What Will You Do When the Bald Spot Comes? Why not get the healthy hair habit now? Why wait until you are ashamed to take off your hat? Why sit idly by and let the dandruff germ pick your locks, when it requires so little time, so little trouble to get rid of him—to give renewed life and vigor to sickly, dying hair? A liberal application of DR. MAIR'S DANDRUFF CURE upon arising every other morning—a hard, brisk massage, rubbing the preparation well into the scalp. That's all that is required. But the result! How cool and refreshing one's head feels after each application—how clean and healthy the scalp becomes—how the hair grows—how the natural color and gloss returns! No more dandruff soils the clothing—no more loose hair gathers in the comb and brush! The hair flourishes, becomes luxurious, beautiful—a joy forever. DR. MAIR'S DANDRUFF CURE is not an experiment. It is not a catch-penny nostrum. It is made for business and it attends to business—The business of putting the dandruff germ out of business, of starting the hair up in business. It is not a tonic. It is a hair food. It goes to the roots of the hair where it belongs. That's why it's different. That's why, although every bottle is sold on a guarantee, not one bottle has been returned. You take no risk. Buy it. Try it. Use it right. If it doesn't use you right, return the empty bottle and get your money. That's our guarantee. Hundreds of heads of healthy hair attest its value. Is yours among the number? Buy it of the drugman or send us a Dollar for a Dollar bottle prepaid. Manufactured and guaranteed by Dr. H. T. Mairs, Marshalltown, Iowa.
