

GLUB WOMEN GIVE AMATEUR THEATRICAL

'MRS. BUSBY'S PINK TEA,' A CLEVER COMEDY, PRESENTED BEFORE WOMEN'S CLUB.

DEPARTMENT MEMBERS FURNISH ENTIRE CAST

Mary Moncure Parker's Farce Proves Success in Hands of Local Club Women—Mrs. H. T. Mairs, Mrs. Benton Davis, and Mrs. A. J. Martin in Leading Roles—Musical Numbers.

Before a large audience comprising members of the Women's Club and their guests, members of the art and music department of the club appeared Wednesday afternoon in the Red Men's hall in Mary Moncure Parker's farce comedy, "Mrs. Busby's Pink Tea."

The presentation of the comedy was very cleverly done, and was most heartily received. The leading roles were in the hands of Mrs. H. T. Mairs, as Mrs. Busby; Mrs. Benton Davis, as Mr. Busby; and Mrs. J. A. Martin as Mrs. Dashleigh. The other members of the cast gave the best of support.

The cast follows: Mrs. Busby.....Mrs. H. T. Mairs Mrs. Dashleigh, widow..... Mrs. Benton Davis Mrs. J. A. Martin Miss Mary Busby.....Mrs. Charles Myers Mrs. Hightone.....Mrs. James Zieg Mrs. Upperton.....Mrs. B. F. Cummings Mrs. Wisecore.....Mrs. Fred Tibur Annette.....Mrs. Alfred Stern Miss Technique..... Mrs. J. A. Martin Miss Katherine Stuphen Mr. Busby.....Mrs. Benton Davis

As a part of the comedy was featured the entertainment Mrs. Busby had arranged for her guests. The following delightful program was given: "Piano," "Valse in A flat, Opus 42," (Chopin), by Miss Technique; vocal, "The Rosy Morn" (Landon Ronald), and "Mignon" (D'Hardelot), by Mrs. Busby; and reading, "Not Understood," by Mrs. Busby, with piano accompaniment by Miss Technique. All responded to enthusiastic applause.

A brief synopsis of the parts taken by the different characters, appeared on the printed programs. The story, briefly, is as follows: Mrs. Busby, who has social aspirations, gives a pink tea, and after the incident and a few tears, persuades her reluctant husband to stay at home and be present. He is bored to desperation until the arrival of the charming widow, Mrs. Dashleigh, and during the remainder of the tea, Mrs. Busby's marked attention to the widow scandalizes the other guests, with the exception of Mr. Busby's sister, who is mischievously amused. It renders the hostess so furious that when it is all over, she calls her house to account and vows she will never ask him to stay to another of her tea parties.

Other members of the department ushered, and following the program, a real and very delightful pink tea was enjoyed, being served at a table beautifully decorated in pink, at the opposite end of the hall from the improvised stage. Pink carnations helped decorate the table, in the center of which was an exquisite battenberg center piece over pink, and above which hung festoons of pink to the four corners. The hall was decorated throughout in the same color scheme and Mrs. C. A. Endie and Mrs. L. J. Jarret, who poured, and Mesdames L. S. Hynds, Enola B. Friend, E. H. Keller and F. G. Pierce, their assistants, were dressed in white, with pink in their hair, to further carry out the idea.

During the brief business session which opened the meeting, the president, Mrs. Will Wallace, announced that the next would be the annual meeting, at which all the various reports will be given and other business completed. She also stated that a meeting of the visiting nurse committee had been held, and that a public meeting will be held the evening of May 10, at the public library auditorium, to which the public in general, and representatives of all clubs and lodges in particular are invited.

Guests present from out of town were Miss Clara Bauman, of LaMolle; Miss Luella Middlekauff, of Polo, Ill.; Mrs. J. H. Crapser, of Denver; Miss Kathryn McLean, of LaMolle; Mrs. William Schober, of Parkridge, Ill.; Miss Virginia McDaniel, of Oneida; and Mrs. Elizabeth Newby, of Westfield, Ind.
