LABORERS MARCH IN TAFT PARADE

Steel Workers of Youngstown, Ohio, Take Part in Great Republican Rally

HUGHES AND BEVERIDGE SPEAK

New York's Governor Stands by the Policies of Roosevelt and Taft—Beveridge Contrasts Ohioan and Nebraska by Showing What Bryan Has Not Done.

Youngstown, O., Sept. 5.—The republican campaign in Ohio was formally opened here today with speeches by Governor Hughes, of New York, Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, and Governor Harris, of Ohio. The great mills of the United States Steel corporation, the Republic Iron and Steel company, and the Youngstown Sheet and Tube company were quiet, for a three-day holiday had been declared, including Sunday and Labor day.

Youngstown is a steel town, and the brawn and muscle of her chief industry formed the body of the parade which preceded the speaking at Wick park. There was an immense crowd present when Harris began the oratory with an address dealing largely with the liquor question in Ohio, which has become an important state issue.

Hughes followed, and the speaking closed with an address by Beveridge, both devoted themselves strictly to questions of the national campaign. Hughes lauded Taft and Roosevelt. The words of Hughes: "The army opposing us can not pass muster either as one of defense or of salvation, and we may as well pause before we assume its boasts of fidelity, to garison our national institutions." was the keynote of the meeting. Hughes started with a brief eulogy of Taft, and sketched the success of republican rule in the past few years, with high praise for the reforms of the Roosevelt administration. Speaking of the fact that the new president probably would have the appointment of four justices of the supreme court of the United States, he alluded to Taft's high standing as a jurist and his wide knowledge of the bench and bar, from which such appointments, the highest in importance, must be made. Hughes contrasted the candidates, and discussed the election. He disparaged his remedies for monopolistic abuses and insisted that labor had no truer friend than Taft and the republican party. As the governor forcefully brought out his point he was loudly cheered.

The ovation which had greeted him was repeated when Beveridge arose. What Bryan Has Not Done. "We are midway in the historic movement of the republicanism written into law," said the senator. "Shall that movement be carried out, or wrecked?" He declared of the work remaining to be done by the republican party, revision of the constitution. He met other commercial nations with their own navies. He favors an adequate navy, for, he said, Bryan's idea of a navy only large enough to protect our own shores meant the abandonment of the Monroe doctrine. That doctrine was as nothing, he declared, without ships to make it respected. Contrasting Bryan and Taft, the speaker said: "Bryan never handled a single foreign problem. He has governed no Philippines, regenerated no Cuba, built no canal, avoided no alien danger, saved us from no threatened peril. In domestic affairs Bryan has written not one law, administered not a single department, advised no president, while lecturing all. He is a preacher of righteousness, but not an administrator of affairs. Bryan is an Aaron, not a Moses; a Henry, but not a Washington; a Wendell Phillips, but not an Abraham Lincoln."

"HITCHCOCK AS PEACEMAKER"

Several Michigan Republicans Accompanying Chairman.

Detroit, Sept. 5.—Chairman Hitchcock arrived here this morning from Indianapolis, and left shortly afterward on the yacht Halcyon, for Middle Bass Island, to confer with Taft. He was accompanied by a number of Michigan republicans, and it was expected that Hitchcock would use his efforts toward helping the two factions in the party to forget the differences which existed during the primary campaign.

Lincoln, Sept. 5.—This was clearing up day at Fairmount preparatory to the departure tomorrow on his long trip to eastern and middle states of William J. Bryan. ### GOFF WILL ACCEPT.

Compromise Makes Him Candidate for Governor of West Virginia.

New York, Sept. 5.—Nathan Goff, of the United States circuit court at Parkersburg, W. Va., will be the republican candidate for governor of that state. If the agreement between Representatives C. A. Swisher and S. C. Scherr, the present candidate for governor on rival republican tickets, is carried out. The contest between these two factions for the approval of the republican national committee, which was asked to determine which faction was regular, today ended in the announcement of the withdrawal of both Swisher and Scherr, upon the condition that Goff be nominated. Goff, it is said, is willing to accept.

SHALLENBERGER KEEPS LEAD.

Will Have Liberal Plurality for Nebraska Democratic Nomination.

Lincoln, Sept. 5.—Incomplete returns from fifty-one counties out of ninety gave Shallenberger 3,027 votes for the democratic nomination for governor, Dahlman 2,971, and George 6,730. As the county precincts report, the vote of George is getting close to that of Dahlman and he is the second man in the race. Shallenberger is maintaining a good lead and probably will have a plurality of 5,000 over his nearest competitor.

CHURCH IN ATTACK ON COUNT TOLSTOI

Circular Addressed by Holy Synod Practically Excommunicates Aged Count

WILL STOP CELEBRATIONS

Provincial Authorities Beatir Themselves to Check Arrangements for 80th Anniversary Ceremonies—Tolstoi Grief Stricken at Harsh Sentiments.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 5.—A circular addressed by the holy synod to all bishops, appealing to them not to participate in the celebration Sept. 9 in honor of Count Leo Tolstoi's 80th birthday, on the ground that thus to praise this opponent of the church would be a stumbling block to persons of weak faith, meets with approval from only a limited section of the press and public. The circular is virtually a second excommunication of the aged writer.

Administrative and provincial authorities are bestirring themselves at the eleventh hour to check the observance of the count's jubilee. The governors of several provinces have resorted to the provisions of martial law to veto celebrations arranged by the municipalities. Efforts of the countess to prevent news of the bitterness excited by his jubilee from reaching her husband have been fruitless. His grief at the harsh sentiments expressed is pathetic.

PITTSBURG BANK FORCED TO CLOSE

Comptroller Takes Charge of Institution With Liabilities of Almost $2,000,000

BANK OFFICIALS INDIGNANT

Reiterates That Institution Is Solvent—That Closing Was Unnecessary—Action of Comptroller Follows Examination of Books of Concern—Capitalized at $500,000.

Pittsburg, Sept. 5.—The Cosmopolitan National bank suspended today. A notice posted on the doors read: "Closed by order of the comptroller, JOHN L. CUNNINGHAM, Examiner."

While not a large institution, it is a fair-sized one, and the suspension caused considerable excitement. A few moments after the notice was posted a large crowd collected in front of the bank.

John McClure, president and D. J. Richardson, vice president, according to report Richardson said he knew of no reason why the bank should be closed, as the institution had from forty to forty-five per cent of reserves on hand. A report of the condition of the bank, made at the close of business July 15, shows resources and liabilities of $1,912,520; capital stock paid in, $500,000; surplus fund, $100,000; undivided profits, $45,332.

The suspension followed an examination of the bank's books by Examiner Cunningham. Judge Oldham, of the legal department of the comptroller of the currency, arrived here today in connection with the trouble. Further than stating the bank is insolvent, neither Cunningham nor Oldham would make a statement in the mean time the bank's officials are very indignant that the government closed the bank. They allege it is an excessive financial shape and say the deposits at closing time yesterday aggregated $900,000. The available cash on hand this morning, they say, was $225,000.
