Dear Lord, I Thank Thee. [Miss Pastor.] I thank Thee, Lord, for every moment dropped into my life that had some sweetness in it.

I thank Thee, Lord, I thank Thee for the golden hours when friendship met. For all the golden hours when friendship met.

KEEPING BOOKS ON IDEALS. Mr. Carnegie having given largely to the erection of a group of buildings erected by the Home Culture Club at Northampton, Massachusetts, spoke at the dedication of one of the buildings named for him.

Mr. Carnegie's ideal is a worthy one but it lacks explanation. When the accounts of character are rendered not only benefits conferred but injuries done to others must appear in the bill.

Topics of the Times. Will the dispatches state that Rostewsky is Rostewskupsky? It is 162 years since Jefferson was born, seventy-nine years since he died.

MAKE WASTE SLOWLY IN RURAL DELIVERY. If Hon. T. L. James is seeking popularity among the farming population he has gone the right way about to secure it.

IN THE OPINION OF THE DUBUQUE TIMES. The prejudice against wealth, or popular jealousy of corporate power, needs no encouragement from press or pulpit.

GREENE COUNTY HIGH SCHOOLS WILL GRADUATE A TOTAL OF SIXTY-NINE PUPILS at their coming commencement. Churchman, one boy and six girls; Jefferson, eight boys and fourteen girls; Grand Junction, seven boys and six girls; Patton, three boys and six girls; Ripley, five boys; and Saranton, two boys and eleven girls.

THE JUDGE OF ONE OF THE MISSOURI COUNTY COURTS, according to the Kansas City Journal, went to his home the other afternoon, and becoming acquainted with some flagrant act of his seven-year-old son, summoned the lad before him.

tion of parcels-post and express business to the present progress, we are piling it on too heavily. The rural delivery system is growing fast enough. Let us be content with its present growth and trust somewhat to the future.

INSTEAD OF SNEERS GIVE MONEY. Why does the success of a knave or an impostor attract more of public attention than the successful issue of honest and unselfish endeavor?

THE WASHINGTON (IOWA) PRESS thinks "The president might talk about a lot of things, but the one that would interest young ones. We can't have too many kids if they are good ones, good through decent inheritance and wholesome environment.

REMARKING THAT THE SUGGESTION for a compromise candidate for governor to succeed Cummins is received kindly in some quarters and spurned in others, the Webster City Freeman Tribune says it is "so far as the Freeman-Tribune is concerned no compromise is wanted.

THE SIOUX CITY JOURNAL has an editorial article headed "Dubuque Moral-ity." This seems to support the charge that "Uncle George" pays too much attention to little things and minor details.

NOTING THAT STATE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS RIGGS has issued the cry that more teachers are needed in Iowa, the Davenport Democrat suggests: "If the present salary will see to it that the pay of teachers is raised the trouble that he complains of will disappear.

THE MANSON JOURNAL says: "The country town has its advantage in manifold ways and to find genuine happiness there is no place like it. What we want to do is to make it as nice as we possibly can with the material at hand.

"GOOD-MORNING" IN THE ARCTIC. A Washington woman one day was conversing with Commander Peary, the Arctic explorer, relative to the customs of the Eskimo, when she asked whether that race had a distinct language.

THE DUBBS OF DUBLIN. Dudley Dobb, a dude of Dublin, dubbed Dud Dobb, a budding lawyer, for Isabel Dobbell, a bud of Dublin, dubbed Belle Dobbell.

couple double doublets, Dobby and Bobby, dubbed Bob and Ardilla, dubbed Dell and Dill Dobbell-Dubb. These adorable double doublets, Bob and Bobs and Dell and Dill Dobbell-Dubb, dubbed the dude Dud Dobbell-Dubb "Daddy," the bud Belle Dobbell-Dubb "Mudder."

CHEATED DEATH. Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine, E. H. Wolfe, of Belle Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had kidney trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety.

THE COUNTRY TOWN'S FUTURE. [Manson Journal.] Fonda suffered even worse than Manson from changing its population. The assessor reports a falling off of from 1170 to 1090, a total loss of 173.

THE TROUBLE TRUST. HANID & CASTRO. CONTRACTS BROKEN. CLAIMS ANNULLLED. TREATIES VIOLATED. ALIENS IMPEACHED. PROMISES REPUUDIATED.

IOWA NEWSPAPERS. TO KICK OR NOT TO KICK. [Register and Leader.] An Iowa man was struck on the head in Omaha by the heel of a shoe and while he was unconscious lost all his money.

WHERE WILL ENGLISH GET IT? [Rockwell Phonograph.] There is some quiet speculation as to how Mr. Blythe will use his legislative proxy when it comes to voting for state printer.

THE DOG POISONER. [Waterloo Courier.] The editor of this contemptible miscreant is not known, as he works in secret and under cover of darkness as he fits the meanness of his calling.

IN THE COW COUNTRY. [Manson Journal.] There are some things the residents of Manson ought to think about and that is the rights of their neighbors.

RATES. To San Francisco, Los Angeles, Portland, Tacoma, Seattle, Boise City, Spokane, Walla Walla, Ogden, Salt Lake City, Butte and other points in Montana, Colorado, Utah, Nevada, and the Pacific Coast.

INFALLIBLE SIGN OF SPRING. [Washington (Iowa) Press.] Spring has actually come. The red-headed wood pecker have come, and Matt Springman says that their peculiar staccato song, as they scramble up the trunk of a tree, is a sure sign of spring.

OUTSIDE POINT OF VIEW

It is to be hoped that if a sufficient-ly strong sentiment is developed in favor of a state wide primary law with the indicated choice for United States senator thereon; and also this same sentiment is in favor of an anti-pass law, that the agitation for any more reforms will stop there.

THE TROUBLE TRUST. HANID & CASTRO. CONTRACTS BROKEN. CLAIMS ANNULLLED. TREATIES VIOLATED. ALIENS IMPEACHED. PROMISES REPUUDIATED.

IOWA OPINIONS AND NOTES. The Washington (Iowa) Press thinks "The president might talk about a lot of things, but the one that would interest young ones. We can't have too many kids if they are good ones, good through decent inheritance and wholesome environment.

There came to this doubly-dubbed

Defendant, engaged in the manufacture of commercial fertilizers, stored sacks which had contained nitrate of soda, used by it in its business, in an open shed upon its premises, which were enclosed, having an opening for the entrance of cars bringing material to the mill, not exceeding $2000.

MORTGAGE-CONSTRUCTION. A father desiring to assist his son, who has a capital in embarking in the business of buying and selling cotton, executed a mortgage of his land to the cashier of a bank with which the partnership of which the son was a member proposed to deal, reciting that the mortgage had agreed to be come surety, for any and all indebtedness which the partnership might become liable to the bank during the cotton season of 1890 and 1891, to the extent of $3,000, and that should be partnership or either of its members, on or before April 1, 1891, pay the indebtedness, then the deed should be void.

PERSONAL INJURIES. Plaintiff, an employe in defendant's foundry, while carrying a hot, molten metal stepped into a hole which defendant had excavated a few minutes before in an unusual place—in a pathway used by employes—and left unguarded.

RAILROADS-NEGLECTANCE. Plaintiff, a boy 16 years of age, was standing on a street in the town of Greenup, and while so standing near the track of the defendant where it crosses the street, one of the defendant's freight trains passed over the track, and as the engine of the train was passing, a brakeman on the train kicked a cake of ice weighing about 20 pounds from the platform of the caboose, which struck the boy near the heart from the effects of which he was severely injured.

SUNDAY LAWS. In a prosecution for selling liquor on Sunday it appeared that the sale was made by one of defendant's barkeepers, and defendant, corroborated by his other barkeepers, testified that he had given positive directions that no liquor was to be sold on Sunday. It was, however, shown that defendant and his family lived in rooms adjoining the saloon, and got their water for cooking purposes from the saloon, and so went in out on Sunday; and defendant testified that he made no effort to see that his instructions were followed.

Success in 90 per cent. Prepared by DR. D. KENNEDY'S SONS, Rochester, N. Y.

FORGET ABOUT YOUR STOMACH. If your digestion is bad the vital organs of your body are not fed and nourished as they should be. They grow weak and invite disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, cures indigestion and all stomach troubles. You forget you have a stomach from the very day you begin taking it.

WEDDING GRAFT. [Cedar Falls Record.] It has always been a mystery to us why the tendency to exaggerate takes possession of some people when they get married. A few years ago there was a wedding at Muscatine and it was heralded in all the big daily papers of the country that the groom was the "merchant prince of southern Iowa" and that the bride had a "real $100,000 worth of money."

Colonists' Rates to Points in the Southwest. To Jacksonville, Fla., at $5.50; Augusta, at $7.00; Theville, at $4.00; Kansas, Oklahoma, Indian Territory, $0. For further information apply to J. R. Harding, Agent, Marshalltown, Iowa.
