About thirty of the members of Mr.
C. H. Young's Sunday school class of young ladies at the Methodist church, met Friday evening to complete the organization of the class, at the home of Miss Mabel Melvin, 5 West enjoyed socially.

Iowa. He is the president of the Nova

The members of the Hawthorne Club, their husbands and a few outside guests, were entertained Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Glick, 411 West State street. The hostess was serving the regular club dinner by her sister, Miss Rachel Cannon, Mrs. E. W. Jamar, and Charlotte and Carl Glick. Music and a social time made the evening pass pleasantly. The only guest present from out of town, was Miss Anna Ziegenfelder, of Piqua, O.

You wouldn't like to have 10-carat gold passed off on you for 22-carat—you would take good care to look for the stamp. But there is much 10-carat "falling" palmed off on the trusting public—and no stamp to look for that means anything. In all things as in gold, there is only one "best," it is called "Journeyman tailoring." There is an unpretentious corner in our

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Hughes entertained very pleasantly Friday evening a company of twenty-eight friends, largely from the neighborhood, at five hundred, in honor of their sister, Mrs.
A. Lincoln Burke, of Chicago, and husband, who are guests at the Hughes home. Five hundred was enjoyed during the evening, the prizes going to Mrs. W. G. Bove and Mrs. H. J. Allard.
Mr. Allard decided the gentlemen's honors by cutting with Mr. T. D. Evans. Following the game, at 8:30, a delicious two-course luncheon was served by Mrs. Hughes, assisted by Mrs. T. D. Evans, Mrs. Charles Miller and Miss Ida Shove. Mr. and Mrs.
James Fisher, of Chicago, were the only out-of-town guests, present aside from the guests of honor.

Mrs. Charles H. Hull, who has been at St. Luke's hospital, Chicago, undergoing treatment for glaucoma, will arrive home Sunday evening. Mrs. Hull is still hopeful of being benefited by the treatment received at the hospital, altho the surgeons promise nothing excepting possibilities. Mrs. Hull's trouble has always been considered the most fatal disease to the eye known, and it has only been within recent years that any attempt has been made to treat it. The disease is a hardening of the crystalline lens, which gradually develops a decay of the optic nerves and results in total blindness.
It is believed that with Mrs. Hull the disease is probably hereditary, as her father, "Deacon" Willard, has been blind for many years, and her maternal grandfather, Mr. Townsend, suffered from the same trouble, and was blind for several years before his death.

has been attending the Ann Arbor, by Misses Elda Jackson and Susie Richards.

Mr. W. B. Millhiser is in receipt of a letter from his son, C. W. Millhiser, who is employed as a carpenter and resides in Long Beach, Cal. Mr. Mil-hiser writes interestingly of the conditions in southern California as a result of the earthquake in the northern part of the state, and says that the confidence of the people is unshaken as far as southern California is concerned. Real estate values have not been interfered with as a result of the quake, and people there think that there will never be any danger in that part of the state. Mr. Millhiser says he had it not been for the fire the quake would not have resulted very disastrously, and that the calamity, aside from the fire, was not to be compared with some of the other terrible disasters of the country.

CHARLES SELLERS DEAD.
Prominent and Well Known Farmer of Vienna Township Dies of Tuberculosis.

Charles F. Sellers, one of the very well known and prominent farmers of Vienna township, died at his home two and one-half miles north of Green Mountain, Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock of tuberculosis of the lungs. Mr. Sellers has been sick with the disease for two years. In the hope that perhaps a change of climate might stop the advancement of the disease Mr. Sellers went to Fairhope, Ala., last fall, remaining until March 1. As the change apparently did no good, and as it was evident what the end was not far distant, he returned home to die. Since his arrival he has been confined to his bed all of the time. Charles Sellers was not only one of the well known farmers of Vienna, but he was equally well liked, and took a prominent part in the social and other affairs of his neighborhood and township.

Charles Fleming Sellers was born in Mercer county, Illinois, Dec. 5, 1855. He came to Iowa with his parents, who settled in Hardin county in 1857. The family moved to Marshall county and took up its residence on a farm in Vienna township in 1870, where the deceased has ever since lived. In 1880 he married Miss Emma Moler, daughter of Henry Moler, of this city, who survives him. He also leaves three children, Florence and Burt Sellers and Mrs. Fred Gram, the latter of Cedar Falls, and three brothers, James, Edward and George Sellers. James lives in Green Mountain and Edward in Vienna township, while George resides in this city.

The funeral will be held from the residence Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. O. H. L. Mason, of Boone, officiating. The interment will be in the Vienna cemetery. Mrs. Mason will arrive tonight to attend the funeral, at which she will sing. The house will be open Monday afternoon from 1 to 2, for friends who wish to view the remains.

Good Advantage.

the Knights of Pythias lodge at that place. A crowd of twenty-five accompanied the members of the three

HE WAS JUST "FOOLIN'."
Negro Bounces Brisk Off Companion's Head and Calls It a Joke.

Bouncing a half brick off a fellow workman's head, from a distance of fifteen yards, according to Jim Edwards, colored, is considered "hot sport" and a good joke at the Britton & Co. plant. The injury likely to result incidentally to the compact of brick against a head, is but a part of the joke. That is the reason Edwards gave in police court this morning, after being looked up, charged with fighting by A. Williams, also colored, who had Edwards arrested for hitting him on the head with a brick. Mayor Ingledue sentenced both Edwards and Williams, who was also arrested, to 30 days in jail, but suspended sentence during good behavior.

Pleading extenuating circumstances Edwards acknowledged "shying the brick but in explanation said: "It is thought to be a hot joke about the packing house when a fellow is sitting in a window or somewhere, to paste him with a half brick. I just didn't mean no harm when I lammed the brickbat at him—I was playin'." Williams showed the place back of his ear where the "playful" rascal landed.

PLUMB TO OAK GROVE.
Marshalltown Preacher Called as Pastor to Church in Which He Was Converted.

Rev. J. M. Plumb, of this city, former pastor of the Methodist church at St. Anthony, has accepted a call from the church at Oak Grove, Jasper county. Oak Grove was Rev. Plumb's boy-hood home, and in the church that has called him as pastor he was converted. He served the church prior to his present call, in connection with the Rhodes charge. Rev. E. S. Brown, of Newton, president of the Iowa conference of the M. C. church, has formally appointed Rev. Plumb as pastor at Oak Grove. Mr. Plumb will continue to make his home in this city.

Perry Runs in Ten Seconds.
Earl Perry, who will enter the 100 and 220-yard dashes of the state interscholastic field meet at Iowa City May 19, made a new record for himself in practice Friday night at Finkle's park.
With a strong wind at his back he covered the distance in ten seconds flat. E. G. Schroeder caught the time with a stop watch. Perry is very likely to be a dangerous candidate for first place in both the events in which he enters.

AMUSEMENTS.
Best House of the Week Greets Metropolitan in "East Lyons." drama that ever proves popular with popular-priced audiences, drew the best house of the week at the Odeon Friday evening, when presented by the Metropolitan Stock Company.

Keep the Balance Up.
It has been truthfully said that any disturbance of the even balance of health causes serious trouble. Nobody can be too careful to keep this balance up. When people begin to lose appeteite, or get tired easily, the least im-prudence brings on sickness, weakness, or debility. The system needs a tonic craves it, and should not be denied it.

and the best tonic of which we have any knowledge is How's Sarsaparilla.
What this medicine has done in keeping healthy people healthy, in keeping the even balance of health, gives it the same distinction as a preventive that it enjoys as a cure. Its early use has illustrated the wisdom of the old saying that a stitch in time saves nine. Take How's for appetite, strength, and endurance.

Talk With Me About Clothing

WISE TALKS
BY THE
OFFICE BOY

WE SELL CLOTHES FOR MEN
In make and style that opens the custom tailor man's eyes in wonder.

We have carefully studied the trend of clothes evolution, and realizing the growing appreciation of something better, we have set a high standard for our product, and point with pride to the result.

Some houses sell clothing just as good as ours but high price is the penalty. Lots of houses sell clothing as low in price, and in fact lower, than ours but inferiority of fit, finish and fashion is the result.

We had an idea that if clothing could be sold in a sufficiently large volume, the cost of production could be brought down to the popular price level, at the same time keeping the quality up to the high grade standard.

The fit, finish and fashion of the Londondale models for the new spring season show the development of that idea—proves the realization of our hopes. It means much for you as it does for us.
