

Times-Republican

The City in Brief

Dr. Bullard, osteopath, 28 E. Main. Lingon berries, 10c a quart, at Olson's. Drs. Conway, physicians and surgeons. Golden Thistle flour makes white bread. Olson.

Remember your friends on February 15th, with a box of Kember's flowers. Mi-o-na stomach tablets for indigestion. Money back if they fail to cure. McBride & Will Drug Co.

The meeting of the base ball association will be held Tuesday night in the council chamber instead of tonight.

The first division of the M. E. ladies will serve a chicken pie supper Wednesday eve, from 5:30 till all are served.

We offer you your choice of ten pieces yard wide fancy colored madras draperies, worth 17c for 12 1/2c a yard. E. R. Lay.

Linen finished materials the popular cloth for suits in all colors, on sale at Nettie Ingledue & Co. the Up-to-Date Dry Goods House.

Mr. Dwight Denmead, who is a student at Iowa State College, Ames, spent Sunday in the city with his brother, Mr. Harry Denmead.

Mr. Myron Thatcher, of Liscomb, left Saturday evening for St. Louis, Mo., where he will enter a school for the study of plumbing.

The famous San-Ceara coffee. It makes a delicious drink. Guaranteed quality. No other coffee as good for the price. 25c at Woodmansee's.

Dr. Steiner in a recent letter said: "Mr. Raymond Robbins' address Tuesday evening will be a feature of the entire season."

W. J. Allen, an Iowa Central passenger brakeman, who has been confined to his home for two weeks with an attack of grippe, was able to leave on his run on train No. 4 this morning.

Rev. Father L. D. Tobin, of St. Anthony, spent Saturday in the city, being on his way home from Dubuque, where he had been for the week, taking the annual junior clergy examinations.

The Women's Union Missionary society of the city will meet in the Congregational church at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Mc Kim will read a paper on "Why I am interested in Missions."

Mrs. B. K. Hawbaker, of Kenmare, N. D., who has been visiting two months at Lehigh, and her brother, Mr. F. L. Richards, and wife, and with the family of her sister, Mrs. A. H. Weltzell, left for her home this morning.

J. W. Pierce, of Montclair, N. J., who is a lecturer in the employ of the W. C. T. U., addressed the boys of Gideon's abnd at the Railroad Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon. Mr. Pierce has been holding special meetings at the Soldiers' Home.

Mrs. Anna Peterson, the aged mother of Mrs. Hans Madsen, 532 North First street, is very seriously ill as the result of a paralytic trouble. Mrs. Peterson's condition is quite alarming, and is even more serious owing to her advanced years, as she is almost 80.

Dr. Elijah B. Jones, pastor of the Baptist church, was quite seriously sick Sunday, but at the home this afternoon it was said that he had improved. His condition Sunday was such as to cause some little uneasiness. Dr. Jones is suffering with gall stones.

The alumni and former students of the Iowa Business College are cordially invited to a reception and entertainment to be given by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gilbert and the Young Men's Bible Class of the college Monday evening, Feb. 11 at 8 p. m. in the college rooms.

The meeting of the base ball association will be held Tuesday evening instead of tonight in the council chamber. Officers are to be elected, and business of importance relative to the coming season is to come up. All the stockholders and all interested in base ball should attend.

The funeral of Mrs. James Crabtree was largely attended Sunday afternoon from the residence 304 West Linn street. Rev. H. C. Richardson, pastor of the Universalist church of Boone, formerly pastor here, officiating. A great many pretty flowers were given as tokens of respect and love by sorrowing neighbors and friends. Mrs. Myo Hurlbut sang. The pall bearers were Mrs. Crabtree's three sons, Arthur and John Crabtree, of this city, and Alexander Crabtree, of Laurel, and her son-in-law, Mr. H. R. Cameron, of Chicago. Interment was in Riverside.

Mr. George Barnard, a well known farmer of Zeigler, arrived in the city today from Chicago, where, about ten days ago, he accompanied two carloads of stock of his own raising. Since being on the market, Mr. Barnard has been visiting relatives at Rensselaer, Ind. Mr. Barnard had one head of hogs, seventy head, that averaged 215 pounds, and brought $7, the top for the day. The steers, twenty head, averaging 1-1200, fetched $4.75. They were short fed stuff, eighty days, and brought a very fair price, considering the weight. Mr. Charles Barnard, Mr. Barnard's father, accompanied him to Chicago and Rensselaer, and is now visiting relatives in Blairtown, where he will remain for about ten days.

Mrs. J. W. Van Orsdel, of Green Mountain, until recently of Reinbeck, was in the city Saturday afternoon, en route to Gilman for a visit of a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Urline. Mr. and Mrs. Van Orsdel moved from Reinbeck to Green Mountain last week and will occupy as a home the residence to be vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Dickerson, of Dickerson, who has been running the Farmers and Merchants' Bank of Green Mountain, will go to Liscomb April 1 to take charge of the bank there, and will be succeeded as cashier by Mr. Van Orsdel. Mrs. Van Orsdel was formerly Miss Elsie Urline, of Gilman, a member of one of the well-known families of that place.

Typewriter supplies at Liebig's. Kember's flowers make the sweetest of valentines. Don't forget the dance at I. O. O. F. hall Tuesday eve, Feb. 12. Ferguson's orchestra.

Smith Turner, advance representative of Yale's "Devil's Auction," was in the city today. Dr. Getz' office old place, new phone 440, residence Stoddard. Phones, old 227, new 245.

Rev. W. H. Scott was in Bethel Grove Sunday to fill his regular appointment in the Christian church. The lecture for the woman's series by Dr. Steiner will not be given Tuesday afternoon, but will be given at some future date.

Mr. Raymond Robbins, of Chicago, will be entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Fred Hopkins and Mrs. R. A. Ely, at the Hopkins home, 301 South Third street.

Don't be fooled any longer by inferior grades of silks, but the world's best tafetta, Shamrock, sold only by Nettie Ingledue & Co. the Up-to-Date Dry Goods House.

Ex-Judge G. W. Burnham left Saturday afternoon for his former home in Vinton, where he will remain for a few days on business. Mrs. Burnham accompanied him.

The Ladies' Cemetery Aid society will be entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Fred Hopkins and Mrs. R. A. Ely, at the Hopkins home, 301 South Third street.

Jay W. Ingledue, who has been in the employ of the Stone restaurant for some time, has entered the employ of the Iowa Central, in the department of General Storekeeper W. G. Manchester.

Because of the council meeting this evening the meeting of the base ball association has been postponed until tomorrow, Tuesday evening. This meeting is important as plans for the coming season are to come up.

Any one that has been in the south and enjoyed the hot dishes they serve can get the genuine Mexican chili peppers, chili beans, and chili powder with which to prepare the same dishes, at Culley's, 10 and 12 South First avenue.

Judge Ben McCoy, of Oskaloosa, who has the tax ferret contract with this county, is here for a few weeks with the records. Mr. McCoy went to his home Saturday evening to spend Sunday, and returned to the city today.

Workmen began this morning to erect scaffolding in the second floor rotunda of the court house, preparatory to decorating the walls. Not only the rotunda of both the second and first floors are to be retined, but the walls leading to them are also to be redecorated.

Mr. Alfred Manger, the Dubuque violinist, who is to appear before the Twentieth Century club this evening at the E. R. Lay home, arrived in the city this morning. Mr. Paul A. Walz, of Dubuque, Mr. Manger's accompanist, also reached the city this morning.

Discosuits will be allowed on January bills on Monday February 11th, on account of February 10th being Sunday. Our office will be kept open Saturday, February 9th and Monday, February 11th, until 9 p. m. No discounts thereafter.

Robert Whitehead, of 10 West Boone street, who attempted suicide Saturday morning by jumping into the Iowa river, had recovered sufficiently by late Saturday afternoon to be able to walk to his home from the Singleton hospital. Apparently no ill effects were sustained from the shock and exposure incident to the frigid water.

Not long ago a thief was captured east of town by reason of an item in the newspaper when the sheriff's posse was going west of town on the run. This often happens with the man who advertises his wants after searching in the wrong place. The newspaper appears everywhere. Advertising at 1 cent a word is cheaper than shoe leather.

The ball to be given by Mr. Leroy Miller tomorrow evening at Forney's hall is an assured success. The Barker-Buchanan Co. is now installing the equipment comprising several hundred dollars worth of electrical apparatus to produce snow, rain, clouds, moonlight, and other natural effects. It will be undoubtedly a great treat.

George Leise and Misses Lola Scott and Florence Steward, members of the high school debating team, accompanied by Mr. A. G. Karge, of the faculty, and Miss Florence Lindgren, of the chorus, will leave for Chicago Saturday night to hear a freshman student debate. The trip was in the nature of instruction for the high school team, in order that the members might see how a college debate was conducted.

G. H. Ruth and W. G. Strickler, who left the city Friday night, will sail Tuesday from New York for a trip to the West Indies and to the Isthmus of Panama. The first stop will be made at Porto Rico, island of Haiti. From there the ship will make short visits to other islands of the West Indies. The boat will then proceed to Colon, Isthmus of Panama, and the return trip will stop at Kingston, island of Jamaica. The party on board will probably be landed at Baltimore. Messrs. Ruth and Strickler will be gone for from five to seven weeks.

Several members of the Railroad Y. M. C. A. will go to Sioux City Tuesday and Wednesday of this week to attend the state convention of the association, which begins Thursday and lasts over Sunday. Secretary John A. Goodell will go to Sioux City Tuesday night, to be there Wednesday to attend the conference of secretaries. Secretary Goodell will read a paper at the conference. Others who expect to go Wednesday are T. I. Wasson, who is a member of the state executive committee; L. Mattson, Harry Ritter, Conrad Olson and Physical Director E. G. Schroeder.

Oskaloosa Herald: A number of Iowa Central boys are feeling good today in the fact that they have been "set up" in the examinations have been successfully passed and promotion comes along with the increased wages that the new positions bring. George W. Walker is inside a conductor. J. S. Gibbons and Charles E. Gillander are set up from the West. Mr. H. E. Mason, formerly a conductor with the Iowa Central, has returned to the service of the road and will reside in Oskaloosa. Mr. Mason has been running out of Marshalltown on the Great Western, but has accepted a position with the Central and will return to Oskaloosa in the near future.

Pure food goods at Olson's. Corduroy crepe paper, in all colors, at Liebig's. Fancy naval oranges and grape fruit at Olson's.

Buy your valentines of George Powers, Finkle block. Valentines are all fresh and new at Powers'. Finkle block.

Dr. Lierle, oculist and aurist. Glasses fitted. Tremont block. Heinz bulk mince meat and a great many other varieties of Heinz's goods, at Olson's.

Mrs. R. Peepker, of Gladbrook, who has been a patient at St. Thomas hospital, returned home Sunday.

We offer you your choice of ten pieces yard wide fancy colored madras draperies, worth 17c for 12 1/2c a yard. E. R. Lay.

The fabrics for spring overcoats are dressy in character and tasty in style. We are showing the newest. Hopkins, the popular tailor.

The Sunday school teachers of the city are requested to meet this evening at 7:30 in the Presbyterian church, for the purpose of forming a permanent organization.

Don't buy silks until you have seen Shamrock silks; world's best tafetta. Guaranteed to give satisfactory wear. Sold only by Nettie Ingledue & Co. the Up-to-Date Dry Goods House.

The groundhog seems to have another guess coming, but there is no guess work involved in buying furniture or floor coverings of A. E. Wilbur & Co. Everything is exactly as represented.

Before you specify your plumbing goods, see the McDonald-Morrison Rivet low down closet. It needs less repair than any other closet made. Handled only by the McCarty Plumbing company.

Dr. Rosa Liebig has opened an office in the Binford block, corner West Main and North First street, where the latch string will be out from 9 to 12 and 2 to 4 every day, to those who wish to consult her professionally or on humane and truant work.

Michael McGrath of 1008 West Boone street, is very critically ill at his home, suffering an attack of grippe. The chances for his recovery are slight. A son, James, who is employed as a bridge worker on the Great Northern, came home from Minnesota a few days ago, and is ill of lung fever.

Miss Mary Gilchrist of this city, who teaches the Minerva school, is confined to her home with an attack of tonsillitis. Mr. Charles Nichols, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Nichols, took charge of the school temporarily this morning, but an effort is being made to secure a substitute teacher until Miss Gilchrist is able to resume her work.

Mr. B. W. Sinclair, of the Sinclair Tea and Coffee company, left Sunday night for an eastern business trip of two weeks or more. He will stop at the big potteries of East Liverpool, O., visit Cleveland and Philadelphia, and then go to New York and Boston. Mr. Sinclair will also spend several days at the cut glass factories at New Bedford, Mass.

Miss Mary Gilchrist of this city, who teaches the Minerva school, is confined to her home with an attack of tonsillitis. Mr. Charles Nichols, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Nichols, took charge of the school temporarily this morning, but an effort is being made to secure a substitute teacher until Miss Gilchrist is able to resume her work.

Mr. B. W. Sinclair, of the Sinclair Tea and Coffee company, left Sunday night for an eastern business trip of two weeks or more. He will stop at the big potteries of East Liverpool, O., visit Cleveland and Philadelphia, and then go to New York and Boston. Mr. Sinclair will also spend several days at the cut glass factories at New Bedford, Mass.

Discosuits will be allowed on January bills on Monday February 11th, on account of February 10th being Sunday. Our office will be kept open Saturday, February 9th and Monday, February 11th, until 9 p. m. No discounts thereafter.

Robert Whitehead, of 10 West Boone street, who attempted suicide Saturday morning by jumping into the Iowa river, had recovered sufficiently by late Saturday afternoon to be able to walk to his home from the Singleton hospital. Apparently no ill effects were sustained from the shock and exposure incident to the frigid water.

Not long ago a thief was captured east of town by reason of an item in the newspaper when the sheriff's posse was going west of town on the run. This often happens with the man who advertises his wants after searching in the wrong place. The newspaper appears everywhere. Advertising at 1 cent a word is cheaper than shoe leather.

The ball to be given by Mr. Leroy Miller tomorrow evening at Forney's hall is an assured success. The Barker-Buchanan Co. is now installing the equipment comprising several hundred dollars worth of electrical apparatus to produce snow, rain, clouds, moonlight, and other natural effects. It will be undoubtedly a great treat.

George Leise and Misses Lola Scott and Florence Steward, members of the high school debating team, accompanied by Mr. A. G. Karge, of the faculty, and Miss Florence Lindgren, of the chorus, will leave for Chicago Saturday night to hear a freshman student debate. The trip was in the nature of instruction for the high school team, in order that the members might see how a college debate was conducted.

G. H. Ruth and W. G. Strickler, who left the city Friday night, will sail Tuesday from New York for a trip to the West Indies and to the Isthmus of Panama. The first stop will be made at Porto Rico, island of Haiti. From there the ship will make short visits to other islands of the West Indies. The boat will then proceed to Colon, Isthmus of Panama, and the return trip will stop at Kingston, island of Jamaica. The party on board will probably be landed at Baltimore. Messrs. Ruth and Strickler will be gone for from five to seven weeks.

Several members of the Railroad Y. M. C. A. will go to Sioux City Tuesday and Wednesday of this week to attend the state convention of the association, which begins Thursday and lasts over Sunday. Secretary John A. Goodell will go to Sioux City Tuesday night, to be there Wednesday to attend the conference of secretaries. Secretary Goodell will read a paper at the conference. Others who expect to go Wednesday are T. I. Wasson, who is a member of the state executive committee; L. Mattson, Harry Ritter, Conrad Olson and Physical Director E. G. Schroeder.

Oskaloosa Herald: A number of Iowa Central boys are feeling good today in the fact that they have been "set up" in the examinations have been successfully passed and promotion comes along with the increased wages that the new positions bring. George W. Walker is inside a conductor. J. S. Gibbons and Charles E. Gillander are set up from the West. Mr. H. E. Mason, formerly a conductor with the Iowa Central, has returned to the service of the road and will reside in Oskaloosa. Mr. Mason has been running out of Marshalltown on the Great Western, but has accepted a position with the Central and will return to Oskaloosa in the near future.

Weatherby. It is possible that Miss Heigland will decide to make her home in this city. Manager R. A. Jones, of the Fair store, accompanied by his little son, Leon, spent Sunday in Ft. Dodge, with Mr. Jones' mother, Mrs. V. V. Jones.

Mrs. Henry Craver, living four miles northeast of the city, in Marion township, went to Searsboro Saturday evening, where she will remain for a visit. Mr. Lou Painter, of Osceola, who has been in the city for a visit of a week with his brother, Mr. George Painter, and wife left for his home Friday evening.

Miss Florence Shaulls, of Oskaloosa, formerly of Marshalltown, was in the city Friday night, en route to Waterloo, where she will visit for a week or two with her parents.

Miss Blanche Bartine, of St. Anthony, spent Friday in the city, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. M. E. Baker, and friends. Mr. Bartine visited her short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Bartine.

Rev. Harvey Hostetter, of Council Bluffs, who has been in the city for a visit of a few days with his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Hostetter, and sister, Mrs. Mary Hostetter, left Saturday evening for Denison, where Mrs. Hostetter has been visiting relatives for a few days.

Mr. B. A. Mansfield, of Des Moines, was in the city Friday visiting with his sister-in-law, Mrs. Ellen B. Mansfield, and friends. Mr. Mansfield went to Hubbard in the afternoon to spend the day with his mother, Mrs. McCreary. Mr. Mansfield formerly lived in this city.

Miss Mary Kenney, of Goman, Australia, arrived in the city Friday evening, and will remain for an indefinite visit at the home of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. John Mikshl, 801 South Third avenue. Miss Kenney was accompanied by a cousin of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Watko, of Anson street, who will also be here for an extended visit.

Notice to Tax Payers. All taxes for the year 1906 are now due, and if not previously paid will be delinquent March 1. The first half may be paid on or before March 31st, without penalty.

We can not accept first payment of taxes after March 31st, as the whole tax will then have been delinquent for HOME DECORATION New Ideas From the East for Paper Hangers - A Good Time to Have Work Done - T. F. Jones' New Stock.

T. F. Jones, whose big wall paper and paint store is in the Finkle block (red front) has made a study all his life of the subject of decoration. He knows what is right, what is up to date, and, best of all, has the artistic sense and skill to put his knowledge into practice. These facts have made it possible for him to nearly double his business in two years. He has just received his spring stock of new designs in wall paper. The stock is a surprising one in every way, not only for the immense quantity, but for the variety of design, quality and attractive prices. If you need any decorating get Jones' ideas and see his stock.

Jones' stock comes direct from the manufacturers in New York and Pennsylvania and the patterns never wear so pleasing and so beautiful. He can accomplish wonders in brightening up your home. The best tools and skilled workmen under his direction enable him to do your work quickly. Not the least surprising thing too is the low prices he will make you. Have your papering done now before the spring rush. It will save you money. It will cost you nothing to figure with Jones and advise with him as to plans and color schemes for your rooms. Besides he has the variety of patterns and latest designs and colorings to carry any scheme into effect. Finkle block, red front.

Announcement. I wish to announce to the voters of the Third ward that I will be a candidate for councilman at the coming city election to be held on March 25.

A. J. CLARK.

Lady Macabees and Sir Knights, Attention! Tomorrow night the Sir Knights will give a social-entertainment-dance at their hall. Special musical features. Refreshments. Come and see what you have in your tent in the way of entertainment. Lady Macabees invited.

Change of Location. Ernest Johnson city parcel delivery over Western Union telegraph, 101 East Main. New phone 932, old 145.

RHODES. Feb. 11.-Miss Grace McDonald and Herbert Bishop are both ill.

Dr. Noble and George Phillips were Marshalltown callers Monday.

Max Radloff, of near Marshalltown, visited his sisters, Mrs. E. F. Bishop, last week.

Mr. Hollis Phillips left Saturday for his new home near Luverne.

Miss Ethel Titus attended the band fair at Melbourne last week.

The Methodist ladies' aid met and spent the day with Mrs. Letvan, Thursday. The work was quilting.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Harmon, of Marshalltown, were visitors in town Saturday.

In the I. O. O. F. hall, on Tuesday evening, Mrs. Frana Scott, of Liscomb, district deputy of Liscomb, installed the following officers of the Rhodes Rebekah lodge, No. 352: Mary Hale, past grand; Carrie Crooke, noble grand; Jessie Brown, vice grand; Myrtle Daugherty, secretary; Elizabeth Gruber, treasurer; Mildred Satterfield, warden; Alice Rebeck, conductor; Carrie Bentley, chaplain; Minnie Armstrong, inside guardian; Mina Girton, outside guardian; Lida Armstrong, left support noble grand; Lizzie Heinz, right support noble grand; Josie Hale, right support vice grand; Alta Fitzgerald, left support vice grand. After the installation ceremonies a three-course luncheon was served, after which games were played until a late hour.

Jud Malloy had the misfortune to cut his foot quite badly with the ax while chopping wood last Thursday.

The Meistersingers, who were to have appeared in Rhodes January 30, but failed, will be here February 16.

The horse sale in town Saturday was very largely attended.

Miss Dowd was called to her home in State Center Thursday evening by the serious illness of her father.

TO THE MAN WHO SMOKES A PIPE We have added to our extensive line of Fancy Smoking Tobaccos, the Famous SPILMAN MIXTURE The Tobacco without a bite or regret—made of the choicest part of the leaf, from the finest tobaccos grown in Turkey, Syria and Cuba. A tobacco with the aroma in it; not on it; of unvarying quality; made for lovers of the best. Your Unbitten Tongue Will Praise It 3 1-3 oz 75c; 1-2 lb. $1.65; 1 lb. $3.30 Cook's Cigar Store 11 West Main MARSHALLTOWN, - - IOWA For 5c you can buy one of Cook's Imperial Cigars There Are None Better

5000 BARGAINS IN SASH, DOORS Windows and Millwork of Guaranteed Quality Shipped Direct from America's Biggest Mill to Home Owners, Carpenters, Contractors Don't think of doing any Repair Work, or Building, whoever you are or wherever you are, until you have sent for our Free Millwork Catalogue Why Our Millwork is the Best Our Millwork is the best because we have the most skilled workmen we operate the largest mill in the world—150,000 feet of floor space (for 4 acres)—we own our own timber lands, sawmills and lumber yards. We carry a large stock and can therefore ship promptly. Our lumber is first selected and then, as an extra precaution, it is put through a scientific drying process. Joints are made with heavy hardwood dowel pins, glued with impregnable glue, pressed together by heavy steam power press. Absolutely no "come-apart" to our Millwork. Door Panels have a heavy rail on both sides. Panels are made up on a special machine of our own invention before the door is put together, and the entire is then smoothed with fine-grained sandpaper. Every piece of Millwork we make is just as carefully finished as labor and expense can make it. Just write a postal for that Free Catalogue so you can see all of the 5000 Bargains we offer, and save yourself many a dollar in repair work, or in building the first home. WHAT A BANKER SAYS ABOUT US SCOTT COUNTY SAVING BANK Capital $250,000.00 Surplus $150,000.00 We have the best plan to build a home. To Whom It May Concern: I have just received your kindly and thoughtful business literature and beauty of Gordon Van Tine & Co. Their plans are so complete and so well thought out that I will have no further need of any other plans. The officers of this company are well and honestly and I have no doubt that you will be as successful as they are. Yours very truly, J. W. HALL, Oskaloosa. Is writing to bank, see 656-foot Blair Street, above 20 stamp for 25c; 616, E. 2nd St., 11.00

Are You Going to Build, Repair, Roof or Put Siding on a House, Barn, Store or Building of Any Kind? Read This—Write A Postal For Our FREE Millwork Catalogue and SAVE HALF YOUR MONEY Write Today

SAFE Delivery GUARANTEED ANYWHERE SAMPLE BARGAINS FROM CATALOGUE Forth Rail, 6" Embossed Moulding, per 100 lineal feet, per foot $1.00 Yellow Pine, $1.00. Forth Rail, 6" Galvan Van Tine & Co.'s Finest Rubber Floor Roofing, proof roofing in the equal of any made, and by selling direct to you we sell at a quality price. Half dealer's price. Our price per square, 100 sq. ft., 1-1/2 ft. $1.41; 2-1/2 ft., $1.80; 3-1/2 ft., $2.20. Complete Plans for Beautiful Homes Are Shown in Our Free Catalogue Free Plans If you want our Pamphlet of House, Barn and Outbuilding Plans, mention it, and we will gladly mail it, postage paid, with the big building material catalogue. We have a complete building. No repair work, building or additions should be undertaken before writing for this booklet of plans. We want everyone interested to have any or all of our catalogues of building material, roofing and plans. Write today. For Catalogue Address GORDON, VAN TINE & CO. Station D69 DAVENPORT, IOWA