

ODEON THEATRE
BUBBY BROS., Managers.
Telephone 262X—Old.

Sunday Night
March 3
The Massive Scenic Production

Girl
CLEAN PURE MORAL OF THE Streets

SEE
The Suspension Bridge
Harlem River at Night
New York City Illuminated
The Counterfeiter's Den
The Great Winter Scene
Sing Sing Prison
The "Black Pool"
The Abduction, Etc.

PRICES 15, 25, 35 and 50 cents
Seats on sale Saturday at 10 a. m.

Thursday, March 7
SENSATION OF TWO SEASONS

The Clansman
by THOMAS DIXON JR.
From his two novels, "The Leopard's
Spots" and "The Clansman."
ENTIRE PRODUCTION COMPLETE.

PRICES 50, 75, $1.00, $1.50.
Seats on sale Wednesday at 10 a. m.

Saturday, March 9
THE MUSIC PLAY

The Time, The Place
and The Girl
WITH
ARTHUR DEACON
AND ALL STAR CAST
BOOK AND LYRICS
BY HUGH & ADAMS
MUSIC BY
JOS. E. HOWARD

PRICES 50, 75, $1.00, $1.50.
Seats on sale Friday at 10 a. m.
Reservation limited to eight.
Positively No Free List.

COMING!

GO=SEE=HEAR
De San Telo

Clinical analysis of how he discovered new and greater mind force in his method of DEEP, DEEP, DEEPER BREATH CONTROL and Alkaline Alkaloid Diet.
Its practical use to mind-build, mind, brain, nerves, heart and muscles energy. To self power, mastery of mental and physical life.
Awake and know thyself, the most wonderful of all things. Knowledge that man has double mind consciousness. The great itself awakened is the individual key to nature, illumined secrets of life. At the Odeon evening of March 4, 1907.

BIJOU THEATRE
T. NELSON DOWNS, Mgr.
MARTIN & KING
In Their Own Original Sketch, Entitled "KATHRENA"
Introducing Buck and Wing Dancing in Big Wooden Shoes.
MACCABEE QUARTET
L. T. JOHNSTON—America's Premier Ventriloquist, introducing the only mechanical figure of his kind in America.
Bijouscopes Newest Moving Pictures.

Mrs. A.C. Fry, M.D.
Specialist for Women
Dr. Fry treats uterine and ovarian diseases and all other pelvic ailments that cause nervousness and general debility.
Office and Residence, 102 and 104 West Main Street, in Fry Block.

Times-Republican

The City in Brief

Dr. Wood, oculist and aurist.
Fancy navel oranges at Olson's.
Dr. Burkart, osteopath, 302 W. Main.
Drs. Conaway, physicians and surgeons.

"Echo Brand" canned goods at Olson's.
Apprentices wanted at Miss Olt's millinery store.
Base ball meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the council chamber.

We have a "Kimball" piano, good as new, $98, Eadie-Ward Piano Co.
Our annual muslin underwear sale begins Wednesday morning, M. F. Andrews.

New mackerel, spiced Holland herring, whitefish and salt herring in bulk or kits, at Olson's.
Sleepy-Eye, Occident, Pillsbury and Golden Thistle flour, and the high grades, Olson handles.

Wanted—To buy cupboards, dining room chairs and rockers. Bates, 103 West Main. New phone 358.
The Compensating pipe organ displayed in the window at the Eadie-Ward Piano Co.'s is a beauty.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hatcher left this city Monday night for a six weeks' trip to Havana and other Cuban points.
The Busy Bee clique of the L. O. T. M. will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. P. W. Burke 202 North First avenue.

Mrs. Dewey F. LaPlant, who was taken ill on Saturday and has developed a severe case of erysipelas, is somewhat improved today.
If you expect something for nothing, you get nothing for something. Buy the best, pay the price, and you will be satisfied. Pure food goods at Olson's.

Miss Letitia Lemmon, who has been teaching the winter term at Jefferson, No. 5, west of Laurel, is home for the vacation of a month, which precedes the spring term.
We show a full 36-inch wide dress linen at 50c a yard that is value that has never been shown here before. Nettie Ingledue & Co., the up-to-date dry goods house.

L. R. Isdo is back from Dakota clerking in New Farmers' Grocery. Try a gallon of 50c New Orleans molasses, cut price 14c. First door south of Robb's restaurant.
Business that should be of interest to every one who is interested in the base ball for this season will come up at a meeting to be held in the council chamber this evening.

There is no need of risking your good money when you can buy Hyemel, the guaranteed cataract cure. McBride & Will Drug Co. agree to refund the price if it fails to cure.
Charles Specht, living four and one-half miles east of the city, was quite badly hurt while wrestling, falling on a nail that struck the bone about two inches from the knee. He is doing nicely.

Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Marsh of Eldora, who accompanied the body of the latter's mother, Mrs. W. C. Smith, for interment in Timber Creek cemetery, were in the city Monday night as the guests of Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Devine, being on their way home.

Nothing spasmodic about the service at my South Third avenue meat market. You don't get good meat some times, but all the time, from my market. I want your phone orders. You don't have to make a personal visit to get good meat at my shop. F. Schutzenbach.

Miss Maybel French went to Grinnell this morning to attend the organ and piano recital to be given this evening by Professor and Mrs. Rosseter. G. Cole, of Chicago, formerly of Grinnell. Professor Cole was head of the college of music in Iowa college and Miss French studied under him when she attended the college.

To exchange for clear residence property, a 120-acre farm in Clark county, Iowa, four miles from Woodburn; all fenced, small buildings, good spring running, water, about half smooth, balance rather rough, makes good blue grass pasture, some timber; price $50 per acre; mortgage $2,100 at 6 per cent. See A. Odett.

Frank Weaver, an Iowa Central fireman, went to Mason City Monday night to relieve Frank Fenner, another fireman, who has been hosting in the Mason City round house for several months. In order to retain his road rights, Mr. Fenner has to go on an engine for a time, and Mr. Weaver will remain in the hosting job until he is relieved.

We show Mon Reve, a 40-inch cloth that is half wool and half silk, that is the finest appearing cloth made. It out wears any other material made and makes up to look like a silk at $1.25 a yard. Call and see this cloth before you buy your next dress. We carry it all street and evening shades. Nettie Ingledue & Co., the up-to-date dry goods house.

Mr. S. R. Piper, of LeGrand, arrived in the city Monday evening from Lebanon, Ind., accompanied by his aunt, Mrs. E. A. Trine, of LeGrand, who has been spending the past five months with her niece, Mrs. J. A. Slover. Mr. Piper went to his sister's home last week from Chicago, where he accompanied a car of spring pigs of his own raising. Sixty-eight head, averaging 280, brought 7 cents, within a fraction of the top for that day.

Two boys' classes of the Friends Sunday school were entertained in the basement of the church Monday evening by their teachers, Mr. C. E. Pickard and Mr. Ralph Clem, assisted by the pastor, Rev. Z. H. Doan, and superintendent, Mr. W. L. Peckham. Guests of honor were Rev. and Mrs. Clark Brown, of West Branch. Oysters were served by Mrs. Doan. Miss Ruby Cope, Miss Smith and Mrs. Pickard. Following the supper a very interesting chalk talk was given by Rev. Brown, on the subject of "Hitched Up." Thirty-six boys were present.

Dr. Bullard, surgeon and physician.
Walker's chili con carne and tamales, at Olson's.
Radish, lettuce and celery, at Reynolds & Sheldon.

New lace curtains and colored madras, all shades, are shown at M. F. Andrews.
Muslin underwear sale of importance at M. F. Andrews. Everything goes at 1905 prices.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Burkholder, 402 West State street, entertained the Jolly Few club at its regular social meeting Monday evening. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed.
The usual, delightful monthly Hawthorne social affair was enjoyed Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Lay. Misses Jessie Hall and Ruth Long assisted in serving the 6:30 o'clock dinner, after which an informal musical evening was thoughtfully enjoyed and participated in by all. Guests of the club were Mr. and Mrs. R. W. McCreary, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sandoe, and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. E. Boardman.

Mr. J. C. Jackson of Iowa Falls, spent Monday in the city as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Hole, being on his way home from a brief visit with old friends at Marietta. Mr. Jackson was a former resident of the county, being of Marietta township. He was a schoolmate of Mr. Hole thirty years ago at Marietta, and also of Postmaster C. H. Smith, in the palmy days of the LeGrand Academy. Mr. Jackson is a son-in-law of the late County Supervisor T. J. Society, and is a prominent stock raiser. He lives on an 860-acre farm on the outskirts of Iowa Falls, and during the past eleven years has successfully fed nearly 100,000 head of sheep annually.

Miss Kate Willson, of Pittsburg, Pa., arrived in the city Saturday, to visit for a few days with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Willson.
For Rent—March 1st, No. 8 North Ninth street; No. 9 North Fourth street and flat of four rooms and hall over 130 West Main street. Call on John D. Wall.

All muslins and cotton goods are advancing in price. Come in during our sale and lay in a supply of muslin underwear at the old prices. M. F. Andrews.
We show the swiftest line of dress goods at 50c a yard in all the spring shades ever shown in this city. Nettie Ingledue & Co., the up-to-date dry goods house.

The Primary Sunday School Teachers' Union will meet in room No. 29, of the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Lee Atkinson will be the leader.
The Ladies' Reading circle met Monday afternoon with Mrs. E. R. Jones. The afternoon was spent as usual, the readers being Mrs. Thomas Kimball and Mrs. Robert McMalin.

A large attendance of the guild of St. Paul's church enjoyed an all-day sewing bee Monday, being entertained at the E. F. Powell home, 410 East Church street, by Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Will Jones.
An important meeting of the base ball association is to be held at 7:30 o'clock this evening in the council chamber. Business of interest to all who are interested in base ball this season will come up.

Rev. Walter C. Ciapp, Philipian missionary, who is spending a year's furlough in this country, and who has been the guest of Rev. and Mrs. William Pence James for a few days, left for LeMars this morning.
Messrs. and Mesdames Howard and Herbert Easton, of Ida Grove, who were recently married, arrived in the city from Des Moines Monday night, and are guests at the home of the Mesdames Eastons' grandmother, Mrs. A. M. Miller. They will remain for a visit of a few days.

There are 2,400 farms in this county, over 11,000 more in the five contiguous counties. Every one of them would be worth more if their owners raised thoroughbred poultry. Persons with the stock can create business by publishing a few lines in the newspaper which every body reads.

The derailment of a pair of wheels on a car of freight No. 30, south bound, on the Iowa Central at a point just north of Searsboro, delayed No. 3, the north-bound passenger, two hours. The passenger did not arrive until 7:15, having to wait at Searsboro until new wheels could be brought north from Oskatoosa. One of the wheels was broken when the car was derailed.

The Entre Nous club was entertained by Mrs. L. R. Willard Monday afternoon. "Independence" was the subject, and the regular reading was preceded with the reading by Mrs. W. A. Wasson, of a poem on Bunker Hill. "George Washington" refreshments were enjoyed at the close of the regular reading, and each one was given a tiny flag by the hostess, as a souvenir.

Lorraine, aged 9, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Lemmon, 306 Woodbury was the guest of honor at a birthday party given to ten of her little friends Monday afternoon. Games were followed by refreshments. The children present were Margaret Hutson, Ralph Vogel, Marie Anglesburg, Katherine Bash, Mildred Nutz, Bertha Johnson, Dorothy Lierle, Gladys Crinklaw, Lierle Lemmon and Helen Gundelocher.

Miss Mary B. Hart was hostess Monday evening to the Literary club, at the regular meeting. The hostess had the subject, "Portrait and Figure Painters—John S. Sargent and James McNeill Whistler, and Miss Maybel French that "Society Painters—Wm. Morris Hunt and Eilhu Vedder." A social hour and lunch followed the program. Guests of the evening were Misses Agnes Sears, Bertha Horton Ella Zug and Mollie Adams.

Four members of the Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church, in the persons of Mesdames E. R. Lay, E. O. Kemble, C. C. Trine and A. F. Bratt, will entertain the church and congregation at a social evening to be enjoyed Wednesday at the Bratt home, corner of Third avenue and Church street. A program will be one feature, and the hostesses will serve refreshments. The affair has been planned as one of a series to be given by different women of the aid, with the object of promoting sociability among the members of both church and congregation.

White Fancy Net Dresses, and India linens, handsomely trimmed in lace and embroideries, both for misses and children. Also children's colored dresses from 2 years up, at from $2.50 up.

Shirt Waists, white lawn and others in eyelet embroidery, fancy scroll lace and all over. They are dandies, from $1.00 up.

Stunning styles in Spring Suits. A daily arrival of new novelties keep us to the fire. "Just arrived" Voile Dresses in Tan, Grey and Black. Ask to see them.

Voile Skirts in the greatest variety. Must be seen to be appreciated.

There's a Reason"
Read the wonderful book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

There's a Reason"
Read the wonderful book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

There's a Reason"
Read the wonderful book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

There's a Reason"
Read the wonderful book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Dr. Bullard, osteopath, 28 E. Main.
Walker's chili con carne and tamales, at Olson's.
Radish, lettuce and celery, at Reynolds & Sheldon.

New lace curtains and colored madras, all shades, are shown at M. F. Andrews.
Muslin underwear sale of importance at M. F. Andrews. Everything goes at 1905 prices.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Burkholder, 402 West State street, entertained the Jolly Few club at its regular social meeting Monday evening. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed.
The usual, delightful monthly Hawthorne social affair was enjoyed Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Lay. Misses Jessie Hall and Ruth Long assisted in serving the 6:30 o'clock dinner, after which an informal musical evening was thoughtfully enjoyed and participated in by all. Guests of the club were Mr. and Mrs. R. W. McCreary, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sandoe, and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. E. Boardman.

Mr. J. C. Jackson of Iowa Falls, spent Monday in the city as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Hole, being on his way home from a brief visit with old friends at Marietta. Mr. Jackson was a former resident of the county, being of Marietta township. He was a schoolmate of Mr. Hole thirty years ago at Marietta, and also of Postmaster C. H. Smith, in the palmy days of the LeGrand Academy. Mr. Jackson is a son-in-law of the late County Supervisor T. J. Society, and is a prominent stock raiser. He lives on an 860-acre farm on the outskirts of Iowa Falls, and during the past eleven years has successfully fed nearly 100,000 head of sheep annually.

Miss Kate Willson, of Pittsburg, Pa., arrived in the city Saturday, to visit for a few days with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Willson.
For Rent—March 1st, No. 8 North Ninth street; No. 9 North Fourth street and flat of four rooms and hall over 130 West Main street. Call on John D. Wall.

All muslins and cotton goods are advancing in price. Come in during our sale and lay in a supply of muslin underwear at the old prices. M. F. Andrews.
We show the swiftest line of dress goods at 50c a yard in all the spring shades ever shown in this city. Nettie Ingledue & Co., the up-to-date dry goods house.

The Primary Sunday School Teachers' Union will meet in room No. 29, of the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Lee Atkinson will be the leader.
The Ladies' Reading circle met Monday afternoon with Mrs. E. R. Jones. The afternoon was spent as usual, the readers being Mrs. Thomas Kimball and Mrs. Robert McMalin.

A large attendance of the guild of St. Paul's church enjoyed an all-day sewing bee Monday, being entertained at the E. F. Powell home, 410 East Church street, by Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Will Jones.
An important meeting of the base ball association is to be held at 7:30 o'clock this evening in the council chamber. Business of interest to all who are interested in base ball this season will come up.

Rev. Walter C. Ciapp, Philipian missionary, who is spending a year's furlough in this country, and who has been the guest of Rev. and Mrs. William Pence James for a few days, left for LeMars this morning.
Messrs. and Mesdames Howard and Herbert Easton, of Ida Grove, who were recently married, arrived in the city from Des Moines Monday night, and are guests at the home of the Mesdames Eastons' grandmother, Mrs. A. M. Miller. They will remain for a visit of a few days.

There are 2,400 farms in this county, over 11,000 more in the five contiguous counties. Every one of them would be worth more if their owners raised thoroughbred poultry. Persons with the stock can create business by publishing a few lines in the newspaper which every body reads.

The derailment of a pair of wheels on a car of freight No. 30, south bound, on the Iowa Central at a point just north of Searsboro, delayed No. 3, the north-bound passenger, two hours. The passenger did not arrive until 7:15, having to wait at Searsboro until new wheels could be brought north from Oskatoosa. One of the wheels was broken when the car was derailed.

The Entre Nous club was entertained by Mrs. L. R. Willard Monday afternoon. "Independence" was the subject, and the regular reading was preceded with the reading by Mrs. W. A. Wasson, of a poem on Bunker Hill. "George Washington" refreshments were enjoyed at the close of the regular reading, and each one was given a tiny flag by the hostess, as a souvenir.

Lorraine, aged 9, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Lemmon, 306 Woodbury was the guest of honor at a birthday party given to ten of her little friends Monday afternoon. Games were followed by refreshments. The children present were Margaret Hutson, Ralph Vogel, Marie Anglesburg, Katherine Bash, Mildred Nutz, Bertha Johnson, Dorothy Lierle, Gladys Crinklaw, Lierle Lemmon and Helen Gundelocher.

Miss Mary B. Hart was hostess Monday evening to the Literary club, at the regular meeting. The hostess had the subject, "Portrait and Figure Painters—John S. Sargent and James McNeill Whistler, and Miss Maybel French that "Society Painters—Wm. Morris Hunt and Eilhu Vedder." A social hour and lunch followed the program. Guests of the evening were Misses Agnes Sears, Bertha Horton Ella Zug and Mollie Adams.

White Fancy Net Dresses, and India linens, handsomely trimmed in lace and embroideries, both for misses and children. Also children's colored dresses from 2 years up, at from $2.50 up.

Shirt Waists, white lawn and others in eyelet embroidery, fancy scroll lace and all over. They are dandies, from $1.00 up.

Stunning styles in Spring Suits. A daily arrival of new novelties keep us to the fire. "Just arrived" Voile Dresses in Tan, Grey and Black. Ask to see them.

Voile Skirts in the greatest variety. Must be seen to be appreciated.

There's a Reason"
Read the wonderful book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

There's a Reason"
Read the wonderful book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

There's a Reason"
Read the wonderful book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

There's a Reason"
Read the wonderful book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

There's a Reason"
Read the wonderful book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Dr. Bullard, osteopath, 28 E. Main.
Walker's chili con carne and tamales, at Olson's.
Radish, lettuce and celery, at Reynolds & Sheldon.

New lace curtains and colored madras, all shades, are shown at M. F. Andrews.
Muslin underwear sale of importance at M. F. Andrews. Everything goes at 1905 prices.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Burkholder, 402 West State street, entertained the Jolly Few club at its regular social meeting Monday evening. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed.
The usual, delightful monthly Hawthorne social affair was enjoyed Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Lay. Misses Jessie Hall and Ruth Long assisted in serving the 6:30 o'clock dinner, after which an informal musical evening was thoughtfully enjoyed and participated in by all. Guests of the club were Mr. and Mrs. R. W. McCreary, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sandoe, and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. E. Boardman.

Mr. J. C. Jackson of Iowa Falls, spent Monday in the city as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Hole, being on his way home from a brief visit with old friends at Marietta. Mr. Jackson was a former resident of the county, being of Marietta township. He was a schoolmate of Mr. Hole thirty years ago at Marietta, and also of Postmaster C. H. Smith, in the palmy days of the LeGrand Academy. Mr. Jackson is a son-in-law of the late County Supervisor T. J. Society, and is a prominent stock raiser. He lives on an 860-acre farm on the outskirts of Iowa Falls, and during the past eleven years has successfully fed nearly 100,000 head of sheep annually.

Miss Kate Willson, of Pittsburg, Pa., arrived in the city Saturday, to visit for a few days with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Willson.
For Rent—March 1st, No. 8 North Ninth street; No. 9 North Fourth street and flat of four rooms and hall over 130 West Main street. Call on John D. Wall.

All muslins and cotton goods are advancing in price. Come in during our sale and lay in a supply of muslin underwear at the old prices. M. F. Andrews.
We show the swiftest line of dress goods at 50c a yard in all the spring shades ever shown in this city. Nettie Ingledue & Co., the up-to-date dry goods house.

The Primary Sunday School Teachers' Union will meet in room No. 29, of the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Lee Atkinson will be the leader.
The Ladies' Reading circle met Monday afternoon with Mrs. E. R. Jones. The afternoon was spent as usual, the readers being Mrs. Thomas Kimball and Mrs. Robert McMalin.

A large attendance of the guild of St. Paul's church enjoyed an all-day sewing bee Monday, being entertained at the E. F. Powell home, 410 East Church street, by Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Will Jones.
An important meeting of the base ball association is to be held at 7:30 o'clock this evening in the council chamber. Business of interest to all who are interested in base ball this season will come up.

Rev. Walter C. Ciapp, Philipian missionary, who is spending a year's furlough in this country, and who has been the guest of Rev. and Mrs. William Pence James for a few days, left for LeMars this morning.
Messrs. and Mesdames Howard and Herbert Easton, of Ida Grove, who were recently married, arrived in the city from Des Moines Monday night, and are guests at the home of the Mesdames Eastons' grandmother, Mrs. A. M. Miller. They will remain for a visit of a few days.

There are 2,400 farms in this county, over 11,000 more in the five contiguous counties. Every one of them would be worth more if their owners raised thoroughbred poultry. Persons with the stock can create business by publishing a few lines in the newspaper which every body reads.

The derailment of a pair of wheels on a car of freight No. 30, south bound, on the Iowa Central at a point just north of Searsboro, delayed No. 3, the north-bound passenger, two hours. The passenger did not arrive until 7:15, having to wait at Searsboro until new wheels could be brought north from Oskatoosa. One of the wheels was broken when the car was derailed.

The Entre Nous club was entertained by Mrs. L. R. Willard Monday afternoon. "Independence" was the subject, and the regular reading was preceded with the reading by Mrs. W. A. Wasson, of a poem on Bunker Hill. "George Washington" refreshments were enjoyed at the close of the regular reading, and each one was given a tiny flag by the hostess, as a souvenir.

Lorraine, aged 9, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Lemmon, 306 Woodbury was the guest of honor at a birthday party given to ten of her little friends Monday afternoon. Games were followed by refreshments. The children present were Margaret Hutson, Ralph Vogel, Marie Anglesburg, Katherine Bash, Mildred Nutz, Bertha Johnson, Dorothy Lierle, Gladys Crinklaw, Lierle Lemmon and Helen Gundelocher.

Miss Mary B. Hart was hostess Monday evening to the Literary club, at the regular meeting. The hostess had the subject, "Portrait and Figure Painters—John S. Sargent and James McNeill Whistler, and Miss Maybel French that "Society Painters—Wm. Morris Hunt and Eilhu Vedder." A social hour and lunch followed the program. Guests of the evening were Misses Agnes Sears, Bertha Horton Ella Zug and Mollie Adams.

White Fancy Net Dresses, and India linens, handsomely trimmed in lace and embroideries, both for misses and children. Also children's colored dresses from 2 years up, at from $2.50 up.

Shirt Waists, white lawn and others in eyelet embroidery, fancy scroll lace and all over. They are dandies, from $1.00 up.

Stunning styles in Spring Suits. A daily arrival of new novelties keep us to the fire. "Just arrived" Voile Dresses in Tan, Grey and Black. Ask to see them.

Voile Skirts in the greatest variety. Must be seen to be appreciated.

There's a Reason"
Read the wonderful book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

There's a Reason"
Read the wonderful book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

There's a Reason"
Read the wonderful book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

There's a Reason"
Read the wonderful book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

There's a Reason"
Read the wonderful book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Dr. Bullard, osteopath, 28 E. Main.
Walker's chili con carne and tamales, at Olson's.
Radish, lettuce and celery, at Reynolds & Sheldon.

New lace curtains and colored madras, all shades, are shown at M. F. Andrews.
Muslin underwear sale of importance at M. F. Andrews. Everything goes at 1905 prices.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Burkholder, 402 West State street, entertained the Jolly Few club at its regular social meeting Monday evening. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed.
The usual, delightful monthly Hawthorne social affair was enjoyed Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Lay. Misses Jessie Hall and Ruth Long assisted in serving the 6:30 o'clock dinner, after which an informal musical evening was thoughtfully enjoyed and participated in by all. Guests of the club were Mr. and Mrs. R. W. McCreary, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sandoe, and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. E. Boardman.

Mr. J. C. Jackson of Iowa Falls, spent Monday in the city as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Hole, being on his way home from a brief visit with old friends at Marietta. Mr. Jackson was a former resident of the county, being of Marietta township. He was a schoolmate of Mr. Hole thirty years ago at Marietta, and also of Postmaster C. H. Smith, in the palmy days of the LeGrand Academy. Mr. Jackson is a son-in-law of the late County Supervisor T. J. Society, and is a prominent stock raiser. He lives on an 860-acre farm on the outskirts of Iowa Falls, and during the past eleven years has successfully fed nearly 100,000 head of sheep annually.

Miss Kate Willson, of Pittsburg, Pa., arrived in the city Saturday, to visit for a few days with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Willson.
For Rent—March 1st, No. 8 North Ninth street; No. 9 North Fourth street and flat of four rooms and hall over 130 West Main street. Call on John D. Wall.

All muslins and cotton goods are advancing in price. Come in during our sale and lay in a supply of muslin underwear at the old prices. M. F. Andrews.
We show the swiftest line of dress goods at 50c a yard in all the spring shades ever shown in this city. Nettie Ingledue & Co., the up-to-date dry goods house.

The Primary Sunday School Teachers' Union will meet in room No. 29, of the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Lee Atkinson will be the leader.
The Ladies' Reading circle met Monday afternoon with Mrs. E. R. Jones. The afternoon was spent as usual, the readers being Mrs. Thomas Kimball and Mrs. Robert McMalin.

A large attendance of the guild of St. Paul's church enjoyed an all-day sewing bee Monday, being entertained at the E. F. Powell home, 410 East Church street, by Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Will Jones.
An important meeting of the base ball association is to be held at 7:30 o'clock this evening in the council chamber. Business of interest to all who are interested in base ball this season will come up.

Rev. Walter C. Ciapp, Philipian missionary, who is spending a year's furlough in this country, and who has been the guest of Rev. and Mrs. William Pence James for a few days, left for LeMars this morning.
Messrs. and Mesdames Howard and Herbert Easton, of Ida Grove, who were recently married, arrived in the city from Des Moines Monday night, and are guests at the home of the Mesdames Eastons' grandmother, Mrs. A. M. Miller. They will remain for a visit of a few days.

There are 2,400 farms in this county, over 11,000 more in the five contiguous counties. Every one of them would be worth more if their owners raised thoroughbred poultry. Persons with the stock can create business by publishing a few lines in the newspaper which every body reads.

The derailment of a pair of wheels on a car of freight No. 30, south bound, on the Iowa Central at a point just north of Searsboro, delayed No. 3, the north-bound passenger, two hours. The passenger did not arrive until 7:15, having to wait at Searsboro until new wheels could be brought north from Oskatoosa. One of the wheels was broken when the car was derailed.

The Entre Nous club was entertained by Mrs. L. R. Willard Monday afternoon. "Independence" was the subject, and the regular reading was preceded with the reading by Mrs. W. A. Wasson, of a poem on Bunker Hill. "George Washington" refreshments were enjoyed at the close of the regular reading, and each one was given a tiny flag by the hostess, as a souvenir.

Lorraine, aged 9, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Lemmon, 306 Woodbury was the guest of honor at a birthday party given to ten of her little friends Monday afternoon. Games were followed by refreshments. The children present were Margaret Hutson, Ralph Vogel, Marie Anglesburg, Katherine Bash, Mildred Nutz, Bertha Johnson, Dorothy Lierle, Gladys Crinklaw, Lierle Lemmon and Helen Gundelocher.

Miss Mary B. Hart was hostess Monday evening to the Literary club, at the regular meeting. The hostess had the subject, "Portrait and Figure Painters—John S. Sargent and James McNeill Whistler, and Miss Maybel French that "Society Painters—Wm. Morris Hunt and Eilhu Vedder." A social hour and lunch followed the program. Guests of the evening were Misses Agnes Sears, Bertha Horton Ella Zug and Mollie Adams.

White Fancy Net Dresses, and India linens, handsomely trimmed in lace and embroideries, both for misses and children. Also children's colored dresses from 2 years up, at from $2.50 up.

Shirt Waists, white lawn and others in eyelet embroidery, fancy scroll lace and all over. They are dandies, from $1.00 up.

Stunning styles in Spring Suits. A daily arrival of new novelties keep us to the fire. "Just arrived" Voile Dresses in Tan, Grey and Black. Ask to see them.

Voile Skirts in the greatest variety. Must be seen to be appreciated.

There's a Reason"
Read the wonderful book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.