

GIVE YOUR STOMACH A NICE VACATION

Don't Do It By Starving It Either—Let a Substitute Do the Work. The old adage, "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," applies just as well to the stomach, one of the most important organs of the human system.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a willing and most efficient substitute. They themselves digest every bit of food in the stomach in just the same way that the stomach itself would do it well.

This "vacation" idea was suggested by the letter of a prominent lawyer in Chicago. Read what he says: "I was engaged in the most momentous undertaking of my life in bringing about the coalition of certain great interests that meant much to me as well as to my clients. It was not the work of days and days almost, when at a very critical time my stomach went clear back on me. The undue mental strain brought it about and hurried up what would have happened later on."

"What I ate I had to literally force down and that was a source of misery as I had a sour stomach much of the time. My head ached, I was sluggish and began to lose my ambition to carry out my undertaking. It looked pretty gloomy for me and I confided my plight to one of my clients. He had been cured by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and at once went down to a drug store and brought a box up to the office."

"I had not taken a quarter of that box before I found that they would do all the work my stomach ever did and as a rest or vacation was out of the question for me, I determined to give my stomach a vacation. I kept right on taking the tablets and braced up and went ahead with my work with renewed vigor, as just as much as I ever did and carried out that undertaking to a successful issue. I feel that I have Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets to thank for saving me the handsomest fee I ever received as well as my reputation and last but not least my stomach."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale by all druggists at 50 cents a box.

PIONEER OF COUNTY DIES AT PASADENA

ANTHONY R. PIERCE, WHO HELPED FOUND TOWN OF ST. ANTHONY, PASSES AWAY.

WAS ONE OF EARLIEST SETTLERS OF LIBERTY

Came to County in 1851, and Later, With John Q. Saint, Laid Out the Town That Bears the Names of Both Founders—Mr. Pierce Had Lived in Pasadena Twenty-five Years.

A telegram to the Times-Republican today from Pasadena, Cal., tells of the death of Anthony R. Pierce, a pioneer of this county. Mr. Pierce was prominent here in an early day, and news of his death will be learned with regret by many of the old-time residents of the county, especially those in and about St. Anthony and along the Story City branch of the Iowa Central.

Mr. Pierce, who was 78 years old, had been failing in health for several years, and during recent weeks it was known that the end was only a question of a short time.

Settled Here in 1851. Mr. Pierce came to Iowa from Ireland in 1851 and settled in Liberty township of this county, at what was then, and is now known as Bevin's Grove, four miles northeast of where the town of St. Anthony now stands.

Mr. Pierce bought a small farm when he first settled in the county and added his holdings from time to time until, in twenty-five years' time, he owned as high as 787 acres which, in those days, was worth $30 per acre. Some of the same land was sold by Mr. Pierce several years ago for $70 and the last parcel of 400 acres, which had been allowed to run down, was sold a few years ago for $15. Mr. Pierce's Marshalltown holdings made him independently wealthy, however, and his money was well invested in Pasadena. The property in which Mr. Pierce invested there has been greatly enhanced in value, and his net worth, at the time of his death, is estimated at $100,000.

Was Big Stock Dealer. In the days when he was conducting his farming operations here Mr. Pierce was one of the greatest dealers in live stock in the county. There was probably only one man in the county who exceeded him in volume of business—the late D. M. Moninger, of Marietta township.

Helped Found Town That Bears Name. One of the Story City branch of the Iowa Central was built out of this county. Mr. Pierce and John Q. Saint, now of Princess Ann, Mo., founded the town of Saint Anthony, which bears the names of the founders. The word "Saint" has been commonly abbreviated so that the individuality of one of the founders is, in a measure, lost, but the name of the town is properly Saint Anthony, and is so known officially by the government, as it refers to the postoffice.

Was Native of Indiana. Anthony R. Pierce was a native of Randolph county, Indiana, where he was born in 1830. Four years after he came to this county he married Charlotte Bevin, a daughter of Henry Bevin, for whom Bevin's Grove was named. The Bevin's were the oldest pioneers of the western part of the county and when Henry Bevin died, Mr. Pierce's ownership of his nearest neighbor was James Ballard, who lived near Albion, twelve or fifteen miles distant.

Mr. Pierce is survived by his widow and seven children. The latter are: McHenry Pierce, of Pasadena; Thomas J. of Okonoma; William E. and J. M. Pierce, Mrs. Adelia Ward, of Nebraska; Mrs. Callie LePiant-Gorman, wife of John Gorman, of Eads, Colo.; and Mrs. Mary Smith, of Pasadena. There also survive a sister in Pasadena, a brother and sister in Indiana, and a brother in Kansas, besides eighteen grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. A. S. Phillips, a son-in-law, husband of the late Phoebe Pierce Phillips, lives in Pasadena.

Mr. Pierce's funeral will be held from his late home in Pasadena, and interment will be in Pasadena.

NEWTON TAKES EXCEPTIONS.

News Claims That Charge of Local Football Team is False.

As might be expected in view of the claims of members of the Marshalltown high school football team, that they lost the game with Newton last Saturday because of the unfairness of Referee Hill, Newton refutes the claims and takes decided exceptions to the statements of the local team members. Furthermore, the Newton News, which is championing the cause of its home party, alleges that its opponent on the part of the Marshalltown team. In its issue of Tuesday the News says: "As a matter of fact the goal of the home team was in real danger but once and only then because they were heavily penalized by the referee and avoided a score by the opponents by straight hard football, the kind that the visitors seemed unable to play. There have been many games in this city, with as many visiting teams, and it is the general opinion here that the Marshalltown team tried to play the dirtiest game of ball that was ever attempted here. When Hill, the referee, whose reputation for fairness is unquestioned by broad-minded people, stopped all attempt for foul work, Marshalltown was helpless. They were a heavy bunch, but they couldn't play clean football, the kind it takes to win a game in Newton.

Perhaps, as the Times-Republican intimated, the Marshalltown boys were better trained athletically than the Newton boys, but Saturday they demonstrated the fact that they are entirely devoid of training in good, clean sportsmanship, and according to the Newton way of looking at things the former party is worthless unless combined with the latter."

In the neighborhood of fifty-five lady friends of the bride-to-be were guests, and each gift was accompanied by an original verse of poetry. The hostesses appointed Miss Jesse Hinshaw, Mrs. Clara Hanna, and Mrs. Bruce Moffat a committee to judge the merits of these verses, all of which were read aloud. They awarded the two prizes given to Mrs. Robert Stevens and Mrs. A. H. Simon, and gave honorable mention to eight others. The affair was known as a "nose and toes" shower, and the gifts, which were presented to Miss Sears in a huge pumpkin, covered a wide range of articles, including handkerchiefs, hosiery, soap and other toilet articles, towels and a pair of bedroom slippers, the latter being presented to the prospective groom.

COUNTY'S POTATO CROP FAIRLY LARGE

ONE SHIPPER BUYS AND LOADS FORTY-THREE CARS, HOLDING 25,000 BUSHELS.

PRICE PAID RANGED FROM 50 TO 40 CENTS A BUSHEL

There Was a Marked Drop in the Price Seen After the Season Opened—County's Total Crop Was Several Hundred Thousand Bushels—Buying Season About Over.

That the potato crop of Marshall county was much larger than expected during the summer is evident from the shipments of potatoes made out of the county during the past month or more. The total crop of the county will aggregate several hundred thousand bushels. One buyer alone has bought and shipped from the county forty-three cars, a total of 25,000 bushels. The last of these cars was loaded this week.

Price Was Rather Low. The price paid by this buyer was about the average paid by others who bought and shipped potatoes from the county. During the early part of the season the buyers were paying 50 cents a bushel, but gradually the market dropped. Recently buyers have been paying only 40 cents. The average price paid for the crop, which was bought for shipment was about 44 or 45 cents.

The buyers referred to shipped most of the potatoes he bought outside the state. Some went to southern Iowa points, but the most of them were consigned to Kansas, Missouri, southern Illinois and South Dakota.

GREAT TRIP FOR COLE.

Soldiers' Home Chaplain Visits Scenes of Boyhood in Wisconsin. Chaplain Jesse Cole, of the soldiers' home, arrived home Tuesday evening from one of the most delightful two weeks' trips he has ever experienced in his life. The trip was to his old home in Wisconsin, where he visited the scenes of his boyhood and met many people whom he had known as children, including several schoolmates. The trip was not without its sad features, however, for there were many of the old faces missing, and in their memory the chaplain found headstones and markers in the old home cemetery, where are buried Chaplain Cole's parents and sisters. Mr. Cole visited his three brothers, all of whom are ministers of the gospel.

After a short stay in Milwaukee, Sheboygan, and Plymouth, Wis., where he visited relatives and friends, Chaplain Cole went to Neenah to see his oldest brother, Rev. J. D. Cole, who has been a member of the same Methodist conference for over forty years. A week ago Sunday Chaplain Cole preached in his brother's church, and the two brother-pastors officiated at the communion service. The day following, at Appleton, Mr. Cole visited Lawrence college, where, in the spring of 1881, before Fort Sumner was fired upon, he entered for his college career, only to leave school shortly afterward for his four years' service at the front. At Neenah on the next evening Mr. Cole delivered a patriotic lecture under the auspices of the Epworth League.

At Oshkosh, Wis., Chaplain Cole visited an old schoolmate, John Hicks, editor and proprietor of the Daily Northwestern, and ex-minister to Chile. At Pardeeville Mr. Cole visited his brother, Rev. J. B. Cole, an old-time Methodist pastor, and at West Salem visited his youngest brother, Rev. T. W. Cole, pastor of the Congregational church of that place. On last Sunday, in his brother's pulpit, Rev. Mr. Cole preached both morning and evening, and in his morning audience were six of his old comrades. The W. R. C. attended the service in a body and served a dinner for the veteran members of the audience following the sermon.

Mr. Cole went from West Salem to LaCrosse, where he visited an old schoolmate, Rev. Henry Paville, who has been pastor of the Congregational church of that city for twenty-five years.

TALK NEW FIRE STATION.

Some Think Building Should Be Built on Boone Street.

At the call of Chairman A. A. Novotny the police and fire committee of the city council met Tuesday afternoon to discuss the building of a new fire station to replace the present south side station, which is in a bad state of repair. It developed that there is a strong feeling that the building, when built, should be placed on the city's lot on East Boone street, between Third and Fourth avenues. By putting the building on Boone street it is claimed that the city can avoid building a third station in the eastern factory district, as both the southern and eastern districts could be served from the Boone street station. This would be especially true, it is pointed out by those favoring the Boone street site, if a viaduct is placed over Third avenue or the Iowa Central decides to move its yards toward the east.

No action on the matter was taken by the committee, but the situation will be placed before the council, probably at its next meeting.
