Mr. Asa L. Upson, of Portland, Ore., who has been visiting a few days with his mother, Mrs. John Upson, and his sisters, Mesdames Ella Stoddard and Chloe Bloomfield, will leave for St. Louis this evening to visit his sister, Mrs. H. V. Gehm. Mrs. Upson will accompany her son and remain for an extended visit at her daughter Grace's home.

Mrs. B. W. Sinclair was hostess Tuesday afternoon to the Entre Nous Club at its regular meeting. Roll call was responded to by naming the principal characters in Dickens' writings. The reading, from the club's text book on the history and literature of England, was done by Mrs. J. B. Simmons and Mrs. W. E. Snelling. The hostess served lunch at the conclusion of the program.

Now is an ideal time to sow some good grass seed on the bare spots in your lawn as the wet ground will give the seed a good start. I have the best lawn grass seed mixture by actual test on lawns where it was used last year with great success. It is 25 cents a pound or 5 pounds for $1.10, and a pound will sow 400 square feet of new ground. Also a lawn grass for shady places at Culley's, east side of courthouse.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Epworth League follows by a social gathering, was held Tuesday evening at the Methodist parsonage, with about forty present. Following the routine business, a James Whitcomb Riley program was enjoyed. Miss Wanda Arney gave a character sketch of Riley. Miss Frances Morton and Mr. Otto Bishop each gave Riley readings, and Mrs. S. E. Ellis sang the Riley song, "There, Little Girl, Don't Cry." A game made up out of Riley's poems then proved an interesting pastime. Mrs. Ellis was assisted in singing light "revelations" by Misses Edna and Allie Mansfield and Calla McDowell.

MRS CAMPBELL DEAD.

Sister of Charles Henry Dies Suddenly in California. Charles Henry received this morning from Los Angeles, Cal., a telegram which had been delayed about twenty-four hours in delivery, announcing the sudden death, from a stroke of apoplexy, of his sister, Mrs. Anna Campbell, late Monday night. No particulars were given except that the funeral will be held Thursday.

Mrs. Campbell was about 56 years old, and lived here for many years. She moved with her family to California late in the '30s. Her husband was accidentally killed in 1899, at Compton, Cal., where he owned a large paper mill, the only one at that time in southern California. While on his way to the mill, to pay off his workers, Mr. Campbell tried to board a moving car, lost his hold, fell under the wheels and was cut in two.

Mrs. Campbell is survived by four sons and one daughter, also two brothers. Charles Henry, of this city; Rudolph Henry, of Mankato, Minn.; and two sisters, Mrs. Charles Tibbits, now residing at Tacoma, Wash.; Mrs. Fred Baurle, of Reading, Pa., and a foster sister, Mrs. H. R. Pontius, of this city.

Mrs. Campbell, accompanied by her children spent several months at the Charles Henry home here ten years ago, which was her last visit to this city.
