

DAILY PROGRAM FOR COUNTY FAIR WEEK

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS TO BE GIVEN EACH DAY AND NIGHT OF THE FAIR.

FIVE VAUDEVILLE ACTS FOR THE FREE SHOW

Details of the Entertainment to Be Given in Front of the Grand Stand—List of the Horse Races For Each Day—Time Set For the Judging of Livestock.

The detailed program for each day of the fair next week was given out today by L. C. Abbott, superintendent of amusements. The program begins Monday night, with the evening entertainment, and includes the evenings of Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday and the afternoons of Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday. No evening entertainment will be given Friday night, and there is no afternoon program for Monday, that being preparation day.

The fair has secured for its free show this year a larger list and greater variety of acts than for any previous year. These acts will be given in the open air in front of the grand stand both afternoon and evening, and in addition to the band concerts, and the race track events make up the program for each afternoon, and without the track events constitute the programs for the evenings.

Have Five Free Show Acts.
The acts for the free show will be given by the Mario Trio, a triple horizontal bar act; Les Ballots, a team of acrobats; Mlle. Erna, in a flying trapeze act; the Bimbos, a pantomime and clown act, and the Wright Vaudeville Company, colored singers and dancers.

The first daylight program, which is for Tuesday, is for both morning and afternoon, and includes the program prepared by the special committee of veterans for their celebration of the day.

Tuesday Old Soldiers' Day.
Tuesday is old soldiers' day. The program for the day opens at 10:25 in the morning and is resumed at 1:30 in the afternoon. There will be addresses by Maj. Gen. Smith D. Adkins, Col. D. J. Palmer and Past Commander M. McDonald, of the state department of G. A. R. There will be music and reading.

At 10:30 the stock judging contest for cash prizes open to men and boys will be held.

At 2 o'clock the program in front of the grand stand and on the race track will begin. It will consist of the vaudeville acts, horse races, motor races and band concert. The horse races for Tuesday are the 2:35 pace with nine entries and the 2:22 trot with thirteen entries.

At 7:30 in the evening the vaudeville and band concert will be given front of the amphitheater.

Wednesday's Program.
The judging of horses, cattle, swine, sheep and poultry, for prizes offered by the association, will be begun. At 1:30 in the afternoon the program in front of the grand stand will begin. The horse races for Wednesday are the 2:10 pace with eight entries, and the 2:30 trot with eleven entries. Vaudeville and band concert at 7:30 in the evening.

Thursday's Program.
The stock judging that was begun Wednesday morning will be resumed at 10 o'clock, and at 1:30 the afternoon's program will begin. The horse races for Thursday are the 2:15 trot with nine entries, and the 2:22 pace with ten entries. Vaudeville program begins at 7:30 in the evening.

Friday's Program.
The judging of the livestock will be completed. At 1 o'clock the prize-winning livestock will parade in front of the grand stand. At 2 o'clock the afternoon's program will begin. The horse races for Friday are the 2:15 trot with nine entries and a half mile gentlemen's driving race for either pacers or trotters, best two out of three heats. There will be no evening program.

HORSES ENTERED FOR RACES.

List of Entries For Each Event of the Harness Program.

With a total of sixty-nine horses entered for the seven harness races of the regular racing program, which does not include the special gentlemen's driving races, the indications are that larger fields will be sent away in the races of the county fair next week than at any of the previous fairs. George W. Darling, superintendent of the speed department, who has had a large share in securing the entries, believes that a very large majority of those entered will start.

FIVE ARE INDICTED

Grand Jury Makes Report, Including Five Bills, Then Goes to Inspect County Farm—Simkins, Halverson, Pokasta, Martin and Gilmore Indicted.

Returning five indictments, the grand jury reported this morning, but was not discharged and then left to inspect the county farm. The indictments found by the grand jury were against Sam Simkins, Barney Halverson, James Pokasta, Arthur Martin, and Frank Gilmore. Two of the indictments are for burglary, two are for larceny and the fifth is for giving liquor to an inebriate.

Halverson and Pokasta are the Quarry men who were arrested early in June for the alleged theft of a number of pigs from a farmer living near LeGrand. They were indicted for larceny.

Arthur Martin, who was arrested for entering an Iowa Central tool house and stealing a quantity of brass, was indicted for burglary.

Frank Gilmore, the man who was caught last Sunday in the Crowley home, between Rhodes and State Center, after he is alleged to have broken into the house while the family was away, was indicted for burglary.

Sam Simkins, who has been held in jail charged with giving liquor to a person in the habit of becoming intoxicated, was indicted on that charge.

Although the grand jury reported in court that it was not thru, it is thought that it has completed its investigations for this term, as no new subpoenas have been issued for it. The grand jury will adjourn without investigating the Hardy murder. It is claimed that no new evidence has been developed in the case, and that the evidence obtainable does not warrant the time and expense of a grand jury investigation.

"The Cat and the Fiddle."
"Hoy Diddle Diddle, the cat and the fiddle. The cow jumped over the moon. The little dog laughed to see such sport. And the dish ran away with the spoon."

The above is a nursery rhyme that perhaps every man and woman and child knows, and when it is learned that it has been taken as a theme on which to found the plot of a musical extravaganza entitled "The Cat and the Fiddle" it at once becomes interesting. This mammoth production comes to the New Odeon tonight. It is shown in three acts and nineteen scenes. What could be better for extravaganza than this old wonder story enhanced by the sweetest music, beautiful scenic environment, entrancing maidens, grotesque characters, etc! It is claimed that the full possibilities of such a theme have been reached here. "The Cat and the Fiddle" is new here, but its success last season being well remembered as one of the most notable events of the theatrical year.

The most marvelous stage settings, illusions and transformations are still wonderfully given, and fifteen song hits mostly new, are cleverly sung.

MINERVA.
Sept. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nichols left for St. Paul Tuesday to visit the Minnesota state fair. From there they will go to northern Minnesota to visit friends.

Miss Elsie Haddock is visiting at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. William Dunn, at St. Anthony.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Kendall spent Sunday in Marshalltown, with relatives.

School began Monday with Miss Helen McRoe teacher.

Miss Marion Harper is attending high school in Abion.

EDGEWORTH FARM IS LEASED TO MILLS

WESTERN GROCERY COMPANY RENTS MERRITT GREENE FARM TO RAISE CORN.

EXPECTS TO DEVELOP BIG DAIRY INDUSTRY

Establishment of Dairies Planned to Turn By-Products of Sweet Corn in Milk and Cream—Merritt Greene, Jr., Employed to Have General Charge of Farm Operations.

Negotiations were closed Thursday by the Western Grocer Company Mills for leasing the Merritt Greene farm, Edgeworth, just west of the city. The lease covers 340 acres of the farm, Mr. Greene reserving about thirty acres surrounding his home. The company gets possession at once.

It is the intention of the company to devote a good share of the acreage of the farm next year to the growing of sweet corn for its packing plant. This gives the company something over 1,200 acres of leased farm lands near the city, which it will use for raising sweet corn and for forage crops for its work stock and for other crops that it will use in its mills and packing plant.

Have Creameries in View.
Officers of the company have been investigating the dairy proposition, and have about decided that it offers the most feasible and most profitable method of turning the by-products of the canning factory, especially the sweet corn cobs, husks and green fodder into money. The method contemplated for handling it, both for feeding dairy cows and for forage crops for its work stock, is to turn it into ensilage.

One silo is now being erected on the Millerville farm. The plans of the company also contemplate a creamery for the city and perhaps a cheese factory. These plans are to be worked out during the next year or so as the development of the work on the farms progresses.

Employ Merritt Greene, Jr.

The company has employed Merritt Greene, Jr., to have charge and supervision of its several farms. Mr. Greene will enter the employ of the company in a short time. He has been employed to have general charge of the farm work, and especially to develop the dairy and creamery branches of the business which will be directly connected with the farms. The plan, as far as it has been developed, is to establish two dairies, one at the Greene farm and another at one of the farms at the southeast edge of town.

The canning department of the business has developed to such proportions that it is occupying the entire time of E. G. Mossman, who has had general supervision of the farms, and it is the intention of the company to have him more closely associated with the business and selling departments of the business.

of the manufacturing business, such as the making of corn meal from corn to be grown on the company's farms is one of the new branches that Mr. Mossman will have charge of.

H. W. Savage, an old sweet corn grower, who has had partial charge of the farms, will continue in the employ of the company, giving Mr. Greene the benefit of his years of experience.

Working About Full Capacity.
The canning department of the mills, which has been in operation for about a week putting into cans sweet corn and tomatoes, is gradually being pushed to reach its capacity. About 2,300 cases of corn, in addition to several hundred cases of tomatoes, has been the daily pack for the last two days. It is hoped to increase this at least 3,000 cases within another week. It is expected that the pack of corn will be completed by the end of the month.

Close to 100 people are being employed in the canning department, which is working over time in the rush to get the corn canned in the shortest time possible. A mess tent has been put up on the grounds and the company is furnishing supper to its employees free of charge.

CLEMONS.
Sept. 9.—Rev. Mr. Clayton has returned from a four weeks' vacation spent at his old home at Yellow Springs, O., and will take up the work for the Christian church for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Davis visited at Panora for a couple of days last week with the latter's sister, Mrs. Minnie Clark. They stopped at Des Moines, where they visited another sister of Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Oliver McCormack, and attended the state fair.

Fred Van Meter is at Leitcher, S. D., visiting and looking after his land interests.

School commenced at No. 1, Minerva township, Monday with Miss Grace McCrea as teacher.

John Wagoner and Harry Warren, of Marshalltown, are baling straw for F. C. Davis in Minnesota on business. He will also visit the state fair at Minneapolis.

ing for Minneapolis to attend the Minnesota state fair.

O. S. Chapman shipped a mixed load of cattle and dogs from Bromley to Chicago Wednesday.

Bowen DeWitt, of New Providence, visited Tuesday at George Jester's.

Slow Progress in China.
Even in Honan city, distant only two days by rail from Peking, lump silver, the same uncumbrous currency that has been used for centuries, is still employed.

DARN YOUR SOCKS

You can't darn your shoes though, but there is one way that you can avoid shoe complaints and that is: to be careful in your selection of a shoe dealer. Mail order shoes that let in water, shoes that don't fit, bargains bought in a hurry, shoes that didn't last as long as the laces, shoes that had to be cut to make them comfortable, all these are the kind you can't buy in our store. We can't sell you that kind because our good shoe judgment prevents anybody from selling us that kind and our shoe knowledge insures you a proper fit and service.
