The Shakespeare Society will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. E. W. Harmon, 307 North Fifth street.

The Wintonensis Aid Society will meet with Mrs. F. A. Dillon, 311 West Linn street, Tuesday afternoon.

We do work on the square at Van's Modern Slice Repair Shop. Don't forget the place, No. 11 North First street.

Buy an Insurance Gasoline Stove—Once you see it in operation you'll have no other. Bendigo Hardware Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Eller, of Waterloo, arrived in the city Sunday to visit for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. John Crellin.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Butler, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. Butler's parents in Webster City, returned home this morning.

Order pineapples for canning purposes now. Better and cheaper than ever before. Ask your grocer or Oppice Fruit Company, wholesale and retail.

The regular meeting of the Brotherhood of the Baptist Church, which was to have been held this evening in the tabernacle, has been postponed one week, on account of the concert tonight.

The members of the Rev. "Billy" Sunday party still remaining in the city, were delightfully entertained at 6 o'clock dinner, by Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Lefler, 401 West State street, Saturday evening.

The lecture to be given in the Alblon M. E. church by Rev. A. T. Bishop, of Iowa Falls, Tuesday, June 8, has been postponed till Monday, June 14, on account of the sickness of Rev. Mr. Bishop.

Men and women who are particular, even fastidious, about the quality of the meat they eat make it a point to buy Anchor Brand bacon and ham. Do you insist on getting the best? If so ask for and be sure you get Britannia & Co's Anchor Brand.

Now is the time to buy pineapples for canning purposes. They were never nicer than they are this year and were never cheaper. At the prices now being quoted they are most economical to can, and they're awfully good too, Oppice Fruit Company.

The man who takes to the woods and refuses to sign the saloon remonstrance because of fear for his business does by that very act in effect sign for the saloons for the reason that the remonstrance must have a majority and all those not on the petition are counted against it. Committee.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pickard returned home Saturday from Des Moines, where they have been in attendance at the convention of the State Sunday School Association. Mr. Pickard was elected president of the Fourteenth district of the state, which makes him a member of the association's state executive committee.

Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Scott arrived home Saturday evening from Iowa City, where the latter has been in Mercy Hospital for the past several weeks, suffering from a severe case of blood poisoning. Mrs. Scott, while sufficiently recovered to be brought home, is able to be up only a portion of each day, as yet.

In the city of Atlantic, Iowa, the saloons were closed in December, 1905. On Jan. 1, 1906, the banks of that city had on deposit $1,186,813.36. Three years later with no saloons the same banks had on deposit, Jan. 1, 1909, $1,434,180.73. Knocking the saloons out of Atlantic killed the town by just $247,367.57 more money in the banks.

The owners of one of the largest factories in town are telling us frankly that their business has suffered hundreds of dollars of injury since circus day alone by reason of the boozing done by their workmen on that day which caused employes to desert their jobs and in one instance stop a department until new men could be found. Committee.

The man whose fear for his business keeps his name off the saloon remonstrance not only refuses to help the cause but in effect he has killed one signature already on the petition for the reason that there must be a majority actually signed and all those not on the petition are counted against it. Please do not kill our votes by your timidity. Committee.

While chopping wood Saturday Fred Knoll, aged 21, of Haverhill, all but severed the thumb of his left hand with the ax he was using. The flesh and the bone were cut leaving the thumb hanging by a shred of skin and flesh. He was brought to this city for treatment. Mr. Knoll is the son of Herman Knoll, who was drowned in a well at his home a short time ago.

There will be a meeting for all the members of the federated clubs, at the home of Mrs. George Darling, 309 West Main street, Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at which reports of the biennial convention held in Davenport, May 18 to 21, inclusive, will be given by the ladies who were in attendance. Mrs. F. S. Hynds will report Tuesday's program, Mrs. George Whitton, Wednesday's, and Mrs. Robert Stevens, Friday's.

Mr. Carr and daughter, Miss Grace Carr, of Ocean Park, Cal., formerly of this city, arrived here this morning from an extensive trip in the east, visiting in New York, New Jersey, Washington, D. C., and other places. Mr. Carr, who represented California at the recent national convention of wholesale grocers, at Detroit, Mich., will start for home Tuesday, but Miss Carr will remain here for a visit of two weeks or more. She will be a guest at the homes of Miss Mae Eratt and Misses Lois, Mae and Fannie Vogel, and of other friends.

Mr. George R. Berriman, of Springfield, Ill., who has been visiting several days with Mrs. Berriman at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Welles, left for his home this morning.

Miss Agnes Burroughs, who has been studying vocal and instrumental music in the Brugger studio, in Chicago, arrived home Sunday morning to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Burroughs.

Mrs. Jessie G. Linton, formerly principal of the Abbott school of this city, now a principal at Cheyenne, Wyo., arrived in the city Saturday evening, and will be a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Devine for about a week.

Mr. Ray Scott, who passed the state bar examination with high marks last week, arrived home Saturday night. He will return to Des Moines the latter part of this week, to take part in the commencement events at Drake University.

Pineapples are now at their best and they are cheaper than ever before. It is an excellent time to can pineapples. Nothing nicer if properly canned. Would advise putting in your order right away for as many dozen as you can use. Oppice Fruit Company.

A telegram received by Mr. and Mrs. L. Derby from Mrs. George McGill, at Peoria, tells of the death of her father, Rev. John Weston. Mr. Weston died Saturday night, the end being due to old age. A year ago last March Mrs. Weston died following an accident in which she was terribly burned.

Mr. C. M. Carr and daughter Grace, of Ocean Park, Cal., arrived in the city this morning from the east, and are guests at the A. P. Eratt home. Mr. Carr was formerly of the Whitton, Carr & McConnell Grocery Company, of this city, and was later manager of the Marshalltown Grocery Company.

Mr. Frank Culley, who is attending Northwestern University at Evanston, arrived home Saturday for the summer vacation, which he will spend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Culley. He was accompanied by his aunt, Mrs. Emma MacDougal, of Chicago, who will remain for a short visit at her sister's home.

Now comes the housewife for some desert for tomorrow's dinner, and what does she get? Well, if she's wise she orders a can of Cameo salmon and a can of Cameo peaches or apricots. Her dinner is complete, her guests are delighted, she is happy and they vote the dinner a great success. It's true that good goods keep trouble away. Tell the cook.

"NICK" JORGENSEN DEAD After Lingered Almost Three Years, With Back Broken, Well-Known Carpenter Breathes Last at 11 O'clock Today—Has Been Patient Sufferer.

After lying for almost three years with his back broken, and knowing that there was absolutely no hope for his recovery, Nicholas Jorgensen, a carpenter living at 404 Woodbury street, died at 11 o'clock today.

Jorgensen was injured by a fall at Galena Junction, Ill., July 17, 1906. He was brought home as soon after the accident as he could be moved, and for a long time was at St. Thomas hospital. Here an operation was performed in the hope of reuniting the spine, but there was so much vertebrae that had been destroyed that the operation was useless. The poor fellow, lying in his room at the hospital, was the most patient victim of unfortunate circumstances imaginable, and never a murmur was heard from him. His case was the cause for comment on the part of other patients in the hospital who made more fuss over less serious ailments.

Mr. Jorgensen was born of Danish parents in Germany Aug. 3, 1859. He was a member of the Norwegian Lutheran church of this city, and belonged to the A. O. U. W. and the carpenter's union. Mr. Jorgensen came to this city twenty-five years ago.

Surviving Mr. Jorgensen are his wife and seven children. The latter are Mesdames John and Jacob Elge and E. O. Locke, and Harry, Anna, Ralph, and Elmer, all of this city.

The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 from the residence, Rev. O. Daniel officiating. The A. O. U. W. will have charge of the services at the grave. Mrs. Jorgensen's sister, Mrs. Christian Larson, and her daughter, Mrs. Connelly, of Russell, Minn., are here for the funeral, and Mr. Larson is expected to be present.

FARMER'S LEG BROKEN. Adolph Peterson, Living Near Green Mountain, Injured in Runaway.

Adolph Peterson, a tenant on the James Bradbury farm, near Green Mountain, suffered the fracture of a leg Saturday night, as the result of a runaway accident.

Mr. Peterson, with his wife and children, were in the city trading, and started home from the residence of Ell Bruce, a brother of Mrs. Peterson, living on East Boone street. His strike on the horses with the whip, causing the team to start suddenly forward. They ran a short distance and collided with a telephone pole, snapping it off at the ground and the contact threw all the occupants out of the wagon. Mr.

Peterson's right leg was broken between the knee and ankle. Mrs. Peterson was considerably bruised, but the children escaped unhurt. The injured man was taken to the home of his mother, Mrs. Anna Peterson, 411 North Fourth avenue, and is still being cared for there.

MANY SIGN PETITION

Volunteers to the Number of 475 Step Forward Without Solicitation and Affix Signatures to Saloon Revocation Petition—Petitions in Industrial Institutions—Women to Work.

Up to 2 o'clock this afternoon a total of 475 voters of the city had voluntarily signed the petition of revocation of the saloons operating in Marshalltown, according to a count made in the different wards. Aside from this number there are other signatures secured on the petition circulated in the many different industrial institutions of the city. These have not yet been reported.

At the Sunday tabernacle, at 2:30 this afternoon, a mass meeting for women was held, at which time there was perfected an organization that will work for the petition.

It is the plan of the women to poll every home in the city. Committees of ten or a dozen women in each of the revival prayer meeting districts of the city, will make this canvass. They will talk with the woman of every household in town, and use every influence at their command to have the women urge their husbands, sons, or brothers who are voters to sign the revocation petition.

A poll of every church in the city excepting one has been made by the general committee having the work in charge, and the name of every voting church member has been secured. Every one of these men will be seen, and the committee feels sure that when the work is over it can never be said again that saloons were operating in Marshalltown on the consent of church members.

CHOATE BUYS MILL. Property Belonging to City Goes Cheap at Auction.

The old Woodbury mill property on the river was sold at auction by the city Saturday afternoon for $1450. M. M. Choate, of this city, bid in the property, taking over the building and the machinery it contains, with the exception of the boiler, boiler house, and foundation.

There is an opportunity for the buyer of the property at that figure to make a nice thing out of the investment. The machinery should bring the cost of the building, and the lumber after paying for the workmen should more than double the money of the cost.

CHANGE NAME OF THEATER. Bijou Will Hereafter be Known as the Empire.

The Empire will be the new name of the Bijou Theater, as announced today by the management. The new bill Sunday night was received by good-sized audiences. Frank Morony, in a dancing act, was clever, as were also Stewart and Woods, in singing and dancing.

TRACK MEET CALLED OFF. Inter-Class Event is Postponed Again On Account of Wet Track.

The high school inter-class track meet, which was postponed from last week until this afternoon, was again postponed this afternoon on account of wet track. If it does not rain more the meet will probably be held Tuesday afternoon.

MUSICIANS NOT FINED. At the Sabbath evening meeting held by Mr. Sunday, the latter had heard that two of the union musicians, who had been playing in the orchestra of the tabernacle for nothing, had been fined $30 for doing so. Mr. Sunday said that he had heard that such was the case, but that he did not know if it were a fact. Mr. T. Nokes, president of the musicians' union, telephoned the T-R this morning that no fine had been imposed and the union had no intention of fining the men who played at the tabernacle.

MEMORIAL AND UNVEILING. Memorial and unveiling exercises were held Sunday afternoon by the local Woodmen of the World camp, the program previously announced being observed. The unveiling ceremony was by officers of the camp, using the ritual of the organization, and J. S. Green delivered the memorial address. Music was by the Marshalltown band and the Maccabee quartet. There was a large attendance.

PRACTICALLY NOISELESS. Gladys—Does that noisy Archie Featherlop still come to see you? Maybelle—Yes, he still comes; but he hasn't made a noise like a proposal yet.

KEEP MOTHS AWAY. Sprinkle black pepper on the bottom of bureau drawers, then cover with newspaper. You will have no trouble with moths or moths.

TEACHINGS OF EXPERIENCE. Holmes: That experience which does not make us better makes us worse.

WATCHES HAVE BEEN LONG IN USE. Watches were first constructed in 1476.

SUSTAINING POWER. Were it not for hope the heart would break.—Irish Proverb.

FIRST POSTAL CARD. The first postal card was used on its way in 1870.

WHY BUILDING STONES DECAY. The causes of decay in building stones are various and depend on the physical structure of the stone, its composition and the nature of the surrounding atmosphere. The most destructive agent to which the stone is exposed is rain or a moist atmosphere, and also, in a minor degree, wind, frost and smoke.

FOR BETTER OR WORSE. "I'm tired of this eternal philosophical scrap about the respective influences of heredity and environment," says the Philosopher of Folly. "If heredity brings a man enough money, he can make his own environment."

THE UNKNOWN QUANTITY. I doubt whether the wisest of us know what our own motives are, and whether some of the actions of which we are the proudest will not surprise us when we trace them, as we shall one day, to their source.—Thackeray.

GIVES STRENGTH TO CHARACTER. Poverty is uncomfortable, as I can testify; but nine times out of ten the best thing that can happen to a young man is to be tossed overboard and compelled to sink or swim for himself.—James A. Garfield.

AN IMPORTANT DATE. "What was the date of the Union of the Crowns?" asked an Inspector. "1603," he was instantly informed. "Right. And why was this date an important one for you to remember?" "Because you were sure to ask for it," returned the little victim of cramming.—Christian Register.

FATE NOT TO BE AVOIDED. Fate is a mighty successful bill collector, and you are wise in paying your debt the minute it is due. If you wait for her to foreclose the mortgage she always adds the interest and costs.—John A. Howland.

POSTPONEMENT OF RIGHT LIVING. He who postpones the hour of living as he ought is like the rustic who waits for the river to pass along (before he crosses); but it glides on and will glide on forever.—Horace.

DO YOU RECOGNIZE IT? "What, Heinrich! drinking again? I thought you intended to quit." "Ach! it is so, yes. But in der words of der saying, Der ghost was villing, but der meat was feeble."—Boston Transcript.

PRaise AND Pudding. We are thankful for words of praise, but pudding, as well as praise, is essential to the well being of every human being here below.—Western School Journal.

GO AT TASK CHEERFULLY. There is nothing so easy but it becomes difficult when you do it with reluctance.—Terence.

UNCLE EZRA SAYS: "Ef you can't git up the ladder of success on your own feet, don't grab the cuttals of the feller ahead as a last resort."

GAFFLY A UNIVERSAL PEST. The gaffly is a pest that is known the world round, and its pernicious habit of stinging animals in the heels while inserting its eggs under their skin has stamped many a mild-faced ox, from Vicksburg to Calcutta.

JOHNNY'S PROGRESS. "Johnny is taking a good deal of interest in his studies these days," said Mrs. Lapelling. "They've taken up physics now, and once a week the class is allowed to spend an hour in the chemical laboratory."

THE FIRST MISUNDERSTANDING. Bride—"That is too much—I shall leave you forever—going to my mother. He—"Well, what are you looking for, then?" She—"The latchkey."

WHERE STRAIN IS APPLIED. When a man begins to borrow for the purpose of making ends meet he is likely to cause something to break at the middle.

CYNICISM. Cynicism is the ideal overturned. It is the parody of physical and moral beauty, it is the crime of the mind, it is the brutalizing of imagination.—Lamartine.

JOHNNY'S PROGRESS. "Johnny is taking a good deal of interest in his studies these days," said Mrs. Lapelling. "They've taken up physics now, and once a week the class is allowed to spend an hour in the chemical laboratory."

WELL PUT. The Conversationalist (to well-known authoress—I am so delighted to meet you—it was only the other day—I saw something of you—about something or other—in some paper—The Sketch).

UNCLE ALLEN. "If I was a doctor," said Uncle Allen Sparks, "I would puzzle me to know whether I ought to thank the Lord or not when I prosper in my business."

EVERY DAY IS THE BEST DAY. Write it on your heart that every day is the best day in the year. No man has learned anything rightly, until he knows that every day is Doomed.—Emerson.

A WARNING. "Fohgive yoh enemies," said Uncle Eben, "but don't let yoh forgiveness go so far as to tempt you to git sociable an' trade hosses."

NEEDS PERSPECTIVE. Elliot: Genius, like a torch, shines less in the broad light of the present than in the night of the past.

BIRDS OF A FEATHER. Every man is like the company he is wont to keep.—Euripides.

WASTEFUL PROFANITY. He who swears distrusts his own words.—Latin Proverb.
