

One May Overcome

constipation permanently by proper personal co-operation with the beneficial effects of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, when required. The forming of regular habits is most important and while endeavoring to form them the assistance of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is most valuable, as it is the only laxative which acts without disturbing the natural functions and without debilitating and it is the one laxative which leaves the internal organs in a naturally healthy condition, thereby really aiding one in that way. To get its beneficial effects, buy the genuine manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and for sale by all leading druggists. Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is never classed by the well-informed with medicines which make extravagant and unfounded claims to cure habitual constipation without personal co-operation.

MRS. F. H. GIFFORD SUES FOR DIVORCE

FILES PETITION, ALLEGING CRUEL AND INHUMAN TREATMENT AND ABUSE.

CLAIMS BECAME UNSAFE TO LIVE WITH HUSBAND

Petition Declares Gifford Threatened His Wife With Physical Violence—Wants $1,000 Temporary Alimony—Mr. Gifford Puts Blame For Action on Mother-in-Law, Mrs. Capron.

Charging her husband with cruel and inhuman treatment, and alleging that he had threatened her with physical violence, and that he has choked her and called her vile names, and intimidated that she was crazy, Mrs. Phebe E. Gifford this morning filed in the district court a petition for divorce from Frank H. Gifford, the best known of the local schoolmasters.

Mrs. Gifford asks for temporary alimony of $1,000, and an equitable division of the property when the case comes for trial. Gifford is estimated to be worth $50,000 or $60,000. The couple were married at Council Bluffs June 18, 1885.

Parted Short Time Ago. According to Mrs. Gifford's statement, as given in the petition, she and Mr. Gifford lived together until July 12, of this year. She claims that Gifford has treated her so cruelly, especially since about May, as to endanger her health and life and make it impossible for her to live with him.

On various occasions, since May, it is alleged he has threatened her with physical violence and at times has choked and threatened to kill her.

Called Her Vile Names. At other times, the petition continues, Gifford has called his wife vile names and applied epithets to her, and has charged her with being crazy. She alleges he has accused her of having "brain storms," and that he has made these charges to others, which has caused her great humiliation and distress. This suffering, she contends, has caused her to become sick, and she has been confined to her bed under the care of nurses and doctors. It is Mrs. Gifford's contention that these accusations were false and were known to be false.

Makes Claim on Property. In support of her claim for a share of the property, the petition says that for some years past, at the request of her husband, she has been engaged in the saloon business. The business became very prosperous and the profits very large. By verbal agreement between them it was understood that the profits of the business should be invested in Gifford's name until such time as he should cease to engage in the saloon business, at which time it was agreed, that Gifford should transfer to Mrs. Gifford all the property purchased from the profits of the business, the title to which was in his name.

Owens Farm and Residence. A farm of about 200 acres, just northwest of the city, and a residence in town, in addition to a large amount of personal property, was purchased with the profits of the saloons, the petition says.

Mrs. Gifford ceased to be interested in the saloon business about July 1, 1909, she claims, and also entitled to the profits, she alleges that her husband has refused to give them to her.

Gifford Blames Mother-in-Law. When seen concerning his side of the case Mr. Gifford unhesitatingly declared that his mother-in-law, Mrs. M. G. Capron, of Grinnell, was responsible for the estrangement. Mr. Gifford said:

"I do not expect this case to be tried in the newspapers, if in fact, it is ever tried at all. The statements in the petition filed are false and untrue, but I do not blame my wife for that. The poor woman has been badly advised, and is not to be censured for anything that, in her present nervous and excited condition, she has done. The case, when tried, if tried, will develop that if anything I have been over indulgent toward my wife. But the interference of my wife's mother, Mrs. Capron, who operates the Monroe Hotel at Grinnell, has created trouble, and attorneys have been quick to take advantage of the situation. I don't want anyone to have an unkind thought toward my wife—she is not to blame for this."

MISS WHINERY CHOSEN.

Well-Known Young Woman of Union Engaged For High School. Miss Reba Whinery, of Union, daughter of E. Z. Whinery, and one of the best-known young women of that place, has been chosen as a high school teacher in this city, to succeed Miss Ethel Vail in the English department. The news of Miss Whinery's selection will be received with interest by her many friends here and at Union.

Miss Whinery is an exceptionally bright and capable young woman, and a good teacher. She taught in the fourth grade at the Anson school last year, accepting the position for the purpose of establishing herself in Marshalltown schools and being ready when a high school position was open. During her year here she was offered two good high school positions, but refused them with the expectation of being able to get into the high school this year. Miss Whinery has had high school experience. She is a graduate of Grinnell College, where she received her bachelor's degree in 1907. She taught English and German in the Sutherland high school for a year, and German and history for one year in the Adel high school.

Another graded school position was also filled Friday by Superintendent Palmer, who received a contract from Miss Margaret Thompson, of New Providence, a former teacher in the Anson school. Miss Thompson is a graduate of the Iowa State Normal School at Cedar Rapids, class of '02. She taught eighteen months at George, two and one-half years in the second grade at the Anson building, and for four years past has been engaged in first primary work at Waterloo.

Local Comment

Winter wheat going forty bushels to the acre at $1 per bushel, oats weighing out eighty-five bushels to the acre and corn standing three feet above the fence posts promise that something will be doing in Marshall county this fall.

Now, when you talk about making fur coats in Marshalltown, you are proposing an industry that ought to be indigenous to the soil. Iowa, Nebraska, Minnesota, and the Dakotas are the states that produce the hides, and also are they the states in which the coats are worn. Marshalltown occupies the center of both demand and supply. All that will ever be required to make that industry win in Marshalltown is the "know how."

The Marshalltown Club will soon be located in luxurious quarters and with its house in order will be squared around for business. There is in this county a young man of successful experience as a better maker and manufacturer of ice cream. He has been investigated and is O. K. He is ready to take hold of a creamery enterprise in Marshalltown. A creamery is always profitable to cow owners and investors wherever from 1,200 to 1,500 cows can be put into service for one plant. The Marshalltown Club could by taking to the field to contract for the cows, cause $100,000 per annum to be paid out in cream checks in this locality. The result would be the equivalent of a payroll for a factory employing 150 men. It would be a real effort and cost nothing but promotion.

If the city council persists in somebody's proposal to limit the use of material in the concrete base of paving to sand the owners of local sand will be able to ask any price they choose within only general limitations. A specification which would call for a mixture of sand or its equivalent in cement, sand and crushed stone, would let in competition in materials. If sand is to be held at $1 per yard, which has been the lowest price this summer, the stone men will probably put in a price which will make the use of stone in concrete the cheaper and every concrete mason agrees that crushed stone as aggregate makes a better concrete base than sand and cement alone. Look to your rattier test and let in competition on brick. Then look to your specifications of concrete and let in competition on materials. Do business in the same way for the city that you would do business for yourself.

The improvements made at the fair grounds this summer will be well worth the added investment of capital by shareholders and those who are hanging back with their payments should quit pulling back and pull forward.

TOLEDO MISS WINS GOLD MEDAL CONTEST

FOURTEENTH DISTRICT W. C. T. U. CONVENTION ENDS IN ORATORY.

MISS MARKEE PROVES SUCCESSFUL CONTESTANT

Four Others Aspirants For the Honors—District Organization Re-Elects Old Officers—Mrs. Hurford, State President, Tells Interestingly of World's Convention.

The annual convention of the fourteenth district W. C. T. U. was brought to a successful close at the Presbyterian church, State Center, Friday night, with a feast of oratory comprising the selections given by five contestants for the Demorest gold medal. Miss Markee, of Toledo, was declared the winner of the contest. The other contestants were Mrs. J. A. McCormack, and Mr. Moore, of Zealring, and Mr. McGregor and Miss Thompson, of Hubbard.

The judges for the contest were Mrs. Foster, of State Center; Mr. Conklin, of Whitten, and Mrs. Hurford, of Indianola, state president of the W. C. T. U.

Tells of World's Convention. Mrs. Etta B. Hurford, the state president, told very interestingly Friday afternoon of the world's convention at Glasgow, Scotland, which she attended. Mrs. Hurford has returned only recently from Europe, having toured the continent following the convention at Glasgow. Reports of different unions which had not reported the day before were heard, and were equally as encouraging as those of the preceding day. Mrs. Conklin, of Whitten, read a very interesting paper on "The Duty to the Present Generation."

Old Officers Re-elected. The old officers of the district organization were re-elected Friday. In the persons of Mrs. Lou Rogers, of Union, president; Mrs. Max Thompson, of Hubbard, vice president; Mrs. Annan Talbot, of Toledo, secretary, and Mrs. Agnes Oats, of Iowa Falls, treasurer. The next place of meeting was not decided upon, this question being left to the executive committee to be determined later.

CAR SHOP STORY UNTRUE

"Yellow" Tale Sent Out From Oskaloosa That Central Car Shops Were to Be Moved There is a Fabrication—Road Simply to Increase Oskaloosa Force.

The "yellow" newspaper story sent out broadcast thru the state from Oskaloosa Friday, and published under such headlines as "Marshalltown Loses Car Works," is absolutely untrue. "The story is not founded on facts," said Master Mechanic C. E. Gossett, of the Iowa Central, this morning. All that the road or Mr. Gossett is attempting to do at Oskaloosa is to strengthen the car forces at Oskaloosa to take care of such car repair work as can not be handled here. Mr. Gossett wants to increase the car repair force at Oskaloosa by twelve or fourteen men, and made this fact known to C. E. Sawyer, president of the Oskaloosa Commercial Club. It is presumed because the fact that men were wanted became known, the statement was enlarged upon until it was sent out that the entire department was to move from here to Oskaloosa.
