

FOUND SOMETHING TO CURE ECZEMA

Trial Results in Complete Cure of Fifteen-Year Case in Two Weeks.

In a letter published in his local paper, Mr. F. O. Thompson, of Elizabeth, N. J., states that he was a sufferer from eczema for fifteen years, and one day spoke about his trouble to Dr. L. E. Todd. "Dr. Todd replied that he had something that would relieve it not permanently cure me," says Mr. Thompson, "but after treatment for so many years I had grave doubts. The doctor produced a box of postlam, and I promised to give it a faithful trial. I followed directions, and in two weeks' time my eczema was cured. The box was the best investment I made."

Not alone eczema, but every surface skin disease is permanently eradicated by postlam, itching being stopped at once.

Write to the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City, for a free trial package of postlam. With this sample alone complexions may be cleared and pimples banished from the face. McBride & Will Drug Company as well as all good druggists everywhere, always carry postlam in the regular sizes at 50 cents and $2.

The regular meeting of the C. W. B. M. of the Central Church of Christ was held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. H. Van Law. Mrs. A. H. Welker was elected as a delegate to the missionary part of the state church convention at Boone, the latter part of this month, and a number of the other ladies are planning to attend. The mite boxes were opened, showing an even better contribution than usual. Mrs. Cronk was leader, the regular lesson being taken up.

Mrs. W. A. Sandoe was hostess Friday afternoon at the Sandoe cabin, two and one-half miles southwest of town, to the members of the Saturday Afternoon Bridge Club and a few other guests. Luncheon was enjoyed at 1 o'clock, and the hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. George Painter and Mrs. E. R. Lay. Wild flowers formed dainty decorations. Cards furnished the afternoon's amusement. The only out-of-town guests present were Mrs. Bruce Moffatt, of St. Paul, and Mrs. Young, of Waterloo.

Mrs. E. H. Keller, 410 North Third street, was hostess Friday afternoon at the closing meeting of Der Deutsche Unterhaltungs Kreis. The regular reading was finished and plans were laid to hold a kreis picnic on June 29. A committee consisting of Mrs. C. J. Scheeler, chairman, Miss Catherine Armbruster, and Mrs. Rodney C. Wells, was appointed to arrange for this and other picnics during the summer. There was a social hour, during which the hostess served delicious refreshments. The kreis had two guests present. Miss Elizabeth Wellmeyer and Miss Meta Schmidt.

Miss Florence Harris, Mrs. Groves Harris, of Ferguson, and Miss Josephine Gabelman were hostesses this afternoon at the Harris home, 31 West State street at a delightful affair in honor of Miss Elsa Stern, who, in view of her approaching marriage to Mr. Nathan Allmayer, of Kansas City, was liberally showered with useful kitchen utensils. The afternoon was spent as a sewing party, and a delicious two-course lunch was served. The hostesses were assisted in serving by Mrs. L. M. Osborn and Miss Katherine Ketchum. Miss Stern presided at the coffee table. The color scheme of the decorations and menu was pink, throat, and peonies and ribbon of that hue formed the decorations. About twenty guests were present, and included Mrs. C. M. Carr, and Miss Grace Carr, of Ocean Park, Cal., and Mrs. Jennie Burgess, of Chicago.

The funeral of Master Alvin Leo Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jones, of Luray, was largely attended by neighbors and friends from the Jones home this morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. L. S. Mrs. P. M. Adamson, 202 North Seventh street, was hostess to the regular meeting of the Baptist Mission Circle Friday afternoon. Mrs. J. W. Pursel and Mrs. M. W. Hovey had charge of the program, which was on the work of the missions in the great northwest.

John P. Woodbury, assistant cashier of the Fidelity Savings Bank, left Friday for a month's vacation trip thru the west. He will visit in Missoula and Bozeman, Mont., and at Hedge, Mont., will visit his sister, Mrs. Leola Woodbury. He will also visit at Seattle and Portland and other points along the coast.

Letters and cards received by friends from Emil Pihlgren, of this city, who is a patient in the state hospital at Independence, indicate that the young man is improving rapidly, and is quite himself again, both mentally and physically. Mr. Pihlgren is becoming anxious to return home but has been advised to remain at the hospital a little longer, that he may be better safeguarded against a relapse.

Mrs. Helen A. Clark, who teaches Greenacres district school No. 8, near Gilman, gave an examination in arithmetic, hygiene, and reading for her pupils Friday afternoon, at which the directors and many of the patrons were present. The patrons, pleased at the results of the school work, surprised the teacher and pupils by serving ice cream and cake at the close of school.

John Herschel, 122 Ansonstreet, went to Cedar Rapids today, where he and his family will make their home. Mr. Herschel is a stationary engineer, and has been employed for several years by the Marshall Oil Company, the Western Grocer Company, and the Iowa Central. Two of his daughters are now employed in the telephone exchange at Cedar Rapids, and his son George, who graduates from the high school here next week, will enter Coe college in the fall. Mr. Herschel will remain here until after commencement.

Mrs. Merritt Greene was hostess Friday evening at her home to the young ladies of the Y. W. C. A., about thirty-five being present. A reading by Dr. Alice Bailey was enjoyed, and various games afforded entertainment for the evening. The hostess was assisted in serving light refreshments by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Merritt Greene, Jr. The suggestion was made by the hostess, that a good way to raise money for the Y. W. C. A., would be for the girls to fix over a number of things probably discarded as useless, and hold a fair, but no action was taken on it.

The Daisy Drake Mission Circle of the Central Church of Christ was entertained at its regular meeting, Friday evening by Miss Pearl Mitchell, 309 South Fourth street. Considerable business was transacted. Miss Corinne McCord, the recently appointed delegate to the state church meeting at Boone, finding it would be impossible for her to attend, Miss Elsie Welker was elected in her stead. The mite boxes were opened, resulting in a splendid sum for the missionary cause. An enjoyable program was given consisting of talks on Porto Rico and Jamaica, by Misses Maude McBroon and Elsie Welker; a vocal solo by Miss Lillian Welker, with Miss Marian Morrissey as accompanist; a missionary story told by Miss Helen Jarvis, and a culture talk on "Introductions" by Mrs. E. J. Morris, with general discussion by the circle. Light refreshments were served. There was a good attendance present, including several guests.

RECEPTION FOR SENIORS

Farewell Affair Given by Juniors at Pilgrim for Graduating Class Simple But Delightful Affair.

The high school juniors had formal farewell to the senior class at the reception given by the class of 11 to the seniors, the members of the school board and their wives and the high school faculty at the Pilgrim Friday evening. One hundred thirty-five attended the delightful affair which was simple but complete in its arrangements.

The dining room, balcony, and the second floor parlors were given over for the reception. The balcony and the balcony railing were bright with purple and white, the colors of the seniors. The parlors and the dining room were decorated with the junior colors, old gold and purple.

The guests, who began arriving shortly before 9 o'clock, were received in the parlors by the reception committee of junior girls. In the receiving line were Misses Bonnie Boardman, Rosa Flower, Elizabeth Canaday, Bessie Isaacson, and Beulah Carl.

Preceding the serving of refreshments, which lasted from 9:30 to 10 in the dining room, short talks were made by Superintendent Anron Palmer, B. E. Greenhaw, and Harry Williams, the latter president of the junior class. The refreshments were served by the nine "prep" girls, Misses Clewell Lay, Gretchen Medaris, Isabel Alard, Rachel Patton, Forestine Devine, Jeannette Shove, Margaret Thompson, Marjory Newcomer, and Naimo Ackerman.

The later hours of the evening were spent in dancing.

UP AGAINST IT SURE

City Will Not Vacate Property at 114 West Main Street.

Simon's Book store is up against it. An unavoidable delay in the city vacating the rear of Simon's new store at 114 West Main street necessitates a change in Simon's plans. The remodeling cannot be completed in time for occupancy as expected and it is well of pack and store some of the stock for a time, as we must vacate the present building by July 1.

We don't want to pack and are going to cut the prices so deep that they will sell. All wall paper that retailed up to 10 cents a roll goes at 5 cents; all paper up to 20 cents goes at 10 cents a roll, and all other paper at half price.

Meekins For Sheriff

On March 10, when I announced my candidacy for the republican nomination for sheriff I printed a platform as follows:

To the People of Marshall County: If elected sheriff of Marshall county I shall exert my utmost effort to enforce the laws of my state without fear or favor. I believe that it is a sheriff's duty to enforce the laws against illegal liquor selling, gambling and prostitution with the same vigor that any sheriff would enforce them against horse stealing or murder and no more. Absolute equality in law enforcement is my political platform and with this understanding I ask the support of the republicans of Marshall county.

J. R. MEEKINS, Candidate For the Republican Nomination For Sheriff.

And at that time the news editor of the T.-R. wrote me up as follows:

J. R. Meekins, of Liscomb, a blacksmith by trade, justice of the peace, ex-councilman, republican, 43 years old, six feet one inch high, weight 210 pounds, a member of the Christian church, Odd Fellows, Woodmen and Yeomen lodges, white, and a man of excellent repute among those who have known him since a boy in Liberty township, is a candidate for the republican primaries, being a member in good standing of the republican party. He believes in law enforcement, on absolute equality to all men and to all classes and he has somewhat varied the monotony of puffy-foot politics by publishing a platform boldly to the world.

Mr. Meekins was born and reared on a farm in Liberty township in this county. For fourteen years he has resided in Liscomb where he is followed the blacksmith trade but has found time to serve on the city council and has been justice of the peace for twelve years or more. Mr. Meekins is a popular member of the Liscomb lodges and is a man of true christian principles. He has never held county office and if elected would come to the court house free from all entanglements with any clique or class. By his platform he evidently believes that the election of sheriff in this county is a question of law enforcement rather than of personality or second term precedent and he evidently has no hesitancy in facing the issue. Standing six feet one inch high, and weighing 210 pounds, if he can face law violators with the same degree of nerve that he exhibits in facing the political issue, he ought to prove one sheriff among ten thousand.

Respectfully, J. R. MEEKINS.
