenciennes lace, and carried bride's roses. A pink and white color scheme prevailed in the decorations and refreshments. The wedding march, Mendelssohn's, was played by Miss Adeline Richards, of LeGrand, and the bridal march, "The Swan," by Miss Edna Simkins, in the corner of the parlor, under a canopy of smilax and carnations, while palms stood on either side. Miss Richards softly played, "Con Amore" during the ceremony. The bride's table had a centerpiece of pink and white carnations, with long streamers of smilax extending to each corner.

Mr. and Mrs. Estel are both well-known Marshalltown young people, who have a host of friends so wish them well. They will reside at 210 North Third street, and at the home cards read after May 1.

Guests present at the wedding from out of town were Mrs. W. A. Simkins and daughter Elsie, of Brit; Mr. Nathan Simkins, grandfather of the bride, Mrs. D. W. Richards, and daughters Della and Adeline, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Jepp, of Galesburg, Ill.; Mrs. John Gustafson, of Jefferson; Misses Essie Clemens, Mabel Hollingsworth and Grace Havers. The bride's table had a centerpiece of pink and white carnations, with long streamers of smilax extending to each corner.

Mr. and Mrs. Estel are both well-known Marshalltown young people, who have a host of friends so wish them well. They will reside at 210 North Third street, and at the home cards read after May 1.

MAY LOSE RICKER.

Principal of Burlington Schools is Considered in Des Moines.

Maurice Ricker, formerly science teacher in the Marshalltown high school, but for the past nine years principal of the Burlington high school, has been considered by the Des Moines board for the position of principal of the North Des Moines high school. In speaking of the prospective change the Burlington Hawk-eye says:

"Mr. Ricker has made a most excellent record in Burlington and has also made hundreds of friends outside of the school work itself. Burlington has long appreciated his work. Nevertheless, no little pride is taken in the fact that since the contest has narrowed down to two men out of fifty applicants, one of these two should be a representative of the Orchard City."

"Mr. Ricker has not yet been elected to succeed himself next year as principal of the Burlington high school, but it is believed that the city school teachers were elected for next year does not come until next month. But it is safe to say that when the time does come, and unless he be chosen by the board of Des Moines, he will be elected to fill his present position next school year."

Mr. Ricker is a son-in-law of Mr. Theodore A. Brown, of this city.

Now that George Herman, the defeated candidate for councilman from the Fourth ward, has filed his notice of contest in the election of Councilman Robert McMalnes, the steps to be taken in settling the dispute are bound about more or less, with official red tape.

A candidate who wishes to contest an election, the law requires, must file his notice of contest with the city clerk within twenty days after the election. It also becomes necessary for him to file a bond covering the costs of the procedure, and an affidavit setting forth the specific grounds that form the basis for his contest. This mayor who is the presiding officer of the contest board, issues a formal notice of contest, and fixes the time for the board to hear the case. The board consists of the mayor and two others, one to be named by the disputant and the other to be named by the candidate whose selection is being contested. This board has powers in contest cases corresponding to that of the court. It takes the evidence of both parties to the dispute, and from this renders its decision. Should this ruling be unsatisfactory to either party of the contest the ordinary channels of appeal are open to either. Either party can carry the case to the district court, and from there to the supreme court.

HOCKERSMITH CASE ON.

Divorce and Separate Maintenance Cases Tried as One.

The two Hockersmith cases, that of Mrs. Damaris Hockersmith against her husband, Louis F. Hockersmith, for separate maintenance, and that of the husband against the wife for absolute divorce, were taken up as one case before Judge Burnham in the district court this morning, and both are being tried at the same time. Mrs. Hockersmith asks for separate maintenance in the sum of $40 a month, on the alleged grounds of non-support and the undue intimacy of her husband with one Jessie Bell, whom she claims her husband brought into their home. Mr. Hockersmith alleges cruel and inhuman treatment.
