STRUCK BY AUTO.

Carriage and Automobile Collide on Dark Street Sunday Evening.

What might have been a serious accident, occurred at about 9 o'clock Sunday evening on West Main street, near the Methodist church, resulting in the carriage being more or less damaged.

The carriage, belonging to J. A. Ewing, was driven by Mrs. A. W. Wessman, of 207 1/2 West Main street, who was accompanied by Misses Sadie Johnson and Jeannette Cratz. The carriage was headed west and the car, belonging to Dr. E. G. Lefler and driven by Ralph Wolf, was going in the same direction.

The street light at the corner of Second and Main streets was out and the driver of the auto did not see the carriage ahead of him. His lights had burned low and he intended letting them go until he reached the Lefler home.

The auto struck the rear of the carriage, tearing off one of the rear wheels, breaking the top and damaging the rear of the box. The occupants of the buggy were thrown to the pavement but escaped without other injury than a few bruises. Mr. Wolf stopped immediately and assisted the women to their home.

CASWELL HITS AGAIN

Insists That His Opponent Must Be Held Accountable For His Record—Supervisors Endorse Caswell.

(Political Advertisement.) To the Political Voters:—Today is the last issue of the newspapers before the primary. Unless my opponent, Mr. Farber, appears in print with a reply to my former article specifically denying and proving his denial that:

First—He is now an attorney for owners of saloon buildings whose cases are pending to be again met when the next county attorney takes office.

Second—He is an attorney for the Marshalltown Light, Power & Railway Company, the Marshalltown Telephone Company, the C. & N. W. Railroad Company, and the C. M. & St. P. Railroad Company. All of these are public service corporations which are likely to be in dispute with public authorities.

Third—He can not claim precedence in his value to the board of supervisors, as he has claimed, for all of the present board prefer to have the public employ ma.

I repeat, unless he presents in today's newspapers a specific denial of these things and proves his denial, he will have admitted the allegations by his silence. The voters of this county are requested to look for such denial. Respectfully,

C. C. CASWELL.

The endorsement of Mr. Caswell's candidacy signed by every member of the board of supervisors, appears on page 3 of this issue.
