NEW RATES MADE BY TELEPHONE COMPANY

FARMERS' LINES GIVEN SCHEDULE BY MARSHALL COMPANY; WILL CONSIDER.

THE PROPOSITION IS MADE IN WRITING

While Neither Accepting Nor Rejecting Rural 'Phone Managers Will Discuss Rates and Act at a Meeting to Be Held in This City Next Saturday—Thought Likely to Reject.

The Marshall Telephone Company Saturday afternoon furnished in writing a proposition to the Marshall County Mutual Telephone Association a new schedule of rates which the company is willing to put into effect. The proposition was neither accepted nor rejected, but will be considered and disposed of at a meeting to be held in this city next Saturday. The new schedule calls for a message rate of 5 cents for each call, or a 15-cent rate per telephone per month when the lines run into a rural central and the central has a line from the Marshall Telephone Company's central exchange. In addition a charge of $80 per year is made for the use of the line from the rural central to Marshalltown central. While it is not known of course what action will be taken on the proposition, it is intimated by leading members of the farmers' association that the company is quite likely to reject the proposition.

MISS QUAIFE TO EUROPE.

High School Teacher Will Direct Summer Tour of Young Women. The many friends of Miss Fannie Quaife, a mathematics teacher in the Marshalltown high school, will be interested in knowing that plans were perfected Sunday for a summer's trip abroad, which Miss Quaife will take in company with a party of five young women. Miss Quaife will chaperone the party and direct the tour. This will be Miss Quaife's third trip abroad, the last one having been last summer, when she spent the vacation period in the European capitals and different points of interest. The party that Miss Quaife has been engaged to chaperone will consist of Miss Elsie Madison, assistant postmaster of Northwood; Miss Anna Blanchard, a Cornell student, living at Adel; Miss Rose Peshak, of Marley, who is employed as a stenographer at Northwood; Miss Rose Linder, of Reinbeck; and Miss Florence Stewart, a teacher of Reinbeck. The plans of the party are to sail from Montreal if possible, about the middle of June. The party will land at Liverpool, and leave at once for a tour of Scotland. Returning to England the young women will visit the principal points of interest in that country. From there they will go to The Hague, and thence up the Rhine to Oberammergau, where they will witness the celebrated passion play. The party will also tour France, doing Paris quite extensively, and then go to Switzerland. A trip thru the St. Gothard tunnel to the lakes of northern Italy is also planned, following which Milan, Florence, and Rome will be visited. From Rome the trip is a little indefinite, and will depend largely on which route is taken home. If a boat can be secured at Naples the party will sail from that point, otherwise from Cherbourg, France. The young women expect to return home the latter part of August, after a trip of eight weeks. Miss Quaife's previous trips to Europe have fitted her admirably for the work of a chaperone. She has many relatives in England who are in a position to extend many favors to her party that otherwise the young women would not be able to enjoy.

NICE PLACE TO VISIT.

So Thinks Warren Nichols, of California, in Kansas City Interview. A Kansas City, Mo., Drovers' Journal reporter happened to meet Warren Nichols, of Minerva, while Mr. Nichols and wife were in Kansas City recently on their way home from a California trip. Mr. Nichols expressed himself to the livestock newspaper man as being pleased with California as a place to visit, but would not recommend it as the place for any young and industrious young man who is anxious to make a start for himself. The Journal says of Mr. Nichols' stay in Kansas City: "In these prosperous times we find that farmers are enabled to take long and expensive pleasure trips, just the same as the bankers and other well-to-do persons. Yesterday Warren Nichols, of Minerva, Iowa, accompanied by his wife and two grown daughters, arrived at the yards from an extended trip to the Pacific coast. Four months ago they went to California, where they have been traveling and sight seeing. Mr. Nichols is a pioneer farmer of central Iowa, settling there in 1854. He recalls hardships such as the early settlers of Kansas passed thru, and had to live there a great many years before the country was considered of much value. He now owns a 1,500-acre farm worth $100 an acre. He has made more money feeding cattle and raising hogs, perhaps, than in any other way. "A trip to California in the winter time is certainly very enjoyable," he said. "It is a grand country to travel in, but I would not recommend it as a place for the industrious young man without means to go to make a start in life. Revenue from tourists is the great resource of that country. Tourists are to be found everywhere. The small towns as well as the cities are full of them, and they are all spending money. But we found the expense of living and traveling about reasonable. Now that spring is here it seems just as pleasant to return to Iowa and go out on the farm again. When I landed in Iowa there was not a railroad west of the Mississippi river. We had to haul our goods from points on the Mississippi river, 150 miles or more away. The settlers were poor, and we had to endure many hardships. I stuck hogs and cattle feeding. And I believe that it is the most profitable thing for the farmer to do today. I raise several hundred head of hogs a year, and feed cattle. And I will just add that it seems good to get back here and look over these yards and see the hogs and cattle again."

WOODMEN TO CELEBRATE. Many Camps to Join Burlington in Observing Anniversary. Burlington, March 21.—Burlington Camp of the Woodmen of America is busy with the arrangements for the celebration of its twenty-fifth anniversary. The members of the Burlington camp are proud of their organization, and of the work that they have been doing, that one day simply will not suffice for the celebration. The camps within a radius of fifty miles are to be invited, and as there are some 200 of these camps within that radius, a great turnout is expected. The committee says that 1,000 visitors will be a very conservative estimate. Among the men who are to be here for the two days' blowout are Head Constable A. R. Falbot and Head Clerk Major C. M. Howes. Many other men prominent in the order are expected. The dates are May 11 and 12. MUOH BEER SEIZED. Two Wagon Loads Captured Enroute to Buxton. Oskaloosa, March 21.—Sheriff Ed L. Valentine of Mahaska county, made a monster seizure of beer at a point in Mahaska county about two and a half miles east of Buxton. He captured two wagons containing sixteen barrels of 152 bottles of beer, bearing the brand of the Hamm Brewing Company. It was being driven from Eddyville to Buxton. Mr. Valentine made the arrests and seizure unassisted. He ordered the drivers of the wagons to change direction and accompany him to Oskaloosa, stating that he had a better place for the contents of the packages than that to which they were taking it. The drivers of the wagons were Mike Emanuel of Eddyville, and George Steele of Bridgeport. They were arraigned before Squire O. C. Phillips on a charge of illegal transportation of intoxicating liquors, time given for plea and hearing was set for next Thursday, date of March 24. Appearance bonds were furnished for the men and they were released. Mrs. Walton Kinzer, of Gilman, who has been a patient at St. Thomas hospital for two weeks, following an operation for appendicitis, was discharged Friday and moved to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Andrews, 7 South Ninth street. Mrs. Kinzer is improving nicely.
