King, of Eldora, was in the city on his way to Zealring, where he will remain over Sunday visiting at the home of his son, Mr. O. J. King. Dr. King, who is 85 years old, has returned only recently from a three weeks' visit to his boyhood home at Youngstown, O., and to points in Pennsylvania. He has not been to Youngstown in sixty-two years. After visiting his son at Zealring Dr. King will go to Nevada to visit another son, J. A. King.

Mr. S. J. Dunn, until recently of Richmond, Va., arrived in the city Friday evening, and is a guest at the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Michaels, where Mrs. Dunn has been visiting since coming from Richmond, with her mother, ten days ago. Mr. Dunn has disposed of his interests at Richmond, and may decide to engage in business here. With Mrs. Dunn he expects to remain in the city at least during the winter. Several from this city were attracted to Liscomb Friday to attend the racing matinee given by the business men of Liscomb. Five events were run, and the crowd, however, was not as large as had been expected. C. W. Nelson's pacer, Gold Coin, got to acting badly, threw himself, and was taken out of the race in which he was entered. Frank Rickard's mare, Westwood, participated in the events. Mr. Nelson and Mr. Rickard were in attendance at the races, as were also Messrs. J. N. Baughman, E. J. Robb, and Samuel Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Lense entertained a few girls and boys at an attic party Friday evening complimentary to Maude Wilson. Partners were secured by making a list of names after which a card was sent to the attic where a three-course 6 o'clock supper was enjoyed. Misses Mabel Salisbury and Grace Lense, and Mrs. Wilson, assisted Mrs. Lense in serving. The evening was spent in the attic, where various Halloween games were enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. George A. Turner arrive home Friday evening from a few days' visit in Chicago. Mrs. Arnes Braddock, of Eldora, spent Friday night in the city, coming to attend "The Traveling Salesman." Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Kerr, of LeGrand, left Friday evening for Dayton, O., to visit for a week or two with Mrs. Kerr's relatives.

Mrs. Scott Tucker, of Boone, spent the day in the city with her sister, Miss Esme Hathaway, being on her way home from a visit in Cedar Rapids. President L. M. Osborne, of the Marshalltown Luggage Company, arrived home Friday evening from Chicago, where he has been for a few days on business. Mr. James Hall, formerly of this city, but now of Pasadena, is so agreeably impressed with the improvement made on Main street by the electric lighting that he has sent his check to pay for half the cost of a post in front of his building at 12 West Main street.

Mr. Martin Roe, of Harvard, Ill., Wisconsin division engineer of the Chicago & Northwestern railway, arrived in the city Friday evening and spent the day here. Mr. Roe was accompanied by Mrs. Roe and her father, Mr. Bell Lewis. The party is enroute to Omaha. DR. FITZPATRICK HOME.

Pastor of St. Mary's Church Reaches Home After Long Illness. Rev. J. J. Fitzpatrick, pastor of St. Mary's church, arrived home this morning from Chicago, where, for a little over five weeks, he has been a patient at Mercy hospital, where he underwent an operation for infected gall bladder. It was just nine weeks ago today that Dr. Fitzpatrick was taken ill suddenly while in Des Moines, on his way home from Colfax, where he had been since the preceding Thursday. For almost four weeks he was ill in Mercy hospital, Des Moines, and at two different times he was about as close to death as any one could be and recover. They will be in the city this morning Dr. Murphy, the celebrated Chicago surgeon, performed the operation for infected gall bladder, and found a condition existing which it is feared will necessitate a second operation to relieve adhesions of long standing. As the definite arrangements have been made for the second operation, it being the advice of the surgeons that the patient gain some of his lost strength before undergoing the second ordeal.

Dr. Fitzpatrick is feeling well, and looking well. In fact he has not shown a suffering or the effects of his illness to any great extent at any time during his long sickness. Dr. Fitzpatrick's many Marshalltown friends, and his parishioners, will be glad to know that he is home and that he escaped so fortunately from his serious illness. They will also wish him an equally fortunate termination of the second operation, if it proves necessary to perform it. Harvey Stock Company Next Week. The Harvey Stock Company will open a week's engagement at the New Odeon on Monday, Oct. 17, for an engagement of six nights and a Saturday matinee. This company is well known to the theater goers of this city, having appeared here several times in the past few seasons. The cast is excellent, including many of the old time favorites and some of the best known people on the stock stage. The company has just closed a most successful season in Kanawake, where they ran for ten weeks to tremendous business. The company numbers some twenty people and in addition to a strong acting cast an excellent orchestra is carried which will offer a number of overtures and selections at each performance. This feature of the show alone is well worth the price of admission. The opening play will be the powerful four act melodrama, "The Sins of a Father." This play is entirely new to the theater goers of Marshalltown and one in which this company has appeared successfully in other cities. A number of excellent vaudeville acts are carried which will be introduced between the acts while the stage settings are being changed. This feature does away with long waits common with other similar attractions and adds much to the entertainment. The usual custom of admitting one lady free with each paid 30 cent ticket purchased before 6 p. m. will be followed here and the prospect of a tremendous opening house is bright. The prices for the week will be 10, 20 and 30 cents, while special ladies' and children's matinee open Saturday will be given at 10 and 20 cents.
