Dr. Pierce's medicines, the maker of which print every ingredient entering into them upon the bottle wrappers and advise its correctness under oath, are daily giving in favor. The composition of Dr. Pierce's medicine is open to everybody. Being wholly made of the active medicinal principles extracted from native forest roots, by exact processes original with Dr. Pierce, and without the use of a drop of alcohol, triple-refined and chemically pure glycerine being used instead in extracting and preserving the curative virtues residing in the roots employed, these medicines are entirely free from the objection of doing harm by creating an appetite for either alcoholic beverages or habit-forming drugs. Examine the formula on their bottle wrappers, the same as sworn to by Dr. Pierce, and you will find that his "Golden Medical Discovery," the great blood-purifier, stomach tonic and bowel regulator—the medicine which, while not recommended to cure consumption in its advanced stages, yet will do it, and yet does cure all those catarrhal conditions of head and throat, weak stomach, torpid liver and bronchial troubles, weak lungs and hang-coughs, which, if neglected or badly treated, lead up to and finally terminate in consumption.

"Take the 'Golden Medical Discovery' in time and it is not likely to disappoint you if only you give it a thorough and fair trial. Don't expect miracles. It won't do supernatural things. You must exercise your patience and persevere in its use for a reasonable length of time to get its full benefits. The ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicine are composed have the unequalled endorsement of scores of medical leaders—better than any amount of lay, or non-professional testimonials. They are not given away to be experimented with but are sold by all dealers in medicines at reasonable prices.

BUSINESS IS HALTED
Campaign in Iowa Takes on Unexpected Life and Merchants Won't Buy
TOO BUSY TALKING POLITICS
 Country Merchants Quit Selling Goods to Argue With the Traveling Men—Business Men Begin to Realize That His Interests are at Stake in the Coming Election.

Special to Times-Republican.
 Des Moines, Oct. 21.—Traveling salesmen coming into Des Moines from all parts of the state declare that it is now almost impossible to do business with country merchants, owing to the pending election.

"I am going to lay off for two weeks," said one man. "I can hardly make enough to cover my traveling expenses."

The reason ascribed for this is that the campaign has so far awakened up that the merchants are too busy talking politics and speculating on the outcome of the election to place large orders for future delivery.

The interest is not an idle curiosity as to the strength being developed by the parties. Up to the past week business generally proceeded along evenly, little interrupted by the activities of political leaders. But now the merchant is showing considerable concern over the prospects.

"Someone must have put a bug in his ears," said the traveling man. "It can't account for this sudden interest in politics unless it is that the merchant is beginning to realize that he really has something at stake in this election. He is not only talking, but he is plugging, and plugging for Taft, too."

"A few weeks ago, I could go into a country store, chat about the weather, drift into politics, say I had been hearing a good deal of Bryan talk, and he would go on waiting on customers, without any particular comment, give me an order, when he got ready and go on working."

"Now if you say you have been hearing a good deal of Bryan sentiment, he will drop everything, tell you you haven't circulated much in the community, and then start arguing with you, while the customers wait for their goods. And when you come to tackle him for an order, in spite of his optimism for republican success, he will put you off until after election. He don't care to take any chances."

"The trouble with him is that he has been so busy during the past ten years reaping the results of prosperous business conditions that he has overlooked the cause, and even after the big party conventions, when the campaign opened up, he took it for granted that things would come out all right without his intervention. He is now scared. He remembers what resulted sixteen years ago, when he was in much the same attitude. He realizes the unrest and loss of confidence which would follow Bryan's election and is going to put in his time during the next few weeks doing what he can to elect Taft."

YOUR DISTRESSED STOMACH WILL FEEL FINE FIVE MINUTES LATER
 Take your sour stomach—or maybe you call it indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis or catarrh of stomach; it doesn't matter — take your stomach trouble right with you to your pharmacist and ask him to open a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapensin and let you eat one 22-grain Triangule and see if within five minutes there is left any trace of your former misery.

The correct name for your trouble is food fermentation—food souring; the digestive organs become weak; there is lack of gastric juice; your food is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, vomiting, nausea, heartburn, griping in bowels, tenderness in the pit of stomach, bad taste in mouth, constipation, pain in limbs, sleeplessness belching of gas, biliousness, sick headache, nervousness, dizziness and many other similar symptoms.

If your appetite is feeble, and nothing seems to do you, or you belch gas or you feel bloated after eating, or your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause—fermentation of undigested food.

Prove it yourself, after your next meal, that your stomach is as good as any, that there is nothing really wrong. Stop this fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery.

Almost instant relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of how soon you take some Diapensin

 WILL COMPLETE WORK TODAY

Special to Times-Republican.
 Dallas, S. D., Oct. 21.—As on the first day, Iowans led all the other states in the second day's drawing of Tripp county land. The interest of the large contingent here, seems to increase, as the chances of success grow less. Hundreds of those who were at first certain of being included in the first hundred are now only concerned that they may not fall outside the line entirely. BABY RICH IN ANCESTORS.
 Fifty-eight Living Great, Greater, and Greatest Grandparents.
 McGregor, Oct. 21.—The distinction of possessing more grandparents than any other one of 10,000,000 babies in the union is believed to rest with Agnes Naomi Reah Guiley, aged 2 1/2 months. She is the first born of the sixth generation.

While she coos in the arms of her great-great-grandmother, who does the family cooking at 85, she is learning to differentiate fifty-eight, grand, great, greater, and greatest grandparents in the following order:

Her parents' parents, four; their parents, eight; their parents, sixteen; their parents, thirty-two, less two deceased; total, fifty-eight grandparents for her tiny self.

Her greatest grandmother, Mrs. Lydia Shrake, has rival claims to distinction which she jealously guards. With her ten children, forty-one grandchildren, eighty-five great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild, making a total of 147 descendants, she rightfully demands attention. Whether it is more honorable to count down a posterity of 167 or reckon up an ancestry of fifty-eight is a mooted question in the community.

James D. Shrake has to her credit the additional fact that she sent five soldier sons to the army in 1861 and is the widow of a soldier of the war of 1861.

BURIED IN ONE GRAVE
 Youthful Victims of Iowa Central Train Given Double Funeral at Union
 THE SCHOOL PUPILS ATTEND

Special to Times-Republican.
 Union, Oct. 21.—What proved probably the largest, and one of the very saddest, funerals ever held in Union, was conducted Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when all that was earthly of Minnie Trimball and Verain Cook, were laid to rest in one grave in the Union cemetery.

The people of this community have not yet recovered from the terrible shock resultant upon the double tragedy, in which Miss Trimball died trying to save her little cousin from the wheels of an Iowa Central freight train between this place and Liscomb.

The double funeral service was conducted from the Methodist church, and was in charge of Rev. W. H. Hickman, of Stanford, assisted by Rev. Mrs. Paul, of Stanford.

At Liscomb Tuesday afternoon school was dismissed that the pupils of the high school and grammar rooms might attend the funeral. The pall bearers were chosen from the classmates of Miss Trimball, who feel deeply the loss of their schoolmate. The school presented a beautiful floral offering in the design of a lyre, as a silent token of their sympathy. A gloom unspokenly envelops the school room where Minnie was a familiar and well-loved figure. Her desk, neatly arranged as she had left it on Friday night, was covered with flowers Monday, the fragrant blossoms mutely speaking of a beautiful life further on.

 Mason City, Oct. 21.—In a hurry to get married and catch the train on which they planned to start on their honeymoon tour, Ambrose Loomis, of Rockford, and Miss Millie Mansfield, of Rudd, were rushing from the office of the clerk of the district court to that of Justice of the Peace Church, when they suddenly encountered the gentleman they were seeking. Waiving all formality and custom, Justice Church quietly married them, as they stood before the counter in the office of the clerk of courts. They showed their appreciation of the act of the kindly justice by their beaming faces, but after the knot was tied, the groom quickly paid the fee, and with a hasty word of thanks they rushed to a waiting carriage.

MISSING GIRL IS FOUND.
 Esther Vaughn, Sought by Parents, Located in Cedar Rapids.
 Waterloo, Oct. 21.—Esther Vaughn, the 14-year-old girl who her parents believed had been lost in Omaha, has been heard from. The mother received a post card from Cedar Rapids from the girl, stating that she was visiting friends there, where the family formerly resided. The mother was overjoyed at learning the whereabouts of her daughter and Mrs. Vaughn went to that city. The thoughtlessness of the daughter in failing to communicate her intentions to her parents, thus causing their great anxiety and considerable expense, was under the circumstances easily overlooked by those directly concerned.

Stallion's Hide For Robe.
 Mason City, Oct. 21.—The memory of the famous white stallion, owned by John Bishop of Nora Springs, still lives in a robe which was valued at $100 which was made of his hide. Tracer Happenings.

 Traer, Oct. 21.—Joseph Drahos was arrested for cruelty to animals, last Saturday, and the case was tried on Monday. He was found guilty and fined $1 and costs. Mr. Drahos, who lives about six miles north of town, drove his team in Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, and hitched them on the street. At 9 o'clock in the evening they were still standing where they had been hitched, and had neither feed nor water during the day.

A horse belonging to Alva Gates had a narrow escape Tuesday morning both from drowning and injury. The animal had been led up to the well for a drink. While drinking from a nearby trough, the bridle became caught on the curbing of the well and while the horse was trying to loosen itself, the curbing gave way and the horse was precipitated twenty-eight feet, to the bottom of the well. The water was low and the animal managed to keep its head above water. For a while it seemed certain that the animal was doomed, but after considerable labor, it was brought to the top. A veterinary was summoned, but could not even find a scratch on the horse.
