Simkins & Estel, funeral directors and licensed embalmers, 123 East Main. Be sure and see Miller's new line of bracelets. Handsome designs, 108 East Main. Two games of ball tomorrow, ladies' free day. First game at 2:30. Be sure to attend. One hundred and sixty acre farm at auction. See Peckham & Smith's ad, page 8. Two games of base ball tomorrow. First game begins at 2:30 p. m. Ladies' free day. Messrs. August and W. M. Reimenschneider of State Center, were in the city Tuesday on business. Marshall Lodge, No. 108, A. F. and A. M. will work on first degree Friday evening at 7:30. H. G. Hoeck, W. M. We have just received a lot of candy tops; just the thing for the children; price 10 cents each. Reynolds & Sheldon. The finest cuts of beef, veal, mutton and pork from Cully's sanitary market and all fresh caught bullheads and halibut. Are you satisfied with the coffee you are using? Our 25 cent grade gives you satisfaction as some 35 cent grades. Try a pound of Olson's. The prices on Big Chief flour, and it being the best quality that can be had, is causing a big rush to J. L. Inman's store. Every sack is guaranteed. Our line of fresh crackers keep their crispness during this damp weather, being in a damp proof case. A full line of package crackers also at Cully's. A. Reimenschneider, of State Center, sold on the local market Wednesday afternoon a car load of prime heavy hogs, sixty-five head, averaging 250 pounds. Wanted—A good tenant for new, modern eight-room house; will be complete and ready for tenant on September 1. Best residence location in Marshalltown. A. J. Clark. Rev. William Pence James arrived home Wednesday evening from Clinton, where he has been spending a six weeks' vacation. Mrs. James and son, who have been with him, returned a week ago. Miss Minna Carr, who has been a teacher in the Central Iowa Business College, left this morning for Mankato, Minn., where she is to be principal in the shorthand department of the Mankato Commercial College. Carl F. Robertson, of Kansas City, Mo., who was called to this city three weeks ago on account of the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. O. E. Robertson, 701 East Main street, left for home this morning. Mrs. Robertson is improving slowly. Mrs. J. P. Cowan, of State Center, who has been in the city for a visit of a few days with Mrs. Elmer Dobson, returned to her home Wednesday evening. Mr. Cowan is at present in Des Moines, where he is acting as a member of the special police force during the state fair. The Busy Bee circle of the L. O. T. M. enjoyed a picnic Wednesday afternoon at the soldiers' home park, twenty-six members being present. The hostesses for the day were Messames Della Arney, Anna Allison, Katherine Mack, Anna Dann, Amelia McCluer, and Lizzie Miller. Another picnic will be held next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. B. F. Smith, south of the city. Mrs. George W. Gilbert, who went to Rochester, Minn., early in June, to enter a hospital to undergo a surgical operation, which was performed soon afterwards, returned home yesterday, accompanied by her niece, Miss Catherine Kennedy, of Montrose, who will visit with her aunt for two weeks. Since her recovery and discharge from the hospital, Mrs. Gilbert has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. J. P. Kennedy, at Montrose. Mr. and Mrs. Mvo Hurlbut entertained a small company of friends at dinner at their home Wednesday evening, complimentary to Mr. Hurlbut's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard Hurlbut, of Pasadena, Cal., who are visiting in the city. The guests, other than Mr. and Mrs. Hurlbut, were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Crabtree and two children, of Oklahoma City, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Crabtree, of this city. Mrs. A. H. Simon, in discussing what she would do with a portion of the 100 copies of the illustrated magazine of Marshalltown, which she has just ordered, suggested that she intended to send some of hers to libraries and reading rooms of the towns in this part of the state. It was a capital idea. If everybody would go to thinking on the subject this book could be circulated to immense advertising benefit both to the city and to every business represented in it. Only by intelligent cooperation can we get 15,000 or 20,000 of them placed where they ought to be. Other suggestions will be welcomed by the committee. P. P. Arney, secretary or at the T. R. office. The New York and eastern newspapers and magazines last season fairly raved over "The Three of Us" which comes to the Odeon Saturday, August 31. This play ran throughout the season at the Madison Square theater at thronged and delighted houses and greeted added to Manager Walter N. Lawrence's fame and fortune, and deservedly for the play is one of exceptional novelty and merit. The play was written by Rachel Crothers and tells a story of an elder sister and two younger brothers who were orphaned and left to face the world. The self-sacrifice of the girl in her struggle to keep the little home and family together furnish a touching and charming story and it has thrilled thousands. Mr. Lawrence, we are told, has given the play an adequate setting and an admirable cast, and a huge dramatic treat is in store for our theatergoers. Prices 50, 75, $1 and $1.50.

Miller, jeweler, 108 East Main. Help wanted at the canning factory. Dr. Wood, eye, ear, nose and throat. See Horne & Gelvin for field fence. Bell boys and porter wanted at the Pilgrim hotel. Smith, 1105 West Main street, Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. There will be two league games tomorrow. First game begins at 2:30 o'clock. Ladies' free day. Everybody get out and boost. The Baptist Aid society will meet with Mrs. White and Mrs. Inman at the White home, North Fourth avenue, Friday afternoon, at 2:30. Charles Stephan, who has been in Wyoming for several months, employed on a sheep ranch, is home for a short visit with relatives and friends. Stephan likes the western country and expects to return. Woodmansee & Titt, dray and transfer, have moved their office to 218 East Main street. The phone numbers will be the same as heretofore and they will be pleased to serve all their patrons from the new location. C. J. Brown, one of the younger of the Iowa Central engineers, who has been in the city visiting with his brother, E. C. Brown, and other relatives, left for Monmouth this morning. Mr. Brown is running on the "extra gang" out of Monmouth. Mr. and Mrs. Ross W. Hubbard, of North First street, most enjoyably entertained a few friends last evening at an 8 o'clock dinner in honor of Miss Elizabeth Roberts, of late Center. Mrs. Hubbard was assisted by her sister, Miss Culyer of Albion. "The proof of the pudding is the eating thereof." The proof of the fuel is the burning. Solvay coke is all we claim for it. Equal to hard coal. Gives more heat and lasts as long. No smoke, gas or clinker. Save 20 percent in your fuel bill. Consumers' Fuel Co. Miss Emily Cole, of Chaffield, Minn., arrived in the city Wednesday, and will remain until Monday as the guest of her niece, Mrs. W. H. Gilbert. Miss Cole is a teacher and will be identified with the Minneapolis schools next year. Last year she taught at Salt Lake City. Ben G. Fallis, superintendent of the Charlotte division of the Southern railway, with headquarters at Greenville, S. C., who has been here for a visit of a few days with his wife and children, who are visiting relatives here, will leave for Greenville this evening. Mrs. Fallis and children, Adah and Lyman, will remain two weeks longer. They are guests at the home of Mrs. Fallis' sister, Mrs. W. W. Ward. J. H. Alexander, and children, who, with Mrs. Alexander, were in Montour yesterday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Alexander's nephew, Clifford Atwood the child who was killed by a Northwest train Monday night, returned home this morning. With him was his little daughter, Myrtle, who was with the Atwood babe when the engine struck him. She barely escaped. The funeral was held at Chester Center Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Alexander will remain at the Atwood home for the present. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Turner, who make their home at the Stoddard, will leave Monday for Redfield, S. D., near which place they own 12,000 acres that are under cultivation. Mr. Turner has been making his headquarters here for about a year, while traveling for the Raleigh Medicine Company. He has decided to go to Redfield to remain indefinitely, in order to better look after his farming interests. Mrs. B. E. Keeley, of Chicago, a friend of the Turners, arrived Wednesday evening, and will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Turner to Redfield. Mrs. Keeley also owns land near Redfield. Mr. and Mrs. George H. Beebe left Wednesday night on an eastern trip of a month's duration. Mr. Beebe goes partially on business, to look after matters at Indiana points, and from there will go to Buffalo, where he and his wife will visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Eldridge. Mr. Beebe will be in attendance at the annual convention of the National Association of Stationary Engineers, to be held at Niagara Falls, as a delegate from the local lodge, No. 11. On the way home Mr. and Mrs. Beebe will visit at Ft. Recovery, O., with their daughter, Mrs. E. L. McDaniel, and at other Ohio and Indiana points. Carol Kirk, a well-known Marshalltown boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Kirk, now of Clemons, spent Wednesday in the city with friends, and after a few days' visit at Clemons will go to Oskaloosa, where with his friend, William Hotz, of Iowa City, he is engaged in compiling and publishing a map of Marshall county. Mr. Kirk and Mr. Hotz have finished Des Moines, Wapello and Union counties, and Mahaska will be the last one of the season, before school opens. Mr. Kirk, who is to be captain of the S. U. I. base ball team next season, will leave for Iowa City about the middle of September. This will be his senior year at the university, and he will play foot ball this fall. The funeral of Guy W. Valentine, who died Wednesday morning, will be held at Webster City Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The body will leave the city at 8 o'clock Saturday morning and at 1 o'clock, preceding the departure of the funeral party, Rev. Merle N. Smith will conduct a brief prayer service at the E. E. Valentine home, 5 North Fifth avenue. Mrs. G. E. Patrick of Manson, a sister of Mr. E. E. Valentine, is here for the funeral, as is also Miss Isabel McKinley of Pittsburg, Pa., who has been in Denver for her health, and knew young Mr. Valentine there.

Mrs. Ellen Mansfield returned Tuesday evening from Oskaloosa, where she has been for a two weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Charles Dicks. Mrs. J. H. Fellingham and daughter Ruth, of Des Moines, arrived in the city Wednesday to visit with Mrs. Mary E. Ayres and other friends. Miss Ruth Egloff, of Cedar Falls, spent Wednesday in the city with Mrs. F. M. Haradon, being on her way to Ames to attend Iowa State College. Mrs. P. F. Arney arrived home Tuesday evening from Marengo, where she has been visiting for the past two weeks with her mother, Mrs. E. R. Dill. Mr. Moses Sipher, of Hastings, Neb., who has been visiting at the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. F. L. Meeker, for a few days, left for Hastings this morning. Mrs. Claude Smith and daughters, Harriet and Genevieve, who have been in the city for a few days' visit with Mrs. A. R. Dodge, returned home Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Mundy and children, left for Green Valley, Ill., Wednesday morning to visit for ten days at the home of Mrs. Mundy's sister, Mrs. H. C. Howell. Mr. Ed Seberg, son Edward and daughter Margaret, went to Des Moines this morning to visit for a week at the home of Mr. Seberg's brother, Mr. Anton Seberg. Mr. Edward Edwards, of Williams, arrived in the city Tuesday evening for a few days' visit with his sister, Mrs. E. B. Clinton, before going to Ames to enter Iowa State College. Miss Ruth Moscrip arrived home Wednesday evening from Polo, Ill., where she has been for a little over two months, visiting at the home of her uncle, Hon. Johnson Lawrence. Miss Blanche Rogers, of Wahoo, Neb., who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. John M. Adrian, and Miss Marguerita Lewis for three weeks, departed for her home Wednesday morning. Miss Gertrude Cross, superintendent of the Eleanor Moore hospital at Boone, arrived in the city Wednesday afternoon and will remain for a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Cross. Miss Ethel Atkinson, of St. Anthony, who has been in the city for a few days' visit with Miss Clara Jay, returned home Wednesday evening, accompanied by Miss Jay, who will be her guest for a few days. Miss Doris Hayhurst, accompanied Wednesday for Lowell, Ind., where this afternoon for Lowell, Ind., where they will visit for about two weeks. On their return trip they will stop in Chicago for a short stay. Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Wing, and family, of Ireton, who have been visiting for almost three weeks at the home of Mrs. Wing's parents, Chaplain and Mrs. Jesse Cole, departed for their home Wednesday morning. Mr. B. Fitzgerald, of New Providence, spent Wednesday in the city on business. In company with his wife and daughter Mabel, Mr. Fitzgerald expects to leave about the first of October for Pasadena, Cal., to spend the winter. Mr. Harry H. Brown, of Calistoga, Cal., and Mr. J. D. McLaughlin, of Monmouth, Ill., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Meeker Wednesday. Mr. Brown went to Chicago last night while Mr. McLaughlin went to Ames in the evening. Miss Mary R. Munnell, formerly of this city, but now of Cannonsburg, Pa., accompanied by her cousins, Mr. Joseph Ringland and sister, Mrs. Henry Conger, of Hackney, Pa., arrived in the city Wednesday evening and took the Story City branch train to Montrose, where they will remain for a visit of about two months with Miss Munnell's aunt, Mrs. Mary Moninger. Mr. Ringland and sister will visit at Ft. Dodge and Boone before they return east. In the Police Court. Dr. N. W. Getz, of Boone, was arrested Wednesday evening by Marshal Police McCluer on a charge of intoxication, and this afternoon was arraigned before Mayor Ingledue, when he entered a plea of guilty. The mayor discharged him on the promise of good behavior. Dr. Getz's arrest followed a personal admission of his father, Dr. H. L. Getz, in which the son struck the father. No information was filed on this charge, however. Dr. H. L. Getz, with the aid of Mayor Ingledue, is trying to induce his son to consent to enter a private sanitarium for treatment for the liquor habit, and has promised to defray the expense if such consent can be gained. Dr. Getz is favorably inclined toward his father's suggestion and says he realizes that some such action will be necessary in order to rid himself of the habit. Officer Breckel arrested Al Edgington and a man named Bittner, both on charges of intoxication. Bittner was released on cash bonds, and Edgington was ordered committed for six days this afternoon. It is likely, however, that he will secure the costs, and if so he will be released. Merchant Police McCluer arrested John McGlade on a charge of intoxication, but the mayor continued his case this afternoon until tomorrow morning, on advice from Mrs. McGlade that she intended filing charges of inebriety, with the result that her husband be sent to Knoxville.
