"The Bonnie Banks o' Loch Lomond" will be one of Ernest Gamble's numbers at the Methodist church Friday evening. The old Scotch melody will appeal to old and young, and as sung by Mr. Gamble will be a rare treat. Lovers of the violin will find everything to please in Miss Verna Page's numbers, given Friday evening at the Methodist church. Miss Page's repertoire will include such composers as Wieniawski, Schumann, Eohm, Handel, and others famous for their artistic productions. Harry Blake, the lad who was seriously injured Saturday afternoon in a hunting accident, when his companion Walter Noyes, accidentally shot him thru the left leg and right foot, is very much improved today. He is probably the most cat who gets it is being cared for. The symptoms today indicate that the lad's foot will be saved. James T. Powers and an exceptionally strong company will come to the Odeon theater tonight, presenting the Messrs. Shuberts musical importation "The Blue Moon" a musical comedy which ran to capacity house for two years in London and one year at the New York Casino. The story concerns an English regiment which is stationed in British India and the intersecting tale is amusing, sane and logical, departing from the time-worn rut of mistaken identity and bankrupt treasuries. The entire ensemble of the tale is just a series of merry, well meant situations, plentifully interspersed with solos, duets, trios and concert numbers. One of the son hits "Don't You Think It Time To Marry" is probably the most catching air in the program. "The Crocodile," "Brahma," "Popular Entertainments," "That's the Way They Let the Secret Out" and "Why Don't You Take One Little Boy," are tied for second honors. Two gorgeous stage settings have been provided and the costuming is a feast for the eyes. Prices .50, .75, $1.00 and $1.50. Take Notice. At Wachter's you will find all kinds of candies 5 cents cheaper on a pound. This will last during Wednesday, Nov. 27, and Thursday, Nov. 28. Don't forget it. 33 West Main street.

Guns to rent. Horne & Gelvin. Teddy Bear night at Eagle's fair. A No. 16 heater for $13. Horne & Gelvin. Cut flowers and blooming plants at Kemble's. Red Men please attend meeting Wednesday night. Large class, with banquet following. A bouquet of Kemble's flowers will add the finishing touch to your Thanksgiving table. Reynolds & Sheldon have an abundance of lettuce, celery, radishes, cucumbers, etc., for Thursday. Men still wanted at the packing house; wages, $1.75 per day. Apply at once, as positions will soon be filled. OBITUARY. Arnold. Mrs. E. A. Arnold, of 706 Bromley street, died at the home of her son, F. J. Arnold, 1114 Summit street, of cancer of the stomach, Monday night at 11:15 o'clock. Mrs. Arnold was born in Martinsville, Ind., July 17, 1841. She leaves two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Gillam, of Westboro, Mo., and Mrs. Sara Reedy, of Edmond, Kas., one brother, David Cook, of Marysville, Mo., also five sons, J. E. and D. L., of this city; W. H. of Los Angeles, Cal.; Alex. A., of Denver, Col., and L. D., of Fontanelle, Neb. The latter son is expected to arrive here in time for the funeral, which will be held at the Christian church Wednesday afternoon at 2 p. m. The services will be conducted by Rev. W. H. Scott, assisted by Rev. C. H. Morris. Brackett. Mrs. Lathen Cole Brackett, aged 65, widow of the late Chester Brackett, of Albion, died shortly before midnight Monday at her home in Albion. Chronic stomach trouble, complicated with other ailments due to her advanced years, was the cause of death. Mrs. Brackett married her late husband at old Port Des Moines fifty-two years ago. She is survived by three children, Arthur Brackett, of Gaylord, Minn.; Mrs. Eliza Brackett, of Fairmont, Minn., and Mrs. Addie Douglas, of Oklahoma City, Okla. The funeral will be held from the house Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. MARRIED. Boos-Goodpaster. Mr. Lucien R. Boos, of Albert Lea, Minn., and Miss Adah Goodpaster, of Eldora, were married in this city late Monday afternoon by Mayor Ingledue. Mr. Boos is a railway postal clerk running between Albert Lea and Albion on the Iowa Central. Mr. Boos' home is at West Liberty, where he is well known. Peterson-Strong. Mr. Peter Peterson and Miss Mina Strong, both of this city, were married at 11 o'clock today by Justice S. E. Peck.
