NEARLY A DROWNING.

Young Man Seized With Cramps While Bathing. Special to Times-Republican. Hampton, June 29.—A case of drowning was narrowly averted here at Beed's Lake, and had it not been for ready and quick work on the part of the rescuers, there would have been a tragedy to record.

ENDS LIFE WITH RAZOR.

Mrs. Clara Tyler, Once in Insane Hospital, Cuts Throat at Marion. Cedar Rapids, June 29.—With every artery on one side of her neck severed by a sharp razor and her clothes and face matted with blood, Mrs. Clara Tyler, of Marion, was found in an out-house back of her home yesterday afternoon by her aged mother and a neighbor, Mrs. S. N. Parsons.

forts of her aged mother, Mrs. Anne Sartwell, and had returned home just two weeks ago. She lived with her husband, C. R. Tyler, an uncle and her mother, Mrs. Anna Sartwell, and to all appearances was perfectly sane when she was brought back from Independence. The family had been keeping a close watch upon her, however, since her return. The mother was the only one in the house yesterday afternoon, and she had stepped out for a short time. When she came back, the body was found. The razor had slipped from her hand and was lying on the floor of the building. It seems to be a clearly defined case of suicide.

Auto Engine Almost Kills.

Keota, June 29.—Gus Applegreen, a wealthy retired merchant of Ottumwa, narrowly escaped bleeding to death yesterday from an injury received in crashing his automobile at Ollie, twenty-seven miles from Ottumwa. The engine kicked, the handle striking the leg and breaking a varicose vein.
