

No Other Food Product has a like Record

Baker's Cocoa

127 Years of Constantly Increasing Sales

48 Highest Awards in Europe and America ABSOLUTELY PURE

It is a perfect food, as wholesome as it is delicious; highly nourishing, easily digested, fitted to repair wasted strength, preserve health, prolong life.

Our Choice Recipe Book, containing directions for preparing more than 100 dainty dishes, sent free on request.

Walter Baker & Co., Ltd. Established 1780 DORCHESTER, MASS., U. S. A.

ADD GOOD CHEER

You do it every time you buy our groceries. It's something above the average. Why not leave your orders with us today for our groceries. Always the best goods for the money.

D. S. Good Grocery Company WEST MAIN ST BOTH PHONES.

LIVERY

All kinds of Light Livery. Good Teams, Careful Drivers Furnished.

Closed Carriages for Parties, Theatres, Etc., Stylish Turn-outs and First Class Rigs at All Times.

Satisfactory Service Is Guaranteed.

NEW PHONE, 575 OLD PHONE, 443-X

J. A. EWING (Successor to Baughman)

The Weir Gas and Soot Consuming Furnace

See this Furnace before making a decision. Has more good points than any other. We can install on short notice. The best is the cheapest.

Painter-Reed Heating Co. 136 West Main St.

HEIFER CREATES PANIC

Runs Wild in Cattle Sale Tent Near Washita, Injuring Many People

TENT FALLS DURING MELEE

Sale Seemed Fright With Disaster Thruout, as Section of Amphitheater Collapsed Just Before It Began—Women Crowded Into Barbed Wire Fence—Correctionville Man Hurt.

Special to Times-Republican.

Washita, Nov. 23.—When the tent in which George Harrison, near here, was conducting his cattle sale was entirely filled with men and women, a fractious heifer escaped from her keeper and rushed into the crowd, which filled the seats arranged in amphitheater style. The frenzied beast climbed to the very top seat and then jumped off, striking on Walter Cockburn, of Correctionville, who was taken home seriously bruised. A dozen others were injured either by the hoofs of the animal as she clambered over them, or by the precipitous flight which the 200 persons made. Charles Mahanke, of this place, was quite seriously hurt. It is said one man has since learned a bone in his wrist is broken.

There were a dozen women standing in the entrance near the auctioneer, and when the heifer made her attack on the crowded seats, they rushed out but were held back by a wire fence. The men came pell mell and crowded the women into the barbed wire, tearing their clothing, but not injuring them seriously. To add to the confusion the main support of the tent was broken by the fleeing crowd and the canvass came flapping down upon them.

Before the sale began a section of the amphitheater collapsed, precipitating nearly a score of persons to the ground, but all escaped harm.

SPENCER PREY OF CROOKS.

Three Burglaries Successfully Perpetrated Within a Week. Special to Times-Republican.

Spencer, Nov. 23.—During the past few days this vicinity has been the prey of crooks, three burglaries having been successfully carried out within a week, and in all cases the burglars have not been apprehended. The man that broke into the hardware store at Everly last week was caught however, but succeeded in eluding the all keeper, escaping and is still at large.

The parties who robbed the postoffice at Milford of several hundred dollars Monday night, have not as yet been located, the government detectives are in the locality at work on the case. It happened also that the detectives were here last evening when A. G. Larson's implement and coal office was broken into, and about $100 in cash, together with about $300 worth in notes and other valuable papers, were removed. The notes, the robber evidently did not deem it advisable to carry, therefore tore them up and scattered them upon the streets in various places. One package of valuable papers was also found near the C. M. & St. P. stock yards. The deed was said to be done about 10 o'clock in the evening, at which time a show was being held at the opera house, and the streets were practically deserted. The perpetrators gained entrance thru a side window, by chipping the glass enough to insert the hand to pull the stopper. They also picked the safe lock without trouble or demolishing the furniture in the case and no trace has as yet been found of them.

VICTIM OF APPENDICITIS.

Glenn Broadhurst, of Hudson, Dies in Waterloo Hospital. Special to Times-Republican.

Waterloo, Nov. 23.—Glenn A. Broadhurst, only son of A. H. Broadhurst, of Hudson, passed away at the Presbyterian hospital following an operation for appendicitis performed Monday. The young boy was brought to Waterloo Monday night and operated on immediately, but in spite of all that could be done, death claimed him. Glenn A. Broadhurst was born February 9, 1892, on a farm near Hudson, where he spent his brief life of fifteen years. He was the oldest child and only son of A. H. and Libbie Broadhurst. Besides his parents, he leaves one sister, Martha, aged 8 years. Two aunts, Mrs. R. J. Nestor and Mrs. Ralph Eighmey and one uncle, W. H. Glenny, reside in Waterloo, while other aunts are Mrs. J. R. Thompson, Mrs. C. E. Klingaman, Mrs. F. M. Brown and Mrs. W. D. Strayer, all living on farms near Hudson.

SICKNESS AND DEATH AT UTE.

Several Operations for Appendicitis—Many Exposed to Small Pox. Special to Times-Republican.

Ute, Nov. 23.—The past four weeks there has been four cases of appendicitis operated upon here, Sioux City physicians and others who have assisted in performing operations for this complaint during the past two or more years, say that Ute has had more cases of appendicitis than any other town within their territory. Of course their being such a great number of cases it is natural to expect a great variety of conditions of the disease, also all kinds and sizes of appendixes, varying in size from one inch to eight inches in length.

We also have a case of small pox here. A young man named Anderson came into town last Saturday and was in every store and business house, and got shaved in the barber shop before it

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson

TWO MRS. OGDENS

Aged Gallant Was Switched Off to Relative of Mason City Woman

HE WAS PLEASSED WITH EITHER

Yesterday's Evidence in Mrs. Hattie Day Ogden Will Case, Considerably More in Favor of the Proponents of the Will—J. C. Calhoun's Testimony Creates Quite a Stir in Court.

Special to Times-Republican.

Mason City, Nov. 23.—John C. Calhoun, the aged gallant who for two years was the accepted suitor of the late Mrs. Hattie Day Ogden, and to whom he was to have been married, according to the testimony that developed yesterday in the will case, was switched off in his attentions to a relative of Mrs. Ogden, of the same name, to whom he wrote endearing communications for over a year, ignorant of the fact that he was deceived.

This evidence was brought to light in the hearing of a large number of the letters of Mr. Calhoun and a Mrs. Ogden, who lives at Florida City, Fla., in which the language of an ardent lover was used. This rather startling and mystifying testimony created considerable stir in court. Gallant John Calhoun had testified he was the suitor and promised husband of Mrs. Ogden, but in one of a number of letters read, had written to her stating the terms of the bargain and in a later letter intimated that he was just as well satisfied with the Florida Mrs. Ogden as with the Iowa member of the family, apparently having been apprised of the shift at some intermediate time. The defense made the most of this testimony, as the proponents had introduced the former lovers of Mrs. Ogden to show that she was engaged to all three and that the date of the marriage with each was about the same time. It appears that Mr. Calhoun was well pleased with either and would have married Mrs. Ogden of Mason City had she lived.

The evidence yesterday showed considerable more in favor of the proponents of the will. Several quarrels and times when Mrs. Plerce unduly influenced Mrs. Ogden, were alluded to, and were brought out in the evidence.

CORWITH BANK ALL RIGHT.

Cashier Standing's Accounts Show Bank's Funds Are Intact. Fort Dodge, Nov. 23.—State Bank Examiner Leland Windsor and the committee appointed by the directors to inquire into the condition of the State bank at Corwith have so far failed to find any irregularities of missing Cashier J. H. Sandring, whose address is still unknown. It is expected that the men at work on the books will have completed the task of investigation by tonight, and if nothing is found the bank will no doubt be opened for business Monday.

Some personal affairs of Standing have been discovered which involved him to the extent of $15,000, but he has ample property to pay off all obligations. So far as the bank is concerned there is not a dollar missing of its funds. Patrons of the bank attach no dishonor to the cashier's hasty departure and attribute his absence to a pure case of nerves over the present financial stringency. The business men of Corwith are ready personally to pay off any deficit that may be discovered and will accept his return to his position without further explanation, such is the confidence in the missing man.

STOCK SALE NEAR DENISON.

Some of Aberdeen Angus Cattle Were in Prize Herd. Special to Times-Republican.

Denison, Nov. 23.—Forty-five animals from a leading Aberdeen Angus herd of Iowa, were sold Thursday at the McHenry farm near Denison. Some of the animals were in the prize herd shown at Des Moines and St. Paul this year. There was a large attendance of big stock men from the west. The sale went off rapidly and in a good natured way. The Donahues of Holbrook, Iowa, topped the sale by paying $900 for No. 66 Blackbird McHenry, a yearling heifer. The forty-five head averaged $325, the total thus amounting to over $14,500. McHenry was well pleased with the sale.

KELLOGG KEEPS FACTORY.

Business Men Predict "Boom" for Town in Spring. Special to Times-Republican.

Kellogg, Nov. 23.—Since the failure of the Valley Company to secure an order from the Jasper county court, allowing them to move the factory to Des Moines, the citizens of our little town have settled down in peace, and are doing their best to "boost" Kellogg. There is talk of trying to get another factory here of some sort, and the business men say we will have a regular "boom" in the spring. There are natural facilities here, money and business ability.

Oats Short, Mill Shuts Down.

Fort Dodge, Nov. 23.—The Great Western Cereal company of this city, after paying 40 cents for oats, is unable to secure enough to keep the plant going only part of the time. Farmers entertain the idea that higher prices will prevail, and the railroads report that no oats is coming into the small stations. The mill consumes 15,000 bushels daily, and the supply must necessarily come a long distance. This is the first time in the history of the plant that it has shut down at this time of the year.

Coury Dies of Injuries.

New Hampton, Nov. 23.—Nell Coury, one of the young men who were lately injured by the passenger train at Alta Vista on Tuesday morning, is dead. He did not entirely regain consciousness.

Mathew Kelley is getting along reasonably well at Sheriff Wondro's home in this city. He suffers much at times, but the doctors think he will recover.

CORWITH BANK ALL RIGHT.

Cashier Standing's Accounts Show Bank's Funds Are Intact. Fort Dodge, Nov. 23.—State Bank Examiner Leland Windsor and the committee appointed by the directors to inquire into the condition of the State bank at Corwith have so far failed to find any irregularities of missing Cashier J. H. Sandring, whose address is still unknown. It is expected that the men at work on the books will have completed the task of investigation by tonight, and if nothing is found the bank will no doubt be opened for business Monday.

Some personal affairs of Standing have been discovered which involved him to the extent of $15,000, but he has ample property to pay off all obligations. So far as the bank is concerned there is not a dollar missing of its funds. Patrons of the bank attach no dishonor to the cashier's hasty departure and attribute his absence to a pure case of nerves over the present financial stringency. The business men of Corwith are ready personally to pay off any deficit that may be discovered and will accept his return to his position without further explanation, such is the confidence in the missing man.

STOCK SALE NEAR DENISON.

Some of Aberdeen Angus Cattle Were in Prize Herd. Special to Times-Republican.

Denison, Nov. 23.—Forty-five animals from a leading Aberdeen Angus herd of Iowa, were sold Thursday at the McHenry farm near Denison. Some of the animals were in the prize herd shown at Des Moines and St. Paul this year. There was a large attendance of big stock men from the west. The sale went off rapidly and in a good natured way. The Donahues of Holbrook, Iowa, topped the sale by paying $900 for No. 66 Blackbird McHenry, a yearling heifer. The forty-five head averaged $325, the total thus amounting to over $14,500. McHenry was well pleased with the sale.

KELLOGG KEEPS FACTORY.

Business Men Predict "Boom" for Town in Spring. Special to Times-Republican.

Kellogg, Nov. 23.—Since the failure of the Valley Company to secure an order from the Jasper county court, allowing them to move the factory to Des Moines, the citizens of our little town have settled down in peace, and are doing their best to "boost" Kellogg. There is talk of trying to get another factory here of some sort, and the business men say we will have a regular "boom" in the spring. There are natural facilities here, money and business ability.

Oats Short, Mill Shuts Down.

Fort Dodge, Nov. 23.—The Great Western Cereal company of this city, after paying 40 cents for oats, is unable to secure enough to keep the plant going only part of the time. Farmers entertain the idea that higher prices will prevail, and the railroads report that no oats is coming into the small stations. The mill consumes 15,000 bushels daily, and the supply must necessarily come a long distance. This is the first time in the history of the plant that it has shut down at this time of the year.

Coury Dies of Injuries.

New Hampton, Nov. 23.—Nell Coury, one of the young men who were lately injured by the passenger train at Alta Vista on Tuesday morning, is dead. He did not entirely regain consciousness. Mathew Kelley is getting along reasonably well at Sheriff Wondro's home in this city. He suffers much at times, but the doctors think he will recover.

TWO MRS. OGDENS

Aged Gallant Was Switched Off to Relative of Mason City Woman

HE WAS PLEASSED WITH EITHER

Yesterday's Evidence in Mrs. Hattie Day Ogden Will Case, Considerably More in Favor of the Proponents of the Will—J. C. Calhoun's Testimony Creates Quite a Stir in Court.

Special to Times-Republican.

Mason City, Nov. 23.—John C. Calhoun, the aged gallant who for two years was the accepted suitor of the late Mrs. Hattie Day Ogden, and to whom he was to have been married, according to the testimony that developed yesterday in the will case, was switched off in his attentions to a relative of Mrs. Ogden, of the same name, to whom he wrote endearing communications for over a year, ignorant of the fact that he was deceived.

This evidence was brought to light in the hearing of a large number of the letters of Mr. Calhoun and a Mrs. Ogden, who lives at Florida City, Fla., in which the language of an ardent lover was used. This rather startling and mystifying testimony created considerable stir in court. Gallant John Calhoun had testified he was the suitor and promised husband of Mrs. Ogden, but in one of a number of letters read, had written to her stating the terms of the bargain and in a later letter intimated that he was just as well satisfied with the Florida Mrs. Ogden as with the Iowa member of the family, apparently having been apprised of the shift at some intermediate time. The defense made the most of this testimony, as the proponents had introduced the former lovers of Mrs. Ogden to show that she was engaged to all three and that the date of the marriage with each was about the same time. It appears that Mr. Calhoun was well pleased with either and would have married Mrs. Ogden of Mason City had she lived.

The evidence yesterday showed considerable more in favor of the proponents of the will. Several quarrels and times when Mrs. Plerce unduly influenced Mrs. Ogden, were alluded to, and were brought out in the evidence.

CORWITH BANK ALL RIGHT.

Cashier Standing's Accounts Show Bank's Funds Are Intact. Fort Dodge, Nov. 23.—State Bank Examiner Leland Windsor and the committee appointed by the directors to inquire into the condition of the State bank at Corwith have so far failed to find any irregularities of missing Cashier J. H. Sandring, whose address is still unknown. It is expected that the men at work on the books will have completed the task of investigation by tonight, and if nothing is found the bank will no doubt be opened for business Monday.

Some personal affairs of Standing have been discovered which involved him to the extent of $15,000, but he has ample property to pay off all obligations. So far as the bank is concerned there is not a dollar missing of its funds. Patrons of the bank attach no dishonor to the cashier's hasty departure and attribute his absence to a pure case of nerves over the present financial stringency. The business men of Corwith are ready personally to pay off any deficit that may be discovered and will accept his return to his position without further explanation, such is the confidence in the missing man.

STOCK SALE NEAR DENISON.

Some of Aberdeen Angus Cattle Were in Prize Herd. Special to Times-Republican.

Denison, Nov. 23.—Forty-five animals from a leading Aberdeen Angus herd of Iowa, were sold Thursday at the McHenry farm near Denison. Some of the animals were in the prize herd shown at Des Moines and St. Paul this year. There was a large attendance of big stock men from the west. The sale went off rapidly and in a good natured way. The Donahues of Holbrook, Iowa, topped the sale by paying $900 for No. 66 Blackbird McHenry, a yearling heifer. The forty-five head averaged $325, the total thus amounting to over $14,500. McHenry was well pleased with the sale.

KELLOGG KEEPS FACTORY.

Business Men Predict "Boom" for Town in Spring. Special to Times-Republican.

Kellogg, Nov. 23.—Since the failure of the Valley Company to secure an order from the Jasper county court, allowing them to move the factory to Des Moines, the citizens of our little town have settled down in peace, and are doing their best to "boost" Kellogg. There is talk of trying to get another factory here of some sort, and the business men say we will have a regular "boom" in the spring. There are natural facilities here, money and business ability.

Oats Short, Mill Shuts Down.

Fort Dodge, Nov. 23.—The Great Western Cereal company of this city, after paying 40 cents for oats, is unable to secure enough to keep the plant going only part of the time. Farmers entertain the idea that higher prices will prevail, and the railroads report that no oats is coming into the small stations. The mill consumes 15,000 bushels daily, and the supply must necessarily come a long distance. This is the first time in the history of the plant that it has shut down at this time of the year.

Coury Dies of Injuries.

New Hampton, Nov. 23.—Nell Coury, one of the young men who were lately injured by the passenger train at Alta Vista on Tuesday morning, is dead. He did not entirely regain consciousness.

Mathew Kelley is getting along reasonably well at Sheriff Wondro's home in this city. He suffers much at times, but the doctors think he will recover.

CORWITH BANK ALL RIGHT.

Cashier Standing's Accounts Show Bank's Funds Are Intact. Fort Dodge, Nov. 23.—State Bank Examiner Leland Windsor and the committee appointed by the directors to inquire into the condition of the State bank at Corwith have so far failed to find any irregularities of missing Cashier J. H. Sandring, whose address is still unknown. It is expected that the men at work on the books will have completed the task of investigation by tonight, and if nothing is found the bank will no doubt be opened for business Monday.

Some personal affairs of Standing have been discovered which involved him to the extent of $15,000, but he has ample property to pay off all obligations. So far as the bank is concerned there is not a dollar missing of its funds. Patrons of the bank attach no dishonor to the cashier's hasty departure and attribute his absence to a pure case of nerves over the present financial stringency. The business men of Corwith are ready personally to pay off any deficit that may be discovered and will accept his return to his position without further explanation, such is the confidence in the missing man.

STOCK SALE NEAR DENISON.

Some of Aberdeen Angus Cattle Were in Prize Herd. Special to Times-Republican.

Denison, Nov. 23.—Forty-five animals from a leading Aberdeen Angus herd of Iowa, were sold Thursday at the McHenry farm near Denison. Some of the animals were in the prize herd shown at Des Moines and St. Paul this year. There was a large attendance of big stock men from the west. The sale went off rapidly and in a good natured way. The Donahues of Holbrook, Iowa, topped the sale by paying $900 for No. 66 Blackbird McHenry, a yearling heifer. The forty-five head averaged $325, the total thus amounting to over $14,500. McHenry was well pleased with the sale.

KELLOGG KEEPS FACTORY.

Business Men Predict "Boom" for Town in Spring. Special to Times-Republican.

Kellogg, Nov. 23.—Since the failure of the Valley Company to secure an order from the Jasper county court, allowing them to move the factory to Des Moines, the citizens of our little town have settled down in peace, and are doing their best to "boost" Kellogg. There is talk of trying to get another factory here of some sort, and the business men say we will have a regular "boom" in the spring. There are natural facilities here, money and business ability.

Oats Short, Mill Shuts Down.

Fort Dodge, Nov. 23.—The Great Western Cereal company of this city, after paying 40 cents for oats, is unable to secure enough to keep the plant going only part of the time. Farmers entertain the idea that higher prices will prevail, and the railroads report that no oats is coming into the small stations. The mill consumes 15,000 bushels daily, and the supply must necessarily come a long distance. This is the first time in the history of the plant that it has shut down at this time of the year.

Coury Dies of Injuries.

New Hampton, Nov. 23.—Nell Coury, one of the young men who were lately injured by the passenger train at Alta Vista on Tuesday morning, is dead. He did not entirely regain consciousness. Mathew Kelley is getting along reasonably well at Sheriff Wondro's home in this city. He suffers much at times, but the doctors think he will recover.

TWO MRS. OGDENS

Aged Gallant Was Switched Off to Relative of Mason City Woman

HE WAS PLEASSED WITH EITHER

Yesterday's Evidence in Mrs. Hattie Day Ogden Will Case, Considerably More in Favor of the Proponents of the Will—J. C. Calhoun's Testimony Creates Quite a Stir in Court.

Special to Times-Republican.

Mason City, Nov. 23.—John C. Calhoun, the aged gallant who for two years was the accepted suitor of the late Mrs. Hattie Day Ogden, and to whom he was to have been married, according to the testimony that developed yesterday in the will case, was switched off in his attentions to a relative of Mrs. Ogden, of the same name, to whom he wrote endearing communications for over a year, ignorant of the fact that he was deceived.

This evidence was brought to light in the hearing of a large number of the letters of Mr. Calhoun and a Mrs. Ogden, who lives at Florida City, Fla., in which the language of an ardent lover was used. This rather startling and mystifying testimony created considerable stir in court. Gallant John Calhoun had testified he was the suitor and promised husband of Mrs. Ogden, but in one of a number of letters read, had written to her stating the terms of the bargain and in a later letter intimated that he was just as well satisfied with the Florida Mrs. Ogden as with the Iowa member of the family, apparently having been apprised of the shift at some intermediate time. The defense made the most of this testimony, as the proponents had introduced the former lovers of Mrs. Ogden to show that she was engaged to all three and that the date of the marriage with each was about the same time. It appears that Mr. Calhoun was well pleased with either and would have married Mrs. Ogden of Mason City had she lived.

The evidence yesterday showed considerable more in favor of the proponents of the will. Several quarrels and times when Mrs. Plerce unduly influenced Mrs. Ogden, were alluded to, and were brought out in the evidence.

CORWITH BANK ALL RIGHT.

Cashier Standing's Accounts Show Bank's Funds Are Intact. Fort Dodge, Nov. 23.—State Bank Examiner Leland Windsor and the committee appointed by the directors to inquire into the condition of the State bank at Corwith have so far failed to find any irregularities of missing Cashier J. H. Sandring, whose address is still unknown. It is expected that the men at work on the books will have completed the task of investigation by tonight, and if nothing is found the bank will no doubt be opened for business Monday.

Some personal affairs of Standing have been discovered which involved him to the extent of $15,000, but he has ample property to pay off all obligations. So far as the bank is concerned there is not a dollar missing of its funds. Patrons of the bank attach no dishonor to the cashier's hasty departure and attribute his absence to a pure case of nerves over the present financial stringency. The business men of Corwith are ready personally to pay off any deficit that may be discovered and will accept his return to his position without further explanation, such is the confidence in the missing man.

STOCK SALE NEAR DENISON.

Some of Aberdeen Angus Cattle Were in Prize Herd. Special to Times-Republican.

Denison, Nov. 23.—Forty-five animals from a leading Aberdeen Angus herd of Iowa, were sold Thursday at the McHenry farm near Denison. Some of the animals were in the prize herd shown at Des Moines and St. Paul this year. There was a large attendance of big stock men from the west. The sale went off rapidly and in a good natured way. The Donahues of Holbrook, Iowa, topped the sale by paying $900 for No. 66 Blackbird McHenry, a yearling heifer. The forty-five head averaged $325, the total thus amounting to over $14,500. McHenry was well pleased with the sale.

KELLOGG KEEPS FACTORY.

Business Men Predict "Boom" for Town in Spring. Special to Times-Republican.

Kellogg, Nov. 23.—Since the failure of the Valley Company to secure an order from the Jasper county court, allowing them to move the factory to Des Moines, the citizens of our little town have settled down in peace, and are doing their best to "boost" Kellogg. There is talk of trying to get another factory here of some sort, and the business men say we will have a regular "boom" in the spring. There are natural facilities here, money and business ability.

Oats Short, Mill Shuts Down.

Fort Dodge, Nov. 23.—The Great Western Cereal company of this city, after paying 40 cents for oats, is unable to secure enough to keep the plant going only part of the time. Farmers entertain the idea that higher prices will prevail, and the railroads report that no oats is coming into the small stations. The mill consumes 15,000 bushels daily, and the supply must necessarily come a long distance. This is the first time in the history of the plant that it has shut down at this time of the year.

Coury Dies of Injuries.

New Hampton, Nov. 23.—Nell Coury, one of the young men who were lately injured by the passenger train at Alta Vista on Tuesday morning, is dead. He did not entirely regain consciousness.

Mathew Kelley is getting along reasonably well at Sheriff Wondro's home in this city. He suffers much at times, but the doctors think he will recover.

CORWITH BANK ALL RIGHT.

Cashier Standing's Accounts Show Bank's Funds Are Intact. Fort Dodge, Nov. 23.—State Bank Examiner Leland Windsor and the committee appointed by the directors to inquire into the condition of the State bank at Corwith have so far failed to find any irregularities of missing Cashier J. H. Sandring, whose address is still unknown. It is expected that the men at work on the books will have completed the task of investigation by tonight, and if nothing is found the bank will no doubt be opened for business Monday.

Some personal affairs of Standing have been discovered which involved him to the extent of $15,000, but he has ample property to pay off all obligations. So far as the bank is concerned there is not a dollar missing of its funds. Patrons of the bank attach no dishonor to the cashier's hasty departure and attribute his absence to a pure case of nerves over the present financial stringency. The business men of Corwith are ready personally to pay off any deficit that may be discovered and will accept his return to his position without further explanation, such is the confidence in the missing man.

STOCK SALE NEAR DENISON.

Some of Aberdeen Angus Cattle Were in Prize Herd. Special to Times-Republican.

Denison, Nov. 23.—Forty-five animals from a leading Aberdeen Angus herd of Iowa, were sold Thursday at the McHenry farm near Denison. Some of the animals were in the prize herd shown at Des Moines and St. Paul this year. There was a large attendance of big stock men from the west. The sale went off rapidly and in a good natured way. The Donahues of Holbrook, Iowa, topped the sale by paying $900 for No. 66 Blackbird McHenry, a yearling heifer. The forty-five head averaged $325, the total thus amounting to over $14,500. McHenry was well pleased with the sale.

KELLOGG KEEPS FACTORY.

Business Men Predict "Boom" for Town in Spring. Special to Times-Republican.

Kellogg, Nov. 23.—Since the failure of the Valley Company to secure an order from the Jasper county court, allowing them to move the factory to Des Moines, the citizens of our little town have settled down in peace, and are doing their best to "boost" Kellogg. There is talk of trying to get another factory here of some sort, and the business men say we will have a regular "boom" in the spring. There are natural facilities here, money and business ability.

Oats Short, Mill Shuts Down.

Fort Dodge, Nov. 23.—The Great Western Cereal company of this city, after paying 40 cents for oats, is unable to secure enough to keep the plant going only part of the time. Farmers entertain the idea that higher prices will prevail, and the railroads report that no oats is coming into the small stations. The mill consumes 15,000 bushels daily, and the supply must necessarily come a long distance. This is the first time in the history of the plant that it has shut down at this time of the year.

Coury Dies of Injuries.

New Hampton