Our friends who are filling out on them, should do so now, as the stock can not be refilled before the new year. D. S. Good Grocery Co. Irwin Lepley, of Beaman, who was lately operated upon at the Wood Sanitarium is convalescing rapidly and will soon be up and out. He was operated upon for chronic mastoiditis. Mr. J. P. Diehl arrived home yesterday from an eight weeks' business trip to Springfield and Chicago, Ill. Mr. Diehl stopped in Ottawa, Ill., on his way home, for a brief visit with his father, Mr. A. Diehl. A paper picked up on the street today contained a list of holiday presents and among others was this unique entry: "For mother—another room to the house." Of course this meant one of those Davenport sofa beds at A. E. Wilbur & Sons'. The annual musical of the Women's Club will be given Wednesday, December 20th, in the new club rooms, third floor of the Blossom block. Lee Patison, 15 years old, will give a piano recital, assisted by Mrs. H. D. Wilbur. Each member is privileged to invite one guest. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bodine, Miss Tiedeman and Mr. Clarence Evans, all of Grinnell, were in the city this morning. Mrs. Bodine and Miss Tiedeman were on their way to Schaller to spend Christmas with relatives and the gentlemen accompanied them as far as this city. Miss Carrie Powers, who has been in Genoa, O., since last August at the home of her uncle, is expected to arrive in the city tonight, to spend the holidays at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Powers. She is now employed as bookkeeper in a bank at Genoa. Mr. E. L. Beard, of Cedar Rapids, who will succeed Mr. F. E. Barry as representative of Hartz & Bahnsen, wholesale druggists, of Rock Island, in territory adjacent to this city, arrived in the city this morning. Mr. Beard formerly lived in Grinnell for a number of years, where he was engaged in business. He will make Toledo his headquarters. The Henderson Stock Company will open a three nights' engagement at the Odeon on Thursday evening, December 21. The sensational melodrama, "Her Brother's Crime," will be the opening play. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents. On Thursday night a lady will be admitted free with each 30-cent ticket purchased before 6 o'clock. Chapter BB, of P. E. O., met Monday afternoon with Mrs. J. P. Diehl. According to the calendar, the entire afternoon was to have been spent in sewing, but a program on literature, was also enjoyed. It consisted of papers by Mrs. W. M. Clark, on "Pascals"; Mrs. E. M. Singleton, on "Voltaire"; Mrs. Diehl, on "Rousseau"; Mrs. Arney, on "Mishers"; and Mrs. Smith on the "Troubadours." The hostess was assisted in serving a delicious two-course luncheon by Mrs. P. E. Irwin and Mrs. L. M. Howig. The next meeting of the chapter will be January 3, with Mrs. Mairs.

Read Pratt & Baxter's ad. Dr. Ward, Osteopathic Physician. Holly! Holly! Holly! At Olson's. Christmas candles and nuts at Olson's. Lowney's candy is the best. B. A. Morgan. Fine perfumes in fancy cases at B. A. Morgan's. Plenty of fresh country butter and eggs, at Olson's. Another case of sweet elder received. D. S. Good Grocery Co. Mrs. G. F. Stansberry, of Gilman, spent Monday in the city. Lowney's Christmas candy in fancy boxes at B. A. Morgan's. We are making close prices on pictures. Skegg's Wall Paper Store. Fancy holly, holly wreaths and Christmas trees. Oppice Fruit Co. Don't forget Court of Honor dance tonight. Redmen hall. Williams' music. Let Kemble settle the Christmas question! Order a box of flowers. Do it now! See the splendid bargains we have in our 75 cents window. Simmons' Book Store. The largest and handsomest line of rich cut glass in the city, at Simmons' Book Store. The entire Nour members did not meet Monday, December 18 being one of the club holidays. Mr. Halsey French, of Pittsburg, Pa., arrived in the city this morning. Mr. and Mrs. A. N. French. A box of Allegritti's or Funke's chocolates makes a fine Christmas gift. McDonald & Mahood. Can you afford to buy a toilet set before examining our line? No old stock. McDonald & Mahood. We have plenty of fat turkeys and Christmas beef for all. Also ducks, geese and chickens. Scheid Bros. You should see our line of bags, purses, and fancy notions, for Xmas. Whitton & Whitehead. Open evenings. A nice box of writing paper makes an appropriate Christmas present. See the fine line at Alexander Drug Company. The Gillette safety razor, the best in the market, is an ideal present for a gentleman. For sale at Simmons' Book Store. We are going to give somebody free a handsome $x12 Wilton rug, Jan. 2, 1906. Open evenings. Whitton & Whitehead. We are selling our beautiful china for about the same that others ask for an inferior article. Simmons' Book Store. Anyone wishing a lamp should call early. We sold more lamps up to date than all last year; about two dozen left to select from. D. S. Good Grocery Co. Ask for German-American coffee—always uniform. Trade on this has increased three fold since its introduction. Must have merit. D. S. Good Grocery Co. Somebody will be pleased to get it, and we will be pleased to give it. — The beautiful $x12 Wilton rug, displayed in our window, given away Jan. 2, 1906. Open evenings. Whitton & Whitehead. The Busy Bee Circle, L. O. T. M., will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Fannie Smith, Mrs. Dora McMillan, and Mrs. Lada Richeson, at the Smith home, 116 North Second street. New officers will be elected at the meeting tomorrow. Mrs. B. B. Shollenberger, who has been in Wheaton, Minn., for the past two weeks, caring for her brother, Joseph Cooper, who underwent an operation for appendicitis, arrived home Monday evening. When Mrs. Shollenberger left Wheaton Mr. Cooper was doing as well as could be expected. Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Bove, 413 Park street, very delightfully entertained about sixteen of their neighborhood friends at a five hundred party Monday evening. Mrs. George Hummel won the inquiry prize and Mr. A. W. Heald the gentlemen's. The hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Henry W. Shove. El. Jones, for many years a resident of this city, who during the last year or more has been round house foreman for the Central at Hampton, was in the city Monday. Mr. Jones has left the company's employ, to accept the management of the Hampton branch of Armour & Company. While living here Mr. Jones was foreman of a gang of car repairers. George Peterson, a former resident of this city and an employe of L. S. Packham, who now lives on the old Carey farm, New Haven, three miles southeast of the city, suffered a small loss by fire Sunday. A store house, between the residence and the barn, caught fire and was destroyed, together with its contents. It was only with hard work that the house and barn were saved.
