MRS. W. H. SCOTT SUMMONED BY DEATH

DEATH OF WELL KNOWN MARSHALLTOWN WOMAN OCCURS LATE TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

HOPE OF RECOVERY GIVEN UP THREE WEEKS AGO

Mrs. Scott's Death Due to Pernicious Anemia, Brought On By Severe Attack of Blood Poisoning, and Illness Had Extended Over a Year—Funeral Will Be Held Thursday Afternoon.

Many warm friends here and elsewhere will learn with deep regret of the death of Mrs. Laura E. Scott, wife of Rev. W. H. Scott, 311 South Fourth street, who passed away at 3:45 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, her death being the first break in a well known family circle.

Mrs. Scott's death ended a period of suffering of over a year's duration, during which the efforts of many physicians including experts from various Iowa cities and Chicago, the devotion of her family, and her own brave fight for recovery, proved unavailing. In April, 1909, while at the bedside of her daughter, Miss Lola, who had undergone a severe operation at the State University Hospital, Iowa City, she contracted blood poisoning in her right foot, which developed so rapidly that for days her life was despaired of. Mrs. Scott recovered partially from the infection, after being treated for weeks, but a general pernicious anemia condition resulted, and for the past three weeks it had been the verdict of physicians in the case, that nothing could be done to save her life. Had her ailment been localized, or anything but a general starvation of the blood corpuscles, stomach and nerves, it was the opinion that the strength displayed by the patient would have pulled her thru. For the past three days Mrs. Scott had been in a comatose state, not regaining consciousness before death.

Laura E. Burns, daughter of Hiram and Emma Burns, was born Jan. 29, 1824, near Lima, O., and was left motherless at the age of about 14. Mr. Burns died only about twelve years ago. At the age of 15 she began teaching school, continuing in this work until her marriage to Mr. W. H. Scott, on Sept. 12, 1876, which took place near Lima. Mrs. Scott has been a hard worker with her husband, and as indicative of the esteem in which the people they served held them, is the fact that in thirty-three years, Rev. Mr. Scott has held only five pastorates, seven years at North Eaton, O., seven years at Ravenna, O., ten years at Lima, O., and four years at the Christian church here, and the years at the Bethel Grove church. Since 1899 the family home has been in Marshalltown where Mrs. Scott had many friends. The Iowa church, which celebrated its fiftieth anniversary Jan. 17 to 24, 1909, sent for Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Scott, to be present, and a delightful reunion was enjoyed. Mrs. Scott was a member of the Marshalltown Women's Club, the unable to attend its meetings during the past year.

Besides her husband Mrs. Scott is survived by four sons and one daughter, Walter J., Ralph W., Ray P., and Winford W., and Lola G. Scott, one brother, Valentine Burns, of Lima, O., three sisters, Mrs. Thamer Crampton of Lima, O., Mrs. Winfield Scott, of Roushville, O., and Mrs. George Speece, of Unionopolis, O., and two half sisters, Mrs. Frank Naus, of near Lima, O., and Mrs. George Mentzer, of Waukauketa, O.

The funeral will be held from the home, Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The services will be in charge of Rev. W. F. Richardson, pastor of the Central Christian church of Kansas City, an old friend of the family, who, during Rev. Mr. Scott's pastorate at Iowa, was stationed at Grand Rapids, Mich. Interment will take place in Riverside.

MISS KIMBERLY RE-ELECTED.

Again Chosen Librarian, and Granted Leave of Absence for Trip Abroad.

At the postponed meeting of the public library board of trustees, Monday evening, Miss Anna Maude Kimberly, whose term as librarian expires July 1, was elected to that position for another year, and was also granted a leave of absence for three months, with the provision that she and the employment committee find someone to act in her place during that period. Mrs. Lillian Lawrence and Miss Maud Clark, assistants, were re-elected for an indefinite period.

The librarians' report for the month showed a book circulation of 4,542, forty books added, and $24.25 taken in in fines and book rentals.

It was also decided that the board as a whole, and the librarian go to the city council meeting next Monday evening, and present the matter of an appropriation for repairs to the library.

Miss Kimberly, with her cousin, Miss Bertha Crozier, of Brooklyn, N. Y., expects to sail about Aug. 1 for France and will also visit Belgium, Holland, Germany, Switzerland and Italy. They will be in Oberammergau, Bavaria, about Sept. 11, to witness the celebrated Passion Play.

CLASS PLAY AT PALMER.

Students at Palmer College Present "Valley Farm" With Great Success.

Eight members of the graduating class at Palmer College, LeGrand, assisted by four faculty members, presented the rural drama, "Valley Farm," at the college Monday evening with great success.

The attendance was very large and those present seemed to appreciate the entertainment more than any of similar nature which has been presented at the college during the year. Those participating in the program acquitted themselves with great credit, and the students and the instructors having the production in charge are to be congratulated on the result of their efforts.

Is Most Patriotic Little Jennie Wren

A sitting wren, whose nest is built under the shadow and protection of the T. A. Brown cottage on the Country Club grounds, is hatching her brood under the sheltering folds of Old Glory. On Memorial Day numbers of flags of all sizes were used in decoration and for display about the club house and the cottages. The next morning, as Mr. Brown arose and looked out, he called his wife and she had taken possession of a small silk flag, almost too heavy for her to carry, and was lying with it toward her nest. The folds fluttered about and beneath her and made her task one of much difficulty. However, after repeated trials she managed to get it to the nest and fix it there where it hangs today much to the delight of the cottagers and apparently vastly to the pride and satisfaction of the little bird.

The presenting cast was as follows: Harold Rutledge, a young New Yorker; Paul Vermie Perry Deane, a farmer; Orrin Humphrey David Hildreth, a New York lawyer; Silas Holcomb, owner of Valley Farm; J. Richard Strome Azariah Keep, a clock tinkerer; Albert Beane Jennings, a servant; James Heryford Hetty Holcomb, a country girl; Esther Riemschneider Isabel Carney, Hildreth's niece; Olive Reubenbauer Mrs. Rutledge, Harold's mother; Miss Dustin Alvira Holcomb, sister of Silas; Miss Helfenstein Lizzy Ann Tucker, who borrows; Mr. Deaver Verbera, a hired girl; Rosella Lamer

RACE MEET INTERESTING

Gold Coin Wins Class A Event With Ease at Tuesday Afternoon Matinee—Spill in Dash Results in Injury to Charles Lewis.

The matinee program given by the Marshalltown Driving Club Tuesday afternoon at the county fair grounds was the strongest given this season, but the attendance was not large, many staying away on account of the threatening weather and the election.

The feature of the afternoon's race was the Class A event, in which Charles Nelson's Gold Coin and E. J. Robb's Captain Woodbine raced both pretty heats, the former winning both in fast time.

The closing event of the program, the half-mile dash, was marred by an accident which, luckily, was not of a serious nature. Four horses were entered in this event and Fredonia Girl, owned by R. A. Haskin, of Ferguson, and ridden by Charles Lewis, stumbled as she entered the stretch, throwing her rider over her head. Mr. Lewis is an elderly man and his injuries may prove more serious than now expected. He was badly bruised and sustained a cut on the side of the head. He was able to walk from the track, however.

In Straight Heats. The three harness races were run in straight heats. The Class C event was won by Beatrice, owned by J. E. Gould of Liscomb. The first heat was a procession and the time was slow, but the final brush developed some sharp competition, making a most interesting race. The race by heats:

Beatrice, Gould, Liscomb 1 1
Billy Murray, Green Mountain 2 2
Manly, William Parsons, city 4 3
Tony, Specht, Liscomb 3 4
Time—1:07, 1:19.

Eldora Horse Wins. The Class B event was won by Missouri Boy, owned by Elmer Mossman, of Eldora. The first heat was run in 1:09.4. Three horses started but Myrtle S. was drawn in the second heat on account of injury. Summary: Missouri Boy, Mossman, Eldora, 1 1; Liscomb the Kid, Crouse, Conrad 2 2; Myrtle S. Siekman, Liscomb, 3 dr
Time—1:09.4, 1:12.4.

Gold Coin Wins. Charles Nelson's Gold Coin won in straight heats the Class A event from a field of three. The second heat was a sharp one and Robb's Captain Woodbine crowded the winner in the stretch. At no time was Lord Vasco a dangerous contender. Gold Coin probably displayed the best form shown since he has appeared on the local track, not making a skip or a false stride in either heat. Summary:

Gold Coin, Nelson, city 1 1
Captain Woodbine, Robb, city 2 2
Lord Vasco, Mossman, Eldora, 3 3
Time—1:06.4, 1:09.4.

Bang Tails Thrill Crowd. The half-mile dash, with four starters, was the thriller of the afternoon, Frank Anson's pair, Spot and Thirty-two, coming to the wire neck to neck. Spot won the decision by inches. The race was close throughout and the time was 1:00 flat. Summary:

Spot, Anson 1
Thirty-two, Anson 2
Captain B. Waltemeyer 3
Fredonia Girl, Haskin 4
F. O. Bailey acted as starter and T. F. Bradford, C. O. Russle and George Timmons were the judges. The timers were Dr. C. A. Stull, J. E. Gould and L. L. Wing.

JUMPS FROM TRAIN; INJURED. Mrs. Jacob Cook, of Union, Sustains Compound Fracture of Ankle.

Mrs. Jacob Cook sustained a compound fracture of the right ankle at the union station this morning in alighting from a moving Iowa Central train. Both bones were broken, and Mrs. Cook was badly bruised about the head. She was brought to St. Thomas hospital in this city, where she is under the care of the company's surgeon.

Mrs. Cook arrived in the city this morning from Indiana, where she had been for a visit with relatives. She intended returning to Union on the Iowa Central passenger, leaving here at 9:50. She mistook the Story City branch train for the northbound passenger and was not told of her mistake until after she had entered the car.

Mrs. Cook became alarmed and sought to leave the train. She rushed to the steps and before any one could prevent her she attempted to leave the train, which was then in motion. It is not told if her mistake was due to alighting on her head, and turning her foot beneath her weight. Both bones of the ankle were fractured and her head was bruised over the right temple. Mrs. Cook displayed great courage while awaiting the arrival of the surgeon and displayed a message to her husband. She asked to be allowed to return to her home instead of being removed to the hospital but the serious nature of her injuries made this impossible.

ACCUSED OF THEFT.

Rose Drace, Paroled Girl, Leaves Employer—Said She Stole Money.

Rose Drace, a paroled girl from the Mitchellville reform school for girls, whose mother, Mrs. Arnold Lutter, lives at 709 East Nevada street, was being sought by the police Tuesday afternoon. The girl is accused of stealing $10 from Dr. Frank Boucher, at the home of whose father, Dr. F. H. Boucher, she has been employed for about a month. Dr. Boucher said over the telephone this morning that the girl left the home at about 11:30 Tuesday morning, and that she took with her $10 belonging to him. He notified the police, and they in turn telephoned the Waterloo police. It is believed the girl went to Waterloo after leaving the Boucher home.

New Suits Filed.

Two suits have been filed in the district court for the August term against M. C. Howard, as the result of an alleged breach of contract for the sale of certain real estate. One suit, filed by Anderson & Rowley, real estate dealers, is brought to secure judgment in the sum of $240, claimed to be due the plaintiff firm for the sale of real estate belonging to the defendant. The petition alleges that the real estate was listed by the plaintiff firm at the request of the defendant with the agreement that the firm was to receive 1 per cent commission if the property was sold. It is alleged that a purchaser was secured in the person of Eliza Gibbs, who contracted for the purchase of the property for the sum of $24,000.

The deal was not made and suit is brought to get judgment for the amount of the commission.

Suit was also filed by Gibbs against Howard for breach of contract, the plaintiff alleging in his petition that notes had been drawn to bind the contract, but that Howard failed to keep his agreement and the property was never transferred.
