

LODGE INITIATES MANY CANDIDATES

MORE THAN 300 KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS PARTICIPATE IN ANNUAL AFFAIR HERE.

MANY FROM OUT OF CITY HERE FOR DAY'S EVENTS

Initiation, Solemn High Mass, and Banquet Make Up the Program for the Day—Banquet is Especially Delightful Affair—Names of Speakers and the Toasts.

Members of Marshall Council, No. 986, Knights of Columbus, of this city, and visiting knights from towns of the county and a number of Iowa cities to the number of more than 300, joined in most successful annual initiation, and services incidental to it, including a banquet, in this city Sunday. A class of forty-four from this city, Melbourne, Rhodes, Haverhill, Colo., Nevada, Eldora, State Center, and Tama, were made members of the lodge.

The ritualistic initiatory services at the Odd Fellows' hall, the celebration of solemn high mass at St. Mary's, and the banquet in the evening at Red Men's hall made up the program for the day.

Lodge Kept Busy All Day. From early in the morning, when the candidates gathered at the club rooms of Marshall council, until late in the night, when the banquet came to an end, members of the lodge were kept busy. The Pilgrim Hotel was the headquarters for the day. The candidates assembled at 7:30, and the initiation began an hour later. The degree team of the Cedar Rapids council had charge of the initiatory work.

High Mass at St. Mary's. Solemn high mass was celebrated at St. Mary's at 10:30 o'clock. The members of the lodge attended in a body. The sermon was preached by Rev. J. Carroll, of Tama. St. Mary's choir sang "Farmers of the World" and "O Sacrament," a trio for soprano, contralto and bass was sung by Miss Vina Herman, Mrs. William Dooley, and Mr. R. A. Jones. The trio was composed by Professor W. V. Jones, of Ft. Dodge, father of R. A. Jones. For the benediction Mr. Jones sang, "O Salutaris," by Wiegand.

Banquet Delightful Affair. The banquet, which was served by the Catholic Ladies' Mite Society, was an especially delightful affair. The Adamson orchestra played while the meal was being served. Very Rev. J. Fitzpatrick was toastmaster, and Rev. W. J. Convey, of Eldora, gave the invocation. In a brief address, Rev. F. J. Renier, assistant pastor of St. Mary's, welcomed the visiting knights to the city.

The following were the toasts and those who responded to them: "Our Heritage," Mr. H. J. McFarland, of Davenport; "Who Labors Today Builds For Tomorrow," Very Rev. J. J. Toomey, of Cedar Rapids; "Citizenship," Mr. Hugh Stuart, of Dubuque, deputy of the Dubuque council; "The Layman's Movement," by Hon. M. J. Wade, of Iowa City.

Rev. Father Toomey's address was a most scholarly effort. After Judge Wade had completed the serious thoughts of his address he kept the diners amused with several of his clever stories, for which he has a wide reputation.

The Cedar Rapids delegation, which contained the degree team of the council of that city, was the largest from out of the city. Seventy made up the crowd that came from there in a special coach attached to the Northwestern fast mail.

CLEAR $31.59 FOR CEMETERY.

Marion Township Box Social Saturday Evening. The box social held Saturday evening by the Helping Hand Aid Society of Marion township, at the Henry Nicholson home, five miles northeast of the city, was a great success. Sixty or more were present, and the sum of $31.59 was cleared from the auction sale of the boxes, which sum will go for the benefit of the Iowa river cemetery. Mr. Harry Powell, of Marshalltown, was auctioneer, and Mr. Fred Jensen, from near Green Mountain, acted as clerk.

Proceeding the sale of the boxes a lengthy program of recitations, music and dialog, consuming an hour and a half, was thoroughly enjoyed, the numbers being of considerable merit. Several voting contests furnished much amusement. Mr. Fred Duff receiving the lazy man's pillow put up for the highest bidder, and Miss Pearl Smith receiving first and Miss Grace Fields the booty, in a beauty contest.

CONCERT IS POSTPONED.

Damp Grounds Make it Advisable to Defer Musical Event.

Owing to the hard rain Friday night, and the additional rain of Saturday night, it was deemed advisable to postpone the opening concert by the Marshalltown band at Riverview park Sunday. The grove is so dense at the park that the ground requires some time to dry, and it was thought best under the circumstances to defer the music until a later date. Notwithstanding the fact that there was no concert, between 600 and 700 people were at the park for the afternoon.

Extensive Improvements Will Be Made to Iowa Central Round House Here, Which Will Result in Rebuilding Most of Present Structure—To Install New Turn Table.

Extensive improvements to the Iowa Central round house in this city, which will result in rebuilding about three-fourths of the present structure, have been authorized by General Manager W. G. Bied in a communication to Master Mechanic C. E. Gossett. Bids on the work have been asked for, and there is practically no doubt but that the work will go to some local firm. In rebuilding the round house the engine shelter will be enlarged, and larger doors will be placed so that entrance will be provided for the larger engines that the company is now using. The company is going to install here a new steel turn table, the material for which is now on the ground. The table will be sixty-five feet long, five feet longer than the present table, and will permit of the larger engines being turned to better advantage.

WATCHMAN HELD UP AT POINT OF GUN

FRED A. HOUGHKIRK SHOT THROUGH HAND BY UNKNOWN MAN AT ALCOHOL PLANT.

WALKS INTO MUZZLE OF GUN IN DARK ALLEY WAY

In Struggle For Possession of the Weapon It is Discharged, the Bullet Ploughing Thru Houghkirk's Hand—Reason For the Assault is Unexplained—Assailant Makes Good Escape.

Fred A. Houghkirk, 713 East Main street, night watchman at the plant of the National Denatured Alcohol Company, was assaulted, shot thru the hand by a revolver bullet, and might have been killed by an unknown assailant, when he was attacked at the plant shortly after 1 o'clock this morning.

The reason for the unprovoked assault, is a mystery to Mr. Houghkirk. The only possible explanation he was able to give this morning was that the man who attacked him may have possibly been seeking to get out of the city, and, being come upon suddenly, showed fight.

Turns Corner; Faces Gun.

Turning the corner of the main building, and stepping in the alley way that separates it from the boiler building on the north, while he was making his rounds of the building, Houghkirk had no more than entered the alley than he ran squarely into the muzzle of a revolver. The man who held it stood in the recess of a door frame of the main building, Houghkirk says he heard the cinders crunch under the man's feet as the gun was brought to bear on him.

Shot Fired in Struggle.

Surprised, but nevertheless not losing his nerve, Houghkirk grabbed for the revolver with his left hand and seized it by the muzzle, struggling to wrench it loose. No sooner had his fingers closed on it than it went off. The bullet tore between his first and second fingers, ripping a groove in the flesh where the fingers join and scoring both fingers, while the powder burned his palm and fingers. Altho the shock from the bullet made Houghkirk's arm numb to the shoulder for an instant, he did not let go.

Assailant Escapes to North.

Still clinging to the gun Houghkirk forced the unknown man backward between the two buildings. Not a word was spoken as the two men fought for the possession of the weapon. After his assailant had backed part way thru the alley way, Houghkirk conceived the idea of getting in his rear. Letting loose of the revolver he went to the west and around the boiler building, to come into the alley way from the east. By the time he had passed around the building, the man left by the west and Houghkirk saw him running up the Northwestern track toward the Britain & Co. plant. He did not give chase.

Houghkirk, upon finding that his injuries were not serious, bathed his hand, tied it up, and this morning sought a physician, who dressed it.

Description of Assailant.

Houghkirk says that the moon was shining part of the time, but that the light was dim between the two buildings. He is confident the unknown man was large, weighing probably 200 pounds, and that he was smooth shaven. He thinks that he wore a light suit of clothes, but he is not certain on this detail. The man wore a dark, soft hat.

There is a chance that there is a possible connection between the man who assaulted Houghkirk and the robbery of the Springer store on North street.

PAVING UP TONIGHT.

Property Owners Must Appear Before Council If They Have Objections.

Property owners who wish to be heard as to paving proposed of concrete should get in their petitions at the council meeting tonight. There is some difference of opinion on the council as to permitting pavements to be made narrower than thirty feet and property owners who desire a twenty-four foot pavement in order to save expenses should say so tonight.

The difference involves a saving of approximately $30 per lot front and Engineer Grubb, of the Universal Portland Cement Company, who has been making a study of paving, says that the twenty-four foot pavement makes a very pretty street if the lot lines are kept at the usual distance apart and the extra space devoted to wider parkings between sidewalk and curb.

The district set to be heard tonight is as follows:

North Second street from Main to Lincoln streets.

North Fifth street from Main to State streets.

North Seventh street from Main to Jerome streets.

North Fourth street from end of present pavement to the south side of Park street.

Jerome street from the west line of Fourth street to east line of Fifth street.

Lincoln street from east line of Second avenue to west line of Third avenue.

South Eighth street from Main to Church streets.

South Seventh street from Main to Church streets.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and SO GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the origin dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.
