

DULL MONDAY MARKET

WHEAT OPENED HIGHER ON FOREIGN BUYING ORDERS BUT STRENGTH SHORT LIVED.

VISIBLE SUPPLY OFFSETS FOREIGN HARVEST REPORTS

Trade in Corn was Smallest in Some Time, Early Advance Being Lost - Moderate Selling by Leading House Sufficient to Ease Off Oats, Which Dropped to 36 1/2.

Chicago, Aug. 29.—Altho there were some foreign buying orders here for wheat today and the market opened higher, the strength was short lived. Reports of delayed harvests in Europe were offset by an increase in world's shipments and in the amount on passage. Present heavy supplies locally seemed to act, too, as a weight on the market. Prices opened unchanged to 1/4 higher. December started at 1.04 1/2 to 1.04 3/4 and on general selling declined to 1.04 1/4 @ 1.04 1/2. Receipts in Chicago, Minneapolis and Duluth were 371 cars.

Wheat closed easy, with December 1.04 to 1.04 1/4; net loss of 4 1/2 c.

Corn. Trade in corn the smallest seen in some time. December opened unchanged to 1/4 higher, at 58 1/2 to 59 1/2, and declined to 58. Receipts were 250 cars. Corn closed easy, December 57 1/2 to 58 1/4.

Oats. Moderate selling by a leading house was sufficient to ease off oats. December started unchanged at 36 1/2, and dropped to 35 1/2. Receipts were 333 cars.

Provisions. Provisions opened 5 to 10 higher, and reacted only a trifle.

FARM HOME BURNS.

Fire of Unknown Origin Destroys Banks Residence, Near Montour. Special to Times-Republican.

Montour, Aug. 29.—A bad fire, which totally destroyed the home of A. J. Banks, a well-known farmer living two miles west of Montour, occurred Sunday morning, and resulted not only in the loss of the building but practically all the contents of the upper story.

At about 8:30 Mrs. Banks' sister, Mrs. George Tewksbury, of Marshalltown, who had come here last Wednesday with her husband, baby son Richard, and maid, Miss Emma Shetter, to take charge of the Banks home during the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Banks, heard a strange noise up stairs, as the something were dropping to the floor from the ceiling.

The origin of the fire is not known, unless combustion or mice and matches might have been responsible. The blaze caught in the garret.

The house that was destroyed is one of the landmarks of the neighborhood, and was built by Mrs. Banks' father, the late B. W. Fellows, in 1855.

The entire structure was built of hard wood, from the virgin forest. Mrs. Tewksbury and Miss Shetter also lost some of their clothing and personal effects.

Owing to the fact that the Bankses were not at home a definite idea of the loss can not be obtained. Relatives think that the loss must have been close to $2,500, and think that partial insurance on the contents was carried.

Mrs. Banks and her wife were summoned to Knoxville Wednesday morning by a telephone message announcing that Mr. Banks' mother was not expected to live.

Mr. and Mrs. Banks went by automobile to Knoxville, and arrived in time to see Mrs. Banks alive, her death having resulted Thursday morning. The funeral was held Saturday.
