

Geo. L. Andrews

MARSHALL COUNTY NEWS OF INTEREST

MINOR ITEMS OF NEWS FROM MANY COUNTRY TOWNS AND NEIGHBORHOODS.

FUNERAL OF MISS EVANS IS HELD AT GILMAN

Services Held for Woman Who Died in Joliet, Ill.—James Brooken and Family to Move to Marshalltown—St. Anthony Girl is Bitten By Dog—Other News of the County.

Much news of minor interest regarding people and happenings in the county towns and country is contained in the correspondence this week. Miss Ellen Evans, who died in Joliet, was buried at Gilman Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. James Brooken and family, are to move to Marshalltown. The news, grouped by country towns and rural neighborhoods, is as follows:

GILMAN. Sept. 22.—The funeral of Miss Ellen Evans was held at the Congregational church Wednesday morning soon after the arrival of the train from the south which bore the body of the deceased. The remains were accompanied from Joliet, Ill., by Mr. R. Johnson and wife, the latter being a niece of the deceased. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. W. E. Paul, of Minneapolis, and interment took place in Prairieview cemetery. Miss Evans was 33 years old.

William Steger and family went to Garrettsville Sunday to live, William having a position as clerk in a general store there. Mrs. Steger's mother, Mrs. J. M. Carney, accompanied them to help them in getting settled and will return by way of Traer where she will visit for a day or two with her daughter, Mrs. R. L. Parker, and family. A pre-nuptial shower was given at the residence of J. L. Paul Monday evening to Miss Nora Dan Keables and Robert J. Paul. Miss Margie Sutherland arrived home Friday morning after a most enjoyable summer in Yellowstone Park. In about a week she goes to Philadelphia for a year's post-graduate study in the University of Pennsylvania.

ST. ANTHONY. Sept. 22.—Mrs. J. B. Gaunt and Mrs. M. A. Gaunt left last week for Greensburg, Ind., for a visit with relatives and friends. Mrs. C. L. Keoppel and Roy Keoppel went to Chicago on the excursion Friday.

J. A. Bryant and Waldo Elliott left Monday for South Dakota on business. Rev. Mr. Wilkinson's little girl was quite badly injured being bitten on the face Sunday morning by the dog owned by Andrew Berze. The doctor thinks there will be no serious result. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, of Knoxville, Mo., visited last week at the J. H. Irvin home. Miss Henry LaPlant, of Des Moines, is visiting in St. Anthony. Miss Maud Hart, of Marshalltown, is visiting in St. Anthony. St. Anthony furnished quite a delegation to the Zearing fair Wednesday. The Ladies' Aid Society met all day Thursday with Mrs. Joseph Springer, near State Center. All had a good time.

RHODES. Sept. 22.—Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Carpenter, of Iowa Falls, are stopping at the Abe Good home. Mr. Carpenter is putting in the new steam heating plant at the school house.

Miss Elsie Van, of Austin, Minn., is visiting at the Luling home and also other relatives and friends. Miss Lena Elliott, of Des Moines, has been calling on old friends. She was the guest of Mrs. Emma Steiner. Mrs. Peacock, of Boone, is visiting her aunt and uncle, Mrs. and Mr. William Gillman.

Robert Pester had the misfortune to break his arm at school Tuesday. J. C. Thornton and family, of Marshalltown, who have been making a six weeks' pleasure trip in their automobile, spent Monday night at the W. C. Phillips home, leaving Tuesday morning for their home. Charles Wallace and Will Steiner and Mesdames Carrie Blyden and Lena Hillborn and Miss Mary Hale were Marshalltown visitors Monday in the Wallace automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Metcalf have been in attendance at the Upper Iowa conference of the M. E. church at Greensburg. Mr. Metcalf will be retained as pastor of the Rhodes church. Mrs. E. B. Perry visited her son, Russel, and family at Mingo Saturday and Sunday and was accompanied home by her granddaughter, Maxine Perry, who is spending the week here. Mrs. Frank Fisher and Mrs. Louis Rechenhelmer, of Des Moines, came Wednesday to visit their mother, Mrs. Daugherty.

LISCOMB. Sept. 22.—Mr. and Mrs. M. M. McFee and children returned home Monday evening from a short visit with Mrs. McFee's parents, near Aurora. Mrs. Dollie Ewalt has moved into the Hickman residence on Main street, which is now owned by R. F. Clark. Miss Florence Boyd, who is teaching in the Willow Hill school, spent Saturday and Sunday at home.

Mrs. James E. Scott and children arrived from Carthage, S. D., Monday evening. Mrs. Scott was called home by the illness of her brother, George Powers, who underwent an operation for abscess Wednesday.

Mr. Edwin Morey, of Eldora, visited Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Morey. Messrs. Earl and John Gaunt and Mrs. Earl Gaunt, of Clemons, visited the Jay Gaunt family here Sunday. Miss Rose Lincoln spent several days of country fair week with Marshalltown relatives. Mesdames J. E. Hagglin, C. A. Gifford, and M. N. Gifford are attending the Rhodes fair this week and visiting their sister, Mrs. Hattie Frances, and family.

Dr. George Gaunt left for Portland,

Ore. Monday, after a pleasant visit of three weeks with his parents. Mr. Gaunt will stop in Rochester, Minn., to attend a clinic at the medical school and will also make a stop in Idaho to visit his sister, Mrs. M. Kinzer.

A. Beeman arrived home this week from a visit with friends at Fox Lake, Wis. Mrs. T. F. Paris and children went to Des Moines Friday, where they will visit for a week before joining Mr. Paris in his work at Yale.

Eugene Robbins, left Saturday for Kalamazoo, Mich., where he will attend school and make his home with his aunt, Mrs. Patrick DeLa Hunt. Miss Alice Boyd was elected treasurer of the Christian Sunday school to fill the vacancy occasioned by the departure of Miss Grace Melick, who is teaching near Stout.

Miss Ina Burkhardt visited for several days this week with her friend, Miss Beale Thompson, near Marshalltown. Mr. and Mrs. John Marker left Saturday for Iowa City, where Mr. Marker is taking a medical course at the university. Mrs. Anna Willis and Mrs. D. G. Bauman arrived home Wednesday evening from a week's visit in South Dakota.

Mrs. W. A. Middleton returned Saturday from a two weeks' visit with Harlan county friends. Mrs. Harry Thresher visited her sister, Mrs. O. Johnson, in Radcliffe, Friday and Saturday. Lowell Bibby was transacting business in Charles City Wednesday.

Miss Margaret Gaunt, who is recovering from a long spell of typhoid fever, was remembered by her schoolmates and friends Thursday in a shower of post cards. R. F. Clark returned home Thursday from a trip to Chicago where he went with several carloads of cattle for market.

Mr. Jesse Hagglin is suffering from an aggraving attack of hay fever. J. G. Scott and Harry Thresher left Monday evening for Pukwana, S. D., to look at land. Mrs. Benjamin Hillsbeck and Mrs. George Hulet are ill with malaria fever.

Messrs. Lyle Black and Billy Updike, both of whom are working for a telephone company at Fort Dodge, visited here Sunday. E. C. Nichols and father, B. F. Nichols, of Green Mountain, are near Riceville looking after land interests. James Henderson and family, visited Dickerson's brother, J. Van Gorsdale, and family in Ovasa, Sunday.

J. E. Powers went to Gifford Monday evening to meet his daughter, Mrs. Scott, who arrived from South Dakota. Paul Weatherly, who has been visiting relatives in and near Leominster for a few weeks, returned to his home in Rock Rapids Saturday.

The Royal Neighbor lodge will hold a bazaar and serve supper in the M. W. A. hall Saturday afternoon and evening. A program will be given during the evening. The Bethel band has been engaged to furnish music. A reader of note will be present, and Miss Stella Fraser, of Marshalltown, will sing. A suffragette conference will be one of the attractions expected to point a lesson as well as entertain. The proceeds of the bazaar will go towards paying for the hall which has been but recently purchased.

NORTH STAR. Sept. 2.—Miss Mae McKibben went to Liscomb Monday and entered high school as a student. Mrs. James Scott and two children, of Carthage, S. D., visited Tuesday at her brother's, George Powers. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. McLarnan, of Marshalltown, came Monday for a few days' visit with their niece, Mrs. D. B. Elliott.

George Powers, who underwent an operation for the drainage of an appendiceal abscess, is gaining as rapidly as could be expected. Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McKibben and children were in Marshalltown Sunday in attendance at the dedication of the guests at the George Glen home. Herbert Head, who recently returned from Springfield, Mo., and has been working in the Iowa Central shops at Marshalltown for the last two weeks, came Saturday to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Head, and is now sick with typhoid fever.

MARIPETA. Sept. 22.—James Jensen, Jr., visited over Sunday with relatives in Cedar Falls. Miss Nettie Warfel, of Golden, Colo., who spent last week at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Nancy Timmons, left Saturday night for Terre Haute, Ind., to spend the winter with relatives. Nathan and Cloe Carter, of Abilene, visited J. T. Packer's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Morry Willis, of Beaumont, visited over Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Willis. Mrs. Clay Kendall, enjoyed a visit from her aunt, Miss G. J. Blodgett, and her cousin, Mrs. George Pirge, and little son, all of Downing, Mo., last week.

BERKSHIRE. Sept. 22.—Mr. James Brooken has accepted a position with the Lennox Furnace Company at Marshalltown and expects to move there in the near future. Master Roy Idso was able to be out Saturday for the first time since having a right shoulder dislocated two weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Howe, of Germania, are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Moore. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Powell departed Saturday for their home in O'Brien county after two weeks' visit with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller started Saturday for their future home on a farm in O'Brien county, which Mr. Miller has rented and on which he is going to do fall plowing. Mr. Miller will return to gather his corn and move. James Johnson accompanied a car of his own fed cattle to Chicago Tuesday.

P. W. King spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Des Moines on business. Bonnie Lackey, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Lackey, who has been quite sick the past week is improving. Miss Flossie Lewis went to Waverly Wednesday to attend school.

MINERVA. Sept. 22.—The Ladies' Aid Society gave a box social at their church Wednesday evening. A special feature of the affair was that instead of selling the boxes the ladies' shadows were sold. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nichols and son, Louis, returned from their Minnesota trip last week.

Mrs. Newby, of Zearing, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Stacy Nichols. Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Maxfield and guest, Miss Adella Cox, attended the dedicatory exercises at the new Central Church of Christ in Marshalltown Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Nichols and daughter, Emma, and Ruth, spent Sunday in Marshalltown, as guests of Mrs. Mary Nichols and family.

HAVERHILL. Sept. 22.—Mrs. Rose Lichtenberg, of Dyersville, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pille. Mrs. Mary Kopel, of Parktown, S. D., who has been here the past two weeks, left for her home Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Christ Neuroth arrived home Thursday from Granville, where they have been spending the past two weeks with Mr. Neuroth's brothers, Anton and Nick Neuroth.

James Henderson and B. G. Kopel have bought land in North Dakota. Mrs. Glen Sassen and Rigdena Brockway left Thursday for Parktown, S. D. MARION TOWNSHIP. Sept. 22.—Mrs. Nellie Nicholson entertained the inmates of the old people's home at dinner Saturday. The day was spent socially and with music.

Mrs. David Fry and children, of Zearing, visited at F. M. Wheeler's and C. F. Brooks'. Neal McIntyre, of Nebraska, visited J. L. Nicholson this week. Miss Nellie Nicholson and sister, Mrs. Kate Gooch, left Tuesday for Belleville, Kan., where the latter lives. Russell Smith and wife, of Laurel, visited Sunday at the C. E. Wheeler home.

The Helping Hand Society met Wednesday with Miss Hogan. Mrs. W. T. Williams and Miss Ivy Williams visited Margaret Williams in Taylor township Monday. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nicholson and son, Ralph, of Beaumont, visited Sunday at Howard Nicholson's. J. L. Nicholson and William West, of Marshalltown will leave Friday for Middle River, Minn., where they will visit the former's son, Frank Nicholson, and family.

Novel McIntyre, of Frank Trentman and son, Russell, of Marshalltown, visited Wednesday at the Summer Babcock home. Misses Blanche and Mary Brower have returned home from a visit in North Dakota. VANCLEVE. Sept. 22.—The autumn sees the scattering of some of our choice young people for school work. Wallace Mace resumes his dental studies at Kansas City. Lloyd Gowdy is in the East Des Moines high school. Paul Warden is in Ames, and Miss Julia Warden goes to Cedar Falls this week, returning on Friday with her father from a two months' trip thru New England.

Several changes of residence may be noted. Fred Meyers and Lou Byer exchanged homes at Mrs. Meyers may be in his own. Mr. Leiber's family return to Marshalltown, he having filled his engagement with Henry Pot-hast. Mrs. Mary Shearer starts this week for a winter's absence in Vermont and Pennsylvania, her niece, Miss Fern Galbreath, accompanying her. Merchant Balnes will occupy the house during their absence.

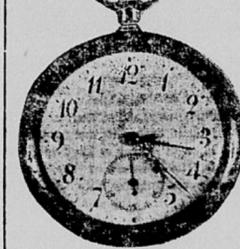

Mr. Frank Millhouse and sister Agnes returned from the mother's burial, to visit their many friends in Vancelev. Curt Tigress is re-pooling his elevator and rebuilding corn cribs to store the large crop that will soon be moving.

MARGARET FELCH, Prima Donna of Isle of Spio; Company at the Odeon Saturday, Sept. 24.

THEY SELL FOR 5¢ LADY GRACE F. M. Lutzend & Co. - CLINTON, IA.

The Real Value of a Watch

Is in its time keeping qualities, and it is the only feature of a watch that you do not see at the time of purchase. Therefore buy your watch of a reliable house that understands its watches and known exactly what may be expected of them.

- Ladies' gold filled watches $10 to $22
Ladies' solid gold watches $20 to $100
Gents' gold filled watches $10 to $50
Gents' solid gold watches $40 to $250

THE JOSEPH JEWELRY CO JEWELERS AND SILVERSMITHS

LITTLE GIRLS ARE HARD ON SHOES

SO it is doubly hard to find shoes strong enough to stand under hard usage, and still look nice and stylish. We save you all the trouble, however, if you trade here; for we buy only that kind of shoes---shoes that stand the wear, look well, feel well and stay that way.

E. G. WALLACE The Shoelist

Hang your wash-board in the attic. Send the boiler up there too. Use PEOSTA.

DO YOU NEED FURNITURE?

We Can Please You New Patterns in All Finishes

Are you going to change your floor coverings around this fall? We have the correct style and pattern at the right price.

TRY THIS PLACE

Howard Wilbur THE BIG STORE Successor to A. E. Wilbur & Sons South Center Street

Remember, we are sole agents for the celebrated

Chase & Sanborn TEAS and COFFEES

None Others Quite As Good

Geo. L. Andrews