Mrs. D. N. Conger, who underwent an operation at the Presbyterian hospital at Waterloo about six weeks ago, was brought home Saturday night, her condition being greatly improved. Mrs. Conger went to Waterloo six weeks ago for a visit and was taken ill shortly after going there and was unable to return home.

Burt Forney, of West Liberty, has been employed by the McBride and Will Drug Company as manager of the South Third avenue store of the company. Mrs. Forney reached the city Saturday, and the couple are now looking for a suitable residence. Mr. Forney is a brother of C. M. Forney, a druggist at Baxter.

Mrs. Phillip Vogt, 307 North Fifth street, entertained the members of her Sunday school class of girls at dinner Sunday. The young ladies furnished a surprise for Mrs. Vogt by presenting her with a handsome souvenir spoon, in remembrance of her birthday, which was also celebrated Sunday. Mrs. Vogt's guests were Misses Elda Wardman, Margaret Woodmansee, Mildred Frederickson, Grace Ralls, Fern Flittion, Esther Mayer, Bertha Stull, and Gladys Crinklaw. Mrs. Vogt was assisted in serving dinner by Miss Celia Klock, of Zearing.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hellberg and daughter Edith, are home from Koshkonong, Mo., where they have been for about a month with Arthur Hellberg, who has charge of his father's fine fruit farm four miles south of Koshkonong. Mr. Hellberg has recently acquired another sixty acres adjoining his tract, and is improving the property materially. Next year Mr. Hellberg expects to have many peach trees that will bear, and this season his son's time was devoted to raising canteloupes. The crop proved a large one, and is now being marketed in the south.

An enjoyable dinner was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Hayne in State Center, the occasion being in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Shriver, the latter a sister of Mr. Haynes, who have been visiting them from Albany, Ore. The majority of the guests went on the train and the rest by team. Those arriving on the train were Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Hayne, Mrs. Leona Melberg and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hayne and family, all of Marshalltown; and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hayne and family of near Gladbrook. Those going by team were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Mulcahey of near Luray, Mrs. Emily Hayne and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hayne, of Okmuige, Okla. The other guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Abrams and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Sargent and family, all of State Center. Foreman C. A. Miller, of the Iowa Central blacksmith shops, accompanied by Mrs. Miller, is home from a week's visit in Detroit, Mich., where Mr. Miller was in attendance at the annual convention of master blacksmiths.

Mrs. B. W. Fellows, mother of Mrs. G. A. Tewksbury, accompanied by her granddaughters, Adeline and Pauline Tewksbury, returned home Saturday evening from Clinton, where she has been visiting for two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. William Peterson.

Mrs. J. E. Norton and daughter Cornelia arrived home Saturday evening from Keokuk, Ill., where they have been visiting for ten days with friends. Mrs. Norton was accompanied home by her aunt, Mrs. Lucy Brewer, of St. Louis, who will remain for a two weeks' visit.

Word from Des Moines Sunday evening was to the effect that the condition of Dr. J. J. Fitzpatrick was not as satisfactory as Saturday and he will not be able to attend the trip home this week as had been expected. Rev. F. J. Renier went to Des Moines this morning to spend the day with Father Fitzpatrick.

Mrs. Alice Betts, of Cedar Rapids, and niece, Miss Ruth Miller, of Harwarden, spent Sunday in the city at the home of Mrs. Betts' cousin, Mr. A. Ford, 304 North Fourth street. Mrs. Betts is the widow of T. G. Betts, the traveling man and president of the Iowa Gideons, who was one of the victims in the terrible Rock Island wreck near Green Mountain on March 21.

J. F. Boileau, formerly supervisor of bridges and buildings on the Iowa Central, now associated with D. C. Noonan, Fred Wing, and W. F. Hesse, all former Iowa Central officials, in the stone and sand business at Gifford and Watertown, S. D., was in the city Sunday, coming from Eldora, where he has been looking after the construction of elevators and buildings for a grain business that his company has purchased. Mr. Boileau expects to go to Watertown soon to take up work with the Kampecker Sand Company, one of the concerns owned by the former Central men.

TWO HOUSES ENTERED.

Dr. Devine and R. E. Heald Homes Visited by prowler.

House breakers were abroad Saturday and Sunday nights, the homes of Dr. W. S. Devine, First and Lincoln, and R. E. Heald, 505 North Third street, being entered.

At 12:30 this morning Dr. Devine was awakened by a noise and upon turning on the electric lights saw a man make a hasty exit thru the front door. The fellow had entered the house by removing a screen. Matches were found burned in different parts of the house, but the valuables were taken. A watch that was probably picked up was left where it lay, and from all appearances it would seem that the thief was looking for money. A plate of cookies was handed outside a window, presumably to a confederate, and the empty plate was found on the ground this morning.

At 2 o'clock Sunday morning some one gained entrance to the Heald home, and awakened Mr. Heald, who frightened the prowler away. The burglar had secured Mr. Heald's trousers, and in handling them the silver chain dropped to the floor. This awakened Mr. Heald and the burglar made a hasty departure.

NO SCHOOL CIRCUS DAY.

No Use Trying to Teach the Young Idea With Counter Attraction.

Because of the visit of the Ringling Bros. circus no school will be held on circus day. It has been learned from experience that it is next to useless to try and hold school on circus days, and for that reason the pupils were informed that there would be no school.

Farewell Reception for the Roberts.

An informal farewell reception for Dr. and Mrs. Watson Roberts and daughter, Miss Ella, who will make their future home in Portland, Ore., was held Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Trine. Fifty or more of their friends called during the evening to bid them farewell, and a number remained until they left on the 11:30 train. The guests of honor received with Mr. and Mrs. Trine. Miss Helen Wells presided over the frappe hour, and Elizabeth Trine was at the door. Hydrangeas, cosmos and nasturtiums were used as decorations.

Miss Ella Roberts has secured a position as a teacher in the Portland schools for the coming school year.

To the Young Man Correctly Dressed.

There is only one way to be sure of satisfactory clothes. Visit our young men's department, have Hopkins & Son cut and make them to your individual measurements, and this done by a competent tailor on the spot. You get the little touches of individuality that lend distinction to the well dressed young man. Your clothes will be snug without being tight. They will show you at your best, and that is what clothes are for.

Hundreds of patterns to select from at $20 to $25. If you live out of the city send for samples. Hopkins & Son, popular tailors.

PLANS COMPLETE FOR LABOR DAY

EFFORT WILL BE MADE TO SURPASS ALL PREVIOUS CELEBRATIONS OF A LIKE NATURE.

MANY DONATIONS MADE BY BUSINESS MEN

Program of Twenty Events Will Furnish Afternoon's Entertainment — Parade Will Move Promptly at 10 O'clock and Address by President Urlick Will Be Morning Feature.

The various committees having in hand the arrangements for the Labor Day celebration next Monday met Sunday and completed the plans for the celebration. Everything is now in readiness for the day and from the present indications the celebration will be the biggest ever held in this city on Labor Day.

An attempt will be made to make the parade the greatest ever held here on Labor Day. The parade will form on North and South Fourth streets, with the head of the procession resting on Main. The floats will form on West Church street, and the automobiles will form on West State street.

John A. Tallman will act as marshal of the day and his assistants will be C. L. Diefenbacher, J. E. Briney, W. Wortman and George Reinart. The parade will start promptly at 10 o'clock and the formation will be as follows: Platoon of police, fire department, band, speakers in carriages, city officials in carriages, lady musicians in carriages, imperial telephone operators' union, labor unions of the city, floats and automobiles.

Program for the Day.

The parade will move to the fair grounds, where President Urlick, of the state federation, will deliver the address. In the afternoon the following program will be given, the events being contested in the order given:

DOG BITES CARRIER.

Charles E. Giddings Attacked By Animal While Carrying Mail Route.

Charles E. Giddings, a member of the city mail carrier force, was severely injured Saturday afternoon, while carrying his route, being bitten by a dog belonging to Frank Elgin, 804 West Nevada street. The dog bit Mr. Giddings twice in the calf of the leg. He was unable to finish his route but went immediately to a physician upon his return to the postoffice. He was off duty today but his condition is not considered serious. There is danger of infection, however, and the wounds are being carefully watched.

ENDEAVORERS MEET

Annual Meeting of County Society Held Saturday and Sunday at Hartland—Attendance is Large—Officers For New Year Are Elected—B. W. Garrett, of Des Moines, Delivers Two Addresses.

The annual meeting of the Marshall County Christian Endeavor Union was held Saturday and Sunday at Hartland, the attendance being quite large. The feature of the meeting was the addresses given Sunday by B. W. Garrett, of Des Moines, candidate of the republican party for clerk of the supreme court. Mr. Garrett's addresses were greatly enjoyed by those present.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Harry Jennings, Marshalltown; vice president, Ray Welker, Marshalltown; secretary and treasurer, Miss Margaret Keen, LeGrand; superintendent of Junior work, Mrs. E. L. Condon, LeGrand. The latter two were re-elected. The meeting next year will be held at Albion.

CONSTABLE TO JAIL.

Constable Morse Taken Into Custody Because of Intoxication.

Because of intoxication, Chief of Police W. E. Nicholson late Saturday night took into custody A. Morse, one of the two constables of this township, and placed him in the South Third avenue police station, where Morse remained during the night. Chief Nicholson released the officer Sunday morning, after securing his promise that he would appear before the mayor this morning. Morse appeared before Mayor Ingelude in a repentant frame of mind, and promised the mayor that never again while he was in office would he take a drink. By reason of this promise no information was filed against the constable by the chief of police.
