JURY DISAGREES; DROP OTHER CASES

SCHULZ & WETZSTEIN JURY UNABLE TO REACH A VERDICT IN CRIMINAL CASE.

JURORS STOOD 9 TO 3 IN FAVOR OF ACQUITTAL

Jury Showed Practically Same Division From First to Last—County Attorney Egermayer Dismisses Twelve Other Similar Cases—Believes It is Useless to Attempt to Prosecute Them.

In the face of evidence that seemed beyond a doubt to be overwhelmingly for the state, the jury in the criminal case against the Schulz & Wetzstein former North Center street saloon, and its owners and bartenders, after remaining out twenty hours, returned at 10:30 o'clock this morning, reporting that they were unable to agree, and were discharged.

All Other Cases Dismissed. By the disagreement of the jury, which virtually constitutes a victory for the defendants, Schulz, Wetzstein, Robb and Wilson, the saloon interests of the city won another sweeping victory insofar as are concerned the criminal cases brought on indictments returned last August for nuisance, because of alleged illegal sales to minors.

These cases were against Bernstein Bros., C. F. Dieterich, H. S. McGoogan, Samuel Wenger, Schulz & Wetzstein, E. E. Boomer, F. W. Brewer, Des Moines Malt Company, A. Bowman and A. Berry, and their bartenders and other employes, more than a score in number altogether.

"What's the Use," Says Egermayer. Thoroughly disgusted and disappointed with the outcome of the case, the state's evidence which he considered abundant and of the positive kind, County Attorney Egermayer was of no mind to attempt to prosecute other similar cases. He believes the task useless, and of useless and unnecessary expense to the county. He believes that, being unable to get a conviction in this case, the evidence considered and the quality of the jurors taken into account, that it would be folly to attempt to get a conviction in any of the other cases.

"I think I had as unbiased a jury as could have been selected in any other similar case assigned for trial," said Egermayer after the cases had been dismissed. "And I believe that, excluding the jurors who were on this case, and had I exercised all challenges the state was allowed, I would have found no more favorable jury in a trial of this kind than the one selected, for the reason that the defendants had the right to exclude men for cause, who were sworn to the solemn business, besides exercise their pre-emptory challenges."

"In the face of the disagreement I would consider it absolute folly to try another case and incur further expense in the prosecution of indictments against men who do not own a saloon. One of the chief showings made by the defendants was that they had quit business in the particular saloon involved in this case on July 1 last.

Court Intimated Enough. "After I had examined six minors the court stated in the presence of the jury that he could see no necessity for multiplying the evidence, and if a conviction could not be had on the evidence already in that he could not see that further evidence would avail anything for the state."

"I called two other minors afterwards, making eight in all. Each and every one testified to drinking liquor in this saloon and seven of them said they bought it there. Some of these witnesses corroborated some of the others that they were together, and the evidence showed that there were three minors at the bar in the saloon at one time."

Claims Evidence Overwhelming. "I consider the evidence was overwhelming for the state, for the reason that it is the law that to show a single unlawful sale by a saloon that is operating under the law is as much a nuisance as if I had shown 100 sales."

The evidence as attached to the indictments was used in the submission of the injunction cases now pending, and which the court is to decide in vacation. It is admitted by the attorney for the defendants to be sufficient to warrant a decree of injunction, declaring the places a nuisance, and the question to be argued is as to how far the decrees shall go and to what extent it will affect the property owners and certain defendants. No question is raised but that the injunction will run against the saloon owners.

Decrees Are Certain. "This will result in a decree at least three months sooner than the criminal cases could have been reached for trial at the next term of court and these decrees will put the defendants enjoined absolutely out of business in the state of Iowa."

County Attorney added that it was generally conceded by county attorneys all over the state, and by the attorney general's office that procedure against saloons by injunction methods was more sure and more effective than criminal prosecution.

Two more criminal cases, those against A. G. Friedrich and Carl Steinmayer, were dismissed with the others this morning. These dismissals, however, were in accordance with the agreement made by the county attorney when he secured permanent injunctions against both saloons and their owners. These injunctions were issued some time ago.

Beethoven Club Election. The last regular meeting of the season of the Beethoven Club, was enjoyed Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. George P. Wingert and Mrs. H. S.

Thurber at the former's home, 821 North Third street. The principal business of the afternoon was the choice of officers for the ensuing year, which resulted in the unanimous re-election of Mrs. F. G. Stewart as president, warm appreciation of her work in the club being expressed. Mrs. P. L. Hayzlett was elected vice president, Mrs. Clifford Unger recording secretary, Mrs. George E. Wingert corresponding secretary, Miss Grace Swingle musical director, and Miss Miriam Andrews treasurer. Plans were also discussed for the club banquet, to be held May 10 at the home of Miss Ella Zug, and to which each member is privileged to take one guest.

The program for the afternoon was in charge of Miss Grace Swingle and consisted of the following numbers: Piano solo, "Polonaise" (Mac Dowell), by Miss Hazel Dinges; vocal solo, "Yell Me That You Love Me As You Used to Do" (Tracy), by Miss Ruth Lettler, with Miss Swingle as accompanist; piano solo, "Sonata, Opus 38, No. 4" (Clementi), by Pearl Adams; and piano duo, "Spanish Dance" (Moszkowski), with "Minstrel's Serenade" (Jos. Loh), in response to an encore, by Misses Ella Zug and Grace Swingle.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses at the close of the program. Guests of the club present, were Mrs. F. R. Benedict, Pearl Adams and Miss Mabel Bussard.

PRETTY GILMAN AFFAIR.

Woman's Club Gives Holland Party at Stark Home. The Woman's Club of Gilman on Friday gave one of the prettiest parties of the season at the home of Mrs. Dora Stark, entertaining twenty-five members and eleven guests at a Holland party.

The club has been studying this year the "Bay View" course on Norway, Sweden, and Holland, and is now reading the book, "Brave Little Holland." Because of the present study the hostesses for the last social afternoon decided to entertain in true Holland style.

Mrs. Stark was assisted in entertaining by Mesdames Strickland, Joyce, Wylie, and Sutherland, and the Misses Joyce and Stooks. All of the hostesses were attired in white, with long aprons and Dutch caps. Following a short business session, guessing contests were arranged. In one of the contests Mrs. Donnie Ellis won the prize, a package of "Old Dutch Cleanser."

The custom of the club in its social afternoons has been to serve supper on small tables or trays. There was a screen in store for in case the tables were removed to one side and disclosed a long table, surrounded by smaller ones, all beautiful in their array of white linen, bright silver, and flowers. Large copies of old Dutch windmills were arranged about the tables, and a large Dutch vase was filled with tulips as a center piece. The guests found their seats by place cards representing little Dutch boys and girls. The napkins were folded to represent wooden shoes. A fence that had been arranged about one of the windmills showed the goose girls herding their flocks, and out of the windows of the windmills, which were lighted by candles, peered tiny Dutch faces. Tiny wooden shoes containing salt were placed on different parts of the table. The china used for the tables was the old blue pattern that lent to the effectiveness of the quaint scene, and about the dining room walls were many old Dutch pictures. One of the dishes served on the menu was genuine cream Dutch cheese, which brought forth many compliments from the guests.

The guests of the club for the charming affair were Miss Stooks, of Grinnell; Mrs. Kennedy, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Gannon, and Miss Drennen, Miss Williams and Messrs. Stark, Strickland, Wylie, Sutherland, and Doze, all of Gilman.

PRaise FOR MARSHALLTOWN.

Miss Cowin, Waterloo Wreck Victims, Appreciates Kindnesses. Miss Irene Cowin, one of the victims of the disastrous Rock Island wreck near Green Mountain on March 21, who was discharged from St. Thomas hospital Monday and returned to her home, evidently appreciates the kindnesses shown her at the hospital and by the people of Marshalltown.

In an interview in the Evening Reporter Tuesday Miss Cowin says: "The people of Marshalltown did all in their power to alleviate the sufferings of the victims and no comfort was denied them that was within human power to furnish. The doctors, the sisters at the hospital and the citizens seemed to vie with one another to make the stay in Marshalltown as pleasant as possible. In fact, I cannot express my feelings of appreciation toward them, for I know of nothing that they overlooked, and although the experience is one that I sincerely hope never to suffer again, I shall always remember the kindness of the people of Marshalltown."

THE CLEMONS FUNERAL.

Very Many Attend Burial Rites For Former Clemons Man.

Practically all of the residents of the town of Clemons, and many from the surrounding country, this city, LeGrand and Gilman, and other places, attended the funeral of Henry P. Clemons, who died at Dows Saturday, which was held from the Christian church in Clemons Tuesday afternoon at 1:30. The church was filled to its utmost capacity by those who came to pay their last respects to the former well-known merchant of the town.

The service was conducted by Rev. C. E. Luck, of Griswold, assisted by Rev. Mr. Piper, of LeGrand and Rev. Mr. Clayton, of Clemons. There were very many floral offerings from the relatives, former neighbors, and friends.

MARRIED.

Thompson-Pierce. J. W. Thompson and Miss Nancy Pierce, both of State Center, were married at the office of the officiating, S. E. Peek, at 10:30 o'clock this morning. Mr. Thompson is a farmer. He and his bride will live on a farm not far from State Center.

Vienna Township Caucus. The republican voters of Vienna township will hold a caucus Saturday, April 30, at school house No. 5, from 2 until 5 p. m., at which time township officers will be nominated and delegates will be chosen to the county convention. A. J. Binford, committee-

IMPORTANT CHANGES IN CHURCH BY-LAWS

CONGREGATIONAL ASSOCIATION PROVIDES FOR COMMITTEE TO EXAMINE PREACHERS.

MEETING OF CHURCHMEN COMES TO END TODAY

Rev. A. B. Appleby, of Newton, Made Chairman of New Committee—Local Church Brotherhood Entertains Delegates at Supper—Few More Delegates Arrived For Closing Day.

Twenty-three of the twenty-even congregational churches of the Grinnell association were represented at the closing sessions of the association's meeting today. A few additional delegates arrived on the morning trains. The annual meeting adjourned late this afternoon after having held what is generally regarded, a very profitable meeting.

The important business of the morning session was the final adoption of the revised constitution of the association, which was first brought up Tuesday. A part of it, known as section 9, which contains recommendations which are a radical departure from former methods, was adopted with scarcely a dissenting voice.

Makes Committee on Preachers. This section of the new constitution and by-laws provides for a committee of three ministers on licenses and ministerial standing. This committee's duties are given in the following extract from the article:

This committee shall examine candidates who may apply to the association for licensure or ordination, and shall report to the association for action. It shall also be the duty of this committee to examine the credentials of ministers presenting themselves for membership in the association, and to consider such other matters as may properly come before such a committee. All candidates for ordination, and the churches they serve, are expected to put themselves under the advice of this committee. The committee shall consult with such candidates for ordination in their progress in the course of study laid down by the general association of Iowa, and shall advise such men, and the churches they serve, when they deem them ready for ordination. The candidate being approved, he may be ordained at the association, or if desired, the public service may be held in the church which has requested the service of ordination. In this case, the association may appoint certain members to represent it with power to act in such a public service, or if desired, the association shall meet as an ordaining council with the church requesting it, the first stated business after organization being the report of above committee. It is urgently recommended to the constituent churches that such special meetings be always called regarding the functions usually exercised by an ordaining council.

is Radical Change. The creating of this committee and the outlining of its duties is a radical change from the customary methods. It has been the practice that when business, such as this committee is expected to handle, has come up that a council of churches in the neighborhood was called, to pass on the preacher candidate. It frequently happened that such councils were not informed regarding the candidate's past or antecedents and had no chance to investigate. The result was frequently blind action.

This innovation does not make the individual churches comply with it, because the association has no such power, such as this committee is expected to handle, has come up that a council of churches in the neighborhood was called, to pass on the preacher candidate. It frequently happened that such councils were not informed regarding the candidate's past or antecedents and had no chance to investigate. The result was frequently blind action.

The committee chosen under this article was made up of Revs. A. B. Appleby, of Newton, chairman; F. E. Henry, of Belle Plaine, and Rev. J. B. Adkins, of Oskaloosa.

Brotherhood Entertains.

The delegates and others attending the association meeting and members of the local church, to the number of almost 100, were the guests of the brotherhood of the local church at supper served in the church basement Tuesday evening. No set program was carried out, following the serving of the meal, but information was asked from various churches regarding the brotherhood work in their congregation, or if a brotherhood had been organized.

Following the devotional service, led by Rev. T. S. Dungan, of Grinnell, at this morning session, reports were presented from the churches of the association. Speaking generally these reports showed the large majority of the churches to be in a healthy, flourishing condition.

"The Christian Religion and the Modern Man" was the text of the sermon that Rev. Frank C. Gonzales, of Traer, delivered before a good sized audience at the church Tuesday night. Communion service, conducted by Rev. H. J. Wilkins, of Union, and Rev. C. W. Hempstead, of Victor, followed.

TOWNSHIP OFFICERS.

Justice of the Peace. I am a republican candidate for the office of justice of the peace for Marshall township, subject to the choice of the voters at the primary election, June 7, 1910.

W. M. CLARK.

In the Police Court.

Mrs. Octavia Johnson, colored, who was arrested on the complaint of her husband, Charles Johnson, who charged her with being drunk, was dismissed in Justice Peek's court Tuesday afternoon, and the costs were charged to the husband. James Dwire and Frank Boorse, who were arrested by the police for being drunk, and who pleaded not guilty in Justice Millard's court Tuesday morning, changed their plea to guilty this morning. They were discharged and ordered out of town.

Albert Wilson, colored, arrested by the police for being drunk, was sent to jail for five days by Justice Millard this morning.

CHANGE ELKS' DATE

State Convention of Order in Iowa, Originally Fixed for June, Will Not Be Held Until Aug. 16-17—Change Made at Request of Local Lodge.

At the request of Marshall Lodge, No. 312, B. P. O. E., a change has been made in the date of the annual state convention of the order in Iowa, which was originally fixed for this city on June 15 and 16. The new dates set are Aug. 16 and 17.

The request for a change in the dates was made because it was feared that the local lodge, with its building only just completed, would hardly be ready to entertain the visitors by the date as originally arranged. There is every indication that the state convention will be very largely attended, and already the cities of Davenport, Muscatine and Iowa City are making plans to run a special train to this city over the Rock Island.

Road Foreman Transferred.

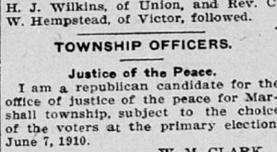

J. L. Brummell, road foreman of equipment for the Iowa Central, with headquarters in Oskaloosa, has been transferred to the Minneapolis & St. Louis for temporary service of thirty or sixty days. During his stay on the latter line he will have duties similar to those he has performed on the Iowa Central.

Taylor Township Caucus.

The republicans of Taylor township will hold a caucus at the Willow Hill school house Wednesday evening, May 4, at 7:30 o'clock. George W. Ferguson, committee-man.
