Brown left for Fort Dodge this morning to visit for a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Moffett. Esther and Marian Elder went to Boone Friday evening to spend Sunday with their uncle, Mr. W. B. Elder, and family. Mr. O. J. King, of Zearing, was in the city Friday evening, en route home from Liscomb, where he was present at the race meeting Friday. Mrs. Lizzie Cunningham, of Baxter, will arrive in the city this evening and be a guest over Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Forbes. Mrs. G. L. Hutchinson, of Eagle Grove, spent Friday in the city with her sister, Mrs. E. L. Stoltz, and was accompanied home in the evening by Mrs. Stoltz, who will remain for an over-Sunday visit. The Ladies' Aid Society of the Friends church enjoyed a pleasant meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. M. Ferneau, 702 North Fourth street. Light refreshments and a social hour followed the routine business. Mrs. Charles Gustafson entertained at her home, 206 West Linn street, a company of ten friends at a pleasant afternoon affair. The guests from out of the city were Mrs. Myra Prosser, of Sidney, O., and Miss Aletta Seglam, of Radcliffe. Mesdames C. E. Beaman, Fred Lentz and Ira McCool were hostesses Friday afternoon at the Beaman home, 311 West Church street, to the Ladies' Aid Society of the Central Church of Christ. A social time and the serving of lunch followed the routine business. There was a good attendance. Mesdames W. R. and S. W. Rubee were hostesses Friday afternoon at the former's home, 514 North Center street, at a "merry-go-round," the name for the various branch meetings of the Methodist Ladies' Aid Society. About twenty-five were present, each paying a dime, and a social time and light refreshments were enjoyed. Mrs. H. Mason assisted the hostesses in serving. Dr. J. E. King, of Eldora, was in the city while on his way to Zearing, where he will remain over Sunday visiting at the home of his son, Mr. O. J. King. Dr. King, who is 85 years old, has returned only recently from a three weeks' visit to his boyhood home at Youngstown, O., and to points in Pennsylvania. He had not been to Youngstown in sixty-two years. After visiting his son at Zearing Dr. King will go to Nevada to visit another son, J. A. King. Mr. S. J. Dunn, until recently of Richmond, Va., arrived in the city Friday evening, and is a guest at the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Michaels, where Mrs. Dunn has been visiting since coming from Richmond, with her mother, ten days ago. Mr. Dunn has disposed of his interests at Richmond, and may decide to engage in business here. With Mrs. Dunn he expects to remain in the city at least during the winter. Several from this city were attracted to Liscomb Friday to attend the racing matinee given by the business men of Liscomb. Five events were run, and some good sport was afforded. The crowd, however, was not as large as had been expected. C. W. Nelson's pacer, Gold Coin, got to acting badly, threw himself, and was taken out of the race in which he was entered. Frank Rickart's mare, Westwood, participated in the events. Mr. Nelson and Mr. Rickart were in attendance at the races, as were also Messrs. J. N. Baughman, E. J. Robb, and Samuel Parker. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Leise entertained a few girls and boys at an attic party Friday evening complimentary to the Ladies' Aid Society. The party was given by means of pumpkins, after which all went to the attic where a three-course 6 o'clock supper was enjoyed. Misses Mabel Salisbury and Grace Leise, and Mrs. Wilson, assisted Mrs. Leise in serving. The evening was spent in the attic, where various Halloween games were enjoyed. The decorations were in keeping, being of jack-o'-lanterns and autumn leaves. The guests were Maude Wilson, Lucille Rubee, Alice and Ellen Havens, Wayne Munson, Kenneth Rubee, Ralph Good and Harold Salisbury. Mrs. E. L. Hawk and daughter, Miss Blanche, of Sacramento, Cal., arrived in the city Friday evening from Atlantic City, N. J., where they have been in attendance at the grand encampment of the G. A. R. and the national convention of the W. R. C., and will be guests over Sunday of Mrs. Hawk's sister, Mrs. Naomi Gillings, and family. Captain Hawk, who is an assemblyman from his district in California, is department president of the California G. A. R. and headed the California delegation to the national encampment. Mrs. Hawk was a delegate from California to the W. R. C. convention. Captain Hawk will reach the city Sunday morning, and Sunday night will leave for Omaha, in company with his wife and daughter. The travel department of the Women's Club held its first meeting of the season Friday afternoon with the club president, Mrs. May F. Montgomery, 710 West Main street. An exceptionally interesting program was enjoyed. Mrs. C. J. Scheeler, as a tribute to the beautiful day and the beautiful hour, presented a delightful little poem entitled "October." Mrs. Susie L. White, in an instructive paper, "New York to Naples," assisted the members in getting started on their trip of a year's study travel in Italy by giving all the necessary information from road to transportation. Mrs. E. Sears read a paper written by Miss Edna Sears, on "Naples, Pompeii and Sorrento," which was particularly pleasing, as many personal reminiscences were given, together with views of many places visited. A social hour was enjoyed, during which the hosts, assisted by Mrs. Will Wallace, served light refreshments. Miss Fannie Quaise and Mrs. L. H. Baldwin, the latter of Hingham, Wis., were guests.

Dr. Burkart, osteopath, 14 W. Main. Dr. Grove Harris, of Ferguson, was in the city today. Plenty of old papers, a large bundle for 5 cents at Times-Republican office. Office rooms for rent in Masonic Temple. Inquire W. L. Soules, Woodbury building. Mr. and Mrs. George A. Turner arrived home Friday evening from a few days' visit in Chicago. Kerr, of LeGrand, left Friday for Dayton, O., to visit for a week or two with Mrs. Kerr's relatives. Mrs. Scott Tucker, of Boone, spent the day in the city with her sister, Miss Essie Hathaway, being on her way home from a visit in Cedar Rapids. President L. M. Osborne, of the Marshalltown Buggy Company, arrived home Friday evening from Chicago, where he has been for a few days on business. Mr. James Hall, formerly of this city, but now of Pasadena, is so agreeably impressed with the improvement made on Main street by the electric trolley lights that he has offered to pay for half the cost of a post in front of his building at 12 West Main street. Mr. Martin Roe, of Harvard, Ill., Wisconsin division engineer of the Chicago & Northwestern railway, arrived in the city Friday evening and spent the day here. Mr. Roe was accompanied by Mrs. Roe and her father, Mr. Bell Lewis. The party is en route to Omaha. DR. FITZPATRICK HOME. Pastor of St. Mary's Church Reaches Home After Long Illness. Rev. J. J. Fitzpatrick, pastor of St. Mary's church, arrived home this morning from Chicago, where, for a little over five weeks, he has been a patient at Mercy hospital, where he underwent an operation for infected gall bladder. It was just nine weeks ago today that Dr. Fitzpatrick was taken ill suddenly while in Des Moines, on his way home from Colfax, where he had been since the preceding Thursday. For almost four weeks he was ill in Mercy hospital, Des Moines, and at two different times he was about as close to death as any one could be and recover. Just nine weeks ago this morning Dr. Fitzpatrick, the celebrated Chicago surgeon, performed the operation for infected gall bladder, and found a condition existing which it is feared will necessitate a second operation to relieve adhesions of long standing. As no definite arrangements have been made for the second operation, it being the advice of the surgeons that the patient gain some of his lost strength before undergoing the second ordeal. Dr. Fitzpatrick is feeling well, and looking well. In fact he had not shown his suffering or the effects of his illness to any great extent at any time during his long sickness. Dr. Fitzpatrick's many Marshalltown friends, and his parishioners, will be glad to know that he is home and that he escaped so fortunately from his serious illness. They will also wish him an equally fortunate termination of the second operation, if it proves necessary to perform it.

Harvey Stock Company Next Week. The Harvey Stock Company will open a week's engagement at the New Odeon on Monday, Oct. 17, for an engagement of six nights and a Saturday matinee. This company is well known to the theater goers of this city, having appeared here several times in the past few seasons. The cast is excellent, including many of the old time favorites and some of the best known people on the stock stage. The company has just closed a most successful season in Kankakee, where they ran for ten weeks to tremendous business. The company numbers some twenty people and in addition to a strong acting cast an excellent orchestra is carried which will offer a number of overtures and selections at each performance. This feature of the show alone is well worth the price of admission. The opening play will be the powerful four act melodrama, "The Sins of a Father." This play is entirely new to the theater goers of Marshalltown and one in which this company has appeared successfully in other cities. A number of excellent vaudeville acts are carried which will be introduced between the acts while the stage settings are being changed. This feature does away with long waits common with other similar attractions and adds much to the entertainment. The usual custom of admitting one lady free with each paid 20 cent ticket purchased before 6 p. m. will be followed here and the prospect of a tremendous opening house is bright. The prices for the week will be 10, 20 and 30 cents, while a special ladies' and children's matinee upon Saturday will be given at 10 and 20 cents. Halloween Party. Highlanders regular monthly dance Monday evening, Oct. 17, will be something extra. Some fancy dances, electrical effects, full orchestra. Admission 50 cents. Extra ladies, 10 cents.
