DEYOE IS UP TO DATE

NOMINEE FOR STATE SUPERINTENDENT WILL CONTINUE MODERNIZING METHODS.

PLATFORM IN CAMPAIGN HAD APPROVAL OF RIGGS

Many of Rival Candidates Were Reactionary and Appealed to Prejudices of Voters—Deyoe Stands For Rational Progress in Conduct of Rural Schools of State.

Des Moines, Aug. 9.—The advocates of gradual evolution and development of the Iowa school system to meet the changing conditions and increasing demands of the people are immensely pleased with the selection of Prof. A. M. Deyoe, of Hancock county, as the republican candidate for superintendent of public instruction. Mr. Deyoe, perhaps more nearly than any of the other candidates, stands for a continuance of the now well settled policy of the department for rational progress in school methods. Some of the other candidates, in fact the most conspicuous of them, are advocates of a return to the old methods, and against the existing order of things. This policy was largely the work of the late Supt. Richard C. Barrett and carried out and developed by Supt. John F. Riggs. It looks to a thorough modernizing of the school system by leading the school patrons to an understanding of what is best. When the recent campaign started, Superintendent Riggs scanned the various platforms of the candidates and was quoted as saying that the platform of Superintendent Deyoe had his hearty approval. This statement was as follows: "Unity of action among all the educational forces of the state on such questions as may be determined to be of special importance. "A general educational campaign for improved common school conditions appealing to the confidence of the people. An enlightened public sentiment will lead to legislation. "Secondary school privileges with practical courses of study for the country youth. "Better facilities for training teachers for the rural schools. "Some provision for better supervision of the rural schools. "Qualified school officers with definite compensation to such officers for the performance of the official duties and attendance at school officers' conferences. "Better social privileges respecting rural life are important and may be secured by making the schoolhouse the center of social and educational gatherings. "Proper recognition should be extended to such districts as meet a certain standard in equipment as to buildings, apparatus and character of school work done. "The rural schools and the graded schools should be correlated with high schools of required standard, with uniform examination for promotion from the eighth grade. He has shipping certificates law is to be commended as promoting professional growth among teachers by favoring the experienced and well qualified teachers. "The essential function of the public school is to teach well. The common branches must be considered of first importance, and a thorough knowledge of each school and the work of the teacher should be held as the chief duty of the county superintendent. This knowledge can best be gained by mingling with the schools."

HEAT-DANGERS FOR CHILDREN

The little folks do not stand the heat as well as their elders, and special care should be taken to keep them in good physical condition. One of the things to be especially watchful of is the condition of the bowels, which presents many dangers hardly dreamed of by parents. When the child shows a tendency to constipation, it loses appetite, complains of headaches, itches or fails to sleep well and awake refreshed, the mother may be certain that the child needs a tonic-laxative with ingredients such as are contained in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, of which most mothers have heard and which thousands of mothers are using for themselves and their children. Indigestion is one of the worst troubles of child-life in the summer time, and it manifests itself in many different ways. Whatever the cause and whatever the manifestation the mother may be sure of removing the trouble with a few doses of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which should always be kept in the house for emergency. It is sold in two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00, and can be obtained of any druggist. Those who have never used it and wish to make a test of it before buying, can obtain a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE by addressing DR. W. B. CALDWELL, 400 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill.

Does The Silo Pay?

An acre of corn properly planted will produce fifteen tons of ensilage, sufficient to feed ten milch cows for ten weeks. In no other manner can feed containing the natural juice be stored for use during winter and periods of drouth.

Pasturing of cattle is an expensive method of feeding and the greater the increase in value of land, the more serious the problem of securing fair returns on the investment becomes. Besides pasturage can not be had to exceed seven months in the year, and furthermore during periods of drouth-without the silo, grain must be fed or milch cows will not do their best. With a silo your cows will not miss the loss of grass and with a supply of ensilage at least twice the number of animals can be kept than under the old method of pasturing and dry feeding during the period of drouth and winter season.

The Silo will pay if even as few as five head are kept and it is evident, that the advantages gained by the small dairyman are as great or greater in proportion with the larger dairyman.

A number of agricultural experts are authority for the statement that the silo will save its cost each year. A ration of ensilage fed in connection with ground feed to fattening cattle will save 10 cents per day, or a saving of $3 per month on each head. When cost and food values are carefully computed, won't it pay to build the Silo NOW!
