MARSHALL COUNTY GOES FOR PORTER

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR CARRIES COUNTY BY 150 OVER CARROLL.

RETURNS ON OTHER OFFICES ARE INCOMPLETE

In Most Instances Four Precincts, Including Three City Wards, Are Missing—Parker Leads For Judge—Good, Cosson and Thorne Probably Carry County—Daly Likely Elected.

With complete returns from the county on governor, Porter, democrat, has a plurality over Carroll of 150.

With three city wards and the soldiers' home missing, Palmer and Thorne, for railroad commissioners, lead Jones and Dewey by close to 500 and 700 votes, respectively, Thorne leads.

With two wards and the soldiers' home missing, Cosson, for attorney general, leads Walters by 553 votes, indicating he will carry the county.

Congressman Good will carry the county. With three wards and the soldiers' home missing his plurality over Huber is 619.

With the same precincts out Parker, for judge, leads Bradshaw by 235 and Nichols by 231.

With the same precincts short the indications are that Daly, for county attorney, will win, or come close to winning over Caswell. His plurality, exclusive of the four missing precincts, is 171.

By the close margin of 150 votes Porter, democratic candidate for governor, carried old rock-ribbed republican Marshall county over Carroll. The result was a landslide and marks an epoch in county politics, as it has been many years since the county gave a democratic candidate for governor a plurality.

The result, which includes complete returns for this office, shows a tremendous falling off in the republican vote, and a substantial democratic gain. The total vote for Porter was 2,242 and for Carroll 2,092. The county in 1898 gave Carroll for governor, 3,322 and White, democrat, 1,747. This is a republican falling off of 1,230 and a democratic gain of 495. The result shows plainly that not so many republicans voted for the democratic candidate for governor as those who did not vote at all.

Vote on Head of Ticket by Precincts. The vote on the head of the state ticket by precincts was complete by noon, and is as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Precinct Name and Vote. Includes Carroll, Porter, Bangor, Eldon, Greencastle No. 1, Greencastle No. 2, Iowa, Jefferson No. 1, Jefferson No. 2, LeGrand No. 1, LeGrand No. 2, Liberty, Linn No. 1, Linn No. 2, Liscomb, Logan No. 1, Logan No. 2, Marietta, Marion, Minerva, State Center, Taylor, Timber Creek, Wagon Wheel, Washington, Marshalltown, First ward, Second ward, Third ward, Fourth ward, Fifth ward.

Totals... 2092 2242 Porter's plurality—150. Thorne Leads, Returns Incomplete.

With the First, Second and Third wards missing, also the soldiers' home still out, Thorne and Palmer, for railroad commissioners, will probably carry the county. With these precincts missing Thorne led Palmer by 261, Dewey by 711, and Jones by 731.

The total vote of the precincts is as follows: Thorne... 1,503 Palmer... 1,392 Dewey... 792 Jones... 722 Cosson Has Good Lead.

The indications are that George Cosson, for attorney general, will carry the county over Walters, of Toledo. With only the Second and Third wards and the soldiers' home missing Cosson had the comfortable margin of 553 over his democratic opponent. The vote with these precincts missing is: Cosson... 1,571 Walters... 1,018 Good in the Lead.

Congressman James W. Good, of Cedar Rapids, will undoubtedly carry the county for his re-election over S. C. Huber, of Tama, the democratic candidate. With the First, Second and Third wards and the soldiers' home out Good had a plurality over Huber of 619. Presuming that the missing precincts go against Good, which is not at all likely, it is scarcely probable that this lead will be overcome. The vote is: Good... 1,447 Huber... 825 Parker Leads for Judgeship.

With Judge Parker in the lead and Judge C. B. Bradshaw and Clarence Nichols running neck and neck, the chances are that Parker will carry the county. The returns are incomplete, however, with the First, Second and Third wards and the soldiers' home missing. Without these precincts Parker leads Bradshaw by 235 and Nichols by 231. The vote is as follows: Parker... 1,385 Nichols... 1,154 Bradshaw... 1,150 Daly Leads Caswell.

Unless C. C. Caswell, the republican candidate for county attorney, carries the First, Second and Third wards and the soldiers' home, or most of them by a substantial plurality, Anthony C. Daly, the democratic candidate, will be elected. The four precincts mentioned are missing, but the indications are that Daly might carry any one or more of them. This is based on the fact that he carried the Fourth and Fifth wards by a plurality of 146 over Caswell. Not including the four missing precincts Daly leads Caswell by 171. The vote was: Daily... 1,286 Caswell... 1,115 Rest of Ticket Republican.

The above constitute all of the real contests in the state district and county tickets. Aside from Caswell none of the other republican candidates for county offices are in danger, and the entire county ticket, with the possible exception of county attorney, will be elected by substantial margins.

Something of a fight was made on Sheriff A. A. Nicholson, but he will win over Gie, the democratic candidate by a plurality that will average well with the other republican candidates.

CHICKASAW VETERAN DEAD. Albert Titus, of Iowa, Dies at Soldiers' Home.

Albert Titus, aged 73, a member of the soldiers' home from Iowa, Chickasaw county, died at the home hospital at 7:15 Tuesday night of peritonitis. He entered the home from Iowa Dec. 4, 1902. Rev. Jesse Cole, chaplain of the home, was the veteran's guardian.

Mr. Titus was a native of New York state, where he was born in 1837. He enlisted in Company B, 10th Wisconsin Infantry, in October, 1861, at Fond du Lac, and was discharged in October, 1865, at Mobile, Ala.

Mr. Titus is survived by three daughters, Annie and Julia, at Iowa, and Elsie, of Eldora. A divorced wife, Mrs. Lucy Titus, lives at Iowa.

Teachers Give Showers for Miss Sears. A dozen of the teachers, members of the present corps at the Anson school and those formerly associated with Miss Edna Sears when she taught in that building, recently gave a delightful pre-nuptial fair complimentary to Miss Sears, Monday evening at the home of Miss Gertrude Miller, 410 West Boone street. Miss Sears was first given a handkerchief shower, and later presented with various other articles useful to a housewife, such as dust caps, dust clothes, towels, etc., each one taking with her some article which could be made in half an hour. Later an interesting book was compiled and illustrated, each one finding directions as to her share in the work on hearts hidden throughout the rooms. Various other amusing games in which all participated were enjoyed.

The decorations throughout were of red and white, and in the dining room, where hearts were profusely used, were particularly pretty. A two-course lunch was enjoyed. Miss Sara Ray and Miss Reba Whitney doing the serving. At the table, original verses of poetry were written to accompany various articles of an amusing nature which were presented to the bride-elect. Those participating were Misses Edna Sears, Gertrude Miller, Alice Lincoln, Ethel Havens, Nellie Stewart, Margaret Thompson, Teresa Butler, Reba Whitney, Della Rhoades, Sara Ray, Lucy Trusler and Helen Pillsbury, and Mrs. N. F. Miller. Miss Georgia Stone, who was unable to be present, and Miss Elsie Welker, now a student at Drake, were also included in the affair.

BOULDER PASTOR'S TESTIMONIAL. Speaks in High Terms of Evangelist J. M. Beadles.

The pastor of the Boulder, Colo., Methodist church, where Evangelist J. M. Beadles held a series of revival services, has published in his church bulletin a testimonial to the evangelist. The pastor says: "J. M. Beadles has now been with us three weeks. He has won a way into the hearts of the people by his Christian character, his preaching ability and great fervor. We have been especially favored by his presence and wish him much success in his next field of endeavor. It is perhaps idle for us to compare evangelists, but the temptation is strong to say that Mr. Beadles is among the most eloquent and incisive evangelists of America. He is of the scholarly temperament, has a clean cut presentation of his theme, knows the science of the spiritual life and is skillful in dissecting the sins of men. He at times becomes very dramatic and sweeps a congregation off its feet by a swift rush of eloquence. He is a winner of souls and we of Boulder will remember him for his moving message."

At the afternoon meeting today Mr. Beadles spoke on "Getting Men into the Kingdom of God, and Getting the Kingdom Into Men." Tonight his subject will be "Is God an Anarchist?" At the afternoon meeting Thursday Mr. Beadles' subject will be "One of God's Big Ifs."

PLAYS OTTUMWA SATURDAY. Marshalltown High School Football Team to Meet Wapello Team.

The Marshalltown high school football team will meet the fast Ottumwa eleven on Saturday at Ottumwa. After its superior work on the gridiron last Saturday, which was strongly indicative of a reversal of form, the team has hopes of winning from the Ottumwa eleven. Ottumwa likewise expects to win, although it is claimed there that the game will likely be close. East Des Moines, which Marshalltown held to a 0 to 6 score last Saturday, defeated Ottumwa earlier in the season by a decisive score, but the Ottumwa team, it is claimed, has been strengthened and has improved since it met East High.

SHELDON'S LECTURE A BUSINESS TREAT

"THE SCIENCE OF MODERN BUSINESS BUILDING" BEFORE SEARCHLIGHT CLUB.

LOYALTY, SERVICE AND FAITH BASIC PRINCIPLES

Head of Chicago School of Salesmanship Speaks to Business Men of City at Y. M. C. A.—Power is in Keeping Business More Than Merely Getting It—Other Features of Address.

One hundred fifty business men of the city, including the members of the Searchlight Club and their guests, members of the Marshalltown Club, heard at the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday night what was without doubt the best address on a business subject ever delivered in this city. Taking as his subject "The Science of Modern Business Building," Mr. Arthur Frederick Sheldon, of Chicago, held for two hours the undivided attention of an audience that was naturally anxious to get away and hear the election returns.

Dealing to the very basic principles of business success, Mr. Sheldon's address was full of shrewd business truths, so-called horse sense, and the requirements that are necessary for success in business.

Put Business on Broad Lines. His principles have their foundation on high planes and broad lines looking forward to the holding of business and the development of future business rather than immediate profits. The speaker's definition of his subject was "The art or power of securing a permanent and profitable patronage," which he said was "more in the power of keeping business than of merely getting it." Taking his sub-topical as his real theme he picked it to pieces and analyzed it word by word.

Every One a Salesman. "Regardless of what they may be doing, he said were salesmen, whether what they had to sell was their labor, their knowledge, or merchandise. "I believe in advertising," he declared, "but the greatest advertisement is the wagging tongue of satisfied patrons."

Touching on honesty in business he said, "the square deal is the most profitable method for permanent business building. It pays to do those things that bind our patrons to us."

"The matter of the power of making money," he said, "does not depend on itself. It is in conformity with the laws of compensation."

Secret of Selling Success. Assuming that all business belongs to the class of salesmanship, Mr. Sheldon said it depended upon three great principles. These were "man know thyself," "know the other fellow," "apply that knowledge."

He subdivided them into four grades, according to efficiency all classes of labor, which he characterized as the indifferent class, the student class, the artist and the masters.

Among the great requirements for success, he said, were loyalty and service, and faith. Without abiding loyalty there can be no great success, he said, and the greatest success he added was the compensation for the greatest service—the supplying of the needs of the business, the employer or the community that the individual served. Faith was a great asset and an equally great necessity. By faith he meant faith in self and in one's ability.

"Service," he declared, "is cause, profit is the effect. Service is the fire, money is the heat from the fire."

Mr. Sheldon punctuated his address with a number of illustrations which had most apt applications to the subject, and which included several funny stories.

After the address the audience went to the Marshalltown Club rooms where election returns were being received.

MCDONALD-SINNETT WEDDING. Former Marshalltown Man Takes Bride at Gilmore City.

At St. John's Catholic church, Gilmore City, at 8 o'clock this morning, was celebrated the marriage of Mr. John E. McDonald, formerly of this city, and Miss Julia A. Sinnett, a well-known and prominent young woman of Gilmore City.

Rev. Father Butler performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The bride was accompanied by her niece, Miss Mae Ford, as maid of honor, and Mr. McDonald's best man was Mr. W. J. Flannery, of Des Moines. The bridal party entered as Miss Ursula Ryan, of Fort Dodge, began the wedding march. Nuptial high mass was sung by the choir directly following the ceremony, and Miss Ryan played Mendelssohn's march as the bridal party left the altar.

The church was beautifully decorated with pink and white chrysanthemums, with a background of green ferns. Innumerable candles lighted the three altars.

The bride's gown was a lovely creation of white satin and Irish point lace. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Her long tulle veil was caught up with white rosebuds and she wore a corsage bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Ford wore white liberty silk over pink, with a picture hat, and carried pink roses.

Following the wedding a four-course breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother by Miss Ryan, Miss Rose McCormack, of Pocahontas, and Miss Charlotte Ford, the latter a niece of the bride.

Miss Sinnett comes from one of the well-known and oldest families of Gilmore City, where she has a wide circle of friends. She has been prominent in social and educational circles, and has been a teacher in the schools of her home town and Rolle. She is also an accomplished musician and has been a leader in the musical circles of Gilmore City. Mr. McDonald is well known here. He was formerly of Vinton, and came to this city as a drug clerk. Later he entered business for himself under the firm name of McDonald & Mahood. He was honored by the voters of the first ward by his election as councilman from that precinct. At present he is employed as a traveling salesman for the Des Moines Drug Company in northern Iowa territory. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald left this afternoon for Chicago, and will visit there and at points farther east for a few weeks. They will be at home to their friends at North Cadwell avenue, Eagle Grove, after Dec. 15.

Boy Has Appendicitis. Ingolf Peterson, aged 18, a clerk for Lyle Young, and son of Peter Peterson, 108 South Fourth avenue, was taken to St. Thomas hospital this forenoon for an operation for appendicitis, to be performed this afternoon. The case is a recurrent one, and the attack this morning, which was a very severe case, is the third or fourth the young man has had.

Schools Close For Funeral. Because S. P. Gilron, who died at State Center Thursday, was a member of the school board, the public schools of State Center will be closed Thursday afternoon for the funeral.

Case of Scarlet Fever. Marjorie, the 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Whitney, 211 Anson street, is ill of scarlet fever. The house was quarantined today.

Early Training Remembered. The late Senator Gorman of Maryland once sent his son on a political mission. If young Gorman found certain conditions satisfactory he was to wire back the single word "Yes." The telegram duly arrived but was lost for a day among other papers on the old man's desk. When he found it he had forgotten what the "yes" stood for. He wired to his son, "Yes, what?" Young Gorman remembered his early training in parental respect and wired back, "Yes, sir."

No Light Needed. Irate Pa—Did you tell that young man who calls on you every night I was going to have the gas turned off promptly at 10 p. m.?

Daughter—Yes, papa.

Irate Pa—And what did he say to that?

Daughter—He said he would consider it a personal favor if you would have it turned off at 8:30.

COMMUNICATION OF SMALLPOX. Plaintiff in Franklin vs. Butcher, 129 Southwestern Reporter, 428, brought an action to recover for the loss of wages of her minor son, and for money expended while he was suffering from smallpox contracted thru the negligence of defendant. Plaintiff's first husband, the minor's father, was dead.

but at the time she had again married. The court, in passing upon the plaintiff's right to recover such wages, held that it was not necessary that the mother should employ the son at a fixed wage to establish the relation of master and servant between them, as it grew out of the relation of the parties; that after the death of the father the duty to support the son devolved upon the mother, and she then became entitled to his wages as a corollary to the duty to support him. It was also held that if defendant negligently and carelessly communicated the disease to the son it was immaterial whether it was done willfully or intentionally, and also as to how it was done if it was negligently done. The plaintiff's husband in a companion case, Hendricks vs. Butcher, 129 Southwestern Reporter, 431, recovered for the communication of smallpox to his entire family.

CORPORATION BEFORE JURY. The United States circuit court in its American Sugar Refining Company, 178 Federal Reporter, 168, held, where a subpoena duces tecum was directed against a corporation requiring it to appear before the United States grand inquest in considering alleged violation act congress July 2, 1890, c. 447, § 2 Stat. 209 (U. S. Comp. Stat. 1901, p. 3100), to protect trade and commerce against unlawful restraint and monopolies, requiring the corporation to bring and produce two of its books of account showing entries of investments by the corporation in the stock of another corporation, that the corporation could not avail itself of the privilege of a witness under Const. U. S. Amend. 5, declaring that no person shall be compelled in a criminal case to be a witness against himself.

CHANGING SENTIMENT. Oliver Goldsmith's "Deserted Village," speaks of a certain chapel where those who went to seek, remained to pray. So in life one often laughs at what he does not understand and later, when he does understand, his laugh turns to praise. There were some who doubted the merits of Newman's "Heripside," the scalp germicide and hair-dresser; but since they have tried it, they are now among its best friends and strongest endorsers. Heripside kills the germ that eats the hair off at the root, and the hair then grows again. As a hair dressing it is incomparable, try it. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10 cents in stamps for sample to The Heripside Company, Detroit, Mich. One dollar bottles guaranteed. E. A. Morgan, special agent.
