 These funny fellows, Murray and Mack, who come to the Odeon tonight, are offering a new comedy of complications, "Ikey and Abey," which they call "Around the Town." The piece is said to excel any previous vehicles they have had. It is from the pen of a well known writer and abounds in repartee, quick dialog and snappy action. Special music has been written especially for this production to which have been added all the very latest New York song hits. Murray and Mack have agreed to spare no expense in giving their new offering a sumptuous production both scenically and musically. One of the strong features is an excellent chorus of male and female voices. The cast includes many well known artists.
FIRE DAMAGES HOUSE.
 Marshall Anderson Residence Damaged by Fire and Attic of the Marshall Anderson home, 305 East Church street, at 1:20 o'clock this afternoon, did considerable damage. Because the fire was burning in separate garages of the house, the fire was finally able to get at, and necessitated the use of water, which soaked some of the ceilings and damaged the floor coverings. The damage to the furniture was slight. The roof of the house was burned in various places. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are protected by insurance. The property belongs to the Van Allen estate, of Ferguson. The insurance on the building is not known.

 To collect for a subscription for stock, claimed to be due and unpaid, the Peterson, Heat, Light and Water Company, has filed for the January term of the district court suit against the Marshall Oil Company. The plaintiff company alleges that the Marshall Oil Company bought 500 shares of its stock at $1 a share, the same to be paid for when the terms of the subscription were complied with. These, it is alleged, have been complied with, but the defendant company refuses to take or pay for the stock.
MRS. WHITEHEAD WEDS.
 Young Woman Well Known Here Becomes Mrs. Arthur Wyant at Des Moines.
 A wedding that will be of interest to many Marshalltown friends, was solemnized in Des Moines at high noon Wednesday, when Miss Nellie Whitehead, of this city, became the wife of Dr. Arthur Wyant, of Hawarden. The wedding was celebrated at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. M. Parsons, and the ceremony was witnessed by only the members of the immediate family. The bride is well known here, having visited her brother here on many occasions.
 Dr. and Mrs. Wyant will arrive in the city this evening for a short visit at the Whitehead home, and from here will go to Hawarden, where they will make their home. Dr. Wyant is a dentist.
 Mr. and Mrs. Whitehead were present at the wedding, as were also Mrs. Ida Conklin, and daughters Gertrude and Helen, from Cedar Rapids. The Misses Conklin accompanied Mrs. Whitehead home Thursday evening, and will be here for a short visit.
MARRIED.
McLean-Packer.
 At the country home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Packer, west of the city, Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock, in the presence of about 100 relatives and friends, was solemnized the wedding of their daughter, Anna M., to Donald V. McLean. The wedding march from Lohengrin was played by the bride's sister, as the bridal party descended the stairs. An aisle was formed of white ribbons, carried by Masters Theodore and Holmes Packer, for the bride party, which was composed of Rev. Lewis, of LaMoille, the groom, attended by his brother, Miss Ina Scherredock, of Leavenworth, as maid of honor, and four bridesmaids, Misses Georgia Cray, Aesath Love and Mary Packer of this city, and Miss Grace Packer, of Clinton, Mo. The bride was given away by her father. The ring service was used. The bride wore white net made over white silk and carried bride's roses.
 During the congratulations Mrs. Ellen Williams, of LaMoille, sang "O, Promise Me," which was furnished by the Misses Erickson and Miss Garrish Packer, while a dainty three course supper was served by Esther Hole, Josephine Packer, Myrtle Handley, Josephine Campbell, Roscoe and Ray Packer.  Richard Carle's most successful musical play, "The Maid and the Mummy," will appear at the Odeon tomorrow evening. This is the merry skit that started on its wonderfully successful career last fall with a long run at the New York theater. The company includes twenty principals and a chorus of thirty girls, among the principals being Elizabeth Spencer, Ida Buckley, Margaret Burnham, Ed. Beck, Pae Edmondson, Fred Warren, Earl Dewey and Edward Groh. The chorus includes the famous Polly and Julia girls, two collections of the prettiest girls of New York and Chicago.
 Members of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, who are in the city for the holiday vacation, enjoyed a reunion and dinner at the Stockard, Thursday evening. The party was given in honor of the members present were Messrs. Carl Kent, of Carlton College, Northfield, Minn.; Maurice Kent, Frank Whitney, Albert Hill, Carl Kirk and Russell King, of the University of Iowa, Iowa City; and Tom Adams, Will Long and Glenn Stuntz, of Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill. Mr. Stuntz is a son of Harley L. Stuntz, formerly of this city, and now of the central railway, as chief clerk of the auditing department, now in the service of the Panama Canal Commission.
 These funny fellows, Murray and Mack, who come to the Odeon tonight, are offering a new comedy of complications, "Ikey and Abey," which they call "Around the Town." The piece is said to excel any previous vehicles they have had. It is from the pen of a well known writer and abounds in repartee, quick dialog and snappy action. Special music has been written especially for this production to which have been added all the very latest New York song hits. Murray and Mack have agreed to spare no expense in giving their new offering a sumptuous production both scenically and musically. One of the strong features is an excellent chorus of male and female voices. The cast includes many well known artists.
FIRE DAMAGES HOUSE.
 Marshall Anderson Residence Damaged by Fire and Attic of the Marshall Anderson home, 305 East Church street, at 1:20 o'clock this afternoon, did considerable damage. Because the fire was burning in separate garages of the house, the fire was finally able to get at, and necessitated the use of water, which soaked some of the ceilings and damaged the floor coverings. The damage to the furniture was slight. The roof of the house was burned in various places. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are protected by insurance. The property belongs to the Van Allen estate, of Ferguson. The insurance on the building is not known.
WANT PAY FOR STOCK.
 Peterson, Heat, Light and Water Company Sues Subscriber.
 To collect for a subscription for stock, claimed to be due and unpaid, the Peterson, Heat, Light and Water Company, has filed for the January term of the district court suit against the Marshall Oil Company. The plaintiff company alleges that the Marshall Oil Company bought 500 shares of its stock at $1 a share, the same to be paid for when the terms of the subscription were complied with. These, it is alleged, have been complied with, but the defendant company refuses to take or pay for the stock.
MRS. WHITEHEAD WEDS.
 Young Woman Well Known Here Becomes Mrs. Arthur Wyant at Des Moines.
 A wedding that will be of interest to many Marshalltown friends, was solemnized in Des Moines at high noon Wednesday, when Miss Nellie Whitehead, of this city, became the wife of Dr. Arthur Wyant, of Hawarden. The wedding was celebrated at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. M. Parsons, and the ceremony was witnessed by only the members of the immediate family. The bride is well known here, having visited her brother here on many occasions.
 Dr. and Mrs. Wyant will arrive in the city this evening for a short visit at the Whitehead home, and from here will go to Hawarden, where they will make their home. Dr. Wyant is a dentist.
 Mr. and Mrs. Whitehead were present at the wedding, as were also Mrs. Ida Conklin, and daughters Gertrude and Helen, from Cedar Rapids. The Misses Conklin accompanied Mrs. Whitehead home Thursday evening, and will be here for a short visit.
MARRIED.
McLean-Packer.
 At the country home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Packer, west of the city, Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock, in the presence of about 100 relatives and friends, was solemnized the wedding of their daughter, Anna M., to Donald V. McLean. The wedding march from Lohengrin was played by the bride's sister, as the bridal party descended the stairs. An aisle was formed of white ribbons, carried by Masters Theodore and Holmes Packer, for the bride party, which was composed of Rev. Lewis, of LaMoille, the groom, attended by his brother, Miss Ina Scherredock, of Leavenworth, as maid of honor, and four bridesmaids, Misses Georgia Cray, Aesath Love and Mary Packer of this city, and Miss Grace Packer, of Clinton, Mo. The bride was given away by her father. The ring service was used. The bride wore white net made over white silk and carried bride's roses.
 During the congratulations Mrs. Ellen Williams, of LaMoille, sang "O, Promise Me," which was furnished by the Misses Erickson and Miss Garrish Packer, while a dainty three course supper was served by Esther Hole, Josephine Packer, Myrtle Handley, Josephine Campbell, Roscoe and Ray Packer. The ring service was used. The bride wore white net made over white silk and carried bride's roses.
 The guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Israel Packer and son Ira, of Rockwell City; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Price and Mrs. Allie Packer, of Marquette; Mr. and Mrs. John Benson, of Rollette, N. D., and T. A. Ball, of Des Moines.
