Ladies—Wall paper is like a husband under the Iowa law. You've got to live with it six months before you can get another. You don't decorate once a month like you settle the grocery bill. Dinges & Everist, the acknowledged experts in wall paper, will guarantee to give you complete satisfaction and save you money. Everything from five cents to $7 a roll.

One of the real good melo-dramas is announced for tomorrow—Sunday—night, February 25, at the Odeon. It is the original Fred Seward production of Sir A. Conan Doyle's "The Black Eagle," taken from the famous book of "The Firm of Girdlestone" which was the sensation of two continents, and by many critics considered the greatest thing ever written by Doyle. This is England's most celebrated writer. Prices 15, 25, 35 and 50 cents. Seats now on sale.

Der Deutsche Unterhaltungs Kreis met with Mrs. P. A. Stern, 105 West Church street, Friday afternoon. The reading of "Wilhelm Tell" was continued, and German conversation enjoyed. The rooms were prettily decorated. Mrs. Stern was assisted in serving the feature of the social part of the afternoon was the delicious luncheon served by Frau Stern, which would have done honor to a more pretentious gathering than a regular afternoon club affair. Mrs. Stern was assisted in serving by her niece, Miss Edith Altschuler of Chicago, her daughter, Miss Elsa, and Miss Florence Harris. Guests of the Kreis were Mrs. G. W. Harris, Mrs. Putzel, Mrs. A. S. Burnell and Mrs. P. S. Balch.

The new musical comedy, "Bankers & Brokers," with book and lyrics by George T. Fletcher and J. H. Hayzlett, and music by Gus Salzer, will be the attraction at the Odeon next Wednesday, February 28th. The piece serves as a vehicle to introduce the intimitable comedians York and Adams, in a legitimate York and Adams manner, and the authors have collaborated happily to bring about the desired result. The comedy abounds in bright lines, the action is brisk, the mounting and staging excellent and the music graceful and catchy. The costumes are novel and handsome, the scenery elaborate and the electrical effects new and brilliant. It is primarily a girl show. Mr. Forrester has collected two score uncommonly attractive young women and, with refinement as a keynote the production is dainty and artistic. "Bankers & Brokers" has been unanimously conceded the one bright star in the firmament of musical comedy during the present season. The company numbers fifty people. Prices 25, 50, 75 and $1. Seats on sale Tuesday.

The house will be open to friends from 11 until 1. Mr. G. Show, Mrs. Larson's father, can not arrive in the city until Sunday night.

Mrs. J. E. Hamilton, of Two Rivers Wis. an aunt of the deceased, arrived in the city this morning to attend the funeral. Mrs. Hamilton will remain for a visit of a few weeks at the homes of her brothers.

A company of about thirty-six friends, including the members of the S. C. I. Club and their families, also Messrs. Will Hastings, Roy Allen, George and Carl Lewis, and Misses Lena and Kate Estel, the two latter of this city were guests at a farewell party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Estel Friday evening. The latter are going to remove from their present home to a farm two miles north of the city. The evening was spent in various ways. Miss Nellie Thompson gave several recitations and the Messrs. Lewis several musical numbers. Supper was served in two courses. Mrs. H. C. Stowell, on behalf of the club members, presented Mrs. Estel with a solid silver souvenir spoon. All enjoyed a fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Marston and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Abbott entertained the Careaway Club and several guests at the Marston home Friday evening. The guests were Mr. Frank Fletcher of Annapolis, Miss Edith Fletcher, Mrs. G. T. Thomas, of Troy, O., Mr. and Mrs. Linn Norris, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. E. Boardman, Mrs. H. B. Heitsch, Mrs. Jamar and Miss Ruth Binford. Dinner was enjoyed at 6:30 o'clock, the hostesses being assisted in serving by Misses Ruth Binford and Minnie Hollister, and Masters Hughitt Jamar and Herman Gableman. Five hundred was the evening's amusement.

Mr. T. J. Fletcher, of the Washingtons winning the honors for progression. The prizes for slams went to Mrs. Thomas and Dr. W. M. Choate.

Dr. and Mrs. N. Merrill and Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Baxter entertained forty guests Friday evening at a delightful old-fashioned dinner served at 6:30 o'clock, in seven courses. To carry out the colonial idea, the house was lighted with tallow candles, and the decorations were most patriotic in character. The young ladies who served, Misses Edna Gullford, Martha Nelson, Margaret Atstrong, Nellie Roadhouse, Grace Kilborn, Nettie Hayzlett and Sophia Johnson, were attired in colonial costume, and Miss May Johnson, dressed in Martha Washington style, received the guests at the door. The first course of the dinner was cherry cocktail, and individual George Washington pies, in which were stuck tiny silk flags as favors, formed the last course. The place cards were little cocked hats, as at the luncheon given by the same hostesses the day before. After dinner five hundred was played, the guests finding their places by means of little red hatchets. Mr. William Thompson won the gentlemen's prize for progression, it being the "Life of Washington" in two volumes, by Washington Irving. Mrs. F. G. Pierce and Mrs. George McNeely tied for the ladies' prize, the book entitled "Dames and Daughters of the American Revolution," which went to Mrs. McNeely. Mr. Virgil Willard, of Des Moines, was the only guest present from out of town.

Dinges & Everist, the wall paper experts are showing a line of decorative wall papers, etc., that is worth any woman's time to investigate. See the stock, have them figure on your rooms, get their advice. It costs you nothing unless you buy and then you save money.

Miss Mamie Cateron, 313 North Third avenue, entertained the members of the P. B. Club at her home Friday evening. The hours were spent with cards and music. A three-course luncheon was served by the hostess. The members of the club are Kate Elch, Alice Jenkins, Clara Hepper, Clara Hansen, Myrtle Gunkal, Ethel Kirby, Pearl Lusby, and Anna and Clara Peterson.

The City Federation of Women's Clubs enjoyed a social session Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. J. Janney. A large number was present. The features of the afternoon were Superintendent E. L. Coffeen's talk on "Needed Improvements in Our Public Schools" and Mrs. T. J. Fletcher's reading of the pure food bill, just passed. Informal discussions followed both. Resolutions were adopted thanking Representative H. F. Cummings of this city, for his earnest efforts in behalf of the pure food bill and child labor law, in both of which the federation is much interested. Mrs. George Darling, president, presided. The afternoon was also enjoyed socially, and the members of the board served delicious light refreshments.

The members of Chapter BB of P. E. O., their husbands and a few guests, enjoyed a social evening Friday at the L. L. Kellogg home, 210 North Center street. The committee in charge of the affair was Mrs. Kellogg, chairman, Mrs. C. R. Harper, Mrs. C. E. Peterson and Mrs. W. M. Clark. The invited guests were Rev. and Mrs. C. W. McCord, Mr. Ralph Hix and Misses Grace Hix, Florence King, Lucy Kinsley and Bessie Brinton. The decorations were patriotic in effect, it being a George Washington anniversary affair. Dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock, after which the entertainment was an informal musical, in which Mrs. Kellogg presided. An historical game was also enjoyed, in which the prize, a picture of George Washington, was awarded to Mrs. Kinnan.

A telegram received date Friday afternoon by Mrs. D. Padmore, 9 South Third street, announced the death of her son, James Padmore, of Winterset. Mr. Padmore's death was due to pneumonia, and resulted after a two weeks' illness. Mrs. Padmore had gone to her son's bedside shortly after he became ill, and returned a week ago, when he was much improved. A sudden change for the worse ensued, and the end was quite sudden. Mr. Padmore was 27 years of age, single, and was engaged in the real estate business at Winterset. Mrs. Padmore and daughters, Miss Julia Padmore, of the high school, and Miss Grace Padmore, a Liscomb township teacher, also a son, Mr. Curtis Padmore, left this morning for Winterset to attend the funeral, which will be held Sunday afternoon. Mr. Padmore was a lieutenant of the Iowa National Guards, and the Winterset company will have charge of the funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McLeland, 303 Jerome street, pleasantly entertained Friday evening a company of thirty-two friends at their home. The feast, being largely from among the neighborhood. The decorations were in keeping with the season, flags and hatchets predominating. Tally cards, exquisitely done in water colors by Miss Hazel McLeland, were tiny cards, board hatchets, bearing cherries. Mrs. George Humlung won the honors for the ladies, and was given a Haviland china plate as a prize. Mr. Arthur Jackson was awarded the gentlemen's prize, a nickel-plated hatchet. A delicious two-course luncheon was served by the host and hostess following the games, assisted by Misses Hazel and Clara McLeland. The table decorations were also on the Washington theme. The covers and napkins all bearing flags. Pink and white carnations were given as favors.

MASON CITY GIRLS WON.

Local Girls' Team Beaten in Splendid Game by 10 to 7.

By better team playing, better passing and faster work, the girls' basketball team of the Mason City high school defeated a similar team from the local high school at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium Friday night by the score of 10 to 7. The game was one of the best ever played in the gymnasium, and was witnessed by a crowd of 200 people, many of whom were from the high school, and who cheered loudly for their favorites.

Halves of fifteen minutes were played, and at the end of the first half the score stood 7 to 4 for the visitors. While the teams were evenly matched, the visiting girls were just a little surer throwing baskets, and a little faster in handling the ball. The home team put up a snappy fast game, but they were beaten by better play, which won a merited victory. Misses Sandoe, McCluer and Swingley played the star game for the home team.

The officials were Stone, of Mason City, referee, and Schroeder, of this city, umpire.

After the game the girls of the local team entertained the members of the Mason City team and the visitors at the home of Superintendent and Mrs. E. L. Coffeen. The decorations were in red and blue, the colors of the local school. Red carnations predominated in the flowers used. Light refreshments were served by the members of the local team, assisted by Mrs. Coffeen.

Miss Esther L. Bissell, principal of the Mason City high school, and Miss May G. Long, supervisor of physical culture in the Mason City schools, also Master James Malthouse, of Mason City, who accompanied the visiting team, will be over-Sunday guests at the Coffeen home.

MAKE FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENT

Present Incumbents, Candidates for Renomination, are Announced.

Formal announcement is made today of the candidacies of H. C. Lounsberry, for the office of clerk of courts, and J. P. Cooper, county treasurer. Both announcements are entirely formal, as there is no opposition to the renomination of either candidate. Both will have three-course luncheon on January 1 next, and both have made most excellent officials.

Mr. Lounsberry had many friends before he went into office, and he has not only retained them, but has been an obliging and painstaking clerk, has a deputy who is equally as anxious to accommodate the patrons of the office, and the result is that the manner in which the office is at present conducted is appreciated by the general public. Mr. Lounsberry has been in no danger of any opposition, and it is just that none should be accorded him. The record he has made during his present term is one that any young man might well be proud of.

Mr. Cooper's record is equally as satisfactory and pleasing to the public. He has looked after this most important part of the county's business with an ever-watchful eye. Tax collections have been waged in a manner equal to ferrets who are paid for such work, with result that much money has been turned into the treasury that would have otherwise been overlooked. The office is conducted along strictly business lines, and no bank in the city is more careful in accounting for every penny than the office over which Mr. Cooper presides. Mr. Cooper will have no opposition, and it is safe to say that if such were contemplated it would be no source of worry to him.

FOR PARK COMMISSIONER.

Frank W. Moran, a Carpenter and Contractor, Would be Member of the Board.

Frank W. Moran, a well known carpenter and contractor of the city, member of the firm of Orle & Moran, announces today as a candidate for park commissioner to succeed F. M. Rubee. Mr. Moran has been a resident of the city for several years, and is especially well known in union labor circles. He is a member of the local carpenters' and joiners' union, which is affiliated with the local trades and labor assembly, which will support his candidacy.

Just whose term is to expire this spring has, as yet not been decided by City Solicitor Burritt, who has been asked for an opinion. Mr. F. M. Rubee was elected two years ago, at the time the other members were named, and upon deciding by lot drew the two-year, or short term. It was later discovered that he had not taken out his naturalization papers, and he was re-elected. Now the question arises whether, by his second election, he was chosen for a full term of six years, or to fill the remaining one year of his original term, as drawn. Mr. Burritt will likely render an opinion soon.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Treasurer.

I wish to announce that I will be a candidate for a renomination for the office of county treasurer, subject to the republican primaries.

J. P. COOPER.

Clerk.

I will be a candidate for the republican nomination for the office of county clerk.

H. C. LOUNSBERRY.
