There will be a treat for the fans tonight at the Elite theater, when the film of the late world's championship games will be shown, including some of the most exciting incidents in the greatest baseball event in the history of the world. These pictures were made under perfect weather conditions and are undoubtedly the best ever manufactured. At the Elite theater one night only. Don't miss it.

About forty young people enjoyed an informal dancing party at the Country Club Saturday evening. The piano was moved into the club house, and dancing was enjoyed there. A buffet lunch appropriate to Hallowe'en was served.
Those present from out of town, were Miss Mildred Cruzan, of Des Moines; Miss Patton, of Joplin, Mo.; Mr. Walter Hanna, of Gilroy, Cal.; Mr. Gordon, of

The patrons of the New Odeon have a new treat in store for them on Wednesday, Nov. 2, when Mort H. Singer presents on the date Harry Bulger in "The Flirting Princess," his latest success, which had a run of one year in Chicago last season. "The Flirting Princess" is by Adams, Hough & Howard, the successful authors of "The Prince of Tonight," "The Goddess of Liberty," and "Miss Nobody" from Starland," which should act as a guarantee itself. The Apache and Vampire dances and the Barefoot Chorus may be mentioned as a few of the sensational novelties of the show.

Misses Ona Barber, Vera Whinery, Florence Pepper, Gladys Mendenhall and Clara Ralls were hostesses Saturday evening at the Barber shack, situated at 107 North First street, in the yard of the Barber home, at a novel and delightful Hallowe'en party. Sixteen young ladies participated. The guests were admitted by ghosts, who conducted them to various "haunts" and back to the shack, which was appropriately decorated with the Hallowe'en colors, yellow and white, black cats, and jack-o-lanterns. Hallowe'en games were enjoyed, and at the witching hour a three-course supper was served by the hostesses. The party then went to the home of Miss Vera Whinery, where an over-night house party was enjoyed, and at noon Sunday Miss Gladys Mendenhall entertained the party at luncheon. Guests present

Island, Neb., who has been visiting at home for a few days left Sunday evening.

Marshall Rebekah Lodge No. 40 gave a Hallowe'en party at the lodge rooms Saturday night, which was attended by a company of about 150. The rooms were decorated with Jack-o'-lanterns and corn stalks. The committee that was in charge provided a short program and refreshments.

Mrs. John Skinner and children, formerly of this city, but now of Oskaloosa, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Skinner's father, Mr.
August Bramer of Timber Creek, and her sister, Mrs. M. L. Mundy, of this city, returned to Oskaloosa this morning.

Mrs. W. Westlake entertained at her home, 614 East Main street, Saturday evening, a company of Hallowe'en masqueraders. The evening was devoted to games and music and dainty two-course luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. William Clemens, Mrs. S. J. Tinker and Mrs. S. R.
Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Jones, 807 West Nevada street, entertained a Hallowe'en company of friends at their home Saturday evening. The decorations were in keeping with the season, and the hours were spent merrily with games. In a candle blowing contest the honors fell to Messrs. Charles Baldwin and Roland Keepers, and in guessing the prizes fell to Mrs. Baldwin and Miss May Rogers. Light refreshments were served by Mrs. Jones during the evening, and in them a delighful surprise was in store for the guests, as Mrs. Jones had provided strawberries from her own vines, picked just before the recent freeze.

A reunion of the members of the Canfield family, who live in this city, was held at the home of Mrs. Mary Canfield, 507 West Nevada street, Sunday, in honor of Dr. and Mrs. A. F.

and Mrs. Neri Mershon, Mrs. Mary Canfield and son Leo, Mrs. Elizabeth Canfield, Mr. E. T. Bibb, Mr. and Mrs.
Jud Canfield and Dr. and Mrs. Wohlen-berg. Dr. and Mrs. Wohlenberg left this afternoon for Lyons, where they will visit the former's parents. They will also visit in Chicago, and the east, returning home by the way of New Orleans.

The C. B. Bingham home at 210 South Center street, was the scene of two merry gatherings on Friday and Saturday nights. On Friday evenings the seventh grade of the Abbott school with their teacher, Mrs. Richardson, and her daughter and two of her friends were entertained at a masquerade in honor of Miss Gretchen's birthday.
There were ghosts and witches, cowboys, clowns, harpies, Red Riding Hoods, and the usual class that goes to make up such a party. After they unmasked, refreshments were served and games played. On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Bingham entertained the "Picnickers" at a 6:30 o'clock pigeon pie supper, after which the guests enjoyed themselves playing five hundred.

The Pappe clothing store did the largest day's business on Saturday that they have ever done on a single day since they have been in business. Mr.
Pappe said that he has had some big days, too. It seemed as tho we would never get thru waiting on the people.

Mr. Pappe has been in Marshalltown since 1876, and has always handled dependable merchandise and has given every customer a square deal. He has carried the celebrated line of Hart-Schaffner & Marx clothes which are without question the best ready to wear clothes that are made. Every garment, no matter what the price, is made with greatest care and is bound to give the wearer his full money's worth.
