BOUGHT A GUN LICENSE. Young Man, Desiring to Wed Gets Into the Wrong Office. Henry Miller, a young man of Albion, seeking a marriage license, got into the wrong office Thursday and purchased a gun license by mistake. The young man had bought a license last year, and when he decided to wed he concluded that he must make application for a license at the same office. Consequently he presented himself at the county auditor's office and asked for one. Auditor Erastus Cornell put him thru the regular examination, asking his height, age, color of his eyes, color of his hair, and numerous other questions which caused the applicant at times to reddened to the roots of his hair. His actions awakened the suspicions of the auditor that the young man was in error, and a few more queries brought out the fact that he sought a bride and not a hunting privilege. He was escorted to the clerk's office where he was made happy.

TISSOT'S CHRIST. The T. R. Offers Sets of Tisnet Prints of Biblical Scenes Free. Every boy or girl who will bring to the T. R. one small ad for the "want," for sale of "for rent" columns with the money to pay for at least one insertion at 1 cent per word will be given free a set of ten beautiful pictures in colors, being copies of Tissot's wonderful bible pictures.

Tisnet, the French painter, spent twenty-five years living in Palestine and Egypt studying the people, studying the bible and painting the principal scenes described in holy writ. His pictures are the most wonderful paintings of scriptural subjects the world has ever known and the prints offered to children free are reproductions in colors 5x5 inches in size. Just the thing for Sunday school or home instruction in making the bible story real.

We have three sets. The first of the pictures depicts the story of Jacob and his son Joseph. The second of ten pictures depicts the childhood of Christ and the third group of ten pictures illustrates the story of Christ's evangelism. Each set will be offered as a premium for a small ad.

The way to get the pictures is to find somebody who has something to sell or rent or who wants to buy, or trade for something. Bring their advertisement to the T. R. with the money to pay for one insertion or more at 1 cent per word for each insertion and one set of ten pictures will be given for each ad brought in.

DR. STEWART ON HOLY SPIRIT. Evangelist Greeted by Good Audience in Spite of Rain. In spite of the rain storm Dr. Stewart was greeted by a good sized audience at the Presbyterian church Friday evening. His theme was "The Endowment of the Holy Spirit." He declared this to be the need of the church today and that we must depend less on human machinery and more on divine power to save the world. He enforced his argument with many illustrations from the bible, history and his experience.

Services will be held at 7:30 o'clock tonight. Three meetings at 10:30 a. m., 3 and 7:30 p. m. will be held tomorrow. Dr. Stewart will preach. The meetings are free to the public.

MARRIED. Miller-Stockmeier. Henry Miller, of near Albion, and Miss Oka Stockmeier, of St. Anthony, were married at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon in the office of the officiating justice, S. E. Peck. Mr. and Mrs. Miller will reside on a farm four miles west of Albion.

Price Funeral at Albion. The body of Charles C. Price, the 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Price, of Cedar Rapids, was taken to Albion at 10 o'clock this morning for burial, short services being held at the grave, in charge of Rev. F. E. Smith, of the Second Church of Christ, of Cedar Rapids. Merle Price died at 2:30 Thursday afternoon of stomach and heart trouble. The family resided in the city prior to three or four years ago, at 303 Summit street. Aside from the parents the deceased is survived by two brothers and two sisters, Floyd Price, of Grand Junction, Cal.; Mrs. Elmer Hardwick, of Cedar Rapids, and Ray and Elsie Price, who live at home. Mrs. Price is a sister of Mrs. John Lundstrum, of near Albion.

In the District Court. The case of Fred Wallace vs. A. J. Clark et al. has held the attention of the court thruout the day and in all probabilities the case will not be concluded before the first of the week.

Licensed to Wed. Henry Miller, farmer, aged 23, of Albion; Oka Stockmeier, aged 19, of St. Anthony. William D. Fanton, merchant, aged 37; Belle Ramsey, aged 35, both of Gilman.
