Special to Times-Republican.—For the traveling men, all roads will lead to Davenport on Saturday, as the annual meeting of the Iowa division of the Travelers' Protective Association will be held here then. Extensive preparations have been made for the entertainment of the visiting traveling men and their wives, including automobile rides about the city, visits to various points of interest and other social attentions.

Election of officers and directors, carrying with it the establishment of headquarters for two years, the adoption of reports, and consideration of topics relative to the association, will constitute the business of the session, which will convene at 10 a. m. and probably reach rejourneymen in the afternoon.

Waterloo, Mason City and Davenport are the state headquarters, and a number of them are likely to be introduced making Cedar Rapids the permanent meeting place.

Skelly Case Dismissed.
Dubuque, April 14.—Waterloo people will be interested to know that the case of John Skelly, administrator of the estate of William Skelly vs. the Illinois Central Railroad Company has been settled and the case will not come up for trial. The case was dismissed from the federal court here yesterday, exactly one year after the accident in which the deceased lost his life.

Skelly was on a regular east-bound freight on April 13, 1904, and remained at Seales Mound with the train and crew until 10:15. They started out and met the extra in charge of Engineer Fay and Conductor James, and in the wreck, Skelly's body was buried and he was not found for fifteen hours after the accident.

Skelly was on the same train with

Brakeman Cross, who also sued, the amount asked for in his case being $40,000. A settlement was made just before the case came up in court a few weeks ago and Cross received $9,000.

It is now known just how much the administrator of the Skelly estate received from the railroad company, but it is stated that a good sum was paid over to the parents of the young man. The amount sued for was $15,000. Prior to the accident, William Skelly had made Waterloo his home for a long time. He was a universal favorite among all who knew him and his sudden death was mourned by many.

DISTRICT COURT NEWS.

Patter Case Concluded at Spencer.
Special to Times-Republican.—Spencer, April 14.—The district court is still in session, but will adjourn tomorrow afternoon. The Patter case was concluded Wednesday, the jury finding him guilty of assault and battery on any sentence on him. Immediately after this case was disposed of, a jury was impaneled for the case of Krouse vs. Redmond. Redmond, and Krouse, his son-in-law, were once again the owners of a quarter section of land in Summit township. The one eighty was improved and upon dividing up, Redmond took it while Krouse took the one without improvements. Now Mr. Krouse claims that his father-in-law was to have taken the other eighty or pay him $300, representing the difference in the value of the two pieces of land and has brought suit to recover $300. This was the second trial of this case, the first trial being held in January, 1904. The plaintiff was represented by Judge Helsell, of Sioux Rapids and the defendant by G. H. Martin, of Spencer, and F. E. Payville, of Storm Lake. The jury returned a verdict for the defendant.

The meeting this year, as last year, will be held in conjunction with the local chautauque, which is scheduled for the latter part of July. Nearly every town in the county is represented by one or more women's clubs, representing a large membership from all parts of the county.

The lease with the Wilson Hotel and Theater Co. includes the entire property of the company except the theater which is under lease from the November last to Mr. Beal for five years.

New Library for Colfax.
Colfax, April 14.—This place will quite likely have a Carnegie library in the near future. Mr. Carnegie has consented to give $5,000 for the erection of a building of this kind here, providing the city will comply with the requirements which he asks.

As he requires immediate action in the matter, the probability is that something will be done right away, and the question now before the people is the location for the building, several very good ones being under advisement, and this may be decided by a vote of the people.

Think Well of New Lines.
Oskaloosa, April 14.—President Francois and party of St. Louis, capital of the west, yesterday and today drove over the proposed line of the Interurban, to Albia. MANY IOWA MEETINGS

State Bar Association Gathering One of Most Important to Be Held

MARRIAGE OF CRIMINAL CLASSES

The Association Meets in Des Moines July 13 and 14, and at That Time the Question of Regulating and Prohibiting Such Marriages Will Likely Be Further Considered.

Special to Times-Republican.—Des Moines, April 14.—There are to be some important gatherings in Iowa during the year. While there are none of overshadowing importance there are many that will be of great importance. One of the most important will be the state bar association meeting in Des Moines July 13 and 14. There will be some important questions brought up at that time and among others likely the question of regulating and prohibiting the marriage of criminal and dependent classes on which the association has already placed its stamp of approval. The biennial convention of the Iowa Federation of Women's Clubs, which will meet in Waterloo in May will be an important gathering, and the program contains some important matters. The grand lodge of Masons will be in Des Moines June 6 and 7, and the reception to Grand Commander Richardson May 6 and 7 will be almost equally important. The Knights of Pythias will hold their annual convention and biennial convention of the state in Des Moines in August. The meeting of the state bankers' association will be held here June 14, and will be important because of possible legislation that will be asked for. The second annual convention of the state good roads association will be held this year at Ames and will probably be far more important in many ways than the first meeting held here at which the association was organized. The convention will be at Ames June 15. The state medical society will meet in Des Moines May 16 and 17 and the dental society May 2 and 3. One of the conventions of greatest importance from a religious standpoint will be the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the state which will be held in Des Moines May 15. The state music teachers' association and the swine breeders' association are also holding their annual conventions. The latter organizations will be here June 1. At the swine breeders' convention Secretary James Wilson will make one of the principal addresses. The Catholic Order of Foresters will be here June 13 for two days.

EXPOSITION REPORT.
Some Controversy as to Its Extent Going On.
Des Moines, April 14.—The report of Secretary F. R. Conaway of the Iowa commission at the St. Louis exposition is in the hands of Chairman W. W. Witmer, of the executive committee.

Mr. Witmer is reading it and after he has decided on the recommendations which he will make as to reducing its size, he will call a meeting of the whole committee, followed by the whole board, to discuss the report. It is the hope in which the report shall be made.

It is stated that the report includes a caustic criticism of the national commission, which with the Iowa commissioners had trouble with respect to the live stock awards, especially and whose methods of business were not at all to the liking of the business men of this state, who are in the habit of doing things in a strictly business basis.

Mr. Conaway's experience with the national commission makes one of the most interesting features of the Iowa share in the St. Louis exhibition, and it is a matter of history that Mr. Conaway's position was sustained fully by Governor Larrabee. The Iowa business men wanted a definite statement from the national commission as to a treatment that would be accorded Iowa exhibitors, and when this was not forthcoming, they favored Larrabee, and his associates, a declaration was made, a sort of ultimatum, which was heeded straightway.

There is a difference of opinion among the Iowa commissioners as to the position to be taken in the matter to the public in printed form. Mr. Witmer and Mr. Larrabee are said to favor a plain, untruncated financial statement. Others want to include a history of the matter, made by Iowa, and a report of comprehensive report has been made by Mr. Conaway.

The executive committee at least will meet next week on the report.

Elaborate Despair Wedding.
Special to Times-Republican.—Deep River, April 14.—At 8 o'clock Wednesday evening was celebrated the wedding of Miss Ethel S. Cutler to Mr. Otto Emal, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Cutler, on West Main street. Rev. George Hopwood of the Dunkard church, uncle of the groom, performed the ceremony, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. Little Mary Emal, niece of the groom, bore the ring, imbedded in a rose, that was used in the marriage service, and Miss Mable Jenkins played a beautiful wedding march. The bride was attired in white and carried white roses. The ceremony was performed beneath a canopy of lace, trimmed with ferns and cut flowers. Immediately after the ceremony the wedded pair, with the relatives and friends to the number of twenty-four, repaired to the dining room where ample provisions were made to appease the appetite of the seventy-five guests, who were waited upon by four young men. After the bride and groom had partaken of supper, congratulations were given to them by those in attendance. A large number of handsome, useful gifts with considerable money were sent or brought as reminders of the donors' esteem for the contracting parties. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Cutler. She has lived here from babyhood. She has the respect and esteem of all who know her. The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. William Emal, of Minden, Neb. He is a young man of promise and has the respect of all who know him. He is assistant cashier of the First National bank at this place. Mr. and Mrs. Otto Emal will take a short tour in the west, visiting on May 15, at home in their nice new home here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Emal, brother of the groom, of Nebraska; Mrs. W. H. Newton, of Lincoln, Neb.; Mrs. Julia Williams, of Des Moines; Archie Kitching, of Brooklyn, Iowa; Miss Gladys Mercer, of Victor; and G. H. Davis, of Toga, Iowa, were the out-of-town guests.

IOWA OARSMEN MAKE PLANS.
Amateur Rowing Association to Arrange for Regatta.
Dubuque, April 14.—The various crews that will compete in the annual regatta of the Iowa Amateur Rowing association, which will be held at Clear Lake in August, will commence training about the middle of June. It is the purpose of the officers of the association to arouse interest in the regatta as early as possible, so that all of the crews may have ample time to get into the best condition possible.

The regatta scheduled for the last three years was postponed owing to the apathy of several crews, but this year the officers of the association are determined that it will be a hard matter to resuscitate it.

It is probable that Clinton and Davenport will be given membership in the association and Des Moines and Dubuque are probably being dropped, as they have not manifested much interest in the affairs of the association the last few years. Dubuque will make an effort to get the 1906 regatta.

The Grinnell News.
Special to Times-Republican.—Grinnell, April 14.—Since J. W. Fowler finished the addition to his creamery in this city he has been busy in this city business and has just made arrangements to buy cream at What Cheer and have it shipped to his Grinnell creamery. The new interurban is expected to be a strong feeder for this branch of business, as well as for several other lines.

T. H. Buchanan has just begun the preliminaries for the new residence he has planned to build on East street, not far from Sixth avenue and near the other residence. The house is to be fully up-to-date as he expects it to be the home for himself and his family.

Miss Maud Thomas, who resigned her place as teacher in the public school here last week, has taken a position in the schools at Lake Mills. Miss Catherine Nell Carter, a state normalite and a teacher of some years' experience in the schools of Manchester, has resigned her position here by the resignation of Miss Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Frye are the happy parents of a daughter born to them on Wednesday evening.

Mr. Guy Lee Bellnap and Miss Margaret Lewis were married at the home of the bride's parents in southwest Grinnell on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and took the evening train for Des Moines where they expect to live.

With the case of mounted birds presented to the Grinnell high school and the case of beautiful shells, stones and sea shells by Mrs. J. E. VanEvert soon to be on exhibition there is a very fine beginning of a valuable museum of natural curiosities.

Tomorrow, April 15, will be "Dandelion day" for the ladies of the Cemetery Association who will enlist as a check and old folks as well as possible to help clear the yellow pests from the bounds of Hazelwood.

The Jefferson News.
Special to Times-Republican.—Jefferson, April 14.—The board of supervisors have postponed letting the contract for the new county farm building, in order that several would-be bidders may have an opportunity to examine the plans and specifications.

The revival meeting at the Methodist church conducted by Mrs. Van Colt, still continue. Interest in the meetings is increasing and while the results so far have been encouraging, still greater are looked for before the close of the meeting.

Strange Man Causes Terror to Mothers in Sioux City by Abducting Boys

POLICE MAKING A SEARCH

Several Boys Have Been Forcibly Detained and the Man is Believed to Be Insane—Same Man Believed to Have Been at Wayne, Neb., Playing Same Game.

Special to Times-Republican.—Sioux City, April 14.—Somewhere in Sioux City is a strange man, believed to be insane, who has a mania for kidnapping children.

Realizing that his presence in the city will soon terrorize mothers, the police are today making arduous efforts to find the man before he indulges his insanity of stealing any more boys.

The man last week kidnaped a Wayne, Neb. boy, and last night a little chap in Sioux City. That he is insane is indicated by the fact that he apparently does not take the children for purposes of ransom, or for any other reason, in fact.

This morning Harvey Tucker, aged 6 years, who was stolen by the man last night and kept in a box car until daylight, was found crying and begging for his mother, who was being held by the man with her husband, John Tucker, were up all night at the Chicago house waiting for the police to discover their lost boy.

The Wayne Kidnaping.
Last week at Wayne, Neb., a man answering the description of the individual who kidnaped the Tucker boy last night, stole the 6-year-old son of June Conger, a business man of Wayne. The fellow kept the boy concealed all day, and then slipped to Wakefield where he was apprehended. He gave the name of John Olson, and it was learned he worked a few days for Oscar Franks, a butcher of Wayne. Mr. Conger declined to prosecute, and the man was released. He doubtless came to Sioux City, and since the descriptions tally, he is believed to have been indulging his mania again with the Tucker boy last night.

His opportunity came last evening when he went into the Chicago house and picked up Tim, aged 8, and Harvey, aged 6, sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Tucker, of Blunt, S. D., guests of the hotel.

He took the boys into the bar room and bought them a glass of pop, after which he went down fourth street with them. He stopped at a confectionery stand and purchased apples and oranges and then got rid of the eldest boy whom he sent on an errand. When Tim came back the man ran, and his brother had disappeared. The fellow was last seen at William Carroll's saloon, corner of Fourth and Iowa streets. After searching for his house and told his parents what had happened.

He Wanted His Mamma.
The police were notified, and while the anxious mother paced the floor at the hotel, she was at the Chicago house made a search of all the saloons. They got trace of the boy at Carroll's and learned that a tall man with a light mustache wearing a black hat and dark suit, had been there with the boy answering the description of the man said to have taken the Tucker lad. The fellow bought a glass of beer and then disappeared. No particular attention was paid to him.

Marshal George Miner, of Wayne, who arrested the man who stole the Conger boy at Wayne, said the description of Olson tallied with that furnished by the Tucker boy.

Marshal Miner said Olson had a clever manner on his arm. He is of the opinion that Olson is insane. He did not injure the Conger boy nor did he harm the Tucker lad. It is thought he may have secured work at the packing houses, as he is a bit tower.

The police yesterday took a suspect to the station, but he was not identified. Mr. and Mrs. Tucker recently came here from Blunt, S. D. They have been boarding at the Chicago hotel. Tucker is employed at the stock yards.

JUST LIKE EDITHA.
Little Girl Got Acquainted With a Burglar and Tamed Him Nice.
Chicago, April 12.—The burglar Dorothy Westby Jones, 14 years old, entered in the residence of M. E. Kane, 4054 Indiana avenue, dispelled her childish fears and she said Monday she would never fear again to be left alone.

"When I went into the room I saw a tall, well dressed young man," she said. "My mother thought this was a really truly robber. But when I saw the man with a revolver, when he put his hand toward my shoulder, I was not frightened a bit. He was real nice. I did not suppose burglars were like that. But I was glad it was me, and not mamma or Mrs. Kane who found him."

"When I said there was no money he said, 'honest now, isn't there? Then I told him about papa having gone away and he asked questions about the family—nice questions. When I started to leave the room for fear some of the family would come to look for me, he said, 'Now, don't you tell a word about me to anyone. I didn't not for some time when I did it as if there was a man in that room,' and my, how I frightened mamma."
