Later Day Saints Gather Data to Show that Members of Church Were Executed for Murders and Robberies Committed by Others—Reign of Terror in Iowa Recalled.

Special to Times-Republican.

Logan, Feb. 12.—The story, "Banditti of the Prairies," once a popular story, at the request of many followers of the teachings of Joseph Smith, has been given consideration in the past thirty days by Heman C. Smith, a high official of the Latter Day Saints' church organization at Lamoni. As a result of Mr. Smith's brief examination he has succeeded in removing the stigma that the author of the book sought to place upon the members of the church, and in addition has, it is claimed, established the innocence of the men arrested, indicted and executed for murder over a half century ago, and by a deposition taken in the past few days fixes the responsibility of the murder upon others who escaped punishment at that time. Heman C. Smith, in tracing the history of Edward Bonney, the author of the Banditti, alleges that he was indicted in Lee county, Iowa, for different offenses, one of which was murder, and in the deposition it is intimated that he was a leader of one of the bands of desperadoes.

An Old Iowa Crime.
It is alleged that on the night of May 10, 1845, a double murder was committed in Lee county, Iowa, by three men who entered a house in the night time and fatally wounded Miller and Leley. The murderers made their escape and were alleged to have been traced to the road in the direction of Nauvoo, the Mormon headquarters. Stephen and William Hodges, aged 18 and 20 years respectively, were arrested, indicted, tried and convicted, and then executed for the alleged crime, and the two boys went to their death protesting their innocence.

The Hodges boys were not members of the church but other members of the family were followers of Joseph Smith, and it is brought out by intimation that the church was responsible for the crime to a certain extent by the author, Bonney.

Mrs. Hines' Affidavit.
Since the Banditti story has been given wide publicity, Mrs. Mary Hines, of Independence, Iowa, it is alleged, published in the Cedar Rapids Gazette of Jan. 7, 1910, a communication, in which she stated that her deceased husband had confessed to her that he was implicated in the murder of Miller and Leley, and on the 26th day of January, 1910, the officials of the Latter Day Saints church at Lamoni secured a deposition from Mrs. Hines in which she states that she is a member of the Episcopal church, 74 years old, that she was married to John P. Hines in 1855; that after her marriage she gradually learned that her husband had been a very wicked man, that he said it was Bonney who helped Birch and Fox to escape after being arrested for the murder of Colonel Davenport; that Granville Young should never have been hung for the alleged murder of Davenport, as he was at Prairie Du Chien when Davenport was murdered; that the Hodges boys were not present at the murder of Miller and Leley for which they were executed, and in addition Mrs. Hines fixes the responsibility of the murder on the author, Bonney.

LeMars.
W. H. Miller, an aged Plymouth county pioneer, is dead. He was 95 years of age and had been in the county over a half century.

Irvington.
James Dunn has traded his implement business in Irvington to a Des Moines land man for a farm a few miles east of Irvington station.

LeMars.
Attorneys for Otto Zellinger, who murdered Delbert Church near LeMars, have secured a continuance and he will not be placed on trial until next November.

Manson.
E. F. Yates, the oldest settler of this vicinity, who came to the present site of Manson three years before the town was built, is lying dangerously ill at his home in this city. His ailment is heart trouble.

Swea City.
Rev. Mr. Williams, who came here from Brodhead, Mo., to evangelize, was called to the pastorate of the Baptist church of Swea City, at a special meeting called by the church for that purpose.

Langdon.
D. E. Jones has sold his hardware store to G. D. Cronk, who was in the hardware business in Dickson, Iowa, a good fellow and a good citizen. Dave Jones has lived here so long that he would be lost anywhere else.

Cedar Falls.
Furness Lambert, aged 80, father of a large family of children all prominent in school and professional work, died this week. Two sons are professors in the state university and a daughter is a professor at the State Teachers' College.

Isla Grove.
A deal has been closed whereby John Smith, the Goldfield, Colo., millionaire, and A. B. Bell bought from John C. Weston, of Clinton, Iowa, the Big Weston ranch of 640 acres, which lies on the edge of the town of Isla Grove. The new owners plan to make it one of the greatest stock farms in the country.

Waterloo.
Harry Willum met with a very unfortunate accident Thursday in the hardware business. He was engaged in a good fellow and a good citizen. Dave Jones has lived here so long that he would be lost anywhere else.

Hampton.
A letter received from Chicago by the editor of the Recorder brings the sad news of the death of Thomas G. Farmer, which occurred at his home in that city recently. Mr. Farmer will be remembered by the older residents of our city as a clerk in the early eighties for N. Parker, a pioneer grocer, and later as one of our prominent merchants.

It is reported that H. R. Cunningham received property to the value of $50,000 as his share of his father's estate. One item consisted of a 220-acre farm in Indiana, and another a one-

CRITICISM OF A "FAT" STORY
We were criticized for telling fat people to "tender" seventy-five cents to their druggists for a large case of Marmola Tablets. Several wrote in saying the use of the word "tender" was incorrect, that "tender" in such a connection raised the impression the druggist might refuse seventy-five cents as insufficient.

Now, isn't that odd? A few weeks ago seventy-five cents was "tendered" to a Broadway druggist and he did refuse it. That is, he said he had no Marmola Tablets, whereas he did have seven cases. But the wholesale house was closed, it being on a Saturday, and he had to prevaricate to protect his regular customers, who absorbed those seven cases later in the day.

This elegant pharmaceutical adaptation of that famous, fashionable fat reducer, the Marmola Prescription (viz., 1/2 oz. Marmola, 1/2 oz. Fl. Ex. Cascara Aromatic, 3/4 oz. Peppermint Water), is certainly having a remarkable vogue. Millions of cases of tablets are sold yearly and their fame grows. This is doubtless because of their harmlessness (guaranteed by the Marmola Co., 251 Farmer bldg., Detroit, Mich.) and sure ability to remove ten to sixteen ounces of fat (not flesh) a day without inconvenience, bother, need for exercising or interference with the taker's appetite for good things.

brought suit for $5,000 against the same concern, a bonding company. Mrs. Cassidy's husband, father of the plaintiff in the second case, committed suicide, and after procuring liquor in the Carlson saloon in Washington township, for which the National Surety Company had furnished bonds. The jury which heard Mrs. Cassidy's case awarded damages, and immediately the woman's son filed a similar suit to recover $5,000.

Sentence Suspended in Case of Cambridge Lads Because of Youth.
Special to Times-Republican.
Nevada, Feb. 12.—Charley Tilton and "Tape" Rubar, a couple of small lads of Cambridge, were up before Judge Lee on a charge of breaking and entering the Nelson Bros. store in that town and stealing a lot of pocket knives, a revolver and a quantity of loaded shells. The boys acknowledged their guilt and some of the goods were recovered. On account of their tender years the court suspended sentence, but they are to report their behavior to Sheriff Warrick once a month for a year.

AN INTERESTING CASE.
Suits Follow Giving of Note and Burning of Saloon in Monona.
Special to Times-Republican.
Denison, Iowa, Feb. 12.—One of the interesting cases decided by Judge Power at the present term of court was that growing out of the burning of a saloon building at Soldier, Iowa. William Koepke, now a resident of Denison, rented of one John Peper a building located at Soldier in Monona county, which was to be used for a saloon. Koepke leased it for five years at $80 a month, signing a note for $3,600. He paid rent each month for two years and two months and then the building burned down. He then refused to pay further rent or the balance of the note.

GREENVILLE.
The big Willow creek bridge, three miles south of town, over which the M. & St. L. railroad runs, burned Tuesday. The cause of the fire is not yet known to the railroad officials. Traffic was delayed to some extent until a temporary trestle was constructed. The bridge was one of the longest and highest in this part of the state, but was in very poor condition.

MASON CITY.
Three residents of the city were severely injured Wednesday. Mrs. Sarah Foley slipped on the ice and broke her arm, as did the wife of a Greek whose name is not learned. WATERLOO.
A movement is on foot for the organization of a county fish and game protective association. The plan has met the approval of the state authorities and will doubtless be a great aid to them in the protection of the fish and game of all kinds. The plan is to form the association and sell a membership card, the money to be used in the prosecution of those who are guilty of breaking the game laws.

GRUNDY CENTER.
The potato situation looks bad for farmers who have a great amount on hand. From reliable parties it is learned that potatoes are bringing 40 cents per bushel on truck at St. Louis. Figuring 15 cents a bushel for transporting them and about 5 cents for loading and preparing them for shipping leaves the dealer about 20 cents per bushel. In Minnesota the dealers are offering 15 cents and are not anxious to handle the potatoes at that price. The chances are that there will not be as large an acreage planted in potatoes generally, next year, especially where the soil is sandy, as those who had potatoes in that kind of soil will have to rotate with some other crop.

Phone From Chicago—Jack Yanner Charged With Enticing Girl Away.

Special to Times-Republican.

Clinton, Feb. 12.—Unable to find any trace of her sister, who was enticed from a Des Moines hotel to Chicago, to be sold into white slavery, Miss Laura Logan, a pretty waitress in the Lafayette Hotel, has returned from Chicago.

Mystery surrounds the whereabouts of Miss Gertrude Logan, the 17-year-old former Waterloo girl who was the principal figure in the sensational white slavery case, in connection with which Jack Yanner was arrested in Chicago recently.

The Harrison street police station Miss Logan learned that a woman, declaring she was Gertrude's sister, took her in charge and went away from the station with her. Miss Logan visited many hotels in Chicago, and other places where she might possibly find her sister, but was unable to locate her.

Both Yanner and Gertrude Logan were employed in the Kimball Hotel in Davenport until recently, leaving there for Des Moines together, and later departing for Chicago. Yanner is accused of having enticed the girl to Chicago for the purpose of delivering her into an immoral resort, and a charge of white slavery was preferred against him.

The father and mother of the girls were ignorant of the affair until Miss Logan notified them at Waterloo over the long distance telephone yesterday. Miss Logan is determined to keep up the search for her lost sister.

Hugh Graef Passes Away at Age of 75—Masonic Funeral.
Special to Times-Republican.
Nevada, Feb. 12.—The very sudden death of Hugh Graef, Sr., an aged resident of Collins, was reported here yesterday. The old gentleman had been somewhat ailing for about a week, but suffered a sudden relapse and died within a few moments. Adema of the throat was the cause of death. He was 75 years of age but had always been hale and hearty. He is survived by his wife, one son, Fred, of Colfax and a daughter, Mrs. Kitchell, of Collins. The funeral services are to be under the auspices of the Masonic lodge, of which he had been a member for several years.

The banquet was a fitting conclusion to the convention earlier in the day, a day filled with the good cheer of fellowship and broadening friendship among the members of the association.
