BOARD BUILT WELL

Great Improvement in State Institution Equipment in Past Ten Years

ALMOST WHOLLY RECONSTRUCT

Number of Wards to Be Cared For in That Time Has Increased 35 Per Cent - Institution at Eldora Conspicuous Example of What Has Been Accomplished - State News.

Special to Times-Republican.

Des Moines, July 23.—In considering the work that the state board of control has done in the ten years it has been in existence it is necessary to consider the condition of the buildings then and now. When Governor Leslie M. Shaw delivered his last message to the legislature he submitted a list of appropriations amounting to $2,815,500 which was far more than the legislature had money to appropriate and he said:

"I believe the amounts asked in the foregoing list are all needed, and it would be gratifying indeed if they could all be allowed. It is manifest, however, that this session of the general assembly cannot grant them all without incurring an unwarranted indebtedness. They are therefore submitted without this suggestion that if any additional buildings are to be provided they should be of the most permanent character. For many years the policy prevailed of building cheaply. It was thought almost anything would do so long as the roof did not leak nor the walls cave. A wise departure in recent years has been made. The new hospital for the insane at Cherokee, the Liberal Arts building at Iowa City, and the new buildings at both Ames and Cedar Falls are excellent in character. Those competent to judge have used this language: 'The buildings in recent years have been of a high order of architecture and of strictly fireproof construction, has passed, let it be hoped, in this state.'"

In considering the increased cost to the state of Iowa in some lines of the work for carrying for the state institutions it should be taken into account that in the ten years that the state board of control has been in charge of these institutions they have been almost wholly rebuilt. The old buildings were shacks for the most part and were entirely inadequate. During the past ten years the state has built much that should have been built in the years before that and in addition to take care of the immediate wants of the state has been building so as to care for much of the future. The cost of this work has come during the first ten years under the state board of control.

The total population of the state of Iowa in 1895 was 2,058,069; in 1900 it was 2,281,853 and in 1905 it was 2,210,050.

The state board of control took charge of the state institutions of Iowa on July 1, 1898, and the report for the month of July of that year shows that there were 6,061 inmates in the state institutions and 935 employees, making a total of 6,996. For the month of June, 1908, the last month available there were 8,150 inmates and 1,324 employees, a total of 9,474. An increase of over 35 per cent.

While the population of the state of Iowa has fallen off slightly the population of the state institutions has increased over 35 per cent. a percentage for which the state board of control can hardly be held responsible. On the other hand the wages paid to the employees of the institution is greater and the cost of living has doubled in some instances the per capita allowance at the insane hospital has actually been lowered. Formerly it was $14 to $16 a month. Now it is $12 a month at all except one of the institutions and will be lowered there as soon as the population of the institution increases a little more.

Notwithstanding the increased cost of living expenses the per capita allowance at none of the institutions has been increased with the exception of the soldiers' home at Marshalltown. In regard to that institution it can be said that with the inevitable workings of time it is fast being changed from a home to a hospital and the increased cost on that account is a matter that every one concedes as necessary and to which no one objects.

One of the things that has permitted the board to take care of the inmates on the same or a less per capita allowance has been the purchase of additional farm land at many of the institutions whereby the state has been able to raise much that is used for the food and support of the inmates, the inmates themselves in some instances, doing much of the work.

The reports for the amount of land at the state institutions for 1898 when the board took charge are not easily accessible but in 1901 the amount was 3,764 acres. The last report shows the amount to be 6,451. The land since purchased for the tuberculosis sanitarium is not included. Mr. Cowrie, one of the members of the board and a practical farmer, is willing to take all this land off the hands of the state at 50 per cent more than the state paid for it so it would seem not to have been a bad investment. The expenditure of this money for additional farm land has helped to prevent the necessity for increasing the per capita allowance but the expenditure of the money has come during the ten years of the board of control and it part of the expense the state has been put to.

As an indication of the changes that the board made over the old conditions it should be necessary to refer only to the case of Eldora. A number of prominent lecturers and entertainers will be on the program, among them, Gov. E. W. Hoch, of Kansas; Rev. W. A. Sunday; Gov. J. Frank Hanly, of Indiana; Adrian M. Newsen and Mr. and Mrs. Elias P. Day.

and inconvenient method. Furthermore the institution at Eldora is essentially a school where boys who have been deprived of the advantages to which they are by right entitled are sent yet when the board of control took charge there was no school house.

The boys were kept in cottages twenty-five or thirty boys in a building. They were crowded in as much as possible and one room of the cottage was used not only for school room but for sitting room, and play room and general living room for the boys. They were crowded in their seats during school. After school they sat in their seats till bed time. The person in charge of the cottage was also the teacher.

Under the present arrangement, the boys are given as much of the home influence as possible. The cottage is their home and the boys are kept in families of a reasonable number each with some one in charge who is capable of influencing them properly. While not in school or in the work shop they are in the home or on the playground. There are separate school houses for their home and the boys are kept in families of a reasonable number each with some one in charge who is capable of influencing them properly. While not in school or in the work shop they are in the home or on the playground.

APPLE MEN TO MEET.

Mississippi Valley Association Convenes at Montrose July 25.

Montrose, July 23.—The next meeting of the Mississippi Valley Apple Growers' association will be held at Montrose, Ia., on next Saturday, July 25. Everybody is invited to come to the meeting, which no doubt will be very pleasant and profitable to all having the slightest interest in the fruit industry. Following the name of the organization, as a rule, heretofore the discussion of all fruits excepting the apple have not been entertained. At the Montrose meeting, however, by special request the consideration of growing small fruits of any kind will be admitted and allowed to become part of the proceedings. It is hoped that the grape growers and berry growers in the vicinity of Montrose and Nauvoo will be sure to be present.

Hon. Wesley Greene, secretary of the Iowa State Horticultural society, and one of the most thorough going horticulturists of the middle west, will be present and ready to give all the benefit of his wide range of practical observations. Other successful fruit growers are also expected to address the meeting.

JUDGE EVANS WELL KNOWN.

Will Be Regular Candidate for Supreme Bench to Fill Bishop Vacancy.

Special to Times-Republican. Hampton, July 23.—The name of Judge W. D. Evans, of this city, is receiving very favorable mention as a candidate for the supreme bench to fill the vacancy caused by the recent death of Judge Charles A. Bishop. Of the qualifications of Judge Evans for the place there is no question. He came to this city twenty-eight years ago after having graduated from the law department of the state university. From that time until his election as district judge six years ago, he was recognized as one of the ablest attorneys in this part of the state. As district judge he has still further widened his reputation as a competent and able lawyer and jurist.

In this city where he has so long resided, no man stands higher in the respect and esteem of his neighbors and associates, and he is sure to have the support of the republicans of the Third congressional judicial district.

Judge and Mrs. Evans are now in Scotland on a combined business and pleasure trip, but his candidacy is being ably looked after by relatives and friends.

AUTO TOUR THRU IOWA

Sixth Annual Race of A. A. A. Will be Contested in 1909 Over Western Roads

CREDIT DUE DAVID BEECROFT

American Automobile Association on Tour for Glidden and Hower Trophies From Chicago to Denver—Special Trophy Offered by Chicago Motor Club.

Special to Times-Republican.

Boone, July 23.—The sixth annual tour of the American Automobile Association for the Glidden and Hower trophies will be contested in 1909 over western roads with the start from Chicago and the finish at Denver, passing thru Boone.

Credit is due David Beecroft, chairman of the technical committee of the Chicago Motor Club, in his successful campaign to land the great motoring classic for the west. It was thru Mr. Beecroft's enterprise that the head of the A. A. A. board consented to abandon the east for the next long distance drive. As an added incentive for the tourists the Chicago Motor club has agreed to offer a special trophy to be contested for by some class of automobiles to be named by the A. A. A.

Immediately after securing the promise of Chairman Hower, Mr. Beecroft got in communication with George C. Greenway, secretary and treasurer of the Motor Club, and the local organization will probably begin arrangements for the run at the close of the present tour. A Chicago-Des Moines route was suggested for the 1908 event last winter by the Chicago Herald and the western motor clubs working with might and main to land the run for this section.

While in Buffalo awaiting the start of the tour, Mr. Beecroft established a number of fences bearing upon the selection of a western run for next year. However, harking to the appeal from the west, called a special of the A. A. A. heads who, appreciating the great advantages for staging a real, strenuous contest toward the coast, lost no time in falling into the idea as broached by Beecroft.

"BILLY" WILLIAMS FOUND.

Minstrel Evangelist in Demented Condition at Moline, Ill.

Des Moines, July 23.—"Billy" Williams, minstrel-evangelist, who disappeared from Des Moines last Saturday morning while overcome by dementia, has been found. Almost exhausted, he was picked up in Moline, Ill., yesterday by a business man of that city who knew the famous minstrel man years ago. Williams' friend took him to a sanitarium in Moline, where he will rest until he is able to get home to Boone, Ia. The first intimation of Williams' discovery to reach this city was received by his wife over the long distance telephone yesterday. Williams' friends did not give his name, but merely told the wife that her husband had been found and was being well cared for. He said that the evangelist was in a very bad shape—that his clothing was soiled and torn and that he was so weak he could hardly stand.

How Williams made the journey to Moline is not known, but he is reported to have taken a freight train. The first intimation of Williams' discovery to reach this city was received by his wife over the long distance telephone yesterday. Williams' friends did not give his name, but merely told the wife that her husband had been found and was being well cared for. He said that the evangelist was in a very bad shape—that his clothing was soiled and torn and that he was so weak he could hardly stand.

WELL EARNED VACATION.

Walter Luke Has Served Ten Years in Hampton Postoffice.

Special to Times-Republican. Hampton, July 23.—After ten years of continuous service in the postoffice here, Mr. Walter G. Luke is taking a much needed vacation. His health has been impaired by the confinement necessary to his work during the years past, and it is with the hope that he can recuperate to a considerable degree that he is taking the lay off.

Runaway Proves Fatal.

New Hampton, July 23.—M. M. Utley, one of New Hampton's well known citizens, died from injuries received in a runaway on a hay rake. Although he was an old man he went out to rake hay and in some way fell from his seat under the rake. The horse ran, dragging him beneath the steel rake teeth. His head was cut open from ear to ear. Dr. Gardner took fifteen stitches in the wound, but from the first it was plain that he could not live long. He passed away without regaining consciousness.

DEATH OF YOUNG BOY.

Donald Vincent, Popular Algona Lad Succumbs to Diabetes.

Special to Times-Republican. Algona, July 23.—Donald Vincent, the fourteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Vincent, of this city, died this morning at about 4 o'clock. "Don" as he was called by his playmates, had not been feeling well for some weeks. He did not complain, but kept on working up to Saturday night, and he did not go to his bed until Monday evening, at which time Dr. Gay was summoned, who pronounced it diabetes. The disease had taken such a firm hold that he was beyond all help. He leaves besides his mother and father, one brother and three sisters. The father, who is a traveling man, was on his way to the home office of his company, and left home Thursday, leaving his family as he supposed, all well, but before he reached his destination he was summoned by telegram to return home at once. He took the next train back and arrived in Eagle Grove, from there taking an auto, arriving in Algona soon afterward.

Donald was a bright boy and one who will be greatly missed in the home, in the school, and among his playmates, who were many. The funeral will be held from the M. E. church on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Walter Torbet officiating and his remains will be laid to rest in Riverview cemetery.

INJUSTICE TO BOONE.

Facts Differ Regarding Wm. Wood Case—Not Cruelly Treated.

Special to Times-Republican. Boone, July 23.—A story emanating from Mason City regarding the cruel treatment of William Wood, while in this city, is doing a great injustice to this city, and county officials. Wood during a cold winter attempted to cross the river, on a log stepped on the log, and fell in. He of course got wet, and as the water was bitter cold, his feet were frozen somewhat. A kind farmer saw him, put him in his sleigh, and took him to his home. The journey was a long one, and the man's feet were worse. Later he was taken to Boone, Ia., and the police authorities gave him a ticket to Mason City, and enough money to get to his home in Minnesota. After getting on the train his feet got worse, and he had to leave the train at Mason City, and was then taken to the hospital, where both feet had to be amputated. He is now a helpless cripple. The Mason City authorities, evidently not wanting to care for him, are backing him in a suit against this county. Just on what grounds he is suing has not been learned, but chances are there will be no result. The telegram from Mason City is an outrageous slander against Boone county and the vicinity, and action may be taken to put a stop to it.
