WILL START NEW ORDER

Paul Faction Defeated in Fight For Control of Yeoman to Form New Lodge

BUILD UP A NEW SOCIETY

Committee Appointed to Look Into the Matter of Organizing the Disgruntled Faction—Will Retain Insurance in Yeomen for the Present—Iowa News.

Des Moines, Nov. 28.—A new organization, the outgrowth of the Koch-Paul fight for the Yeoman leadership, had its birth in a meeting of the Paul forces just returning from Colorado Springs yesterday morning, and although no definite steps beyond the appointment of a committee have yet been taken, it is assured that a new society on Yeoman lines, but entirely apart from the Yeomen, and composed of old Yeomen members, will be formed.

The meeting was quietly called at the home of J. E. Paul, and the twenty-two or twenty-three members present consisted of the members of the Paul delegation who were refused seats at the recent supreme conclave.

This delegation went about the formulating of plans for a new organization with a will, and before adjournment at noon, the preliminary steps towards this end had been taken. The committee appointed consists of J. E. Paul, G. B. Paul, Fleming, Miller, O'Connell, F. M. Durrer of Ames, Mrs. Jennie Yetts of Ottumwa, and Mrs. H. Sherbondy, and is empowered to formulate plans and given authority to act.

The intention of the unseated Paul delegation, which is behind the new move, is not to draw out entirely from the old Yeoman organization or form a new organization directly antagonistic to it, but to retain their insurance and membership in the Yeomen in a passive way and turn their real efforts towards the building up of the new society.

The exact steps to be taken by the committee were discussed, but nothing definite was decided. It was suggested that it may be possible to buy up some old organization, and it is understood that a deal is already under way looking towards this end. If this cannot be done, however, the committee is authorized to start an entirely new organization.

CLAIM 10,000 MEMBERS

The claim was made that 10,000 members could be secured at once for the new organization, and that the Paul faction would support it as a unit. Two or three of those present, however, refused to consider joining the new organization, and a more conservative estimate of the probable membership was placed at 5,000.

SPECULATION NOT GAMBLING

An Iowa Court Decides in Favor of the Board of Trade.

Des Moines, Nov. 28.—An Iowa court for the first time has decided that speculation on the board of trade is not a form of gambling.

In a case tried in the Dallas county court before Judge Applegate the jury late Saturday evening gave its decision that a speculative contract made by W. Hales of Perry with the firm of Ware & Leland, members of the Chicago board of trade, was legal and binding.

Hales bought wheat for delivery last September, at a time when the market was widely fluctuating. The decline was greater than the credit of Mr. Hales with the brokerage firm amounted to and he was called on for margins amounting to $1,050. This he refused to pay and when sued for the amount made the defense that his contract was of a gambling nature not binding.

The decision of Judge Applegate is of much importance and interest to board of trade men in all parts of the country. So far as can be ascertained this is the first time an Iowa court has upheld a contract of a board of trade firm for future deliveries.

In giving instructions to the jury Judge Applegate drew the definition that a contract was legal and binding, provided one party or the other made it in good faith that the commodity would be actually delivered. Ware & Leland, the plaintiffs, presented evidence that actual delivery was offered.

BONANZA FARM IS SOLD

To R. H. Parry of Des Moines for $100,000.

New Hampton, Ia., Nov. 28.—The Beriah L. Jones farm, known as the Bonanza farm, as it was one of the largest in northern Iowa, has been sold to R. H. Parry of Des Moines. It is understood that the total consideration was about $100,000.

The farm, gained notoriety on account of the rapidity with which Beriah L. Jones became a land king. He came here eighteen years ago, practically without a cent. He and his wife were college graduates and the manner in which they prospered was the wonder of the community. Never a year rolled by after Jones once got on his feet, but that he added an adjoining farm to his tract.

CARNEGIE INCREASES GIFT

Adds Another $5,000 to His Gift to Waterloo Library.

Waterloo, Nov. 28.—P. J. Martin, secretary of the library commission, received a letter Monday morning from Andrew Carnegie stating that the additional appropriation asked for had been given, making the amount $45,000 instead of $40,000 as intended when the two libraries were decided upon. The increase is regarded as showing the extreme liberality of Mr. Carnegie, and is a matter of gratification to the library board and all concerned in the completion and maintenance of the buildings.

The Letter Received.

The letter, which is written by James Bertram, private secretary to Andrew Carnegie, says: "Yours of October 30 received. Mr. Carnegie has instructed his cashier to credit the library commission of Waterloo, Iowa, with $45,000 instead of $40,000, and notes that a resolution has been passed guaranteeing revenue to the extent of $4,500 instead of $4,000." The resolution referred to in Mr. Carnegie's letter is one passed by the city council some weeks ago providing the amount stated to maintain the libraries. The agreement is that the city receiving the donation for library is to guarantee ten per cent of the donated amount each year as a fund to meet expenses of the library, which are $2,250 for each library in the city.

DR. MACKLIN RESIGNS

Gives Up Work of Inspection of Institutions and Radical Change Will be Made in Inspection of Minor Places—Will Go After "Baby Farms."

Des Moines, Nov. 28.—Dr. M. C. Macklin, who for the past three years has been inspector of the county and private institutions where insane are kept, and which are under the supervision of the state board of control, has resigned to become first assistant physician to Dr. Witte, superintendent of the state hospital for the insane at Clarinda.

In connection with Dr. Macklin's resignation, a radical change will be made in the inspection of the minor institutions for the care of the insane.

While the change has not been definitely determined, the board of control proposes to have the members of the medical staffs of each of the four state hospitals for the insane inspect the county and private institutions in respective districts, now apportioned to those institutions. It is believed that this will make the relations between the county authorities and the officials of the institutions closer and consequently increase the efficacy of the work.

There are about 110 county and private institutions in the state which the law specifies must be inspected every six months.

In his forthcoming report, Dr. Macklin will probably recommend to the board of control that a law be adopted which will make the inspectors of the medical staffs of each of the four state hospitals, at present an endeavor is made to keep tab on these institutions and inspect them, but the inspection is optional with the proprietors and in nearly every instance, the inspectors of the board of control is turned down when he applies for permission to make the inspection.

Dr. Macklin states that the number is constantly increasing, and during his recent trips to the state, he has heard much adverse comment on the institution, the principal charge against them being blackmail. While he has not been given any positive evidence of such against any particular institution, he is inclined to believe that the condition at the county farms where insane are kept, has greatly improved in Iowa during the past few years according to Dr. Macklin. He has encountered very little difficulty by difficulty with the county supervisors of various counties comply with his recommendations regarding improvements. There is practically no change in the number of insane who are being cared for in the county and private institutions.

The position at Clarinda has been vacant for about a year, Dr. Witte having difficulty in selecting a suitable successor to Dr. Bondy, who had been with the institution for some time. Dr. Macklin prior to his appointment as inspector by the state board of control, was identified with the state hospital for the insane at Independence, and so is thoroughly familiar with the work. Dr. Macklin's home is at Independence, but he will now to Clarinda and there he will complete his annual report.

RULERS OF THE WORLD

Meat Eating Nations Are the Leaders in Every Branch of Human Achievements.

The ruling nations of the world are meat eaters and history records that they always have been. Vegetarians and food cranks may explain this in any way they choose, but the facts remain that the Americans, English, French, Russians and Germans are meat-eating nations, and they are also the most energetic and most progressive.

The principal food of the heroic Boer soldier, known as Biltong, is a sort of dried beef, affording a great deal of nourishment in a highly concentrated form.

The weak races of people are the rice eating Chinese, Hindus, and Siamese, regarded since the dawn of history as non-progressive, superstitious and inferior physically and mentally to the meat-eating nations who dominate them.

The structure of the teeth plainly indicates that human beings should subsist upon a variety of food, meat, fruit and grains, and it is unhygienic to confine one's diet to any one of those classes to the exclusion of another.

Meat is the most concentrated and most easily digested of foods, but our manner of living is often so unnatural that the digestive organs refuse to properly digest meat, eggs and similar nutritious and wholesome food, but it is not because such food is unwholesome, but the real reason is that the stomach lacks, from disease or weakness, some necessary digestive element, hence indigestion and, later on, chronic dyspepsia.

Nervous people should eat plenty of meat, convalescents should make meat the principal food, hardworking people like to do so, and brain workers and office men should eat, not so much meat, but at least once a day, and to insure its perfect digestion one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets should be taken after each meal, because they supply the pepsin, diastase and fruit acids, lacking in every case of stomach trouble.

Nervous dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, gastritis, sour stomach, gas and acidity are only different names for indigestion, the failure to digest wholesome food, and the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cures them all because, by affording perfect digestion, the stomach has a chance to rest and recover its natural tone and vigor.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the real household medicine; it is safe and pleasant for the stomach ache of the baby as it is for the imperfect digestion of the grand sire.

If you are not a cathartic, but a digestive, and no pill habit can ever follow their use; the only habit Stuart's Tablets induce is the habit of good digestion and consequently good health.

NOT BADLY TREATED

Ames Claims Reports of Manner in Which Visitors Were Used Were Exaggerated

FALSE STATEMENTS SENT OUT

Visitors From Iowa City Shown the Usual Courtesies and Actions of Some Excursionists in Becoming Intoxicated Not the Fault of the Ames Students—Game With Drake.

Special to Times-Republican.

Ames, Nov. 28.—The Ames team came thru the game with the Hawkeyes last Friday with but few injuries, and are suffering no ill effects more than being very sore from bruises received. Scrimmage practice has been a part of the program each evening since the game and will continue so until Thanksgiving when the team will go to Des Moines to meet Drake University.

This will be the last game of the season and will no doubt put Ames as second in the state championship for 1905. The game with Drake is not expected to be nearly so hard as the one played with the Hawkeyes, and it is probable that some of the substitutes will show their hands in this contest.

It is to be regretted that greatly exaggerated reports have been sent out from Iowa City in regard to the manner in which Iowa visitors were treated at Ames last Friday. The authorities of the Iowa State College and the student body are very indignant that such false statements are sent out from the university by given any credence. The visitors were treated with every courtesy during their sojourn in the city. The visitors were not subjected to mob violence or rotten eggs by the students of the agricultural college and the Ames excursionists, becoming intoxicated threw an empty bottle thru the car window from the inside and injured a high school boy quite severely, but since and no further trouble resulted. Neither were the visitors compelled to leave the city without food, for aside from the numerous hotels that served meals, church societies had made special preparation for the 500 visitors from Ames that accompanied the team to Ames.

Iowa supporters are reported to have lost wagers amounting to more than $6,000 on the game, betting as high as 3 to 1 that the university would win.

Notwithstanding President McLean of S. U. I. had warned the students against gambling on the game, large amounts were left to fill the coffers of the sporting element here. A severe sprain was incurred by one of the players prior to the game by the arrival of a person posing to be a member of the S. U. I. faculty offering to wager several hundred dollars on the outcome of the game, but did not succeed in placing the money.

HOME FOR THE AGED

Lutherans of the State Will Build Home at Madrid.

Special to Times-Republican. Webster City, Nov. 28.—Madrid, Iowa, has been selected by the representatives of the great Lutheran church body of Iowa and Missouri as the site for the location of the home for the aged in that state.

The building and other facilities outside the site will cost practically $20,000 and work will commence just as soon as possible after knowing for a certainty that the obligations asked of the local church and people of the town will be complied with. The requirements of Madrid are but few, and doubtless will be easily met. All that is asked is for the town to furnish a site for the location of the home and the conferences of the two states will furnish the necessary financial means for all the other improvements. The amount of ground desired is but five or six acres, and the committee from the church already have two or three sites in view which are available and very satisfactory.

The home will be located at Madrid for a certainty if the requirements are met. Representatives of the churches have been in Madrid, looking over the field, and have formerly made overtures to the Madrid church.

Sibley Priest Wants Academy.

Special to Times-Republican. Sibley, Nov. 27.—The Rev. Edward O'Reilly, rector of St. Andrew's Catholic church at Sibley is ambitious to have a Catholic academy and parochial school established in Sibley. He has brought the matter before his congregation, which number about 320 members, among which are several men of large means, and it is probable that further steps will be taken in the matter.

It is estimated that but $12,000 to $15,000 would be needed in the work. Mr. O'Reilly figures that members of the church could easily contribute funds to establish such a school, and save considerable money by keeping their young people at home instead of sending them to Dubuque and other places. His plan would be to have the school principally academic or preparatory to the larger schools, but will also have a room for the little folks. Such an institution will be quite an improvement to Sibley and it is hoped that it will be established.
