Others who will go from here to attend the convention are Messrs. T. J. Fletcher, A. F. Balch and H. J. Howe. Mr. and Mrs. Denmead expect to spend about a month traveling in the east, before returning home.

Another notice has been received at the postoffice which rules against the post cards which have been the rage in the past year. The manufacturers of these cards have begun to put out a racy kind which bear objectionable pictures and sayings. So much complaint has been made to the department that these cards have been sent to different people by them unknown to them, and are deemed insults by the receivers. Postmasters are instructed to look over the cards which are sent and wherever they are found of this character they are to be held and destroyed.

Frank Peshel, a farmer living on rural route No. 2, brought to the T-R today samples of pears grown in his orchards. The trees are three years old, and this is the first year they have borne. The first year they were planted it was feared that they would never thrive, for had leveled the young trees to the ground and stripped them of their bark and leaves. Now, however, they are in fine condition, and are yielding well this season.

Sixty of the men and older boys of the R. Y. M. C. A. are making a house-to-house canvass of the city, distributing gratuitously the annual prospectus and endeavoring to cultivate an interest in the different departments of the association. Their work is to be completed by Sunday, October 15, after which they will be followed by special committees that will continue their efforts till all the fall enrollments are completed.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. McNeely, 401 West Main street, entertained a small company of friends Friday evening at a 6 o'clock dinner. Their guests were Mrs. Marie Spear and niece, Mrs. Heiss, the latter of Morrison, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Snelling, Mrs. D. M. Keefer, Mrs. H. B. Heitsch, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Parker and little son Fred, and Mr. J. B. Simmons. The affair was in honor of Mrs. Heiss, who stopped on her way to Denver, and will leave Saturday morning. The evening was informally spent in playing five hundred.

The teachers of the Glick school gave a delightful kitchen shower Thursday evening after the close of school, in honor of Miss Ella Olson, a former teacher of the building, who is to be married next Tuesday to Mr. Edward Anshel, of Minneapolis. Miss Olson was presented with many useful gifts, which were accompanied by original verses written by the donors. In addition to the Glick teachers Miss Ella Adams, now of the First ward, but formerly of the Glick, was present. Refreshments were served at the building by the teachers.

A company of sixty-two neighbors and friends enjoyed a pleasant evening at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Orlando R. Marsh, four miles northeast of Albion, the occasion being the forty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Marsh were presented with a beautiful dining room table and a silver bake dish. Refreshments, brought by the guests, were served during the evening, which was enjoyed in a pleasant social way. Mrs. L. S. Gantz and Misses Grace and Ethel Liese, of this city, were among the guests from a distance, as were also Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Marsh and daughter, Mildred, and Miss Alma Fenrose, of Grinnell.

Free Booklet on Bright's Disease And Diabetes

We desire to place in the hands of those afflicted with Bright's Disease or Diabetes a 36-page pamphlet. It is a saving human lives. It is not an ordinary pamphlet, but is principally made up of reports of scientifically conducted tests in a large variety of cases, showing 87 per cent of recoveries in these hitherto incurable diseases.
This booklet is for thoughtful people—people who can discriminate between common patent medicine literature and a carefully prepared report of a patient, serious and profoundly important investigation.
The specifics employed in these tests are known as the Fulton Compounds and the results obtained prove conclusively that these dreaded diseases so long feared have at last yielded to medical science. The pamphlet is free.
B. A. Morgan, druggist, local agent.
When to suspect Bright's disease—weakness or loss of weight; puffy ankles, hands or eyelids; kidney trouble after the third month; urine may show sediment; falling vision; drowsiness; one of more of these.
In Diabetes the distinguishing feature is, weakness with great thirst and at times voracious appetite.
