ROADS LIKE LAND RUSH

LENGTHY LIST OF FARM TRANSFERS IN NORTH TAMA AT HIGH PRICES.

SEVERAL LARGE TRACTS SOLD AT $150 PER ACRE

Substantial Increases Shown Both in Volume of Transactions and Prices Realized—Many Buyers Had Not Previously Considered Real Estate as Investment.

Special to Times-Republican. Traer, Feb. 3.—Substantial increases in both the volume of realty transactions and the total amount of considerations which were involved therein, increases that come hand in hand with the pronounced growth of building operations tell plainly of the stability of Tama county's real estate market for the year just closed.

The market was never as lively as in 1909 and the numerous transfers indicate that Tama county citizens never had more money to invest in property than during the past year. The farm properties adjoining Traer that once belonged to non-residents, are gradually coming into the hands of local people, who realize the future of Tama county. The past year has brought many buyers into the market who heretofore have not considered real estate as an investment. These individuals almost without exception have made substantial profits thru enhancement in values.

The market has been shaping up for several years with some favored localities enjoying little booms now and then, but the last year has seen a general activity all along the line and real estate men look for 1910 to make even a better showing than 1909.

Some of the more important deals that pertain to land in the immediate vicinity of Traer, and which aggregate thousands of dollars, are presented herewith:

The Glorfield farm of 153 acres, south of Traer, was sold to John Dvorak, who owned an adjoining 80. The consideration was $150 per acre. The farm was owned by S. M. Endicott, who purchased it a few weeks before at $10 per acre, thereby giving him $10 per acre rise.

The John Novotny farm south of town, consisting of 155 acres, was sold to Frank Chaloupek, at $110 per acre. Mr. Novotny in turn purchased a 120-acre farm in Oneida township, at $90 per acre.

Rolf Sierk bought the Eby 80 acres, southwest of town, at $95 per acre. The place has no improvements.

John W. Novotny purchased the Chris Knopp farm of 270 acres in Carroll township, at $25,650.

Mr. Sierk sold his farm of 160 acres northwest of town, to Adolph Hoepfer, for $135 per acre.

The Gravat farm of 160 acres, northwest of town, was sold to Vince Yuskas for a cash consideration of $21,000.

Will Keith purchased 160 acres of the Puckert farm at $100 per acre, at $100 per acre. There are no improvements on the land.

The Oscar Cone farm of 200 acres, five miles southeast of Traer, was sold at $160 per acre, cash. George Cone, one of the heirs of the estate, got 120 acres, and Louis Knapplnick, a nearby neighbor, got the other 80.

James Dodd purchased the Ed Lynch improved quarter section, west of town, consideration $100 per acre.

The west eighty acres of the Fritz Pruetter farm, south of town, was sold of the Vince Kosnor forty acres at $131 per acre. No improvements.

The Williams Thomas farm, northwest of Traer, consisting of 160 acres, was sold to Frank Cabinet, of Vinina, at $115 per acre.

Numbering among the larger deals was the disposition of the 400 acres of land belonging to the Cron estate, to H. J. Stiger, of Toledo, at a cash price of $110 per acre. The Cron timber land, five acres, was sold to T. F. Clark at $75 per acre. The John Crawford eighty was purchased by William West at $150 per acre.

John and Will Keith invested in a 200 acre farm north of Reinbeck, paying therefor $110 per acre. The John Blitch, northeast of Traer, disposed of his 360 acre farm to George Saul and in turn purchased the B. J. Rodamer farm of 320 acres, near La Porte, at $125 per acre.

Louie Karkosh disposed of his 160 acre farm to his two brothers, James and Antoine, each of whom owned land adjoining. The consideration was $110 per acre. The sale was made by Mr. Karkosh on account of his having purchased a 320 acre farm near Voorhies. The Edward Dood homestead of 240 acres, sold to Theodore Diedricksen at $135 per acre.

A PROBLEM IN ROOTING.

Hogs and a Blue Grass Pasture Figure in a Damage Suit. Special to Times-Republican. Nevada, Feb. 3.—If five hogs can root up the site of one straw pile in three days, how much of an eighty acre blue grass pasture can a herd of thirty hogs root up in a whole season? That is the question that Judge Lee was expected to solve in district court yesterday and he decided that the herd would root up about $30 worth.

The case was that of J. I. Hostetter against Porter Bros. The defendants lived on a farm belonging to the Colo doctor for a couple of years and a few months previous to moving from the place had turned a herd of Poland China with rooting propensities into a fine blue grass pasture without taking the precaution to place rings in their noses.

Witnesses on the stand swore that the hogs had turned over at least twenty-five acres of that fine blue grass sod and that it would take anyway two years and an expenditure of several dollars per acre to re-seed and re-sod the pasture. In the meantime the defendants had contracted to pay $4 per acre rental for the pasture says that it is now worth but $1 per acre to him and refuses to pay more.

PASSENGERS IN PERIL

Explosion of Alcohol Sets Fire to Interior of Coach on Fast Rock Island Train—People Driven to Platform by Flames.

Special to Times-Republican. Council Bluffs, Feb. 3.—Probably the most remarkable incident in railroad-ing in Iowa occurred on the Rock Island between Atlantic and Avoca last night, when, but for the fact that the passenger coach was made of steel a number of passengers would have been cremated in the car or killed trying to escape while the train was traveling at a high speed.

Passenger train No. 10 had left Atlantic when some one dropped a jug of alcohol on the floor of the smoking car. The oily liquor spread all over the floor and a few moments later, when a passenger lighted a match to his pipe there was a puff, and explosion, the slight and in another instant the entire end of the car was in flames. The cushions and other slight inflammable material burned rapidly, driving those riding in that end of the car to seek safety on the car platform. Here, unfortunately, they were cut off by the blind end of an express car.

The flames burst thru the door and hungrily licked the faces of the passengers huddled on the platform, who were several times on the point of leaping to the ground the swift passage of the train only prevented.

Finally the fire burned out and the passengers were able to raise the windows and clear the interior of smoke. The car being built of steel there was nothing for the flames to feed upon but the cushions and a few wooden pieces on the car windows and frames.

Judge Conducts Marriage Ceremony. Special to Times-Republican. Nevada, Feb. 3.—Judge C. G. Lee of the Eleventh judicial district, who is now holding court in this city, performed his initial marriage ceremony this afternoon, when he united Jasper C. Bates of Cambridge and Miss Minnie Mae Spurling of near this city, in the holy bonds of matrimony. The judge was surprised by the wedding party in his suite of rooms at the court house and the ceremony was performed in the presence of a number of attorneys and a few friends.

Somehow the service with due dignity and grace, using a short binding service.

Tama News Notes. Special to Times-Republican. Tama, Feb. 3.—The Hundred Club entertained by Miss Leah Maynard Monday evening. Cochrane & Plumb, the furniture dealers of the town, have purchased the stock of furniture belonging to P. Schrock, who has been in business here for twenty years. By combining the two stores these gentlemen will have one of the largest stocks in central Iowa. Mr. Carl B. Harrison will continue having charge of the undertaking.

Obelisk News Briefs. Special to Times-Republican. Obelisk, Feb. 3.—B. A. Coy, an old resident of this city, died Sunday morning of a complication of diseases. At the time of his death he was 87 years of age. He was considered one of the wealthiest men in Sac county. R. W. Sayre is moving into his new residence on West Second street. Rev. and Mrs. F. H. Trimble, of China, are visiting Mrs. Trimble's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George N. Bowker.

Sore Lungs and Raw Lungs. Most people know the feeling and the miserable state of ill health it indicates. A people should know that Fry's Honey and Tar, the greatest throat and lung remedy, will quickly cure the soreness and cough and restore a normal condition. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar, McBride & Will Drug Company.

Supposed Case of Tuberculosis Proves to Have Been Something Else. Special to Times-Republican. Nevada, Feb. 3.—Relatives in the city have received some most startling news from J. R. McCoy, a prominent business man of Colo, who has been on the Pacific coast for some weeks, where he went for the benefit of his health. The local physician having pronounced him a victim of tuberculosis. A couple of weeks ago in a fit of coughing, he coughed up a wisdom tooth that had fallen into his lungs. The tooth was found in a tin of powder that he had brought with him.

TOOTH IN HIS LUNG. Supposed Case of Tuberculosis Proves to Have Been Something Else. Special to Times-Republican. Nevada, Feb. 3.—Relatives in the city have received some most startling news from J. TO REMOVE BLOTCHES. The best way to remove these is to take a good blood medicine and drive them out of the blood. Make a pint of heavy sugar syrup, then add one ounce of arsenic and take two teaspoonfuls three or four times a day. You'll be surprised how quickly you'll get rid of those objectionable looking things.

TO REMOVE SUPERFLUOUS HAIR. Mix a little delol with enough warm water to make a soft paste, smear over the hair and leave on for a few minutes. Then wash with a blunt knife, wash with warm water. Apply a little coler cream or amoral lotion.

FACE LOTION. Powders clog up the pores of the skin and cause blackheads. I always recommend a dry tonic as follows: Dissolve contents of a two-ounce package of amoral in a pint of warm water. When cold it is ready for use. Use after washing and drying the face and hands. You will not need to use powder with this lotion, as it gives the complexion that soft, delicate tint so much admired.

A SIMPLE ECZEMA REMEDY. This troublesome disease can be relieved instantly and cured in time by the following simple remedy: Dissolve two ounces of borohol in a pint of warm water, sop the affected parts with a piece of cotton saturated with this solution.

DRY HAIR TONIC. Many people do not like to put liquids on their head at this time of the year for fear of catching cold, so I recommend a dry tonic as follows: Mix two ounces of capthol with four ounces of powdered orris root, dust about a tablespoonful of this powder

Annual Ground Hog Party.

Harlan, Feb. 3.—At Anderson's hall in this city occurred the event of the year, known as the annual "Ground Hog Party" of the pioneers. About twenty men each year issue the invitations, which bring together more than 100 people. The amusements were cards and dancing, the feature of the latter being the old-time quadrilles, with an old-time caller on the floor.

Called to Newton Church. Fairfield, Feb. 3.—Rev. W. Luther Bright, who recently resigned from the pastorate of the English Lutheran church in this city has accepted a call to the Lutheran church of Newton and will move to that city in about two weeks. The salary is $1,100.

A Safeguard to Children. "Our two children of 6 and 8 years have been since infancy subject to colds and croup. About three years ago I started to use Foley's Honey and Tar, and it has never failed to prevent and cure these troubles. It is the only medicine I can get the children to take without a row." The above from W. C. Orsdelin, Green Bay, Wis., duplicates the experience of thousands of other users of Foley's Honey and Tar. It cures coughs, colds and croup, and prevents bronchitis and pneumonia. McBride & Will Drug Company.

Jailer Arrests Runaway Team. Des Moines, Feb. 2.—While the police department patrol wagon, with Wilson Skinner at the reins rolled at a breakneck speed down West Fourth street close to the side of a madly galloping team of runaway horses, City Jailer Tom Cross clung to the rear of the patrol and seizing the bits of the terror-stricken animals clung to their heads until they were stopped.

With his team under perfect control, even at the terrific speed, Driver Skinner kept just ahead of the runaway, swinging far out from the back step of the wagon and at the imminent peril of being dashed to the ground, Cross managed to hold to the bits of the horses after he seized them.

Prospects of a Full Field of Candidates For Various Offices. Special to Times-Republican. Hampton, Feb. 3.—Matters political are beginning to pick up a little in this county, and now that the way is fairly opened up it is probable that within a very few weeks those who have a desire to serve the people in an official capacity at the county court house will have publicly made known that desire and each will be pressing his or her respective claims for consideration upon the dear voters.

No less than five have been duly announced as candidates so far and it is known that others are considering the matter, with the chances very good that they will conclude to submit the candidacies to the voters at the June primary.

As to priority of the announcement, probably Mrs. Loraine Jeffers-VanPelt, who wishes to be selected for recorder, and announced several weeks ago, C. P. Roberts, of Latimer, is also a candidate for that position.

Frank McSpaden, for several years past agent for the Iowa Central road here, will submit his candidacy for sheriff, and M. Little of Dows, wishes to be nominated for sheriff, and H. B. Adams, of Alexander, is willing to be chosen as supervisor from the First district.

Morrow is a Candidate. Special to Times-Republican. Des Moines, Feb. 3.—State Treasurer Morrow has announced again for his office and does it on the ground that his administration of the office has been such as to merit a renomination and re-election. He is a descendant of the present president, such as that which is used often in support of still another term. Mr. Morrow was president of the state board of agriculture two terms and had served ably in the legislature. As state treasurer he has been very attentive to his duties and has had one of the most valuable members of the state executive council.
