

EAT WHAT YOU WANT TO EAT.

If Your Child Swallowed a Copper Penny Would You Give It Nitric Acid to Digest It?

If you have indigestion, you require no medicine to digest your food but a remedy to put your stomach into condition so that it can do the work for which it was given you.

Miller's Dyspepsia Cure contains no medicine to digest your food, nor does it restrict your diet, but it cures indigestion by conditioning your stomach to perform its functions. For sale by Great Hog Scarcity. The great scarcity of hogs has been for the past year the cause of much earnest discussion among agricultural experts, and the Rock Island railway furnished the special to the Iowa Agricultural College for the purpose of educating the farmer.

Eight Lecturers. The train will be in charge of Professor Cottrell, agricultural expert for the Rock Island, and will carry seven experts from the Iowa State College at Ames.

Special to Times-Republican. Cedar Rapids, Oct. 3.—Riley Collins, a section hand, was unexpectedly launched into the poultry business during one of the recent hot days.

Bad Runaway at Jewell. Jewell, Oct. 3.—Charles Sickenger, a prominent farmer west of Jewell, had a bad runaway Sunday while driving home from church.

Caught in the Act and arrested by Dr. King's New Life Pills, bilious headache quits and liver and bowels act right.

Montezuma. Montezuma has a new meat market, just opened in the McIntyre building on the east side of the square.

Clinton. In order that there will be a sufficient number of petit jurors from which to select the jury to hear the case of the state against Elmer Liston, charged with the murder of May Ringling, which will begin on Oct. 10, fifty additional talesmen have been drawn.

Ames. The fall excursions of the college have been called by the Northwestern. A promise is made that they will be resumed next year, but the officials declare it is impossible to run them this fall.

Cedar Rapids. With the shortest term on record and more old business cleaned up than ever before the grand jury in the district division of the federal court for the Northern District of Iowa was dismissed Thursday afternoon.

Keokuk. Isaac K. Carpenter, another citizen who had spent more than half a century of his life in this city, passed away after an illness of several months.

Keokuk. The two younger children of Mrs. Caroline Colyar, who was taken to the hospital on Wednesday, a typhoid fever victim, are to be cared for by Dr. Jean T. Zimmerman, president of the Chicago Rescue Mission, who went to Chicago with Evaline and Frank Colyar.

Fairfield. Lem Coffman a mail carrier, had an exciting runaway near the Logan school house. The horse ran across the cement walk into the school yard and as it was recess time it was miraculous that it was without serious accident.
