COUNTY PASTORS MEET. Second Session of County Preachers Held Monday Forenoon. The second meeting of the pastors of Marshall county was held at the Railroad Y. M. C. A. building Monday forenoon. The meeting followed a luncheon at the Y. M. C. A. rooms, and was well attended, several ministers being present from out of the city. An interesting program was carried out and those present felt that the session had been one of great good and personal benefit.

Rev. D. Love, of State Center, opened the program with a brief talk on "My Most Helpful Book, a Review." In assigning the subject to Mr. Love, the committee had eliminated the bible and left the speaker to choose any modern work which had proved most beneficial to him in his work. Dr. Love reviewed the "Impressions of the Laymen's Congress." This work, he said, analyzed the kernels of modern religious and scientific thought in such a way that the reader could grasp the best of modern ideas in a short reading.

Rev. James McGee, of this city, followed Mr. Love, his subject being "The Minister's Vacation." Rev. Mr. McGee pointed to the fact that every one, in every walk of life, to do good, conscientious work, must and should take a vacation from the cares of his business or profession, and the minister was no exception to the rule. The minister of the gospel owes it to himself and to his people to take a period of rest and recuperate from the work of the year and to prepare the body and mind for the work to come.

The program closed with brief speeches by Rev. H. P. Barnes, of Gilman, and Henry E. Wilson, of State Center, "Impressions of the Laymen's Congress." Both men spoke from personal observation at the great congress held recently at Chicago, and pointed to the benefits derived from the great gathering of men. There were 4,146 men present at this great convention, which was the greatest meeting ever held in this country of the kind. Already the results of the meeting have been shown in greater efforts being made in religious work and greater efforts being made in religious services all over the country.

Another meeting of the pastors will be held some time in September, but no definite arrangements for the meeting have as yet been made. Those in attendance from out of the city were Rev. Messrs. Love, of State Center; Barnes, of Gilman; Leavitt, of Laurel; Palmer, of Lamolle, and Gallagher, of Green Mountain.

CHURCHMEN ENDORSE TICKET. Remonstrance Signers Hold Meeting Monday Night. At a meeting of churchmen, held in the Presbyterian church Monday night, and well attended by members of the city, it was decided to endorse the remonstrance petition and others who had signed the petition, a ticket before the primary today was endorsed. The action of the voters was purely a local movement, and aside from one all the candidates endorsed were for township offices.

With the exception to the endorsement of county and township candidates was that of George Cosson, for attorney general. The other candidates on the republican ticket, which is headed "Municipal Voters' League," are G. F. Stansberry for representative, J. R. Meekins for sheriff, C. C. Caswell for county attorney, S. E. Peck and W. M. Clark for justices of the peace, and Omer D. Taylor and John W. Weaver for constables.

On the democratic ticket G. A. Smith was endorsed for representative. HUMANE SOCIETY MEETS. Officers Given Full Charge to Start Prosecutions. The Marshall County Humane Society held a meeting Monday night at the home of the president, Benjamin Nichols, that was largely attended and enthusiastic for the work. The report of the treasurer showed the society far from a bankruptcy. Arrangements were made for the services of an attorney in the defense of cases of prosecutions and a resolution was adopted empowering the president and secretary to act for the society in prosecutions. Many times cases requiring urgent action come up, and it is a waste of time to await the call of a meeting of the society.

The question of humane education was brought up and steps were taken to place literature in the public library and public schools. BLUE PREVAILING COLOR. A LIGHT VOTE AT PRIMARIES

FEW LESS VOTERS OUT THAN AT PRIMARIES TWO YEARS AGO.

DEMOCRATS ARE SCARCE EVEN AS HEN'S TEETH

Anti-Saloon People Have a Ticket Out Containing Their Favorites on County Ticket—Progressives Circulating a Ticket—Not Much Activity Around Polls.

Quietness about the polls all day would indicate that a light vote is being cast in both city and county at the legalized primaries of all parties and yet when the vote cast up to 2 o'clock is compared with the vote at the same hour two years ago for all parties there is very little difference in the city wards. The total vote two years ago at 2 o'clock was 979 in the five wards for all parties and today at the same hour 931. Last year there was wonder everywhere as to where the democrats were because only two democratic ballots were cast up to 2 o'clock in the Fifth ward but today there was not even one.

The only undercurrents around the polls today were the efforts of the anti-saloon people to see that their voters got out to the polls and even at this late hour for the election. The anti-saloon people are very strenuous activity. The threats on the part of extreme liberals to cut Garst because some prominent progressives were anti-saloon men have not resulted in open work at the polls. Tickets were in circulation showing who were the progressive candidates for state office which included both liberal and temperance favorites but there was also a ticket put out by the temperature people irrespective of progressive, standpat, democratic or republican which contained the names of republican candidates for county office preferred by the temperance people. This ticket also contained their endorsement for Gus Smith, candidate for representative on the democratic ticket. The total vote of all parties cast up to 2 o'clock was:

Table with 2 columns: Ward, Total Vote. 1909, 1910. First ward 234, 248. Second ward 295, 308. Third ward 257, 212. Fourth ward 143, 125. Fifth ward 48, 38.

Returns at East Court Room. The Republicans will receive returns of the primary election tonight at the east court room.

Pleasant Farewell Surprise. A pleasant surprise and farewell party was given Saturday evening for Misses Rose and Freda Kohler, who formerly resided at 899 East State street, but who went Monday to Eldora, where both hold stenographic positions.

The young women were taken out driving by friends and all stopped at 511 West Church street on the pretext of calling on Miss Mabel Dodson. Upon entering the house they were conducted to a room where a company of young people greeted them. The evening was spent with games. Refreshments were served and a general good time was enjoyed by all. Those present were Misses Rose and Freda Kohler, Cynthia McCreary, Hazel LaShelle, Anna and Carrie Matson, Mabel and Tena Schiebel, Myrtle Blanchard, Alta Cotton, LeZanna Hurto, and Mabel Dodson, and Messrs. George Lincoln, Carl Cole, Walter Bohlen, Dave Carlson, Harry McLean, Fred Schiebel, Harry Jennings, Alfred Kohler, George Wheat and Myron Drake. All present were graduated from or had been students of the Central Iowa Business College except Carrie Matson, Mabel Schiebel and Alfred Kohler, the latter being professor of horticulture at the University of Minnesota and brother of the two young ladies for whom the surprise was planned.

Palmer Entertain Seniors. According to their annual custom, Superintendent and Mrs. Aaron Palmer entertained at their home Monday evening, the members of the senior class, nearly all of whom were present, and the teachers of the high school, the latter including also the special instructors. The evening proved a most delightful one. Impromptu music was enjoyed, and a list of questions propounded by Mr. Palmer, was responded to by reminiscences of grade and high school days, and amusing prospectives for the future, all given in an impromptu manner, by the seniors. Light refreshments were served, Mrs. Palmer being assisted by Misses Stella Searlight, Ethel Wilson, and Ethel Vail. White roses, the class flower were used as decorations.

Attention Modern Woodmen. Beeson Camp, No. 355, will hold a stag party for its members and visiting Woodmen on Wednesday night, June 8. A fine program has been arranged, including an address by Head Banker Korns, of Des Moines. Mr. James Notnats, a humorist of Newark, N.
