The signers to the agreement with the electricians are the McCarty Plumbing Company, the Buchanan-Boughton Company, and A. W. Carroll & Co., C. A. West has not as yet signed.

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS.

A 6 Per Cent Investment Secured by Marshalltown Real Estate 4 to 1. In order to raise money immediately with which to erect its church and carry the investment until deferred payments have been made on its building fund subscriptions, the First Baptist Church Society has placed in our hands for sale to investors an issue of first mortgage, 6 per cent bonds legally executed in denominations of $100 each.

The Baptists have invested over $5,000 in their site. They will spend $45,000 in their building and on top of this they will have in their possession interest bearing notes of responsible citizens who have subscribed to their building fund all of which notes their committee will have passed on as being good. They do not expect to need to exceed $25,000 of their bonds and will then begin paying them off from the money received on building fund subscriptions.

The house was prettily decorated with pink and white sweet peas, and the same color scheme prevailed in the two course lunch which was served. Miss Anita Keeser helped the hostess in serving, and Katherine McCord presided over the frappe bowl on the porch. Mrs. Jones' orchestra furnished music throughout the evening, and various amusements were enjoyed.

HELPED BUILD IOWA'S BEAUTIFUL CAPITOL

JOHN C. LEFFLER, WHO DIED TODAY, LAST SURVIVING SUPERINTENDENT.

SPENT TWENTY-TWO YEARS OF LIFE ON TWO CONTRACTS

Fourteen Years' Work Superintending Masonry on Capitol Followed by Same Duties on Clarinda Hospital for Insane—Mr. Leffler 79 Years Old—Body to Des Moines.

John C. Leffler, a building contractor of state-wide prominence, who was superintendent of the masonry work on the Iowa state capitol from its inception to completion, a period of fourteen years, and also superintendent of the same department of work during the construction of the state hospital for insane at Clarinda, requiring eight years, and the only surviving superintendent of the state house job, died at 2:40 o'clock this morning at the home of his son, Dr. E. G. Leffler, 401 West State street.

Mr. Leffler's death was caused by nephritis, with which he was attacked suddenly on July 3, having been in ailment for some time. He resided until 1878 when he settled in Burlington, Mo., where he lived until 1884, when he moved to Clarinda, which had been his home up to July 4 of last year, when his wife died and the home was broken up. Shortly afterward he came to Marshalltown and had since lived with his son, Dr. Leffler.

In 1851, at Cincinnati, Ohio, Mr. Leffler was married to Miss Susan E. Gilbert. Four sons were born to them, George W., Harry C., Edward G., and William Arthur. The latter died in 1882 and the others survive. Harry is a traveling salesman residing in Des Moines, where he lives in Butte Mont. The latter was notified of his father's death this morning, but the distance will preclude his attending the funeral. Mr. Harry Leffler arrived from Des Moines Wednesday afternoon, at which time his father was conscious and recognized him.

A brief prayer service will be held at the Leffler residence at 8:30 Saturday morning, after which the body will be taken to Des Moines for burial in Woodland cemetery, short services to be held in the cemetery chapel. Dr. Leffler and brother Harry will accompany the body to Des Moines.

Drouth Threatens Cattle Men.

Washington, July 15.—Drouth in the northwest is seriously affecting the cattle men, threatening them with great losses and possibly with financial ruin. The lack of rain and a scarcity of grasshoppers have roared a number of sheep growers of Montana to make an urgent telegraphic appeal for the forest reserves be thrown open to the locks. Associate Forester Potter today telegraphed the district forester at Missoula, Mont., instructing him to offer all the relief possible without injury to the forests. The Beartooth reserve already accommodates 24,000 head of sheep and 110,000 are being grazed in the Absaroka. The cattle men living adjacent to the reserves claim that 100,000 head can be installed on the ranges. Secretary Wilson of the department of agriculture recently appealed to the railroad companies to give the sheep men in Montana special rates in order to permit of the movement of starving sheep to better ranges. He also authorized an increase of 14,700 head of sheep in the Colville forest in Washington.
